140th of the General Assembly.

Vol. 33.

HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1953.

No. 1.

SENATE

TUESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1953, 12:00 o'clock, noon

This being the day and hour fixed by the Constitution for the meeting of the General Assembly, the members of the Senate, together with the Senators-elect, chosen at the last general election held on November 4, 1952, assembled in the Senate Chamber.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) called the Senate to order at twelve o'clock noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ROBERT H. STEPHENS, Pastor of Market Square Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray. Almighty God, before whose face the nations rise and flourish and pass away into dust, Thou art from everlasting to everlasting; Thy truth abidest forever and righteousness is the foundation of Thy throne.

In Thy fear was our Nation founded, and we thank Thee that we are citizens of this good land of freedom and opportunity, of riches and abundance. We thank Thee that government of the people, by the people and for the people works; that selfishness has not destroyed it nor corruption ruined it. We thank Thee that our revolutions are by ballot and not by bullet, that the people still rule, that the public conscience still demands honor and decency and that ultimately only what is right can endure.

So, oh God of righteousness, we beseech Thee to look with Thy favor on this Senate now assembled. As Thou dost give us a fresh start and a new chance in a new year, help us to leave behind all the mistakes and failures of the past. Pour down Thy blessing upon these chosen servants of the Commonwealth. Give them humility of spirit, dedication to the common good and an honest desire to be led of Thee. May they be men of vision and common sense, may they know how to say no to the wrong and stand firm for the right. Deliver them from the subtle temptations of their office and may they rise to the highest ideals of public service. Then may they know the inner joy and abiding satisfaction that comes from a job well done.

Bless Thy servant, the Governor, the Members of his Cabinet and all in the public service. In the spirit of good will and mutual respect may the affairs of the Commonwealth go forward. We pray in the name of the Master of men, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRESENTATION OF ELECTION RETURNS

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Mr. President, I have the honor to introduce the Honorable Gene D. Smith, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I have the honor to present the official returns of the general election held on November 4, 1952, at which certain members of this body were elected, as well as the official returns of the election of the Auditor General and State Treasurer of this Commonwealth.

The PRESIDENT. Thank you, Mr. Secretary.

ELECTION RETURNS FOR AUDITOR GENERAL AND STATE TREASURER LAID ON THE TABLE

The PRESIDENT. The return of election for Auditor General and State Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are laid on the table.

RETURNS OF ELECTIONS OF SENATORS

The PRESIDENT. The Chief Clerk will read the returns of election of Senators, and the Clerks of the Senate will act as tellers.

NOTIFICATION OF SPECIAL CEREMONY

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to announce that on Thursday, May 29, 1952, the oath of office was administered in the Senate Chamber to the Honorable Francis P. McCusker, of the Eighth Senatorial District. Senator McCusker was elected at the Primary Election of April 22, 1952 to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of the Honorable John F. Byrne.

The proceedings of this occasion will be spread upon the journal.

RESOLUTION

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, before the oath is administered to the elected or re-elected Members of the Senate, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

REQUESTING THAT THE HONORABLE FRANK KOPRIVIER, JR., SUBMIT HIS RESIGNATION AS MAYOR OF CITY OF DUQUESNE PRIOR TO BEING ADMINISTERED OATH OF OFFICE AS MEMBER OF SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Whereas, it was determined by the Members of this Senate when Mayor Fred Thomas of Sharon was elected as a Member of the State Senate, and presented his credentials at the opening of the Session of 1939, that the office of Mayor of a Third Class City and Member of the Senate were incompatible, and

Whereas, the said Mayor Thomas then submitted his resignation from the position as Mayor of the city of Sharon, and

Whereas, Mayor Frank Koprivier of Duquesne has been elected as a Member of the State Senate in the election of 1952

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, that Mayor Koprivier submit his resignation as Mayor of the City of Duquesne before he may be given the oath of office as a Member of the State Senate.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

MOTION TO ADOPT RESOLUTION

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I move the immediate adoption of this resolution.

Mr. BANE. I second the motion, Mr. President.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

RESOLUTION LAID ON THE TABLE

The PRESIDENT. At this time, the Chair would like to advise that there is not a quorum present. Therefore, we cannot determine any business until we have established a quorum. The resolution will lie upon the table until the presence of a quorum has been determined.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS OF OFFICE

The PRESIDENT. We will now proceed, as the next order of business, to the administration of oaths of office to the newly elected Senators. The newly elected Republican Senators will please present themselves in front of the desk preparatory to being administered the oath of office. Senator Koprivier will please stand aside temporarily.

I have the honor of presenting the Honorable Walter R. Sohn, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, who will administer the oath of office to the newly elected Republican Senators. The Chair invites Judge Sohn to the rostrum.

The PRESIDENT. The newly elected Democratic Senators will now please present themselves in front of the desk preparatory to being administered the oath of office.

The Chair is pleased to present a former distinguished member of this body, presently an Orphans' Court Judge of Allegheny County, the Honorable William S. Rahauser, who will administer the oath of office to the newly elected Democratic Senators. The Chair invites Judge Rahauser to the rostrum.

(Oaths of office administered accordingly.)

QUORUM PRESENT

The Clerk called the roll and the following Senators were present:

First District—Anthony J. DiSilvestro.
 Second District—Alvin Evans Kephart.

 Forty-seventh District—John C. Miller.
 Forty-eighth District—Leroy E. Chapman.
 Forty-ninth District—C. Arthur Blass.
 Fiftieth District—Rowland B. Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Forty-nine Senators having answered to their names, a quorum is present. The Chair now rules that the Senate is properly prepared to proceed with the consideration of business.

REQUEST THAT RESOLUTION PREVIOUSLY INTRODUCED BY SENATOR YOSKO BE TAKEN FROM THE TABLE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I request that the resolution just introduced by Senator Yosko be taken from the table for consideration.

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the motion by Senator Yosko, and seconded by Senator Bane, that the resolution be adopted.

The resolution was read as follows:

REQUESTING THAT THE HONORABLE FRANK KOPRIVER, JR.
SUBMIT HIS RESIGNATION AS MAYOR OF CITY OF DUQUESNE PRIOR TO BEING AD-MINISTERED OATH OF OFFICE AS MEMBER OF THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Whereas, it was determined by the Members of this Senate when Mayor Fred Thomas of Sharon was elected as a Member of the State Senate, and presented his credentials at the opening of the Session of 1939, that the office of Mayor of a Third Class City and Member of the Senate were incompatible, and

Whereas, the said Mayor Thomas then submitted his resignation from the position as Mayor of the city of Sharon, and

Whereas, Mayor Frank Koprivier of Duquesne has been elected as a Member of the State Senate in the election of 1952

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, That Mayor Koprivier submit his resignation as Mayor of the City of Duquesne before he may be given the oath of office as a Member of the State Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the motion that the resolution be adopted.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I note in this resolution that it refers to a former swearing in of a newly elected Senator, a former Senator from my district, J. Fred Thomas. That was many years ago. I don't know exactly what were the circumstances surrounding that objection at that time. However, I can find no law which says that the office of mayor of a third class city and the office of a Member of the Legislature are incompatible. There is some law which says that the office of city councilman of a third class city and the office of a Member of the Legislature are incompatible but, as the Members of this body know, we spent a great deal of time in the Local Government Commission a year or so ago in reframing and redrafting the Third Class City Law. It was the intent of the drafters of that legislation to more or less separate the office of mayor and the office of city councilman. Although they meet together, they are two separate and distinct offices, and there are separate sections in the Third Class City Code dealing with each of them. The only other place in the law that says anything about incompatibility between a Member of the Legislature and appointive civil offices is in the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, as the Members here know, there are many, at least a few, of our Members sitting right here who are elected to two separate offices. For instance, I am sure that the Members here know that we have some county commissioners sitting in this body, and they are elected to the office of county commissioner and they are elected to the office of State Senator and we seat them. Certainly a county commissioner would have more control and more power over the whole of the political subdivision than the mayor of a third class city, which is part of a county, would have over his particular bailiwick.

Mr. President, I don't believe that you can find any mention of this in the law, and I believe it is incumbent upon those who allege this that they prove they can find any place in the law which states that the office of mayor of a third class city and the office of State Senator are incompatible. So, under the circumstances, and due to the fact that there is no such law on the statute books, I ask my colleagues to "vote "no" on this resolution.

Mr. DENT. Over the years we have had many occasions when the question of compatibility of one office as against and with another has come before the Senate. The Senate in its wisdom in 1939, after a great deal of deliberation, determined that the office of mayor of a third class city and the office of State Senator were incompatible. That alone, that act of this Senate, setting the precedent for such action, is law enough for this Senate in so far as the case now before us is to be determined.

Mr. President, so far as the statute upon the statute books covering this subject, I would like to quote Article IV, Section 1, of the Clark Act of June 27, 1913, P. L. 568, which reads as follows:

"The legislative power of every city of the third class shall be vested in a council composed of the mayor and four councilmen. Said council shall be possessed of all the powers heretofore conferred upon or vested in this select or common council, or both thereof, as heretofore constituted unless otherwise provided by law."

By the Act of May 15, 1874, P. L. 186, 65 Purdon's Statute, a Member of the Legislature cannot be a councilman. The question that appears before us now is whether we are to distinguish and drive a line between what a councilman is or is not. The language clearly states in the Clark Act that the council shall be composed of four councilmen and the mayor. To say that a mayor in that capacity is not a councilman is to say that a member of the army, or a member of the United States Army, who happens to be a private is not a soldier because he is not a major. That same determination must be determined here by the Members of this Senate. The action of this Senate cannot be determined by caprice. It must be the determination of men setting aside their personal feelings in so far as their regard for one another is concerned.

Mr. President, when Senator Thomas was asked to withdraw and resign as the Mayor of Sharon, it wasn't a question of the personal regard in which Senator Thomas was held by the Members of the Senate, but a determination by this body that that was the proper and constitutional method of procedure. We, today, are proving that it wasn't a personal disregard or regard for Senator Thomas that compelled us to determine that action that day because, as I understand it, former Senator Thomas will be sworn in today as the Chief Clerk of this body. That proves that it wasn't a personal matter, and it isn't a personal matter with the Mayor of Duquesne, the newly elected Senator Frank Koprivier. It is a question of whether this body will maintain its integrity, whether the constitutional provisions and the Acts of this Commonwealth do have a standing in the eyes of the Senator whether, when it suits the purposes of the majority, they may set aside any law that has been set up on the statute books of this Commonwealth. If today they determine that this man can sit as a Member of the Senate, tomorrow it may be that a Democrat may be elected a Member of the Senate, who is also a mayor of a certain city, and then that same majority will determine that he could not sit as a Member of the Senate. We can't act one way today and another tomorrow. Either we stand upon the precedent set by the Senate or fall by our own action.

Mr. President, are we a body of opportunity or a legislative body duly constituted to uphold the laws of this Commonwealth? Every man, and Mr. Koprivier himself, when he stands before that Bar and takes the oath of office as a Senator says that he will uphold the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania and the United States, and the several laws of this State and the United States. He can't uphold those laws if he allows himself to be sworn in as a Member of the Senate and at the same time holds an incompatible office as a member of the Council, if you please, of the City of Duquesne. It isn't a question of personalities; it won't determine any vote in this Senate as to the future course of the Senate. It doesn't change one iota the determination of the Senate on legislative matters that will come before us during this Session. All it does is say that the Senate when it acted in 1939 was acting within its rights and within the laws of the Commonwealth, and that we here today are upholding the hands of that Legislature in again determining that a Member of this Senate must be a Member of the Senate and not be a member of an incompatible office.

Mr. President, I say to the Members of the Senate that you can, because you have the votes on the other side, set aside the action of the 1939 Session, but if you are right today then you were wrong in 1939 and if you were right then, then you are wrong today. The fact that that act was never challenged proves that in the minds of the men who determined that day that this Member of the Senate should not be seated, or he should resign from the Mayoralty of the city of Sharon, then it is for us to determine today that that action was right. If we don't do that, then we are saying that this body, the great legislative body of the Senate of Pennsylvania, acts entirely upon caprice, acts upon whim, does those things which suits its purposes when the majority so desires.

Mr. President, we can't begin this Session of the Legislature on a cooperative basis if we are going to say that that which was done yesterday cannot be done today because it doesn't suit today's purposes. Therefore, I call upon the Members of the Senate to uphold the resolution introduced by Senator 'Yosko in order that the integrity of this Senate may be maintained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. FREED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of Parliamentary Inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Freed, will state his question of Parliamentary Inquiry.

Mr. FREED. Mr. President, I think I am correct in saying that I must either vote "aye" or "no" on this resolution if I stay in the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will restate that, please.

Mr. FREED. The question is, I must vote "yes" or "no" or leave the Senate floor.

The PRESIDENT. Well, the Chair would advise the Senator not to leave the Senate floor.

Mr. FREED. Mr. President, I believe that the boys on both sides of the Senate know how I stood on this very question two years ago. I made it known that I was trying to get an opinion out of our Attorney General, and it was impossible to get that particular opinion on the subject. In digging it out, I did find that in former cases where there were so many people from a certain town who contested the matter before the city judges or courts, they won out and made the said man resign one of the particular offices.

Mr. President, since that is the case, before walking or stepping off the floor on this particular question, I would like to have it as a matter of record that I stand firmly on the proposition that anybody who has one job should hold the one job, or resign the one he does not want but not hold two of them. Personally, I don't think he can serve two places, and being of that opinion I am going off the floor when the vote takes place.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to advise the Senator that he can escape the premises temporarily if he wishes, or he can remain and vote "aye" or "nay," whichever suits his pleasure. The reason why he votes the way he does is of no concern to the Chair. It is strictly a matter of the Senator's private preference.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

MR. MAHANY. Mr. President, I would like to point out to my colleagues, Senator Freed, and also to Senator Dent, that there are, of course, certain offices which are incompatible. It is up to this legislative body to decide by enactment of law which jobs they would like to have incompatible. If anyone, Senator Freed or Senator Dent, wants to amend that old law, which provides that councilmen and Members of the Legislature are incompatible, by adding to that law the office of mayor, if they want me to I will be very pleased to co-sponsor it. However, until such a law is on the books, we certainly have no right to say that these offices are incompatible.

Mr. President, the office of mayor in a third class city is entirely distinct and separate from the office of city councilman. The Clark Act, to which Senator Dent referred, at that time had different qualifications relative to age and residence of the office of mayor than it had to the office of councilman. We amended the Third Class City Code last year and made about the same type of residence requirements and age requirements applicable to both offices, but at no time did the sponsors of the bill have any idea that we were going to make the office of mayor and office of councilman one and the same. The office of mayor embraces many functions which cannot be performed by the office of councilman. For instance, a mayor might perform a marriage ceremony; councilmen could not do that and make it legal. The mayor has, as I say, many jobs, many things that he can do that a councilman cannot do. He presides over council.

Mr. President, I want to say to my colleague, Senator Freed, that of course he may vote as he wishes, but I would like to have him look upon this question openly. Unless the other side, or someone on the other side, can point definitely to some law on the statute books which says that these two offices are incompatible, then he should vote according to the law and say, by his vote, that they are not incompatible because he has not been shown any place in the law where they are so ruled or so regarded.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will go along with the Majority Leader in one respect. We don't question the age determination of the gentleman from Duquesne. He can serve in the Senate. He is both old enough and I assume wise enough. However, for further authority on our position, Mr. President, I might say that sections of the Third Class City Code clearly state—I think that all of you are or should be familiar with the Third Class City Code, particularly the Member of the Senate from Duquesne who is the Mayor of the city of Duquesne—that a member of council shall be forbidden from holding office under the State or from serving as a member of council at the same time. That is your Third Class City Code. I have quoted Article IV, Section 1, of the Clark Act of 1913, P. L. 568, which clearly states that there is a State law that forbids dual office holding.

Now, Mr. President, let's take a look at the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Incidentally, I want to thank my colleague, Senator Barr, for the use of his glasses. It has been said that sometimes we can stay too long, and what has happened to me is that I have been here so long that my arms have shortened up and I can't see anymore. Page 34, under "Disqualifications," Article II, dealing with the Legislature, Section 6, and I quote: "No Senator or Representative shall, during the time for which he shall have been elected, be appointed to any civil office under this Commonwealth, and no Member of Congress or other person holding any office (except of attorney-at-law or in the militia) under the United States or this Commonwealth shall be a member of either House during his continuance in office." That is quoted from the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, there have been many questions raised as to compatibility of offices, but I don't think that any Member of this Senate has ever doubted the incompatibility of the office of council or the office of mayor. At the time that Senator Fred Thomas willingly stood before the Bar of this Senate and resigned his office as Mayor of the city of Sharon, he did so because in his own conscience, and in his own mind, he knew that to do otherwise would be a flagrant violation of the Constitution and the civil statutes of this Commonwealth.

Mr. President, as I said before, it isn't a question of personalities, it isn't a question of whether it is Frank Koprivier, Republican, or Senator Dent, Democrat. It isn't a question of whether the Senate today is creating a situation that may come up to haunt it later, but it is this question: Will the Senate keep and maintain the integrity and dignity of this body by disallowing the holding of two offices with the Senate's permission? Therefore, I appeal to you Members of the Senate on both sides of the aisle to assume your position as a Member of this Senate and vote as a member of the Senate. Mr. Frank Koprivier can no more handle both jobs than I could handle any two jobs that I select. I know that the people in my county spoke very loudly and vividly last year. They said that I could not serve two masters at one time. You can't serve a local office and a State office at the same time, because they are both legislative bodies.

Therefore, Mr. President, I call upon the Senate to pass this resolution as presented.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I was first elected to the Senate in a Special Election in 1939. This Special Election was a result of the fact that the then Senator Kilgallen was elected as a member of the City Council of Pittsburgh, and was forced to resign from the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in order to refresh the memories of the Members of the Senate and, also, the people of Pennsylvania, Senator Barr recalled the Session of 1939. You will remember at that time the vote in the Senate was 26 elected Democrats and 24 elected Republicans. In the mad desire to control the organization of this Senate, the Republican minority at that time went to the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and used the offices of the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth and ordered its Prothonotary to wait upon Senator Henney of the city of Pittsburgh, or the county of Allegheny. Senator Henney was told by the Supreme Court, and ordered by the Supreme Court to either resign as a Member of this Senate or to resign his office as Coroner of the county of Allegheny. Senator Tom Kilgallen, a member of Council of the city of Pittsburgh, was ordered by the Senate body and the Supreme Court to resign one office or the other, and Senator Fred Thomas, of the city of Sharon, was ordered by the same group.

Mr. President, here we are today; we cannot determine this question other than by precedent and by law. Senator John Byrne, of the city of Philadelphia, a Democratic Member of this group, when elected to the Council of the city of Philadelphia, willingly resigned as a Member of the Senate. He made his choice, and now the question is will Senator Koprivier make his choice or will the Senate set aside all its dignity, all of its integrity, and allow any man to run for any office and flaunt any laws of the Commonwealth.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. YOSKO. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. I ask for a roll call, Mr. President.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. YOSKO and Mr. DENT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—18

Bane,	Freed,	McGinnis,	Stiefel,
Barr,	Haluska,	McMenamin,	Toole,
Camel,	Holland,	Ruth,	Weiner,
Dent,	Leader,	Silvert,	Yosko,
DiSilvestro,	McCreesh,

NAYS—31

Berger,	Kephart,	McPherson, Jr.	Wade,
Blass,	Kessler,	Miller,	Wagner,
Chapman,	Lane,	Pechan,	Walker,
Crowe,	Letzler,	Peelor,	Watkins,
Diehm,	Madigan,	Probert,	Watson,
Fleming,	Mahany,	Snowden,	Wolfe,
Hare,	Mallery,	Stevenson,	Wood,
Harney,	McCusker,	Taylor,

So the question was determined in the negative.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, based upon the determination as contained in the records of the Senate, I assume, therefore, that Senator Koprivier is now making a decision. That decision is that he would rather serve in the Senate of Pennsylvania than be the Mayor of the city of Duquesne, because he has no other decision to make.

The PRESIDENT. I should like to interrupt the Minority Floor Leader to make the observation that the Chair will learn that in just a few seconds when he invites the gentleman to the Bar of the Senate to take the oath of office.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will wait until he takes the oath of office and then make my observations.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH OF OFFICE TO SENATOR-ELECT FRANK KOPRIVER, JR.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair now invites Senator-elect Koprivier to present himself in front of the desk to receive the oath of office. The oath will be administered by Judge Walter R. Sohn.

(Oath of office administered accordingly.)

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in order that there be a full understanding and that there is no personal animosity on the part of the Democrats toward Senator Koprivier, on the part of the Democratic Caucus I wish to welcome Senator Koprivier into the Senate.

We gave Mr. Koprivier an opportunity to make a decision here in the Senate as to whether he would rather be the Mayor of the city of Duquesne or a Member of the Senate body. By voting to defeat the resolution and then taking the oath of office as a Member of the Senate, Mr. Koprivier has determined that he wishes to be a Member of the Senate. We, of course, gladly welcome him and will work with him during these coming months. However, I do believe that the Senate, itself, must sooner or later make a determination as to what the Constitution really means, if it means anything.

Mr. President, I think that this question is so serious and one that must be determined one way or another before this Senate can really act upon it as a legislative body. Therefore, I am going to present a resolution calling upon the Attorney General to render a decision or an opinion. Then if that is not sufficient for this Senate to act upon, that it be taken before the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in order that a determination once and for all may be made as to what is compatible and incompatible in the various offices of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

REQUEST FOR RECESS

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, at this time I would like to have permission to have a recess for a few minutes in order that I may prepare this resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any objections?

The Chair recognizes the Majority Floor Leader.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President—

Mr. DENT. If the gentleman will allow, Mr. President—

The PRESIDENT. Will the Majority Floor Leader yield to the Minority Floor Leader?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. It isn't done very often, but it is a good way in which to begin the Session.

REQUEST FOR RECESS WITHDRAWN

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will withdraw the request for a recess. As I understand, we will reconvene after the Joint Session. At that time, I will have the resolution ready for the Senate to act upon.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland withdraws his request for a recess.

GREETING EXTENDED TO NEWLY ELECTED SENATORS

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to briefly extend a welcome to the new Members of the Senate, particularly those who are serving for the first time. I should like to direct their attention to the "Racquet Club" in the right rear of the Senate Chamber. I am unable to explain how it got that name. It seems to have been lost in antiquity. As one who has been completely indoctrinated in the favors and pleasures of that choice and secluded spot, I give it the highest recommendation.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business before the Senate is the election of the President pro tempore.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it has been my privilege on four different occasions to nominate for President pro tempore of this Senate a gentleman who has the one hundred per cent confidence of every Member of this Senate; one who is very ably qualified for this position by experience, which has been exemplified during the last campaign in conducting the most successful campaign of any State in the Union in the election of General Eisenhower for President of the United States; one who lives in the Capitol City, where we can come and get his guidance whenever we come to visit in Harrisburg.

Mr. President, it is my great privilege to nominate for the office of President pro tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I take great pleasure in seconding the nomination of my esteemed colleague, the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor, for the office of President pro tempore of the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it seems that on such a festive occasion as this there is no moratorium between the contests of the Democrats and the Republicans in the Senate of Pennsylvania. It seems to me that we, the Members of this Senate, are indeed fortunate to have such able material present whereby we have many able men who can serve in this honorable office as President pro tempore of this great Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, it is indeed a pleasure and a privilege for me, as a Member of the Minority Party, to submit the name of our able Floor Leader, the Honorable John H. Dent, of Westmoreland County, as the candidate of the Democratic Party for President pro tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BANE. Mr. President, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to second the nomination of the Honorable John H. Dent for the office of President pro tempore of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any further nominations?

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I move the nominations for the office of President pro tempore of the Senate be closed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. On the election of the President pro tempore, the Chief Clerk will call the roll, and the clerks of the Senate will act as tellers. The candidates are the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor, of Dauphin County, and the Honorable John H. Dent, of Westmoreland County.

The roll was called and resulted as follows:

FOR MR. TAYLOR—32

Berger,	Hare,	Mallery,	Stevenson,
Blass,	Harney,	McCusker,	Wade,
Chapman,	Kephart,	McPherson, Jr.	Wagner,
Crowe,	Kessler,	Miller,	Walker,
Dent,	Koprivier, Jr.	Pechan,	Watkins,
Diehm,	Letzler,	Peelot,	Watson,
Fleming,	Madigan,	Propert,	Wolfe,
Freed,	Mahany,	Snowden,	Wood,

FOR MR. DENT—18

Bahe,	Holland,	McMenamin,	Taylor,
Barr,	Lane,	Ruth,	Toole,
Camel,	Leader,	Silvert,	Weiner,
DiSilvestro,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,	Yosko,
Haluska,	McGinnis,

The PRESIDENT. M. Harvey Taylor (having received 32 votes, and John H. Dent, having received 18 votes, the Chair declares M. Harvey Taylor duly elected President pro tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

VOTE MADE UNANIMOUS

Mr. PRESIDENT. The Chair now recognizes the Minority Floor Leader.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor was elected President pro tempore of the Senate be made unanimous.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ESCORT PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE-ELECT TO THE ROSTRUM

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to appoint the following committee to escort the President pro tempore-elect to the rostrum: the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Chapman; the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery; and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH TO PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDENT. The oath of office will be administered to the newly elected President pro tempore by the Honorable Walter R. Sohn, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County.

(The oath of office was administered accordingly.)

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair requests the newly elected President pro tempore to address you at this time.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, Doctor Stephens, gentlemen, I have no speech to make but I do want to say this. This is the fifth time that Senator Chapman nominated me, and he makes a better speech every time. He makes me a better fellow.

Gentlemen of the Senate, I do appreciate the honor; words are too feeble. If I had the vocabulary of this gentleman here, I would really try to make a speech, but I will try to do the best I can.

I want to straighten out only one thing. I had nothing to do with this "Vote for Taylor," which was laid on everybody's desk because that looks as though I promised to take, or took something here or bought my way in. I didn't buy my way in; Bill Habbyshaw did this. I just feel it was he.

Gentlemen, bear with me. I am new at the job and I will do the best I can. Thank you very much.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF MAJORITY AND MINORITY FLOOR LEADERS AND WHIPS

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has been informed by the Majority Caucus that the Floor Leader chosen by the Majority is Senator Rowland B. Mahany, of Crawford County. The Chair has also been advised by the Minority Caucus that the Minority Floor Leader chosen by the Minority is Senator John H. Dent, of Westmoreland County.

The Majority Caucus, in addition to choosing Senator Mahany as Majority Floor Leader, has chosen Senator Hare as Majority Whip. The Minority Caucus has chosen, in addition to Senator Dent as Minority Floor Leader, Senator Ruth as Minority Whip.

ELECTION OF SECRETARY OF THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business before the Senate is the election of the Secretary of the Senate.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I rise in place to make a nomination for the office of Secretary of the Senate. It is not a novel experience, if my arithmetic is correct, I made this same nomination at four previous Sessions. The only difference might be that I am a bit more pleased, and a little happier to have the privilege of making it today than I have ever been before.

I should like to nominate for the office of Secretary of the Senate an outstanding citizen of Schuylkill County and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, a former distinguished Senator in this body and one who has very faithfully and pleasantly and delightfully served us heretofore. I nominate the Honorable G. Harold Watkins, of Schuylkill County, for the office of Secretary of the Senate.

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, it is an honor and a privilege for me to second the nomination of my very good friend, G. Harold Watkins, for the office of Secretary of the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to nominate a former colleague of ours who served with distinction in this Senate, former Senator Samuel G. Neff, of Beaver County, for the office of Secretary of the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to second the nomination of former Senator Samuel G. Neff, of Beaver County, for the office of Secretary of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any further nominations?

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I move the nominations for the office of Secretary of the Senate now be closed.

Mr. SILVERT. I second the motion, Mr. President.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. On the election of the Secretary of the Senate, the Chief Clerk will call the roll and the Clerks of the Senate will act as tellers. The candidates are G. Harold Watkins, of Schuylkill County, and Samuel G. Neff, of Beaver County.

The roll was called and resulted as follows:

FOR MR. WATKINS—32

Berger,	Harney,	McCusker,	Taylor,
Blass,	Kephart,	McPherson, Jr.	Wade,
Chapman,	Kessler,	Miller,	Wagner,
Crowe,	Koprivier, Jr.	Pechan,	Walker,
Diehm,	Letzler,	Peelor,	Watkins,
Fleming,	Madigan,	Propert,	Watson,
Freed,	Mahany,	Snowden,	Wolfe,

FOR MR. NEFF—18

Bane,	Haluska,	McGinnis,	Stiefel,
Barr,	Holland,	McMehamin,	Tools,
Camel,	Lane,	Ruth,	Weiner,
Dent,	Leader,	Silvert,	Yosko,
DiSilvestro,	McCreesh,

The PRESIDENT. G. Harold Watkins, having received 32 votes, and Samuel G. Neff, having received 18 votes, the Chair declares G. Harold Watkins duly elected Secretary of the Senate.

ELECTION OF CHIEF CLERK OF THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business before the Senate is the election of the Chief Clerk.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, unlike my predecessors who nominated men for various offices, this is the first time that I have ever nominated anyone for the office of Chief Clerk. So, please pardon any roughness in the nominating speech.

Mr. President, I am about to nominate a man whose name has been mentioned here frequently during the proceedings so far, the man whose name is J. Fred Thomas, who evidently had quite a part in the 1939 Session, at least at the start of the Session.

Mr. President, J. Fred Thomas comes from my district. He served, as was referred to, his city of Sharon as Mayor. He also was elected to the State Senate in 1939 and served in this Senate Chamber for a period of eight years, from 1939 to 1947. He is no stranger to Harrisburg, he is a grand fellow and our district is proud in having him as a nominee for this important office. He is a graduate of Ohio State, the home of such great football teams. He obtained the degree of civil engineer, so he should be able to keep us on a straight and level course during the Session.

I certainly take great pleasure, Mr. President, in nominating for the office of Chief Clerk of the Senate the Honorable J. Fred Thomas.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, it is an honor and privilege to second the nomination of my very good friend, the Honorable J. Fred Thomas. When he was here in this body before, he added something to the proceedings and I feel sure that he will do the same now as an occupant of the office of Chief Clerk of the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to nominate for the office of Chief Clerk of the Senate a former Member of the House and a former Member of the Senate, one who was held in high regard by all of those who served with him, the Honorable Thomas Barrett, of Homestead, Allegheny County.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the nomination of former Senator Thomas Barrett for the office of Chief Clerk of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any further nominations?

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I move that the nominations for Chief Clerk of the Senate be closed.

Mr. MCGINNIS. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. On the election of the Chief Clerk of the Senate, the Clerk will call the roll and the clerks of the Senate will act as tellers. The candidates are J. Fred Thomas, of Mercer County, and Thomas E. Barrett, of Allegheny County.

FOR MR. THOMAS—33

Berger,	Hare,	Mallery	Stevenson,
Blass,	Harney,	McCusker,	Taylor,
Chapman,	Kephart,	McPherson, Jr.	Wade,
Crowe,	Kessler,	Miller,	Wagner,
Diehm,	Koprivier, Jr.	Pechan,	Walker,
DiSilvestro,	Letzler,	Peelor,	Watkins,
Fleming,	Madigan,	Probert,	Watson,
Freed,	Mahany,	Snowden,	Wolfe,
			Wood,

FOR MR. BARRETT—17

Bane,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Silvert,
Barr,	Holland,	McGinnis,	Stiefel,
Camel,	Lane,	McMenamin,	Toole,
Dent,	Leader,	Ruth,	Weiner,
			Yosko,

The PRESIDENT. J. Fred Thomas, having received 33 votes, and Thomas E. Barrett having received 17 votes, the Chair declares J. Fred Thomas, of Mercer County, duly elected Chief Clerk of the Senate.

ELECTION OF SENATE LIBRARIAN

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business before the Senate is the election of the Senate Librarian.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I take great pleasure in nominating my friend, my good friend for many years, Charles L. Lathero, for Senate Librarian.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. President, I am delighted to have this opportunity to second the nomination of a very able, very efficient and very fine gentleman, Charles L. Lathero, for the office of Senate Librarian.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I would like to place in nomination the name of Mr. Andrew Bradley, of Bedford County, for the office of Senate Librarian.

Mr. McMENAMIN. I second the motion, Mr. President. The PRESIDENT. Are there any further nominations?

NOMINATIONS CLOSED

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I now move that the nominations for Senate Librarian be closed.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. On the election of the Senate Librarian, the Clerk will call the roll and the clerks of the Senate will act as tellers. The candidates are Mr. Charles L. Lathero, of Blair County, and Mr. Andrew Bradley, of Bedford County.

FOR MR. LATHERO—34

Berger,	Harney,	McPherson, Jr.	Taylor,
Blass,	Kephart,	Miller,	Wade,

Diehm,	Letzler,	Probert,	Watkins,
DiSilvestro,	Madigan,	Silvert,	Watson,
Fleming,	Mahany,	Snowden,	Wolfe,
Freed,	Mallery,	Stevenson,	Wood,
Hare,	McCusker,

FOR MR. BRADLEY—16

Bane,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Barr,	Holland,	McGinnis,	Toole,
Camel,	Lane,	McMenamin,	Weiner,
Dent,	Leader,	Ruth,	Yosko,

The PRESIDENT. Mr. Charles L. Lathero, having received 34 votes, and Mr. Andrew Bradley having received 16 votes, the Chair declares Mr. Charles L. Lathero duly elected Senate Librarian.

OATHS OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO SECRETARY OF THE SENATE, CHIEF CLERK OF THE SENATE AND SENATE LIBRARIAN

The PRESIDENT. The Secretary-elect of the Senate, G. Harold Watkins; the Chief Clerk-elect of the Senate, J. Fred Thomas; and the Senate Librarian, Charles L. Lathero, will approach the rostrum in order that the oaths of office may be administered.

(Oaths of office were accordingly administered to above officers by the Honorable Walter R. Sohn, Judge, Court of Common Pleas, Dauphin County.)

CONGRATULATIONS EXTENDED TO NEWLY ELECTED SENATE OFFICERS

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to congratulate these three very distinguished gentlemen upon their election. Two of the gentlemen are being returned to the two offices which they have so ably filled, and the new face is certainly not a stranger to both sides of the Senate.

RESOLUTIONS

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

If it meets with the approval of the General Assembly, I should like to address the members in Joint Session today, at three o'clock p. m.

JOHN S. FINE.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

JOINT SESSION

Mr. YETZLER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives meet in Joint Session Tuesday, January 6, 1953, at two-fifteen (2:15 o'clock p. m., in the Hall of the House of Representatives for the purpose of hearing an address by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; also witnessing the opening, counting and computing of the official returns of the election for Auditor General and State Treasurer, held Tuesday, November 4, 1952, in the several counties of this Commonwealth; and to elect the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT THE GOVERNOR TO THE HALL OF THE HOUSE

Mr. STEVENSON offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee of three on the part of the Senate be appointed to act with a similar committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee), to escort His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the Hall of the House of Representatives to address the Members of the General Assembly in Joint Session, pursuant to a resolution already adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

REASONS FOR PARDONS

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to present herewith the reasons for pardons and commutations granted from January 2, 1951, to date.

JOHN S. FINE.

(For reasons see Appendix.)

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR

HOUSE NOTIFIES SENATE IT IS READY TO CONVENE IN JOINT SESSION

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms.

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Mr. President, I have the honor of presenting a committee on behalf of the House of Representatives.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. President, we are a committee appointed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House is ready to receive the Officers and Members of the Senate in Joint Session, and to escort them to the Hall of the House.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the committee on the part of the House of Representatives.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT THE GOVERNOR TO THE HALL OF THE HOUSE

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee of three on the part of the Senate be appointed to act with a similar committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee), to escort His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the Hall of the House of Representatives to address the Members of the General Assembly in Joint Session, pursuant to a resolution already adopted by the Senate and House of Representatives.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

JOINT SESSION

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives meet in Joint Session Tuesday, January 6, 1953, at two-fifteen (2:15) o'clock P. M., in the Hall of the House of Representatives for the purpose of hearing an address by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; also witnessing the opening, counting and computing of the official returns of the election for Auditor General and State Treasurer, held Tuesday, November 4, 1952, in the several counties of this Commonwealth; and to elect the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, January 26, 1953 at four o'clock P.M. E.S.T., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, January 26, 1953 at four-thirty o'clock P.M., E.S.T.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

POSTAGE ON LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Whereas, The Post Office Department has decided that the Legislative Journal must be third class matter and has so instructed the Postmaster at Harrisburg, therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Chief Clerk of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be directed to make arrangements for the necessary postage so that the Legislative Journal may be mailed according to the requirements of the Post Office Department, and that the payment of the postage for the Legislative Journal, also for the Bills, Calendars and Histories be provided for in the Appropriation Bill.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

JOINT COMMITTEE BE APPOINTED TO REPRESENT
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMON-WEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA IN THE INAUGU-RAL CEREMONIES OF THE HONORABLE
DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Whereas, on January 20, 1953, the Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower will be inaugurated as the President of the United States of America, and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that a delegation represent the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the inaugural ceremonies to be held in Washington, D. C. at that time, now therefore be it Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President pro tempore of the Senate is hereby authorized to appoint Thirty-two Members of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House is hereby authorized to appoint One hundred and ten Members of the House of Representatives, who together shall constitute a Joint Committee to represent the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the inaugural ceremonies of the Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower.

APPOINTMENT OF TELLER

In the House of Representatives, January 6, 1953.

He also informed the Senate that the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Hewitt, has been appointed teller on the part of the House to open, compute and count the vote for Auditor General and State Treasurer.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ESCORT THE GOVERNOR TO THE HALL OF THE HOUSE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to advise the Senate that the President pro tempore has appointed the following committee to escort His Excellency, the Governor, to the Hall of the House: the gentleman from Clinton, Mr. Stevenson; the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Wood; and the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

SENATE PROCEEDS TO HOUSE TO HEAR GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE, TO COUNT VOTE FOR STATE OFFICERS AND TO ELECT DIRECTOR OF THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

The hour of two-fifteen p.m. having arrived, Messrs. Waterhouse and Stank, a committee on the part of the House of Representatives, being introduced informed the Senate that the House of Representatives was ready for the reception of the President and Members of the Senate for the purpose of listening to the reading by His Excellency, the Governor, of his message and witnessing the opening, counting and publishing of the official returns of the votes cast on the first Tuesday of November, A. D., 1952, for Auditor General and State Treasurer, and the election of a Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Whereupon,

The President and Members of the Senate proceeded to the Hall of the House of Representatives.

SENATE RETURNS FROM THE HOUSE

After some time, the President and Members of the Senate returned to the Senate Chamber.

TELLER'S REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS OF JOINT SESSION OF SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FOR THE OPENING, COUNTING AND PUBLISHING OF VOTES FOR AUDITOR GENERAL AND STATE TREASURER

Mr. HARE, teller on the part of the Senate, made a report which was read as follows:

That the President and Members of the Senate and the Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives, met in the Hall of the House of Representatives at two-fifteen o'clock p.m. this day, and the Honorable Lloyd H. Wood, President of the Senate, in pursuance of the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth, did then and there proceed to open and count and publish the official returns of the election for Auditor General and State Treasurer, held on the fourth day of November, Anno Domini One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-two, in the city of Philadelphia and the several counties of the Commonwealth.

REPORT OF ELECTION OF DIRECTOR OF LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I beg to report that during the Joint Session of the Senate and House of Representatives, in accordance with the provisions of section two of the act, approved the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 158), entitled "An Act creating a Legislative Reference Bureau, providing for the election of the director by the General Assembly, designating the officers and employees of such bureau, defining their duties, fixing their salaries, abolishing the present Legislative Reference Bureau, and making an appropriation," the Senate and House of Representatives in joint session today assembled elected S. Edward Hannestad as Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, and that the oath of office was administered to S. Edward Hannestad by the Honorable Lloyd H. Wood, Lieutenant-Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare, on behalf of the Senate.

APPOINTMENT OF INAUGURAL COMMITTEE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair announces on behalf of the President pro tempore the appointment of the following Inaugural Committee: the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Berger; the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Blass; the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Chapman; the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Crowe; the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Diehm; the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming; the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Freed; the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare; the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Harney; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart; the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Kessler; the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Koprivier, Jr.; the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Letzler; the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Madigan; the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany; the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McCusker; the gentleman from Adams, Mr. McPherson, Jr.; the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Miller; the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Pechan; the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Peelor; the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Propert; the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Snowden; the gentleman from Clinton, Mr. Stevenson; the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Taylor; the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade; the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wagner; the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker; the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Watkins; the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Watson; the gentleman from Union, Mr. Wolfe; and the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Wood.

I should also like to advise those who are interested that there are a few fifteen dollar inaugural tickets available in the office of the President pro tempore.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I would like to make an inquiry. I would like to know if a Democrat is allowed in Washington that week.

The PRESIDENT: You mean you want the quotation; fifteen dollars a piece, two for thirty-one is the quotation to Democrats.

ADDRESS OF THE HONORABLE JOHN S. FINE, GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA

The PRESIDENT. There has been placed on the desks of the Senators the address of the Honorable John S. Fine, Governor of Pennsylvania, to the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, dated January 6, 1953, which will be noted in the Journal of the Senate.

RESOLUTION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, at this time I would like to present a resolution dealing with the subject before the Senate this afternoon, and I ask unanimous consent to offer this resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, January 6, 1953.

Whereas, the Senate has this day, by a vote of 31 to 18, voted down a Resolution requesting that the Honorable Koprivier, Mayor of Duquesne, Pennsylvania, be prevented from assuming his seat in the Senate, and

Whereas, as a result of that vote, the Honorable John Koprivier was sworn into office and duly seated, and

Whereas, this was permitted notwithstanding a previous vote of the Senate in 1939 in a similar instance prevented such seating unless the person so desiring to be seated first resigned from his office as Mayor of the City of the Third Class, and

Whereas, the Honorable John Koprivier is now still Mayor of the City of Duquesne, a city of the third class,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be requested to render forthwith a formal opinion of the legal right of the Honorable John Koprivier to hold and exercise the office of Mayor of the City of Duquesne at the same time as he holds and exercises the office of Senator in the office of the General Assembly.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution will lie upon the table.

INTERROGATION

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Majority Floor Leader, Mr. Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Majority Floor Leader, Mr. Mahany, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Mahany, am I to assume from your objection to the consideration of this resolution that you will not rely upon the opinion of the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Mr. MAHANY. No, by no stretch of the imagination could you arrive at that conclusion. I am just merely objecting to the immediate consideration of this resolution so that it may be referred to the proper committee and acted upon there. Then if they report it out, we can consider it later, but it is quite late now and I do not think we should go into that same debate.

Therefore, Mr. President, I objected to the immediate consideration of the resolution and that is all. That has been done for many years past.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise to a question of Parliamentary Inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, will state his question of Parliamentary Inquiry.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, is the resolution going to a committee or has it been tabled? That is what I am trying to find out.

The PRESIDENT. Well, the Chair merely laid it on the table because there is not yet a committee to which it could be referred, unless it would be in absentia.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I wish to ask further, then, how could we have adopted rules today if there was not a committee?

The PRESIDENT. That was done under the ancient procedure of the Senate, in reality acting as a committee of the whole. When the Chair directed that the resolution be laid on the table, it was put in the custody of the committee of the whole temporarily.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may I say this to the Chair? This is a rather momentous decision, and when the Majority Party laid a resolution such as this on the table, they must not have faith then in what they have done or they do not have faith in the Attorney General of the State. That is just my observation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, there is first a question as to whether the office of the Attorney General has jurisdiction to render legal opinions to the Senate on legislation on the statute books. That is something we should go into, as to whether or not the Attorney General has jurisdiction over this type of thing. We don't know that right now, but I certainly am within my rights to have objected to the immediate consideration of the resolution. I do not know why all these inferences should be made to my objection to immediate consideration.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have not said that the Attorney General has jurisdiction. We are asking him for a formal opinion on this situation.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair may be in error, but I do not think it is the intention at the moment of the Majority Floor Leader to permanently take this resolution from the consideration of the Senate. It is merely on the table temporarily. It looks tired; it wants a rest.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, since the resolution is so tired and needs a rest, perhaps it would rest better if it rested on fifty shoulders. Therefore, I would suggest to the Chair that the resolution be committed to the committee of the whole.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to remind the Minority Floor Leader that you would only commit it once to the committee of the whole, and the Chair already agreed on that a few minutes ago. Is there some particular spot you would like to have it placed?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of Parliamentary Inquiry.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in order to clear the issue at this time and to correct any erroneous impressions, if the resolution is upon the table, then it is within the jurisdiction of any member of the Senate to call it up at any time?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. DENT. Therefore, I think the decision of the Chair is perfectly all right.

SUPPLEMENT

In the Senate, May 29, 1952.

Pursuant to notification, Hon. Francis P. McCusker of the Eighth Senatorial District, elected at a Special Election held on April 22, 1952, to fill a vacancy, presented himself in the Hall of the Senate on May 29, 1952, when the oath of office was administered to him, the President pro tempore M. (SEAL)

GENE D. SMITH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair directs Senator-elect Francis P. McCusker to stand before the Senate Bar.

(Senator-elect Francis P. McCusker came to the front of the Senate.)

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair also invites to the rostrum Judge William H. Neely to administer the oath of office.

(The oath of office was administered.)

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair wishes to congratulate Senator Francis P. McCusker.

Are there any remarks?

The Chair directs the Chief Clerk to have the proceedings of this meeting entered in the Senate Journal when the Senate shall next convene in session.

The meeting is now adjourned.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Monday, January 26, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 4:15 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Monday, January 26, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, January 6, 1953

At 11:30 a. m. Mr. Norman Wood, senior Republican Member in length of service, from Lancaster County, made the following announcement in the Hall of the House.

In accordance with the provisions of Article II Section 4 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, the Members-elect of this 140th regular session of the House of Representatives will meet this day at twelve o'clock noon in the Hall of the House for the purpose of organization.

The hour of twelve o'clock having arrived, Honorable William E. Habbyschaw, Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, called the Members-elect to order and announced, that

This being the day and hour fixed by Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania for the meeting of the General Assembly, the Members-elect of the House of Representatives will come to order.

THE CHIEF CLERK. At the conclusion of the prayer the Members-elect will remain standing in silence until the gavel falls as a mark of respect to the Members who have died since we last met, Honorable Howard F. Boorse, 3rd Legislative District, Montgomery County, died December 7, 1951.

Honorable William J. Yester, 9th Legislative District, Allegheny County, died December 10, 1951.

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Reverend W. Hamilton Aulenbach, Rector of Christ Church, and St. Michael's, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as follows:

Let us pray. Giver of all good things, in demanding times like these, give us men with strong minds, great hearts, true faith, ready hands, men whom the lust of office cannot kill; men whom the spoils of office cannot buy; men who possess opinions and a will. Heavenly Father permit us men who have honor, men who will not lie, men who can stand before a demagogue and brave his treacherous flatteries without blinking; spiritually tall men who live sun crowned above the fog in public duty and in private thinking. We can see, dear Lord, while the rabble with its thumb-worn creeds, its large professions and its little deeds, mingle in selfish strife—Lo freedom weeps! Wrong rules the land and waiting justice sleeps. Dear God, give us men always prompt to prevent wrong as they do right, in Jesus name, Amen.

PRESENTATION OF ELECTION RETURNS

The Secretary of the Commonwealth, Honorable Gene D. Smith, being introduced, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1333 presented to the House of Representatives the returns of the election for Members held on November 4, 1952.

RESOLUTION

ELECTION RETURNS OPENED

OATH ADMINISTERED TO MEMBERS-ELECT

The CHIEF CLERK. A Bible will be found in the desk of each Member-elect for those who swear by the Bible.

The Members-elect will rise, raise their right hands and remain standing at their desks during the administration of the oath of office.

The oath of office was then administered to two hundred and eight Members-elect as follows:

Do you solemnly swear, or affirm, that you will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth, and that you will discharge the duties of your office with fidelity; that you have not paid or contributed, or promised to pay or contribute, either directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing to procure your nomination or election, except for necessary and proper expenses expressly authorized by law; that you have not knowingly violated any election law of this Commonwealth, or procured it to be done by others in your behalf; that you will not knowingly receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing for the performance or non-performance of an act or duty pertaining to your office, other than the compensation allowed by law?

RESOLUTION

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

Mr. HALL offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, That in accordance with the provisions of Article 2, Section 9 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, the House do now proceed to the election of a Speaker, and that the Clerks act as tellers.

NOMINATIONS FOR SPEAKER

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Chief Clerk, we are certainly assembling here today in a beautiful display of flowers. I am sure we are all amazed and inspired by this very beautiful floral tribute.

I want to welcome to the Hall of the House today all these friends that we have as our guests. Come back often. You will find always a welcome in this House. We hope to have a very interesting session; come back as often as you can.

We have today our opening of the 140th session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly. In our national capitol we have elected a leader by the Republican party—to whom the people of America are looking to lead us through these perilous times. Surely if there was ever a time when we needed peace on earth and good will towards men this is it. We are looking to General Eisenhower to lead us into peace and prosperity.

In Pennsylvania, we Republicans have been elected on the majority side. The people of Pennsylvania have given us a mandate to arrange the affairs of this Commonwealth, during this coming biennium. We are facing the problem. We realize the magnitude of the problem and we are facing it with courage and confidence.

To preside over this deliberative body, one of the greatest deliberative bodies in America you might say, because I think Pennsylvania is one of the greatest States in the Union and in this General Assembly here we arrange the affairs of the people of this Commonwealth. The majority is presenting a man who is eminently qualified for the office of Speaker. He came to this Legislature in 1943. He was honored by being elected the Majority Whip. He was also elected the Majority Leader of this House. In both of these positions he served with distinction and great ability.

It was my great fortune last session to be the Majority Whip, and that put me in very close contact with the man that I am about to nominate. I saw him when things were going good, and I saw him also during times of great apprehension. I want to tell you when things were the toughest is when he performed at his best. He has a glorious spirit and a keen sense of humor which was certainly necessary in times of great stress and strain. He showed that he had the leadership qualities and the ability to lead us through the long session that we had in 1951. He has certainly proven that he is the man to now preside over this deliberative body.

It is my great pleasure to place in nomination for the office of Speaker, Honorable Charles C. Smith, of Philadelphia.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Chief Clerk, Members of the House, it is always a thrilling experience to me, again to attend as a Member this most colorful opening ceremony of the Pennsylvania General Assembly. It is so good again to meet all your old and good friends and to meet the new Members who are with us.

I know you all join me in hoping that this session will not be as historical at least as the 1951 session.

I am sure that we are all conscious of the vital importance of this session of the Legislature. I am sure we are all cognizant of our responsibilities and obligations, not only to the people who sent us here from our respective districts but to all of the people of this Commonwealth. It is here in the General Assembly that our people have their closest contact and their closest representation in governmental affairs. It is here that laws and the rules by which their conduct will be controlled are made. With that in mind we should ever be mindful of our responsibility and our obligation to those people.

It seems to me that government has grown so large and become such big business that there is hardly anything that touches us or our people as closely as government does these days. Certainly that makes our duty and our obligation even greater.

In order to accomplish the things that we must and give the type of representation that we must as elected representatives of the people of this Commonwealth, it will take a great deal of understanding, a great deal of cooperation among all of us in carrying out our duties. It will take the strongest leadership that can be provided.

There are many qualities that are required in the person we pick to preside over this Assembly, to bring honor and dignity to it, to treat everyone impartially and fairly. That person must be able, he must be patient, fair minded and just. But above all I think that that person should have an intense desire to see to it that only right is done while we are here deliberating and debating the different issues which will be presented to us. We who served before in the House and have had the pleasure of working and serving with Charlie Smith know that Charlie possesses the qualifications it takes to make a good Speaker of this House. I am confident and I am sure that you know Charlie, and I can say to the new Members that it will not take you long to discover that he can bring to the position of Speaker the honor and the dignity of which this House is deserving, and that he will treat everyone impartially and fairly no matter on which side of the House he happens to be sitting.

Mr. Chief Clerk, it is with genuine pride and with a great deal of personal satisfaction that I second the nomination of the gentleman from Philadelphia, the Honorable Charles C. Smith as Speaker of this House of Representatives.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Chief Clerk and the membership of this General Assembly, for a moment while the gentleman on the opposition side was nominating a candidate for speakership of this House, I felt certain that were it not for the floral bouquets that grace the Halls of this House, he was going to get into a political speech. However, when he extolled the virtues of the leadership of the opposition, need we remind you that we have always chosen sterling characters for our leadership, nation wide—and that has been proven. In the western end of the state of Pennsylvania that has also been proven by Democratic administrations, and I believe we know of the revolt in Philadelphia with sterling quality leadership by Democratic administrations.

However, I am here to place in nomination one who has been chosen by our Democratic caucus to be our candidate for Speaker of this House of Representatives.

We have chosen a gentleman from the mother county of western Pennsylvania, the Star of the West, Westmoreland County. We have selected him for his experience, for his diligent efforts and for the quality that we all know that he well represents. He has served continuously in this House of Representatives on the Democratic side since 1933, having been reelected for eleven consecutive terms by his constituency. They have the greatest faith in him. We too can have that faith in this gentleman to preside over this House, with the judicious temper that we know he possesses, with the fairness that he can preside over a partisan body such as we have here. I would like to place in nomination, and it is a high honor indeed, for me to place in nomination our candidate for Speaker, my colleague, the Honorable James A. Lovett of Westmoreland County.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Chief Clerk, as I survey this scene I do not know whether it is a tribute to the new faces or a memorial to the absent brothers.

I appreciate the temper, the attitude of the majority as they approach the election of a Speaker and I note, Mr. Chief Clerk, their own enumeration of their own equipment. They say, "We have courage." I concede them courage. I concede them endurance. Have they not demonstrated their ability to stage a twelve month travelogue parliamentarily? But I note that in describing their own capabilities they made one significant omission. They did not say "know-how."

The abuse of greatness when it comes to divorcing remorse from power, and I hope for this session that there will be works fit for repentance—It will be the duty of the next Speaker to help take the Commonwealth out from a pit, a financial pit, in an effort to keep it straight. And, Mr. Chief Clerk, I say to the majority, "Shake not your gory locks at us; thou canst not say we did it."

Now as to the veterans of '45, we appreciate the fact that this is about where we came in; in '45, a minority of 99 and in '53, a minority of 98. It is true you have been returned to power. It has been a narrow squeak. Your margin is not as wide as a barn door nor as deep as a pit, but will do—you hope. With your narrow margin you yourselves were amazed. So we find, Mr. Chief Clerk, a goggle-eyed majority timidly clasping the helm of responsibility and we hope that while you appreciate the fact that in the interest of the Commonwealth we will always be helpful, that in this session as in past sessions you will say "ours is the burden, ours is the responsibility" you the majority, "to confront this House and the people of Pennsylvania with a program."

After wandering in the wilderness of bewilderment we are now in the process of selecting a Speaker. I rise to second the nomination of the gentleman from Westmoreland, and to oppose the election of the gentleman from Philadelphia, and in opposing it I am offering you some good advice. You have frequently scorned our advice in the past to your ultimate sorrow, and I want to help you. I want to tell you the reasons why you need this leader on the floor of this House instead of sending him to refrigerate in yonder lofty pulpit.

As for the gentleman from Philadelphia, his ability I concede. To his integrity every Member of this House who has ever served with him will testify. As for his amiable qualities, he can document them himself. That dazzling, brilliant smile is the signal, the sign manual of his character. Why, gentlemen and ladies of the House, when the gentleman from Philadelphia turns that smile on full force the manikin in milady's shop window would be resolved into a jelly quivering from sheer ecstasy. May I call to the attention of the majority that with that smile many a stormy majority caucus has been calmed. And with that smile the gentleman from Philadelphia kept a weary majority on its feet for twelve months—a parliamentary achievement without parallel in the history of this or any other State.

I say to you, Members of the majority, that the loss of that smile upon the floor would be a tragic loss to you. We counsel against it. As I have said, you have neglected our warnings in the past but we fulfill our mission in warning you against repeating your errors.

Resourcefulness is part of the equipment of the gentleman from Philadelphia. You remember how when you faced the financial crisis who came up with the idea of accelerated collection? Who reached out with a magic wand and tapped the fountains of the future and abundant revenue poured forth? Who originated the idea that by rifling the pockets of tomorrow you could pay the debts of yesterday? The gentleman from Philadelphia. And that is the kind of brains you need on the floor of the House—not marooned in the lofty eminence where I now see the Chief Clerk.

How did he balance the budget? With that smile. I say the gentleman from Philadelphia is a great parliamentary leader, and I recall to the majority that like all great leaders he is greatest in the hour of defeat. You will remember, gentlemen of the majority—those of you who were here, at the '51 session, how, when your ranks were broken and reeling, when your pet measure had gone to defeat upon the floor of this House, dismay penetrating your ranks, what happened. The Majority Leader came galloping to the front and he said: "Turn boys, turn, we are going back." And turn you did and gosh, how you hated it.

Mr. Chief Clerk, I do not speak in derogation of the gentleman from McKean, your selection for Floor Leader. Behind that stern and rock-bound front there beats a kindly heart and what we consider a mature mind, but he lacks that golden smile. From the standpoint of the majority, the gentleman from Westmoreland is the sounder choice.

From the standpoint of the majority "Let's be fair Lovett" is the sounder choice. I know how he will operate. When he gets to be Speaker, he will say to himself "Let's be fair" and he will be so afraid that he will be unfair to the majority that he will give you all the breaks and you will be happier that way than with the stern, perhaps more judicial attitude of the gentleman from Philadelphia, who perhaps will rule against you and cure the wound with that brilliant smile.

Ladies and gentleman of the House, this is not all persiflage. I say to you in all seriousness that the gentleman from Philadelphia will be needed on the floor rather than in that lofty, cool eminence, too far away to feel the warmth of that smile. So once again, although in the past you have disregarded our advice, we advise you to make the gentleman from Westmoreland your Speaker and put the gentleman from Philadelphia upon the floor and give him a chance to cure some of the sins of omission and commission that characterized the last session and for which he may have been, in some respects, responsible. No man should be prevented from having the opportunity to repent and give evidence of that repentance.

And so, Mr. Chief Clerk, I again say to you, our logical choice is the gentleman from Westmoreland.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Chief Clerk, I move that nominations for Speaker of the House be closed.

The motion was agreed to.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER MADE UNANIMOUS

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Chief Clerk, I move that the vote for the Honorable Charles C. Smith, who has now become your Speaker and mine be made unanimous and may Heaven bless him.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT SPEAKER-ELECT TO ROSTRUM

The CHIEF CLERK. The Chair appoints Messrs. Johnson and Andrews to escort the Speaker-elect to the rostrum.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO SPEAKER-ELECT

The oath of office was then administered to the Honorable Charles C. Smith, Speaker-elect of the House of Representatives by the Honorable William H. Neely.

The CHIEF CLERK. Members of the House, I have the honor to present to you the Honorable Charles C. Smith, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER (CHARLES C. SMITH) in the Chair.

ADDRESS BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Fellow Members, thank you for electing me to the high office of Speaker of the House of Representatives. You have honored me and I am very happy but my happiness is tempered with the realization that the office carries with it serious responsibilities.

In the course of this session there will be differences of opinion. This is inevitable. These differences, openly discussed, are the life-blood of a democracy. I hope that our words on this floor will reflect consideration and forbearance.

Individually, our members come from many sections of the State, but we must always remember that our sectional interests are secondary. Our first thought must always be for the best interests of all of the people of this Commonwealth.

When political differences arise on this floor I hope that partisanship will never cloud our sense of fairness and justice. Among men of intelligence and integrity, differences of opinion can always be settled by appeal to logic and reason. Our nation has become a leader among nations because men in high public office placed the public welfare above individual interests in time of great decision.

If I am successful as Speaker it will be the reflection of your support and cooperation. I shall call upon all of you to give generously of yourselves toward making this session a success.

I shall endeavor to conduct the affairs of this House efficiently and do everything possible to justify the trust you have placed in me. We will organize promptly. To the affairs at hand we will devote all of the time that is necessary. With your help the session will be no longer than is consistent with necessity.

As Speaker I shall perform my duties with humility aware that we, the Members of the House, speak not in our own right but as the voice of the people of this Commonwealth.

With the help of Almighty God I shall serve as your Speaker to the best of my ability.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced presented communications from the Governor which were laid upon the table.

THANKS EXTENDED TO CHIEF CLERK AND HIS ASSISTANT

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to thank the Chief Clerk, William E. Habbyschaw, for the able manner in which he has conducted the organization proceedings of the House.

The Chair also wishes to thank Mr. Earl Price, the administrative assistant to the Chief Clerk, for the very good care he has taken of all the Members today.

PARTY VOTE ON ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that in connection with the offices to be filled, as we organize, the tellers be requested to record a party vote on the roll calls.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Minority Leader, Mr. Andrews.

The House will now proceed to the election of a Chief Clerk.

NOMINATIONS FOR CHIEF CLERK

Mr. HOCKER offered a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, That William E. Habbyschaw, of Dauphin County, be elected Chief Clerk of this House of Representatives.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to rise on behalf of the Democratic caucus, and the many thousands of Pennsylvanians who have sent us here, to present the name of a great citizen of Pennsylvania for the office of Chief Clerk. I would like to nominate at this time Mr. J. Warren Mickel for that office.

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that nominations for the office of Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be now closed.

The motion was agreed to.

The roll was called and was as follows:

The SPEAKER. Honorable William P. Roan having received a majority of the votes cast is declared elected Secretary of the House of Representatives.

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT CHIEF CLERK AND SECRETARY

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints Messrs. Hocker and Flack as a committee to escort the Chief Clerk and Secretary to the Bar of the House where the oath of office will be administered to them.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO CHIEF CLERK AND SECRETARY

The oath of office was then administered to William E. Habbysaw, Chief Clerk-elect, and William P. Roan, Secretary-elect of the House of Representatives by the Honorable William H. Neely.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the Chief Clerk, William E. Habbysaw.

The CHIEF CLERK (William E. Habbysaw). Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I want to thank the Members old and new on behalf of both Mr. Roan and myself. I want all of you to know that my office is open to each and every one of you. If I can in any way help you, I want to do it. I have had quite a number of years around here, and I am beginning to feel a little like Eddie Moore—I know how to run the thing, too, now.

So again I want to thank each and every one of you, for both Mr. Roan and myself. At any time you have problems don't hesitate to come in. I will try to help you. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the Secretary of the House, William P. Roan.

The SECRETARY (William P. Roan). Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, it is very gratifying and I feel very thankful for being reelected as your secretary. It has been a pleasure to serve you over a period of years. It is needless to tell the old Members that at any time they are in need of anything, either Bill Habbysaw's or my office will always be open. To the new Members I want to say that at any time we can be of service to you, we will be very happy to do so. So, come in to see us. Bother us as much as you can.

NOTIFICATION FROM SENATE

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Mr. Speaker, a committee on the part of the Senate.

Mr. MADIGAN. Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to inform you that the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania is duly organized and ready to proceed to business.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the committee of the Senate, and would like to remark that the Chair wishes the Senate could continue to send this type of committee to the House. For the information of the guests here today, this committee consists of three very well thought of and distinguished Senators who are ex-House Members.

APPOINTMENT OF PARLIAMENTARIAN

The SPEAKER. In compliance with the act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, approved the 28th day of May, 1931, P. L. 201, as amended, the Speaker appoints S. Edward Moore of Cumberland County, Parliamentarian of the House of Representatives.

RESOLUTION

THANKING JUDGE WILLIAM H. NEELY FOR ADMINISTERING OATH

Mr. TOMPKINS offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 6, 1953.

Resolved, That the Members of the House of Representatives do hereby extend their thanks to the Honorable William H. Neely, of Dauphin County, for his services in administering the oath of office to its Members and Officers.

APPOINTMENT OF MAJORITY LEADER AND WHIP

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, for the purpose of making an announcement to the House.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, as Chairman of the Republican Caucus, I have been instructed to announce for the information of the Members of the House and for the record that the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Albert W. Johnson, has been elected by the Republican Caucus as Majority Leader of the House, and that the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Robert F. Kent, has been elected Majority Whip of the House.

ELECTION OF DIRECTOR OF LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. The next order of business is the election of a Director for the Legislative Reference Bureau.

The Chair recognizes the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Watkins.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, it is a great honor to place in nomination the name of S. Edward Hannestad as Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Mr. Hannestad is a resident of Delaware County and I think both Republican and Democrats feel as though there has certainly been a wonderful job done for both parties.

It gives me great pleasure, Mr. President to place his name in nomination.

Mr. POLASKI. I consider it a high honor and privilege to have the opportunity to rise here today and offer the name of a gentleman from Dauphin County for the office of Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau. He is a man of many educational qualifications, and is skilled in the field of law. He is a prominent member of the Bar of Dauphin County and for four years has served with distinction as legal advisor to Hiram G. Andrews, the Minority Floor Leader of the House.

Members, I offer the name of John L. Sweezy of Dauphin County.

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. If there are no further nominations, the Chair will declare the nominations closed.

The roll will be called and the Senators and Members will name the candidate for whom they vote.

The roll was called and was as follows:

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. S. Edward Hannestad having received a majority of the votes cast is elected Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

The Chair appoints the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Watkins, and the Member from Erie, Mr. Polaski, to escort S. Edward Hannestad to the rostrum where the oath of office will be administered to him.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO DIRECTOR OF LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

The oath of office was then administered to the Director-elect of the Legislative Reference Bureau, S. Edward Hannestad by Lieutenant-Governor, Lloyd H. Wood.

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS OF THE SENATE. Mr. President, the Committee appointed to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I have the Honor of presenting His Excellency, John S. Fine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. Members of the General Assembly, I have the honor and privilege of presenting His Excellency, John S. Fine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who will now address you.

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR JOHN S. FINE

GOVERNOR FINE. Members of the General Assembly:

We are about completing the first two years of this Administration.

These two years have been outstandingly fruitful in benefits to the people of our Commonwealth. Great strides have been made for their betterment, but much remains to be done.

Every phase of public health and welfare and of the social, recreational, industrial, and agricultural well-being of our citizens has been augmented or strengthened in the last two years.

The tremendous strides made in humanitarian phases of State Government have been paralleled by an industrial growth far surpassing any previous expansion. This condition engendered one of the most prosperous two-year periods in the history of the Commonwealth.

Our people's income and their employment have been gratifyingly high. A record number of new businesses and industries have come into the State. Industries already here have greatly expanded. In consequence, Pennsylvania has achieved economic progress far above the national average.

In 1951 and again in 1952, Pennsylvania ranked first in the Nation in expenditures for construction, expansion, and equipment of industrial plants.

Nearly two and one-half billion dollars of new capital investment came into Pennsylvania in 1951. This amount went into 677 new or expanded industries and furnished close to 152,000 new jobs.

Comparable figures for 1952 are not presently available, but for the first nine months of last year some 420 new industries added to Pennsylvania's industrial growth. Just how much money is involved and how many new jobs have been furnished from this source in 1952 is unavailable at this time.

Pennsylvania is the only State in the Nation with a recent record of new manufacturing plant construction in every one of the 20 major classifications of American industry. It has been and still is the greatest single contributor among the states to national defense.

Our story of industrial growth is unmatched elsewhere in the Nation. It easily eclipses all previous Pennsylvania records.

This most gratifying story in some measure is the result of administrative as well as legislative energy and cooperation in making Pennsylvania bigger and better.

We have been as economically minded as time and the governmental structure we found under an outmoded Constitution permitted. We propose to be even more economically minded during the remainder of our tenure of office. There is much to be done and in so far as the executive branch of your government can accomplish it, it will be done.

I shall shortly submit to you the results and recommendations of two exhaustive studies on proposals for reorganizing and streamlining government with more efficiency and greater economy in view, together with a comprehensive tax study both made by committees I appointed some months ago. I shall commend by appropriate message these studies to your serious consideration, hopefully anticipating that the General Assembly will agree upon such recommendations as appear to be reasonable and desirable for the public welfare.

I propose to detail the financial condition and needs of our State Government in my Budget Message. That will be presented to you when you reconvene, in accordance with your wishes.

Because substantial additional obligations are imposed by existing laws, the paramount problem in this session will be providing additional revenues. Besides these obligations, there undoubtedly will be appropriations in addition to budgetary requests. Complementary to the tax problem will be the necessity for strict and rigid economies.

Providing additional revenue is indeed a harrassing matter. This is particularly so since we are faced with the overwhelming burden of federal taxation. In the federal fiscal year ending June 30th last more than five billions of dollars were collected by the Federal Government from Pennsylvania. This amount represents 29 per cent of all individual income in the State for that year. It exceeds the State taxation in all State funds by nearly four and a half billions.

These facts, together with the extremely high prices people have to meet, point up the difficulties confronting us. Any additional taxation must be kept to the absolute minimum. That was our guiding aim in preparing the Budget. It is going to require our best efforts to find the needed additional revenue in such a way that we do least harm to our economy and to avoid taxing those least able to bear additional taxation.

In this present Message it will be possible for me to only outline in somewhat general terms our accomplishments in these past two years, together with recommendations designed to see that those accomplishments are maintained and that additional benefits may accrue to our citizens. I expect to elaborate upon some matters in subsequent communications to you.

PUBLIC HEALTH

Our public health program has made significant gains. It is a record of accomplishment most gratifying to me, because it deals primarily with the human equation served by government.

New health protective services have been inaugurated. Pennsylvania's stream anti-pollution program has given us a cleaner State. Our people are entitled to be healthier and stronger citizens. This condition the Legislature and Executive must constantly strive to improve.

A State Advisory Health Board was appointed by me to improve professional personnel in the Department of Health. That has been done. The Department has been reorganized to a large extent. Selection of professional personnel on merit rather than by political preferment has been established. It is imperative that this be continued. The administrative structure of the Department is being revamped for efficiency and economy of operation. Public health power at Harrisburg has been decentralized. Twenty-one scattered bureaus are being consolidated into four administrative units.

County health departments to be established on the basis of home rule were authorized by action of your last session. Butler County has taken advantage of this authorization. The other counties presently are considering similar establishments. I recommend that the Legislature provide sufficient funds for a grant-in-aid matching program which would help further development of these local health departments.

A new division for control of disease affecting the heart and blood vessels in adults was created. This division has surveyed heart clinic facilities in 350 Pennsylvania hospitals. It is coordinating and supplementing activities in heart disease control throughout the Commonwealth. Radio broadcasts were initiated by the Department to educate the public in heart disease prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation.

Cardiac work evaluation units were encouraged following study of the needs of employable heart disease victims.

Pennsylvania now has 17 rheumatic fever clinics to combat this leading fatal disease among young people from five to nineteen years of age. Presently, this number of clinics seems adequate.

By this coming summer we anticipate a supply of new vaccines and serums in sufficient quantity to combat polio wherever it may arise in the State. These latest-medical research discoveries, it is believed, will be most effective in checking this dreaded disease.

The Country presently is plagued by a shortage of doctors. Fortunately in Pennsylvania this shortage is not currently serious. This is due to the splendid cooperation of the Pennsylvania Medical Society with the State Department of Health, particularly in the placement of physicians in rural areas where they are most needed. In addition, our medical schools have stepped up admissions of potential doctors as far as possible.

Real progress has been made in the fight against cancer. At Philadelphia, the Institute for Cancer Research is conducting one of the major cancer programs in the United States. I commend your continuing support for it, as well as for the tumor clinic program just recently established.

The death rate from tuberculosis was decreased by 25 per cent in Pennsylvania in the past two years. We recently acquired, at a most satisfactorily modest cost, Lankenau Hospital in Philadelphia. This institution is designed to care for tuberculous ill in and around Philadelphia.

Outstanding progress has been made with our school health program, which now reaches into every home in the Commonwealth having children of school age. The same may be said of maternal and child health, the treatment of crippled children, and the rehabilitation of children with cleft palate, which we alone of all the states have established.

This is but a part of the progress report of our State Department of Health. I look upon these accomplishments with great pride. Nevertheless, we are backward in not adequately taking care of alcoholics.

It is our duty to attempt control of alcoholism. We must assist in the rehabilitation of those who have become mentally diseased from alcohol. I recommended to the last session of the Legislature an appropriation of $150,000 to accomplish this end. The Legislature did not see fit to act favorably upon that recommendation. I will recommend in my Budget Message that this session of the General Assembly approve a substantial sum for this purpose. I shall also submit at a later date legislation designed to extend the State's treatment and care of alcoholics.

Suggestion has been made that the Bureau of Hospitals and the mental health program, now administered by the Department of Welfare, should be transferred to the Department of Health. I urge you to give this suggestion your considered attention.

I also urge that you provide necessary funds for the training of professional and technical public health personnel needed to maintain and expand Pennsylvania's health program.

DEPARTMENT OF WELFARE

The State Government is meeting far better than ever before the ever-present and serious problem of mental health. Revision and modernization of our mental health laws have aided this situation. New construction already has resulted in increasing patient capacity by nearly 7,500. The improved care and treatment of patients have progressed in some State hospitals to a point where as high as 73 per cent of new admissions of mentally ill cases have been returned home.

Now under construction is the $9,000,000 Eastern Psychiatric Institute in Philadelphia. Facilities of thirteen existing mental health clinics in the State have been expanded. Two new clinics have been established through grants-in-aid from the Commonwealth supplemented by Federal funds.

The aged, the indigent, the blind, and Pennsylvania's neglected children have been given greater assistance, especially during the past year. We have acted forcefully to protect the aged from exploitation, neglect, and abuse.

The $14,365,000 you appropriated in the last session is providing needed care for medically indigent persons in 176 hospitals in the State. A few months ago we broke ground for the Mercy-Douglass Hospital in Philadelphia. When completed this project will furnish a State service designed to assist Pennsylvania's negro citizens. It meets a long-felt need.

The State is now providing day care training centers for mentally retarded children. We have in this Administration completed the construction program at Laurelton, Pennhurst, Polk, and Selinsgrove, institutions which are dedicated to assisting mental defectives, delinquent girls, and epileptics. This has been a big step in the right direction.

Before this Administration comes to a close I am hopeful that we will have constructed a new institution similar to Polk, furnishing 1,500 additional beds and services to aid in the State care of mental defectives.

Money has been allocated for this institution. There is grave doubt at this time whether, in view of higher costs of construction, materials, and work, there are presently sufficient funds available for this project.

Meanwhile, the Governor's Committee on Children and Youth, which I appointed to recommend ways in which services to children in Pennsylvania could be improved, advises me a confused situation exists as to child care services.

The County Institution District Law contains such limited powers that some counties make provisions only for those children who must be cared for away from their homes. Amendment is needed to specify the services which all counties should provide for children. Even with this accomplished I doubt its sufficiency. We must, in addition to amendment of the law, encourage every county in the State to exercise these wider powers.

The cost of good county child welfare programs is a tremendously good investment. The State cannot entirely shift this challenging problem to counties unwilling or unable to assume its solution.

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Another matter close to the hearts and purses of the public is that of public assistance. The fact that there has been a steady decrease in the cost of relief is indeed heartening. I am confident that unless there is a major economic crisis not presently foreseen, the Department of Public Assistance will operate well within its appropriation for the first time since the biennium 1943-45.

During the past two years total dependency has been reduced by 32 per cent. The monthly cost of assistance from State funds has fallen 35 per cent in the same period despite increased assistance allowances given in recognition of the increased cost of living.

At the beginning of this Administration we adopted the two-fold objective of reducing dependency by placing a firm emphasis on the responsibility of people to be self-supporting and of providing for more adequate grants to those having no other means of support.

For many decades support laws have been a forgotten stepchild in the administration of justice. Few States—our own included—have adequate enforcement to enable a wife to obtain support from a deserting husband, or to help children or the aged get necessary funds to maintain a minimum standard of living. Such unfortunate victims go on relief—the taxpayer bears the burden.

To remedy this we instituted a State-wide exhaustive study of all support laws. Preliminary findings, based on actual tests carried on in several key counties, indicate that substantial sums of the taxpayers' money can be saved by a revision of our laws and procedures. Therefore, new legislation effecting these savings will be introduced at this session of the Legislature. Your approval of this proposed legislation would do much to remedy an unfortunate situation.

EDUCATION

I am justifiably proud of our acknowledged advancement in public education in Pennsylvania in the past two years. The last General Assembly, upon my recommendation, appropriated $409,000,000 for all educational purposes in the Commonwealth. It may be found possible to effect some savings in this field, but we must be cautious and not retrogress in our public education program.

Our children in Pennsylvania must have the very best opportunities to acquire an education adequately to fit them for the hard days ahead.

The last session voted—and I approved—an amount for education almost one-third more than the appropriation for the previous biennium for similar purposes. You will be confronted in this session with the necessity of making even larger appropriations than were made in the last biennium for education. Many of these appropriations already are mandated. At the last session we agreed upon salary increases for teachers. Those increases were needed. I have no doubt you will be requested to make still further increases in salaries for the teaching profession.

I do not—nor will I—begrudge a single penny of State money for the proper advancement of education. But the General Assembly and the Executive must exercise caution in acceding to demands except they be within reason. At the same time we must also bear in mind that our population is increasing and that our school enrollments will be much larger in the coming years. These factors compel more classrooms and more teachers.

In the past two years we initiated one of the most foresighted educational programs in the Country by giving trade and industrial training to some 120,000 persons, including veterans, who came to school for employment adjustment instruction. We started an education center to help those handicapped in speech and hearing. The assistance given through the instrumentality of this center is already surpassing our fondest expectations. It is a most worthy humanitarian project which deserves all possible legislative support.

Legislative action would seem desirable to require approval for the organization of joint school boards at the State and county levels. I believe this action is necessary to remove certain existing impediments to the development of county plans of school board reorganization.

In education, as in other phases of government, we must keep abreast of the times. Our latest informational and recreational media is television. I strongly urge that the Legislature give serious consideration to the possibilities of application of television to educational purposes. I am certain that television will afford a revolutionary development in education.

Some time ago I appointed a Joint Committee on Educational Television for Pennsylvania. This Committee has given earnest study to the question of educational television. Its recommendations, in line with the decision of the Federal Communications Commission reserving four television channels for Pennsylvania for educational use, will be submitted to you at a later date. Also, I propose to go into this subject in more detail in my Budget Message. From time to time I expect to urge legislative approval on further recommendations as to the needs for public education.

I urge upon the General Assembly study of the problem of annexations of territory from townships to boroughs and cities as it relates to school districts. It is becoming more and more acute with population shifts due to industrial developments.

FEPC

In the last session of the Legislature I urged enactment of an FEPC law. Legislative approval was denied this proposal, although it was strictly in accordance with platform pledges of both parties. Since this hesitancy on the part of the Legislature, I have, by executive order, sought elimination of racial discrimination in the Pennsylvania National Guard and State Police. In addition, I established within the Department of Labor and Industry a Committee on Industrial Race Relations. A study by this Committee indicates the imperative need at this time for favorable action in this field of human relations. Eleven states presently have enacted legislation designed to eliminate religious and racial discrimination in the field of employment. Pennsylvania in its greatness as an industrial State should no longer delay enactment of such a measure. I renew my recommendation for the immediate passage of a strong FEPC Act, and implore the members of my Party to react more kindly to it than heretofore.

LEGISLATIVE APPORTIONMENT

The General Assembly should no longer seek to evade its responsibility in carrying out a Constitutional mandate requiring the reapportionment of State Senatorial and Representative Districts after a decennial census. The last reapportionment was made in 1921. This session of the General Assembly should recognize its duty and redistrict the legislative districts in the State to remove the glaring inequalities that have arisen because of constant population shifts.

It is clearly the duty of the General Assembly, not only under the mandate of our Constitution but also in keeping with our American principles of representative government, that these inequalities in representation be removed. I urge that this step be taken without delay in accordance with good governmental practices and in support of platform pledges.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

This Commonwealth needs a new Constitution. Our present Constitution is antiquated; restricts in large part the power of the General Assembly; and fails utterly to take into consideration the vast economic and political changes which have occurred since its adoption in 1873. Our present Constitution was adopted during a period when there was great distrust of legislative bodies. I understand that other state constitutions adopted during this same period have all been abandoned in favor of more modern and enlightened documents eliminating outmoded details and restrictions.

In recent years two different committees of the Pennsylvania Bar Association have recommended adoption of a new Constitution. Both major political platforms in 1950 recommended the calling of a Constitutional Convention to effect revision.

No one with faith in democracy should fear a Constitutional Convention. The people alone will have the final word as to whether they will accept any proposed Constitution.

I strongly urge this session of the General Assembly to provide for the prompt holding of a Constitutional Convention looking toward revision of our 80 year old Constitution.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

My Administration has made a conscientious effort, quietly and without fanfare, to enforce the anti-gambling laws. We have encouraged and assisted local officials in enforcement.

The State Police, at my direction, have carried on one of the most extensive campaigns in their history to stop gambling, with good results. However, our procedures against gambling under existing law are often clothed in doubt. A model anti-gambling Act has been prepared by the American Bar Association Commission on Organized Crime, the Council of State Governments, and the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. This proposal deserves your most serious consideration.

STATE EMPLOYES

Those who contribute to the running of the machinery of government—our State employes—are a loyal and deserving group. Since the spiral of the cost of living is still upward I shall ask you in all probability to extend to State employes a ten per cent pay raise to level off as far as possible the increased cost of living.

The present number of State employes is considerably less than in many years. On November 30th last there were 57,765 State employes, about 1,000 less than when I assumed office in January 1951, and far under the all-time record of 97,620 in the late thirties under Governor George Earle.

To protect State employes and our citizens generally we last year outlawed the communist party as a political entity in Pennsylvania. We enacted a Loyalty Oath to prevent possible insidious infiltration of communistic ideas among our public servants. These two actions have brought particularly beneficial results. Pennsylvania's great contribution to the defense of America and freedom generally will not be sabotaged in any way from within. The Administration, in cooperation with national agencies, has effectively stilled subversive activities in the Commonwealth.

A special confidential board was named to screen applicants for State employment. All present employes were carefully checked. A new unit was set up in the State Police to coordinate and cooperate with the Federal Justice Department, the F. B. I., and other states.

Our Justice Department, in its fight to free the schools of communist influences, was rewarded by a decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania stating clearly and definitely that communists may not teach in Pennsylvania's schools.

I will have no hesitancy in asking the General Assembly to legislate the strength necessary to remove communism in any of its activities from the Commonwealth, should the occasion arise.

HIGHWAYS

Highways are economic necessities. An industrial and agricultural State as great as Pennsylvania needs an adequate, modern highway system to secure quick access of products to ready markets. We have such a system. It has advanced tremendously in the past two years. It is projected for still further advancement.

We have a well-balanced program of highway construction. For the 1951-53 biennium we will have spent $245,456,000, the largest capital construction expenditure for a two-year period in the history of the Department of Highways.

Our State highway system accommodates 92 per cent of the rural traffic in Pennsylvania outside of boroughs and cities.

The increase of traffic, with the resultant acute congestion in and adjacent to our metropolitan and urban areas, has demonstrated conclusively that despite the many accomplishments to date our big job is just beginning.

Presently, demands for State highway improvements are several times greater than the funds available for them. These demands are increasing.

On the basis of pre-Korean War costs, sufficient money appeared to be available to complete this program in the period 1950 to 1961 inclusive. This is an average cost of approximately 124 million dollars per year. Since that time costs of construction, maintenance, and operation have increased alarmingly. The cost of the above program has been re-estimated at an increased cost of 25 per cent, or an additional thirty million dollars per year. This means a revised cost of 154 million dollars per year.

Every possible economy has been practiced in administration, engineering, operating, and maintaining the State highways system. Further savings in appreciable amounts appear improbable at this time.

Traffic on the highways of Pennsylvania has increased from 20 billion, nine hundred million vehicle miles in 1950 to 31 billion vehicle miles in 1951. Although figures are not yet completed for 1952, another increase of approximately four per cent is anticipated. Also truck traffic has almost doubled in recent years.

It still remains the responsibility and the duty of government to provide adequate free highways where feasible. In the face of continued demands for more highway construction, the Legislature must have the courage to provide sufficient funds to finance a necessary program.

TURNPIKE

Work is progressing on the extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike to the New Jersey Line. Lines have been or are being surveyed for the proposed Northeastern Extension of the Turnpike. I am hopeful that this Extension may be built soon, and that it will contribute mightily to alleviating the present economic distress in the northeastern section of our Commonwealth. When completed it should be an inducement to the location of heavy industry in that area, because of its ready access to the northern markets and to the great industrial area along the lower Delaware River.

Intensive effort is being directed to lessening accidents and fatalities on the Turnpike. We are presently pioneering in new safety mechanisms which we anticipate will have a salutary effect in lessening accidents. I propose further augmenting the State Police force available for safety supervision on the Turnpike and the highways of the Commonwealth. We must not only increase our alertness to detect motor violations, but we also must do our utmost to see that the courts impose more severe penalties such as will be a deterrent to speeding and other unsafe driving practices.

LABOR

Our record in the past two years in behalf of the millions of Pennsylvanians who labor in our mills, our mines, our factories, our industrial plants, on our farms, and elsewhere, has brought unsolicited commendation from labor leaders. We have achieved in that period a far greater measure of amicability between labor and management in the Commonwealth than has heretofore existed. I am proud of that fact.

In no other state has labor profited so generally and so generously through legislative actions in the past two years. It is a proud chapter of social service accomplishments.

Large increases were made in financial benefits under Workmen's Compensation and Workmen's Unemployment Compensation. A simplified system of labor mediation was set up to aid in settlement of industrial disputes. We greatly improved the program for absorption of displaced persons; laid down extensive plans to rehabilitate small business and industry; and broadened the Occupational Disease Act to bring greater benefits to the many who come under that statute.

We set up a State-wide council to see that those workers who were prematurely pensioned and that those who are so-called over-the-age workers may get profitable re-employment. In the same humanitarian vein, the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation achieved success in placing into gainful employment more than 6,800 disabled citizens.

I think you will agree that this is a very necessary though unfortunately widening service the State must give its citizens. To accomplish this more effectively I suggest that the General Assembly give consideration to the need for an over-all rehabilitation center where comprehensive services can be provided. Pennsylvania is too big a State with too great an interest in its handicapped citizens to continue as at present to send many Pennsylvanians to other states for rehabilitation service.

There can be no denial that the working people of Pennsylvania today enjoy more leisure, more protection in their work, more security, and greater remuneration during a period of incapacitation than they have at any other time in the Commonwealth's history.

In the complexity of industry-farm-mercantile-mining-textile field Pennsylvania is now opening a haven of hope to displaced persons, thousands of whom have been given employment to add to the State's productive capacity.

There undoubtedly is room for strengthening and expanding some of the laws beneficial to labor now on our statute books, and I expect to make some suggestions along this line as your session progresses.

AGRICULTURE

Pennsylvania's farmers have received many benefits during the past two years. They merited these benefits. Outstanding progress has been made in the control and eradication of livestock and poultry diseases. Provision has been made for a modern research laboratory on diseases of livestock and poultry, to be located at Pennsylvania State College. The first two of a series of additional poultry disease diagnostic laboratories have been established. The incidence of tuberculosis in cattle is at an all-time record low. Our farmers have been saved many millions of dollars through eradication of plant and insect diseases.

Three new county-wide soil conservation districts have been created. They now total 29 in the State, and include more than 50 per cent of all farms in the Commonwealth.

I believe it is advisable that we give more consideration to the treatment of diseases of animals on the farm. With this in view, I urge the Legislature to take active steps to strengthen our veterinarian facilities, possibly with a view to establishing later a Veterinary School at State College. Such a service will be beneficial to farmers and to consumers. It merits adequate financial support.

DELAWARE RIVER DIVERSION

Last year New York City filed a petition with the United States Supreme Court seeking modification of that Court's decree limiting to 440 million gallons a day the quantity of water which New York City may divert from the Delaware watershed for water supply purposes. The petition asks a total diversion of 800 million gallons a day.

Our Justice Department is vigorously opposing this petition. It is apparent to us that the future needs of southeastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey will greatly exceed the future needs of New York City for the waters of the Delaware. We have in mind, too, that an adequate water supply is essential for Philadelphia and its suburban communities and for the tremendous expansion of industry in the Morrisville area.

This is a question of paramount importance to Pennsylvania. Because it is I created the Delaware River Water Basin Committee. That Committee is making a comprehensive study of the entire problem, including the question whether approval of the INCODEL Plan—a proposed compact between New York, New Jersey, Delaware, and Pennsylvania—would be in the best interests of Pennsylvania, and particularly of the future development of the Delaware River Valley.

That Committee's report is nearing completion. It will guide me in making recommendations to you on this important matter at a later date.

UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

We need to modernize and make uniform State laws regulating commercial transactions. Ten years' work by the National Conference of Commissioners, the American Law Institute, and scores of outstanding Pennsylvania lawyers and practical experts has resulted in a draft of such a measure in the form of a new code. Our Joint State Government Commission, after studying this code, is prepared to recommend it to you for passage. I join in this recommendation.

CONSERVATION

The clean streams program has been greatly accelerated and furthered by this Administration. Elimination of the discharge of untreated sewage into the streams of the Commonwealth is being accomplished, largely with the wholehearted cooperation of municipalities involved and the Sanitary Water Board. In some instances several municipalities have banded together to form authorities, and thereby benefit from the economy of large-scale operation. This is a commendable approach to the problem. I am hopeful it will be adopted in other areas of the State.

To make this approach more feasible it may be necessary for the General Assembly to adopt amendments to our present laws governing municipality authorities.

In instances where municipalities or private concerns have refused to cooperate, the matter has been referred to the Department of Justice. Some legal actions have been brought to enforce compliance. I realize that there are municipalities which may not be able to shoulder alone the financial burden of this program. Therefore, in the interest of effecting a total elimination of pollution of our streams the General Assembly should consider providing funds to aid these distressed municipalities in securing adequate treatment of their sewage. I hope to have a more detailed recommendation on this matter to make to you in my Budget Message or at a later date.

This Administration has adopted a policy which prohibits strip mining on any State-owned lands, nullifying such a right given in the past. This I feel is in keeping with good conservation practices.

Of course, if at any time the demands of national defense require the mining of coal under State-owned lands, permission will be given. Every precaution, however, will be taken to keep destruction of our woodlands to a minimum. Provision for the restoration of the surface growth will be made.

With the exception of possible national defense demands, it shall continue to be our policy to prohibit strip mining on State lands unless there is a clear reservation of this right contained in the conveyance to the Commonwealth of such lands.

This has been a partial report on the record of achievements of the first two years of this Administration. It is the kind of report, I believe, you should have so that you may chart your future course based upon the knowledge of what has transpired. Nevertheless, there are many other subjects which should and will be brought to your attention but which could not be encompassed in this address. There is greater detail on some of the matters about which I have spoken. All of this will be available to you at later dates.

I propose later to discuss the subject of further development of the Ports of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Erie. I expect to call to your attention modifications which I construe to be necessary to our State Election Laws. I shall discuss among many things Civilian Defense in my Budget Message. Other recommendations will be incorporated in messages I expect to submit to you from time to time.

I am hopeful that this session will be contained within a reasonable time necessary to perform the duties which face you, and that in the results of your deliberations you will have been guided by what is best for the people, and that such benefits as the Legislature and the Executive can evolve in behalf of the people will redound to the benefit of all.

JOHN S. FINE.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR WOOD. Thank you, Governor Fine, for that very excellent and informative address.

JOINT SESSION ADJOURNED

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. The business for which the joint session was assembled having been completed, the Chair now declares the joint session adjourned.

The Senators will please reassamble in the Senate Chamber.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) IN THE CHAIR

PROCEEDINGS OF JOINT SESSION PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Mr. WESCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the proceedings of the Joint Session of the Senate and House of Representatives, held Tuesday January 6, 1953, be printed in full in this day's Legislative Journal.

The motion was agreed to.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHIEF CLERK. Members, after you sign the oath book in Room 144 you will receive your checks.

I would like to call attention to the flowers. I hope the Members will either take care of them or make some provision through me as to what shall be done with them. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Has the Minority Leader any further business to present to the House?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, simply one fact that I desire to call to the attention of the majority. You have already noticed that putting the gentleman from Philadelphia in the Chair has refrigerated that brilliant smile.

ADJOURNMENT

Mrs. MARKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, January 26, 1953 at 4:30 p. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 3:50 p. m.) the House adjourned.

SENATE

MONDAY, January 26, 1953.

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ROBERT H. STEPHENS, Pastor of Market Square Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray. Eternal God, our Father, before we get down to work we stand to praise Thee, who art great and greatly to be praised. Save us, we beseech Thee, from making this an empty gesture dictated by custom, but rather may we find in it a source of strength according to our need.

Thou knowest the hard task awaiting these Senators, the difficult decisions, the subtle temptations. Remind them that they do not need to face them alone, but that Thou wilt guide them if they will listen. Keep them patient amidst the petty irritations of the day, and the long hours in committee and caucus. May they prove by the work they do and the way they do it that democracy does work. May they defend democracy by demonstrating it here with as much patriotism and honor as thousands of our sons have defended it far away by dying for it with courage and self-sacrifice.

O Lord, bless this Senate as it begins a new term and make it a blessing to the Commonwealth. We pray in Jesus' Name. Amen.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, after we left the Senate Chamber when we recessed at the time of the last meeting, some question arose as to the legality of the performance of the swearing in of the Members of the Senate on this side of the aisle. I would like to ask the President of the Senate if, at this time, we are required to again be sworn in to be properly Members of this Senate Body.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to say, in reply to the question of the Senator from Westmoreland, that since there appears to be some question as to the legality of the administering of the Oaths of Office to the Democratic Senators at the Session on the 6th of January, since it is in question, if the Minority Floor Leader wishes to have those Members present themselves at the Bar of the Senate to make certain that the oath is legal, the Chair would be pleased to entertain that proposition.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I call upon the newly elected Members of the Senate on the Democratic side to again receive the benediction of the Senate and become full-fledged Members.

Mr. President, I might say in passing that the Republicans at that time had a Common Pleas Judge and we, in error, had a Democratic Orphans' Court Judge. So, to make doubly sure this time, we are blessed by having a judge who was elected on both tickets.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to say to the Members of the Senate that the presence of Judge Sohn here is merely coincidental. He was just moving from the courtroom to his chambers, and happened to drop off for a social call.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS OF OFFICE

The PRESIDENT. The newly elected Democratic Senators will now please present themselves at the Bar of the Senate preparatory to being administered the oath of office.

The Chair is pleased to present the Honorable Walter R. Sohn, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, who will administer the oath of office to the Democratic Senators. The Chair invites Judge Sohn to the rostrum.

(Oaths of office administered accordingly).

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. HARE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. WATSON asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. DIEHM, because of pressing business.

Mr. McCUSKER asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. KEPHART, due to illness.

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. LETZLER, because of pressing business.

APPOINTMENT OF STANDING COMMITTEES

The PRESIDENT. The President pro tempore has requested the Chair to announce the appointment of the following Standing Committees of the Senate, which the Clerk will read:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

JOINT SESSION

Mr. MADIGAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MADIGAN offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives meet in Joint Session Monday, January 26, 1953, at five-thirty o'clock P. M. in the Hall of the House of Representatives for the purpose of hearing an address by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT THE GOVERNOR

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WATSON offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur). That a committee of three on the part of the Senate be appointed to act with a similar committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee), to escort His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, to the Hall of the House of Representatives to address the Members of the General Assembly in Joint Session, pursuant to a resolution already adopted by the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The PRESIDENT. The Chair announces, on behalf of the President pro tempore, the appointment as a committee to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House, the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Watson; the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Watkins; and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE RESOLUTION JOINT SESSION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives meet in Joint Session Monday, January 26, 1953, at five-thirty o'clock P. M. in the Hall of the House of Representatives for the purpose of hearing an address by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE RESOLUTION COMMITTEE TO ESCORT GOVERNOR

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee of three on the part of the Senate be appointed to act with a similar committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee), to escort His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, to the Hall of the House of Representatives to address the Members of the General Assembly in Joint Session, pursuant to a resolution already adopted by the Senate and the House of Representatives.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WAGNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I want to transmit to the Chair the General Report of the Joint State Government Commission, covering the work since the last Session of the Legislature. I would like to call attention to the fact that this is a very concise outline of the various studies which have to be made, and this report should be of interest to every Senator as a reference from time to time during the Session.

Mr. President, I think each Senator has already received a report of the study concerning a college for veterinary medicine in Pennsylvania, and from time to time the completely detailed reports of the other studies will be made, but at this time I would like to present to the Chair this General Report, copies of which will be distributed to the Senators.

GENERAL REPORT OF THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION 1951-1953

Mr. WAGNER, on behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, submitted the following report which was read by the Clerk as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly
P. O. Box 81
Room 450—Capitol Building
Harrisburg

January 26, 1953.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

On behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, I have the honor to transmit herewith the General Report of the Joint State Government Commission, 1951-53, to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Copies of this report for distribution to the members of the Senate have been delivered to the office of the President pro tempore of the Senate.

Respectfully submitted,

BAKER ROYER
Chairman

The PRESIDENT. The General Report of the Joint State Government Commission for 1951-1953 will be noted in the Journal.

COMMUNICATION

REPORT OF THE DELAWARE RIVER JOINT COMMISSION OF PENNSYLVANIA AND NEW JERSEY

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the Report of the Delaware River Joint Commission of Pennsylvania and New Jersey to the Legislatures of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey for 1951.

The PRESIDENT. The report will be noted in the Journal.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

URGING INVESTIGATION OF PENAL INSTITUTIONS

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time, on behalf of Senator Holland and myself.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. DENT and HOLLAND offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Whereas, there has been a great deal of unrest culminating in open riots in at least two of our major penal institutions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during recent weeks, and

Whereas, it appears the Governor of the Commonwealth has started an investigation into the causes and reasons for such unrest and rioting and has named a committee for the purpose of making a study with possible recommendations, and

Whereas, the Legislature now being in Session and being the law making body of the Commonwealth, it is imperative that the Legislature be fully informed as to the reasons and causes for such disastrous and dangerous proceedings at our penal institutions, and

Whereas, any suggestions or corrections found necessary may require legislative action, therefore

Be It Resolved that the Legislative Branch of Government be represented on any Board of Inquiry or Commission to study prison conditions in this Commonwealth, therefore

Be It Further Resolved that the Governor name three Members of the Senate and three Members of the House of Representatives to serve upon the Commission or Board of Inquiry named by the Governor or to be named by the Governor. Said Members representing the General Assembly to have full voice and vote upon the Commission and it is their duty to acquaint the full membership of the Legislature with the facts found by the Board of Inquiry.

HOUSE NOTIFIES SENATE IT IS READY TO CONVENE IN JOINT SESSION

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms.

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Mr. President, I have the honor of presenting a committee on behalf of the House of Representatives.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. President, we are a committee appointed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House is ready to receive the Officers and the Members of the Senate in Joint Session and to escort them to the Hall of the House.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks the committee on the part of the House of Representatives.

JOINT SESSION

The hour of 5:20 o'clock p. m. having arrived, Messrs. Waterhouse and Stank, a committee on the part of the House of Representatives, being introduced, informed the Senate that the House of Representatives was ready for the reception of the President and Members of the Senate for the purpose of hearing an address by His Excellency, the Governor, and the submission of the Sixteenth Biennial Budget of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the fiscal biennium, June 1, 1953 to May 31, 1955.

The President and Members of the Senate proceeded to the Hall of the House of Representatives.

SENATE RETURNS FROM HOUSE

After some time, the President and Members of the Senate returned to the Senate Chamber.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows:

GOVERNOR'S BUDGET MESSAGE

The Chair cleared his table and announced receipt of the "Sixteenth Biennial Budget of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania" for the fiscal biennium June 1, 1953, to May 31, 1955, and "Supplement to the Sixteenth Biennial Budget of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania" for the fiscal biennium June 1, 1953 to May 31, 1955, together with the "Budget Message of John S. Fine, Governor of Pennsylvania, to the General Assembly, January 26, 1953," copies of which have been placed on the desks of the Senators.

REPORT OF THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA IN COMPLIANCE WITH SENATE RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 7a, ADOPTED DECEMBER 4, 1951

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, as Chairman of the Committee appointed by the President pro tempore, pursuant to Senate Resolution, Serial No. 7a, adopted December 4, 1951, I am pleased to submit the Report of the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The PRESIDENT. The Report will be noted in the Journal, and will be printed in full in the Appendix.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. PECHAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, before presenting this bill I would like to have your indulgence for a few remarks.

Two years ago, I introduced this very same resolution which I am going to introduce today as Senate Bill No. 1. I am very happy to do so. This bill has to do with the amending of our Constitution by allowing eighteen year olds the right of franchise. I feel very strongly about this. Two years ago I was unable to devote the time and effort that this possible controversial bill would have required because of another controversial bill that I had last Session. I am not picking up a hot package like that again, so I will be able to devote more time to this one and hope that we will have a successful passage of the bill.

Mr. President, we have had several organizations, the Republican Council of Women, the Young Republicans of Pennsylvania, several posts of the service organizations of Pennsylvania have gone along with this bill as has the Democratic Party, I understand, in their platform.

Mr. President, I feel very definitely that if eighteen year olds are allowed to defend our Country with their lives, they should be given the right of franchise. I also feel that eighteen year olds know more about their government today than did those who were twenty-one years of age in 1873 when the Constitution was last adopted. I feel, too, that they know more about their government than a great many of the aliens who pledge allegiance to our Country and take out citizenship, a great many of them for the mercenary motive of getting on our relief rolls, etc.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. PECHAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1, entitled:

A Joint resolution proposing an amendment to article eight, section one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by permitting citizens eighteen years of age or over to vote.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to know that the Republican Party has made the right of the eighteen year olds to vote the number one bill of the Session. Fourteen years ago, I introduced a bill in the House giving eighteen year olds the right to vote. Each Session, from that time on, I introduced a bill; each year it was killed in committee. I am glad to see the progress which the Republican Party has made in its thinking in the last few years, to at last realize that if a boy is old enough to fight for his Country at eighteen, he is old enough to vote for his Country at eighteen. I want to give credit to the Republican Party for at last realizing that this is what they should have done fourteen years ago.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. FLEMING asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I, too, am about to introduce a bill which had a great deal of controversy about it at the last Session of the General Assembly. At that time, my two colleagues and I introduced a series of bills to cover the adoption situation in Pennsylvania, and we are happy to again introduce those bills with the hope that the General Assembly on this occasion will give proper consideration to them.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. FLEMING, MAHANY and DENT, read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 2, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the fourth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 127), entitled "An act relating to Adoption," by further providing for the jurisdiction of adoption proceedings, the contents of petitions necessary, consents and decrees.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 3, entitled:

An Act relating to the placement for adoption of infants under eighteen years of age; regulating the placement of such infants for adoption, providing for the licensure of private agencies and institutions for the purpose of placing such infants for adoption; prohibiting the placement of infants for adoption by unlicensed agencies and institutions and individuals except under certain circumstances; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Welfare, conferring jurisdiction on the Juvenile Courts and Superior Court; providing for a judicial determination of abandonment of an infant by a parent, providing for the surrender of an infant for adoption placement to the Department of Welfare, a county institution district or a licensed agency or institution, providing for appeals; prescribing penalties; repealing any acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, the bill I am about to present should have been the number one bill of the Senate. It should have been presented by the Majority Members, because if ever a bill was needed, this one is. I think anyone who went over to hear the Governor's speech noticed the number of lobbyists taking seats in the back of the Hall and in the gallery of the House. I think the time has come when we should start to show that we are independent of lobbyists, and we are not afraid of lobbyists filing their expense accounts with the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House.

Mr. President, my bill makes a lobbyist expose where he gets his money, who he is working for and for what he is lobbying. Under this bill, he must also show receipts for every ten dollars he spends and on whom he spends it. I think this would be a fine way in which to give the people back home the confidence in government which they are losing. I would refer you to the "Reader's Digest" of this month, where you will find that lobbyists have been running the State Legislatures for years, and they decide what bills are to be passed.

Mr. President, I am sorry that the Majority Members of the Senate did not make this their number one bill, because I think it is a bill that is needed to give our State good government.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. HOLLAND read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 22, entitled:

An Act providing for the regulation of lobbying, requiring registration of all lobbyists, keeping of accounts of contributions and expenditures and receipts thereof, reports and statements under oath, persons affected, and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. RUTH read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 23, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 652 of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by authorizing the payment of expenses to members of recreation boards in counties of the third class.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 24, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 18, Article 8, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, providing for absentee voting.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, the bill I am about to introduce deals with the clarification of the provisions which provide for special examinations for school bus operators.

Mr. President, during the past two years, especially in western Pennsylvania, the parents of school teachers and school children have suffered considerably due to the fact that some of the school bus operators are not complying with the full provisions of the law. Under the present provisions, Mr. President, those school bus operators, who operate school busses which are under the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission, are not required to take special examinations. Therefore, the provisions of this act provide whereby every school bus operator in Pennsylvania must comply with the law by taking special examinations.

Mr. President, I believe that this is a piece of legislation that the Senate should pass and send over to the House, and assure the parents of Pennsylvania that their children are properly protected by law.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. LANE and BANE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 25, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 608.1 of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by clarifying the provisions which provide for additional examinations for school bus operators.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Messrs. BARR and WALKER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 26, entitled:

An Act to promote the welfare of the people of this Commonwealth; creating Port Authorities to function in counties of the second class as bodies corporate and politic, with power to plan, acquire, construct, maintain and operate facilities and projects for the improvement and development of the port district and to borrow money and issue bonds therefor; providing for the payment of such bonds and prescribing the rights of the holders thereof; conferring the right of eminent domain on the Authorities; authorizing the Authorities to enter into contracts with and to accept grants from the Federal Government or any agency thereof; and conferring exclusive jurisdiction on certain courts over rates and services; and authorizing the Authorities to collect tolls, fares, fees, rentals, and charges for the use of facilities; defining the Authorities' powers and duties, and defining the port districts.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 27, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 1 of the act, approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 476), entitled as amended "An act to regulate and establish the fees, to be charged and collected by the recorder of deeds in counties of the second class," by further increasing, regulating and changing such fees.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have a series of three bills here, one of which is being co-sponsored by my colleague from Washington County, Senator Lane. All three of these bills deal with the daily lives of the people of this Commonwealth. I am hopeful that the committees to which they are referred will disregard the fact that they were introduced by a Democrat, and will do their best to have early hearings upon this legislation.

Mr. President, one of the bills deals with the very serious item of the high cost of living concerning one item particularly. Large families who try to provide sufficient milk for their children find it increasingly difficult to purchase enough milk to keep the children healthy, to build their small bodies. In this State, a family that requires four, five or six quarts of milk per day must, of necessity, purchase milk in quart containers. Now, the day has long gone by when the question of sanitation was the determining factor. Many States in the Union have provided legislation whereby milk can be sold to the consumer in containers of a gallon or half gallon size. In many States there is a difference of ten cents between two quarts of milk purchased in separate containers and two quarts of milk purchased in a single half gallon container. I think that, although this legislation does not seem to be very important to those of us who have gone beyond the milk drinking stage, it is very important to the thousands of mothers and fathers who try to provide this necessity of life to their children. It will in no way affect the income of the farmer, it will mean a greater consumption of milk and I believe that the committee to which this bill is referred should give it very serious consideration.

Mr. President, another of the bills deals with an attempt to stop the senseless slaughter on the Turnpike. As an observation, I can say to the Senate that over the years I have noticed and observed that the greater number of fatalities on the Turnpike are caused by a crossing over the medial strip by cars going in the opposite direction, in running head-on into an automobile or a truck and causing the death of innocent persons who have no way under the sun of avoiding the accident. I believe that every engineer's report that the Turnpike Commission has received has called for the construction of some kind of a barrier between the two sets of lanes.

Therefore, Mr. President, this legislation calls upon the Turnpike to create or build a barrier of sufficient strength and dimensions to keep cars from passing over from one lane to the other.

The third is a bill which has been promoted many times in many Legislatures. Mr. President, we, in Westmoreland County, had a very bitter lesson this past summer when four young high school students were killed at a grade crossing. I believe that with all the advancements that we have made, we have been very neglectful in demanding that grade crossings be eliminated where feasible. I believe that the Public Utility Commission ought to make a new start towards the elimination of these dangerous life-taking grade crossings.

Therefore, Mr. President, on behalf of the people of Pennsylvania, I introduce and present, to the Chair the following bills.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. DENT read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 28, entitled:

An Act requiring the abolition of all railroad grade crossings within a specified time; and conferring and imposing powers and duties on the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill 29, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 4 of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 965), entitled "An act defining commodities; regulating the sale thereof; and providing penalties for violation hereof," by specifying the size of milk containers for domestic consumption.

Which was committed to the Committee on Agriculture.

Messrs. DENT and LANE read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 30, entitled:

An Act requiring the construction of safety barriers on the medial strips separating the opposite traffic lanes of the Pennsylvania Turnpike and its extensions; and imposing duties on the Department of Highways and the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. WOLFE read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 31, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1005), entitled as amended "An act relating to and regulating tractors and their operation; providing for their registration by the Department of Revenue upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of tractors; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of tractors; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation; and providing for refunds," by including corn shellers in the definition of "Farm Tractor" and in the classification of tractors.

Which was committed to the Committee on Agriculture.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I listened with keen interest to the number one bill of this Session, presented by my colleague from Armstrong, Senator Pechan. I, like many more, am, for the bill. I think it is a good bill, but I must take exception to his closing remarks with reference to this bill.

Mr. President, the gentleman from Armstrong pointed out that the eighteen year olds know more than those who framed the Constitution. He may be right and he may be wrong. My exceptions are to when he made a comparison with the eighteen year olds, and their purpose of voting, and the aliens, to whom he made an inference only applied to become citizens because they wanted to be placed upon the relief rolls. That statement, I think, is very very unfair and should be stricken from the record.

Mr. President, my father came here sixty-two years ago. He was never on the relief rolls. Back in my county, the Honorable John H. McCann, our President Judge, came here from Ireland as an alien. He was never on the relief rolls. Many many thousands of our fathers and forefathers came to this Country not for the purpose of becoming relief recipients, but for the purpose of becoming good Americans. Our records show, Mr. President, that many of them gave their very blood for our Country in World War I and World War II and previous wars, not for the purpose of being placed on the relief rolls but because they loved America. I think it is very unfair and unjust to the many many thousands of people who come to our Country, who will come and who have come, that we have on our record remarks that their sole purpose is to be placed upon the relief rolls.

REQUEST THAT REMARKS BE EXPUNGED FROM RECORD

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I, therefore, ask the gentleman from Armstrong to have that portion of his remarks stricken from the record.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I don't want to get into a debate, but I think had the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, been a little more attentive—paid a little more attention when I was speaking, he would have understood me correctly. I said that some aliens—my mother and father were aliens, of which I am very proud to be their son—have made good Americans. He also made a remark that I said something about the eighteen year olds know more about our Government than those who framed the Constitution in 1873. I made no such statement. If he misunderstood me, I am sorry. I think I said this: The eighteen year olds, because of the education that they get today, are much more learned about our government than was a twenty-one year old in 1873, when our Constitution was last adopted by the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I have no intention of getting into a quarrel or a debate, but if my memory serves me correctly, and I could be wrong, I understood the gentleman to say "most of the aliens," and not "some."

Therefore, Mr. President, I ask that the record be read with reference to that last remark of the Senator, whether he said "some" or whether he said "most." Could that portion be read, Mr. President?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, inasmuch as the hour is growing quite late, would it be possible for Senator Haluska and Senator Pechan to settle this argument tomorrow when we reconvene? It would take a little while, I presume, for our reporter to find that particular part of Senator Pechan's introductory speech and I ask that you defer this until tomorrow morning, please.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am willing provided I have the opportunity of hearing the tape. I am informed now that the remarks we make are recorded on a tape. Is that correct?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to have the opportunity tomorrow, before going into Session, to hear the tape recording.

Mr. MAHANY. It is all right with me, Senator. You may go down and listen to the tape.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to disassociate himself with the responsibility of replaying the tape, however.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. LANE and DENT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 32, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 2 of the act, approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 507), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provide for raising revenue for State purposes," by further regulating the returns of taxable property and the payment of taxes by certain taxpayers under the provisions of this act."

Which was committed to the Committee on Finance.

SENATE RESOLUTION

COMMENDING OLD FORGE BOROUGH HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM AND ITS COACH
ELIO GHIGARELLI

Mr. McMENAMIN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Whereas, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has long recognized that a well balanced program for its high schools necessarily must include interscholastic athletic competition, and

Whereas, such interscholastic athletic competition supplementing high educational standards has amply demonstrated its value in developing our high school students into well rounded future citizens, and

Whereas, the Senate of Pennsylvania desires to acknowledge superior attainments in all fields of endeavor

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that this body commend the Old Forge Borough High School Football team and its Coach, Elio Ghigarelli for winning the 1952 Championship of the Eastern Pennsylvania High School Football Conference and particularly for exemplary sportsmanship consistent with the highest traditions of amateur athletics.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. MILLER offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 2, 1953, at four o'clock, p. m., E. S. T.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 2, 1953, at four-thirty o'clock, p. m., E. S. T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, January 27, 1953, at 11:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 6:38 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Tuesday, January 27, 1953, at 11:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, January 26, 1953

The House met at 4:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, by whom our fathers won their liberties of old; grant that we and all the people of this state may be strong to maintain our freedom against the assaults of those who by aggression seek to enslave us to their will. Guide, we beseech thee, our Governor and all to whom has been committed the government of this state, giving them special gifts of wisdom and understanding that in the defense of our liberties they may be the instruments of a lasting peace for all mankind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Tuesday, January 6, 1953? If not, and without objection, the Journal is approved.

GENERAL REPORT OF JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION 1951-1953

Mr. ROYER presented the following report from the Joint State Government Commission:

January 26, 1953

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

On behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, I have the honor to transmit herewith the General Report of the Joint State Government Commission, 1951-53, to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Copies of this report for distribution to the members of the House of Representatives have been delivered to the office of the Chief Clerk of the House.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

REQUEST TO ADDRESS JOINT ASSEMBLY

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, January 26, 1953.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

If it meets with the approval of the General Assembly, I should like to address the members in Joint Session today, at five-thirty o'clock p. m.

JOHN S. FINE.

GOVERNOR INVITED TO ADDRESS JOINT ASSEMBLY

Mr. MIKULA. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Governor, the Honorable John S. Fine, be invited to the Hall of the House of Representatives to address the General Assembly at a time to be fixed by Concurrent Resolution.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGES

JOINT SESSION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives meet in joint session Monday, January 26, 1953, at five-thirty o'clock p. m. in the Hall of the House of Representatives for the purpose of hearing an address by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT GOVERNOR TO HALL OF HOUSE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, January 26, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee of three on the part of the Senate be appointed to act with a similar committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee), to escort His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, to the Hall of the House of Representatives to address the Members of the General Assembly in Joint Session, pursuant to a resolution already adopted by the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?
It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee on the part of the House to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House, Messrs. Mikula, Leisey and Readinger.

RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT SENATE TO HALL OF HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
Monday, January 26, 1953.

"Resolved, That the Speaker appoint a committee of two to escort the Members of the Senate to the Hall of the House for the purpose of attending the Joint Session of the General Assembly."

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a committee to wait upon the Senate and to escort it to the Hall of the House, Messrs. Waterhouse and Stank.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to assure the Majority Leader that we have no intention at this time of taking advantage of his decimated ranks.

At this time, I want first of all permission to read into the record the Democratic state platform for 1952. At the last session of the General Assembly it was my privilege to read into the record the Democratic state platform and the Republican state platform. I regret at this time that I am unable to present to you for the purpose of the record the pledges that you should have made to the people, the statement of purpose that should have been contained in a document widely circulated.

DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM FOR 1952

Adopted by the Pennsylvania Democratic State Committee
On September 6, 1952

The Democratic Party in Pennsylvania enthusiastically ratifies and confirms the statement of principles adopted at the 1952 Democratic National Convention. We pledge our whole effort, in honor and in dignity, to elect Governor Adlai E. Stevenson President and Senator John J. Sparkman Vice-President.

Never in the history of our country has there been greater achievement than has been attained in the last twenty years, under the dedicated leadership of Franklin D. Roosevelt and the militant guidance of Harry S. Truman.

The people of our country have escaped from Republican promises to Democratic fulfillment, from Republican depression to Democratic prosperity, from Republican government for the special interests to Democratic government for all, and from Republican isolationism to Democratic world leadership.

This is a record of accomplishment—not of mere promise; a record that spells progress, and offers solid assurance of further advances in our domestic economy. It is the fervent hope of mankind, that in our continued leadership, and with the aid of Almighty God, universal peace can and will be attained.

We deplore the fact that the people of Pennsylvania are not properly represented in the United States Senate. Senator Martin consistently votes with the most reactionary and isolationist Republicans—McCarthy, Bricker, Jenner and Kem. Senator Duff is continuously absent from his Senate seat to engage in his own brand of Republican factional politics. In the first Session of the present Congress, Duff was not present for 149 roll calls. For the people of Pennsylvania and the Nation, the record of Martin and Duff is a record of reaction and inaction.

We shall make this election our opportunity to rid ourselves of Edward Martin, protagonist of Grundyism, darling of Colonel McCormick's new super-American Party, by replacing him in the United States Senate with Judge Guy K. Bard of Lancaster County, one of Pennsylvania's most capable, respected and beloved citizens. Judge Bard has unselfishly relinquished a life-time judicial position to devote himself in the Senate to the full time militantly liberal representation of all people.

By deed, and not by promise, the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania recognizes the equal ability and rightful place of women to participate in governmental affairs. Genevieve Blatt, Democratic nominee for Auditor General, expertly trained in State government, is the first woman in the history of Pennsylvania politics to be named by either of the major parties to run for State-wide office.

Again by deed, and not by promise, the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania has recognized the great contribution of agriculture to the economy and the life of the Commonwealth. Senator George M. Leader, 34 year old World War II Veteran, and York County farmer, is the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer. He is trained in State government by education and experience, and both he and our nominee for the office of Auditor General are pledged to promote efficiency and economy in the fiscal affairs of our state.

Again by deed, and not by promise, the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania demonstrates in its candidates for Supreme Court, how the menace of Communism can be suppressed within the framework of American justice and Constitutional guarantees. Judge Harry M. Montgomery gained national reputation presiding at the trial of Communist Leader Steve Nelson, who was convicted of sedition. In Pennsylvania, Judge Montgomery's reputation for ability, scholarship and humane understanding has long been recognized.

All Democratic Candidates for election to Congress and to the State Senate and State House of Representatives pledge their earnest support to the principles set forth in our National and State Platforms.

We now submit our program for Pennsylvania, in opposition to a Republican machine which submits no program, but stands mute and thus persists in its blatant, arrogant and insulting attitude toward the people of Pennsylvania. At the same time, the Republican Party appeals for support of all of its candidates for the State House of Representatives, the State Senate and the Commonwealth's fiscal offices—all this without a single statement of principle. Apparently there can be no statement where there is no principle.

The Republican Party of Pennsylvania is either still resting on its 1950 platform (and well it may, since it has neither been used nor carried out); or, having run out of promises, it may have decided to promise nothing. This promise, based on its past record, is at least one we can expect it to keep.

Its do-nothing record of the 1951 Legislative Session made its 1950 platform a fraud. For instance—

Republican Promise—"We anticipate that the increase in revenue and the decrease in expenditures, coupled with strict economies, will be sufficient to avoid any additional taxes."

and

Republican Performance—Six months later, Republicans demanded $163,000,000 in new taxes.

Republican Promise—"We pledge the immediate enactment of an effective and adequate fair employment practice law."

and

Republican Performance—Killed in Republican controlled Committee as in 1945, 1947 and 1949.

Republican Promise—"We favor enactment of a minimum wage law of 75c an hour."

and

Republican Performance—Killed in Republican controlled committee.

Republican Promise—"We believe that the employee permanently and totally disabled should be compensated for the full period of total disability."

and

Republican Performance—Killed in Republican controlled committee.

Republican Promise—"We believe that ALL occupational diseases should be compensatory."

and

Republican Performance—Killed in Republican controlled committee.

Republican Promise—"WE ADVOCATE a state convention to bring the Constitution of our Commonwealth more in line with the needs of today."

and

Republican Performance—Killed in Republican controlled committee.

Republican Promise—"We pledge to devote ourselves to the modernizing of the framework of our State government."

and

Republican Performance—Appointment of ANOTHER commission to make ANOTHER study.

Republican Promise—"We favor establishment of a free city college in Philadelphia and pledge State co-operation."

and

Republican Performance—Killed in Republican controlled committee.

Republican Promise—"We will re-apportion the State's legislative districts."

and

Republican Performance—Killed in Republican controlled committee.

Republican Promise—"We pledge continuance of the Highway Planning Commission."

and

Republican Performance—The Highway Planning Commission was permitted to pass from the scene and is now a memory.

This is part of the Republican record: the broken record of a State Administration dominated by a Governor obsessed with a fixation for saddling a wage-tax upon the people of Pennsylvania; a Governor who continually recessed the longest session in Pennsylvania's legislative history, in order to gain bludgeoning time to accomplish this purpose. Only the effort of the Democratic membership in the General Assembly killed this proposal. This same two-factioned Governor with a one-tax mind, whose television antics at the Republican Convention made him a national laughing stock, to the discredit of Pennsylvania, is now strangely silent on his own or his party's program, with a legislative session less than four months distant. The only Republican program on the table is the old Fine program and his party's unfinished business—the universal wage tax.

In striking contrast, and in fulfillment of its 1950 platform pledges, the Democratic Party through its members in the House and the Senate, introduced bills for each of the legislative proposals in its platform. Each of these proposals was lost behind a Republican inspired and controlled Legislative Iron Curtain, where many legislative sins were concealed in the secrecy of House and Senate Committees.

We not only advocate, we not only favor, we not only recommend, but we unequivocally pledge to the people of Pennsylvania that a Democratic victory in Pennsylvania will bring action in regard to:

STATE CONSTITUTION—

We pledge the people of Pennsylvania an opportunity to vote upon the adoption of a new State Constitution.

LEGISLATIVE REAPPORTIONMENT—

Due to flagrant disregard of the State Constitution by Republican-controlled legislatures, Pennsylvania has developed "rotten borough" representation in both the State House of Representatives and the State Senate. In the last session of the State Senate, twenty Democratic senators actually represented more people than thirty Republican senators. The Constitution directs that the seats be reapportioned after each census; Pennsylvania has not had legislative reapportionment since 1921. The Democratic Party pledges its support of a reapportionment bill which will make sure that every Pennsylvania citizen is equally represented at Harrisburg.

TAXES—

We pledge enactment of legislation which will consolidate and simplify the present corporate tax structure, thus reducing the present burden of duplicated tax returns.

We shall continue to oppose a flat wage or income tax and a general sales tax.

We pledge the full disclosure of all hidden departmental surpluses and the adoption of an administrative program designed to keep state expenditures well within the range of estimated revenue.

We reaffirm our conviction that no new State taxes are necessary.

COMMUNISM—

The Democratic Party abhors Communism, because Communists are enemies of the rights of freedom of speech, freedom of press, freedom of religion, and freedom of assembly, which are the cardinal principles of our society.

We pledge constant vigilance against truly subversive activity, and we believe that our society must protect itself by full application of the force of law against those who seek to accomplish the forceful and violent overthrow of our government.

The Democratic Party equally abhors those who resort to such Communistic methods as systematic lies and character assassination, and the glorification of untrustworthy informers, under the guise of fighting Communism, but actually to promote selfish and partisan ends. This has been justly styled as McCarthyism, and it can be as evil and conscienceless as Communism itself. It takes deeds, not words, to oppose Communism effectively. The Democratic Party—in the nation, and in the state—has supplied those deeds.

CIVIL RIGHTS—

We re-affirm our 1950 pledge which in effect stated as follows: We pledge full civil rights for all our people in employment, security of person and family; eradication of discrimination based on race, religion, sex, color or national origin; a state Fair Employment Practices Commission with adequate enforcement powers.

Pennsylvania's Democratic Congressmen and Democratic members of the Legislature fought for fair employment practices legislation. Consistent with their practice of promising everything and giving nothing, Governors Martin, Duff and Fine and their reactionary legislatures killed fair employment practices legislation.

We pledge the abolition of state-supported segregated schools and of segregated divisions of the Commonwealth's fighting forces, and we will take statutory steps to curb search-and-seizure raids to the end that Pennsylvania practices may be brought into conformity with Federal law. We recognize the many patriotic contributions made by Americans of foreign birth and pledge them equal opportunity to work in every field and to participate in public service.

LABOR—

We pledge:

Liberalization of the workmen's compensation, unemployment compensation and occupational disease compensation laws by increasing minimum and maximum benefits and benefit periods to meet present day needs and living costs.

Legislation making coverage under the Workmen's Compensation Act compulsory and not elective.

A fair anti-injunction law which will require hearings before a temporary injunction and a jury trial before a permanent injunction can be issued in labor disputes.

A wage and hour law patterned after the Federal act with a minimum wage to meet present-day needs and living costs.

Requirement of prevailing wage rates on all government sponsored contracts and projects.

Full protection and equality for women in industry, with equal pay for equal work.

Full enforcement of industrial safety, regulatory and sanitation laws. Restoration of the 1937 State labor relations act and support of the Democratic National platform on Federal labor legislation.

Legislation to insure minimum crew complements and crew requirements based upon the general practice in the railroad industry, and to provide that future railroad construction shall include clearance regulations providing maximum safety.

Repeal of the anti-labor legislation enacted by the administrations of Governors James, Martin and Duff.

FARMERS—

We pledge the following ten-point program for agriculture:

1. Establishment of a sound and adequate program for control and eradication of diseases in poultry, cattle and plant life in the Commonwealth.

2. Expansion of facilities at Pennsylvania State College for research with a view to developing improved breeds and varieties of plants and animals to be made available to the farmers.

3. Establishment of a school of Veterinary Medicine at Pennsylvania State College to educate and prepare more rural veterinarians.

4. Establishment of a system of Junior Colleges in Pennsylvania, so that rural boys and girls will have the same opportunity for higher education as those in metropolitan areas.

5. Development of a more adequate system for making available to rural boys and girls, vocational agriculture and home economics courses.

6. Full refund to farmers of gasoline tax paid on fuel used in farm machinery.

7. Amendment of the Public Utility Law to provide a simple procedure under which farmers can appeal for adequate telephone and electric service at fair rates and fair installation charges.

8. Amendment of the Milk Control Law with a view to simplifying the method of payment for milk to farmers by distributors.

9. Requirement that the Game Commission preserve a balance between recreational opportunities of sportsmen and losses to farmers due to destruction of crops by game.

10. Provision that one cent of the gasoline tax be appropriated to townships for construction of improved rural roads.

MILK CONTROL—

The Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission, as administered by the Republican Party, rigs the price of dairy products so that the consumer pays too much and the farmer gets too little. The Democratic Party believes that a free market should be restored in the distribution and retailing of milk and dairy products, and that the Commission's powers should be restricted to a guarantee of prices to the farmer which assure cost of production and a fair return for labor and investment. Milk is a health-building food. The state should encourage its production and consumption and not limit its use by artificially high retail prices.

ALCOHOL BEVERAGE CONTROL—

Pennsylvania, through mismanagement by its Liquor Control Board, is losing millions of dollars of revenue each year. Its favoritism and political purchasing methods raise prices sky-high and breed boot-legging and tax evasion. This overpricing has resulted in diminishing returns. The Democratic Party will completely overhaul the Liquor Control Board and its administration, and will insure this state that its liquor monopoly will add to the state's revenues, charge prices honestly based on proper merchandising methods, and will properly enforce the liquor control laws.

HEALTH—

The Democratic Party pledges unqualified and vigorous support for the achievement of a competent and non-political state health department, which will carry out the program of improved health services through county units approved with bi-partisan support at the 1951 session of the Legislature. That program is now being jeopardized by the Republican State Administration, which gives its public lip service support and private sabotage. Not one county health unit has been set up in Pennsylvania, and the "reform" of the state health department is only one man deep. Under Republican administration, Pennsylvania has an outmoded and politically infested health department, for which the price is wasted tax dollars and unnecessary disease and human misery.

The Democratic Party is opposed to "socialized medicine." It does believe in the highest standards of public health, in the provision of good hospital and medical care for everyone, and the constant improvement and expansion of medical education and research.

The Democratic Party will enact legislation to reimburse the cities and counties that are caring for tuberculosis patients from their own tax funds because the state will not meet its responsibilities. We condemn and will rectify the failure upon the part of the Department of Welfare to employ medical and nursing personnel adequate to staff hospitals for the mentally and physically ill. Pennsylvania is exporting trained men and women from its institutions as a result of its unwillingness to pay salaries adjusted to present living costs. By failure to increase technical staffs employed in state hospitals, the departments are not only denying care to the physically and mentally ill but are destroying the usefulness of a $175,000,000 General State Authority construction program.

EDUCATION—

We pledge an actual and adequate teachers salary program.

We pledge a continuation of the school lunch program.

We will preserve and safe-guard the teachers' tenure law.

We will extend vocational training at all high schools to further skills and technical knowledge now so sorely needed in modern civilization.

We pledge the elimination of partisan politics from the public school system at the state and local level.

We will adequately support State teachers' colleges, and appoint the full quota of trustees for each college.

We pledge the establishment of fair and specific standards for the distribution of funds to distressed school districts.

HOUSING—

The Democratic Party will maintain intact all state enabling laws which assist its citizens in securing good homes under both private and publicly financed housing programs. The state's power and influence should be constantly applied to promote home ownership, and to develop and secure construction and protection of homes. We pledge adequate standby rent control legislation if necessary in the event Federal rent controls are permitted to lapse.

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE—

We pledge to clean up the mess created by the costly maladministration of the Department of Public Assistance; and the establishment of realistic standards of assistance measured by human needs under current living costs.

PUBLIC UTILITIES—

Pennsylvania's Public Utility Commission has become the spokesman for, and defender of, the public utilities it is supposed to regulate in the public interest. Every member of the Public Utility Commission was appointed by a Republican governor. The Republican Party has full responsibility for its failures.

The Democratic Party will enact far-reaching legislation which will force the Public Utility Commission to do its duty in protecting the people of Pennsylvania against ever increasing rates for electric power, gas, telephone, bus and trolley services.

Such legislation will compel the Commission to use prudent investment value as the basis for rates; to issue orders which are clearly appealable to the courts in all cases where rate increases are permitted; and to stop its present practice of pyramiding utility rate increases, by permitting newer and higher tariffs to go into effect even before previously granted increases are finally approved.

Such legislation will force the PUC to grant public hearings before permitting protested rate increases to go into effect. We further pledge amendment of the Public Utility laws to permit the courts to review the Commission's finding of facts on an equal basis on appeal either by the consumer or the public utility.

By virtue of present PUC policies, the utilities of Pennsylvania have become self-policing institutions.

The activities of the PUC are financed by means of charges it levies upon the utilities it is supposed to regulate. Persistent refusal upon the part of the PUC to collect revenues sufficient to enable it to do a proper regulatory job has resulted in a rate structure fixed by the utilities themselves.

We pledge the enactment of legislation which will relieve the burden now imposed upon municipalities which must necessarily contest rate increases by assuring the PUC an income which will make possible the employment of a staff sufficiently large to enable it to serve the public interest instead of remaining, as at present, a utility charity charge.

HIGHWAYS—

We pledge a balanced and adequately planned highway construction program giving proper consideration to farm-to-market roads and metropolitan expressways.

We pledge all-year maintenance of our roads and the elimination of politically inspired temporary pre-election road work which is wasteful and ineffective.

STATE PLANNING—

State government in Pennsylvania has no continuity in planning because no program is mapped out beyond the range of a single governor's term, and because the departments of the state government are not brought into common planning by any agency. The state needs a non-partisan citizens' planning commission, reporting directly to the Governor and the Legislature, authorized to make long-range studies and do long-range programming for the Commonwealth. The existing state planning board is buried in the useless Department of Commerce, and its citizen members, despite good intentions, accomplish almost nothing. We pledge the establishment of an effective state planning agency, so that the state's construction programs will be geared to its real needs—present and future.

We pledge all-out state assistance and cooperation with the Federal government in the elimination and curtailment of under-ground and over-ground fires now menacing the coal fields of Pennsylvania.

FIREMEN—

We pledge re-enactment of legislation to provide permanent distribution of the proceeds of the 2% foreign fire insurance tax to the paid and volunteer firemen of our state, as previously provided by law and made temporary by a Republican controlled legislature.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP—

Voting is the first basis of good citizenship. We pledge enactment of laws that will encourage and simplify registration and voting for every eligible person. We pledge enactment of an absentee voting law, so that citizens unavoidably away from home will not lose their franchise. We believe that young men and women of eighteen have sufficient capacity and judgment to vote intelligently, and that voting at eighteen will encourage habits of good citizenship. We favor an amendment to the State Constitution which will lower the permissible voting age to eighteen. We pledge legislation providing that all employees be allowed paid time off for voting in primary and general elections.

VETERANS—

We pledge passage of enabling legislation to permit all Pennsylvania veterans to receive full benefits of Federal legislation, and to extend to veterans with Korean service the benefits of the Pennsylvania Bonus Act.

CLEAN STREAMS—

The Democratic Party initiated the clean streams program in Pennsylvania with the passage of the LaRue Act of 1937, and it will fully and strongly support the purification of our waters. We will resist any attempt by the Republican State Administration to weaken or delay the program, and we call for positive aid from the State to the municipalities which it has ordered to complete sewage treatment plans and plants. The state has a duty not only to enforce the clean streams program, but to aid local communities in meeting the costs which it necessarily brings with it. We further point out that stream purification in Pennsylvania will not be a reality until acid drainage from coal mines is corrected, and we pledge an intensive program of research and action as to mine drainage. This is necessary so that municipalities will not find that the vast sums they are now spending for sewage treatment will be wasted. Acid rivers and streams will not support fish life, and will not provide recreational values. It is a fraud on the people to pretend that they will.

OUTDOORS—

We pledge the maximum development of hunting and fishing opportunities in Pennsylvania's woodlands. We pledge conservation of our forests, streams, soil and wildlife. We pledge the development of the state's parks and, particularly, the development of roadside picnic areas in which Pennsylvania is shamefully behind its sister states.

PITTSBURGH—

We pledge continued and enthusiastic state cooperation with the dramatically successful improvement and redevelopment program of the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, including the full development of Point Park and the rapid completion of the system of highways and parkways now in construction. We will support legislation to aid Pittsburgh's commerce by the creation of a Port of Pittsburgh Authority, empowered to construct a rail-river-truck terminal.

PHILADELPHIA—

We pledge such legislation as will further modernize Philadelphia's government and further improve the Philadelphia metropolitan area.

LEGISLATIVE PROCESS—

Pennsylvania's General Assembly conceals many of its legislative sins behind a legislative iron curtain. The Democratic Party of Pennsylvania denounces, and will continue its efforts to destroy this iron curtain. The work of committees is a part of the legislative process, and the Democratic Party of Pennsylvania holds that decisions arrived at by legislative committees are a part of the legislative process and should therefore be a matter of public record.

At the 1951 Session, Democratic members of the House, to no avail, endeavored to amend House Rule No. 31 by providing that the "ayes" and "nays" of the members of a committee could be demanded by two members thereof on any question before it; that the vote be entered on the minutes of the committee, and made available for public examination. It is in committees that strong measures, designed in the public interest, are killed or weakened with weasel words, by the spokesmen for the special interest who speak in secret behind the legislative iron curtain.

I have been told that there was no need for a platform in 1952 since you are disposed to use the one framed in the gubernatorial campaign. That, perhaps, is a species of economy that could well be practiced. You well could use your own platform, because goodness knows you have not used it up to this time. The pledges that it contained are still pledges incumbent upon the leadership on the majority said to fulfill.

I would like at this time to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHNSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is it the determined disposition on the part of the majority to bring an FEPC bill to an early vote in this House? And by an early vote I mean in the first two weeks that the House is in session.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the interrogation I would say that you will recall Governor Fine in his opening speech to the Legislature went out quite strongly for an FEPC bill.

There will be introduced into this House an administration FEPC bill. As to when it will reach the floor for a vote I cannot say. It will be referred to a proper Committee; the Committee will look into the bill, study the bill, and will give it the action that the Committee deems best.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

I have a further question. Is it the determined disposition upon the part of the majority leadership to bring to the floor of this House a bill providing for a constitutional convention and do so at an early date?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that question I believe that I am at liberty to state that very early, perhaps tomorrow, a bill for a constitutional convention will be introduced into this House. And again as to when it will hit the floor for a vote will depend on committee action.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a further question: Is it the determined disposition on the part of the majority leadership to bring to the floor of this House for early consideration a legislative re-apportionment bill?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I must, in answer to that question, say that as of this moment there has not been any crystallized opinion as to what action will be taken on that. It is under discussion and the answer to that question I am sure will be given at an early date.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the minority I believe I can say that we shall press for an early consideration of FEPC legislation. This House, at the last session, passed an FEPC bill. There is no reason why there should be prolonged discussion. There is no reason why an FEPC bill should become a matter of bargaining; of legislative barrel rolling. Let us thrash this issue out soon and have a decision. It is my present disposition that you will get the backing of the minority to a bill which the minority will present. And after that bill has been in the possession of the Committee for eight days, we shall move for a discharge of the Committee.

With reference to a bill for a constitutional convention, may I point out to the Members of this House that we cannot—until we know whether we are going to submit to the people of Pennsylvania a bill providing for a constitutional convention and know whether the people are going to accept a new constitution—we cannot plan for the reorganization of our state government upon a long range basis. We cannot outline a financial program upon a long range basis; and until a constitution has been submitted to the people and either accepted or rejected, and we know whether or not it is possible to include in our tax structure a graduated income tax, it will be our disposition upon this part of the House to oppose any enlargement, any broadening of our tax structure and to confine the revenues of the Commonwealth within the compass of the present patchwork system that we have.

Mr. Speaker, were there any time limits that the Chair desires to impose upon me?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman that there has been no time limit set today. We are now waiting the Senate at 5:20. If possible, we will try to work in a Slate Committee report. But if the gentleman would still like to use those 25 minutes, he has a perfect right to do so and we can present the Slate Committee report after the Senate meets with us. The gentleman may proceed.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to inflict 25 minutes upon such amiable, smiling people as I see on the other side of this House.

I would desire further to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHNSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, can the Majority Leader inform the House as to whether or not in the budget that His Excellency the Governor is about to submit cognizance has been taken of any of the economies suggested by the so-called "Little Hoover" Committee?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, we have heard a lot about the so-called "Little Hoover Committee" report. I understand that it has been an excellent study. Those who have been on the Committee—particularly our former Speaker, Herbert Sorg—say it has been a very interesting study, and a lot of good will come out of the report.

Many of the savings and changes that will be recommended by the Chesterman report will be some that can be put into effect by executive action, by action within the departments without any legislation. A good many of the savings will require legislation on the part of this House and the Senate. Then again many of the savings will require constitutional amendments.

Now I understand that as far as the Budget of His Excellency the Governor is concerned, it will reflect those savings that the Governor can accomplish himself through executive action. Any savings as a result of legislation will have to be put in by this House through bills introduced. And if in the opinion of this body and the Senate the bills effect a saving, the reduction in the budget, if any, can be accomplished through the several Appropriations Committees.

Now as to those savings which will come about as a result of constitutional amendment, those will have to await either amending the Constitution by a vote of the people and passing two sessions of this House, or will come about through a constitutional convention which would no doubt take heed of what this very illustrious committee set forth.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a further question if you please.

Has the Majority Leader been consulted by His Excellency, the Governor, concerning the various budgetary items?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker. In answer to that question, the budget, after all is the budget of His Excellency, the Governor, and what might have taken place behind the scenes, as it were, is really in the nature of a confidential communication, and I would rather not divulge it at this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. A further question: Does the Majority Leader know of any Member of this House, who has been consulted concerning the various items in the budget which His Excellency, the Governor, will present?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, Well, in answer to that question there again, Mr. Andrews, I would feel that I am not at liberty to divulge that, even if I did know any Member that has discussed it with the Governor.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, we have an executive budget, but we are a coordinate branch of this government, and we have just listened to the astounding theory that the preparation of a budget is a confidential project concerning which not even the Majority Leader is privileged to question.

Now in regard to this branch of the Government, it is the Governor's responsibility to present an executive budget, but it would seem to me to be His Excellency's responsibility to at least pay some passing tribute to this House, and we should not, as members of the General Assembly be expected to pass upon a budget concerning which no single Member of this House has had the opportunity to advise with or consult the Executive.

The first business we have is to place our own house in order if we are to expect that the Departments of the State Government will be well served; if we are to expect that there will be no drones and absentees upon Departmental payrolls, it is our business to see to it that we are well-served, there will be no drones or absentees upon our payrolls.

I want to pay my tribute to the members of the State Committee who have tried, worked against pressure to keep the employed personnel of this House within proper limits. I want to pay my tribute to the Chief Clerk who has done his best to try to recruit a force of Sergeants-at-Arms who will be here on duty and to institute a system of keeping a record so that we will know how many of those we have upon the payroll are actually in service and are actually here. But we cannot expect the State Committee to stand up against pressure if Members of this House insist that incapable employes be placed upon the payroll simply for their convenience. It is our business to see to it that the people we hire are here and in service, and that they are capable. If they are not we should ask for another who is capable, not somebody who come here simply to accommodate the convenience of some Member. If we have Assistant Sergeants-at-Arms, they should be here. If they are not here, Mr. Speaker, I think I would resort to the expedient of trying to place upon the order of business before adjournment, a roll-call of House employed personnel, to find out how many Monday servants we have, how many there are who appear on Monday and then vanish before Tuesday noon.

I want to thank the Members of this House for their attention. We will have more to say about the issues that face us in the days to come and we shall expect, that the very excellent pronouncement of His Excellency the Governor in his recent address before this House that read like an extract from the State Papers of Harry Truman and lesser statesmen, will rest upon your conscience.

We expect performance. We expect Departmental bills to come in here early in the season and not drag along until May and June. We expect that you will tell us, and tell the people of this State what you are going to do, when you are going to do it, and proceed forthwith to do it.

We'll have occasion to discuss the budget to be presented shortly by His Excellency, the Governor. Until we definitely know how many of the economies suggested by the Chesterman Committee have actually been included in that budget and how many of the possible economies suggested by the Chesterman Committee to be accomplished by legislation can be included in that budget, we can't even begin to discuss that budget intelligently.

So, Mr. Speaker, thanking you for your consideration, and thanking the Members of the House for their attention, we yield the floor to more capable exponents.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. JOHNSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I listened with great interest to the words of the Minority Leader. I particularly want to comment on what he had to say about the calling the constitutional convention and the fact that this House cannot do business until we know whether we are going to have a new Constitution or not. I do not know if he said it in exactly those words, but that is the gist of what he had to say.

I would say that we will have to go on here and do business as usual. We will have to plan our session in the absence of any new Constitution. Of course we do not know what a constitutional convention if it is called will bring forth. There will be many, many, many ideas put forth before a constitutional convention, many of which will no doubt will be reactionary. And we the people of Pennsylvania, and this House of course, do not know what the new Constitution will be.

Therefore we will have to proceed in an orderly way as before. We all agree that there should be some revision of our Constitution. There are many outmoded clauses in the Constitution.

Governor Fine spoke to the Pennsylvania Bar Association recently and pointed out many of the changes that he thought should be made in the Constitution. They will be given a thorough sifting by a constitutional convention which will be called I believe pursuant to a vote of the people. That is to say, the people will vote on who the delegates are going to be and they then will draft a Constitution which will be submitted to the people. So we cannot do anything about it until we get it. You know it will take two sessions and a vote of the people to even amend our Constitution.

Now as to the House employes—the various employes have been instructed to be here and on the job. They will no doubt today take the oath of office that they will faithfully serve the Commonwealth. We have a very fine body of employes this session coming from all parts of the state and from all walks of life. We are going to have an orderly session.

In further answer to the Minority Leader we are going to say that naturally we want to have a quick business-like session. We are going to lay before this House a sound program for Pennsylvania. It will not be too long before Governor Fine will be here and lay before us his budget.

This is my fourth session and it is the first time I believe that we have ever had the budget before the first day of February. It is the Governor's budget. I believe that the statute law of Pennsylvania places the duty on the Governor to prepare and lay before this body a budget, and he has done that very thing. There is nothing in the law that says he must confide or talk to anybody as to what he is going to put into that budget. We get the budget and it is then up to us to analyze the budget. The Appropriations Committee will conduct their usual investigation. In many cases they will cut the budget appropriations. They will give it a thorough going-over. And after we have ascertained what the total appropriations will amount to, we will then know the amount of new taxes that we will have to provide for in this session.

We hope that it will be a very small amount that will be necessary to be raised after the economies are put into effect. This we hope will be an economical session.

We are all economically minded. The people of Pennsylvania want us to be that way. You will see in a few minutes when Governor Fine comes here that his budget is a minimum budget for a great state like Pennsylvania. The newspapers have already said that it is about a billion dollar budget for the general fund. That is an exceedingly small budget for a great state like Pennsylvania. California's budget is a billion dollars a year and more. Our budget is a billion for two years. New York State has a billion for one year. The city of New York—how would you like to live in the City of New York, their budget is a billion, three hundred million for one year.

We perform a lot of social service, that is, we have great welfare institutions and mental institutions. We are doing a wonderful job in education and it takes money. It is surprising that we can operate within such a small budget as Governor Fine will present here this afternoon.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BOWER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker. I wish to report to the membership of the House of Representatives that the Slate Committee has been successful in providing an adequate staff to carry out the business of the House in the most efficient and expeditious manner.

At the same time, I am proud to say that this has been done in the most economical manner possible and that the Slate Committee has not found it necessary to fill every place which the Slate Committee has been authorized to fill.

As the business of the House increases in the coming weeks and additional employes are needed, the Slate Committee will add to the staff but it will do so with economy—the watchword of this 1953 Session of the General Assembly—foremost in its mind.

The PRESIDENT. Members of the General Assembly, the Chair has the honor and the privilege of presenting His Excellency, The Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Honorable John S. Fine.

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR JOHN S. FINE

GOVERNOR FINE. Lieutenant-Governor Wood, Speaker Smith, Honorable Members of the General Assembly:

I am laying before the General Assembly and the public today a Budget of the State's estimated financial income and outgo for the fiscal biennium from June 1, 1953, to May 31, 1955.

I want to take this occasion to make some comments about the Budget, a copy of which, with my detailed message, will be placed on your desks.

This Budget has been prepared under different circumstances than those existing two years ago. At that time the effects on our economy of the Korean conflict and the national defense program could not be assessed. We are now in a better position to see these effects upon State activities and State finances. However, there are still imponderables in both situations affecting the future. This makes budget-making still somewhat difficult, and to some extent transitory and subject to change.

Before turning to the new Budget I think it will be advantageous to very briefly review the last Budget and what was done with it in the last session of the Legislature.

The Budget presented in March 1951 called for appropriations of $853 millions. We estimated General Fund revenues with a surplus to be $690 millions in available funds. That figure was still $163 millions less than the appropriations requested.

But that only tells part of the story. The Legislature reduced my budgetary requests by $22 millions and then added $61 millions of other appropriations. This brought the over-all amount of appropriations up to $892 millions. I approved $890 millions.

During the session we had opportunity to revise our estimate of revenues to bring the figure up to $711 millions from taxes in existence at the time the Budget was presented, from transfers from special funds, an actual surplus of $17.9 millions and an estimated $162½ millions of new increased and accelerated taxes passed by the Legislature.

For the first fiscal year of the present biennium, we collected $16 millions more in revenues than we had estimated. The steel strike affected the yield of some taxes in this second year. This is particularly true of the corporate net income tax. We anticipate that its yield this year will be less than in the first year of the biennium.

We estimate that the total revenues to be collected for the second year of the biennium ending May 31st next will bring the total up to $861 millions for the 1951-53 biennium, $12 millions below the biennial estimate we made.

Lapses in appropriations build up a surplus; deficiencies pull it down. We are fortunate that the amount of lapsed appropriations from four bienniums will be about $39 millions. This is much higher than usual. But we have $12½ millions of deficiencies as well as loss in estimated revenue. I am recommending appropriations for these deficiencies. Nevertheless, we estimate there will be an unobligated surplus May 31st this year of $9.8 millions.

That is the financial picture as we turn to the State Budget for 1953-1955 biennium. In its preparation we have done our level best to develop a minimum Budget. We have considered the obligations now imposed by law which we computed on the strictest basis to keep them at minimum. Perhaps our computation of mandated obligations may be too low by some millions.

The Budget I am submitting today does not represent what the various State agencies feel they need. In the interest of the most rigid economy possible without impairment of services, I have cut $66 millions from their requests, which they computed as necessities.

All but about $39 millions of the increases in appropriations recommended in this Budget are required by existing laws stringently construed. That's a point I ask you to remember.

Necessarily some important assumptions had to be made in preparing the Budget. We must assume that the national defense program will in the next two years affect our economy pretty much as it does at present. We are projecting on the theory that there may be some considerable reduction of federal taxes during the coming biennium.

Budgetarily speaking this is an optimistic outlook. It may prove to be too optimistic. But we felt we should be bold enough to make it.

On this basis I am recommending appropriations in this Budget of about one billion four million dollars. Right at this point I want to call your attention to the fact that California's Budget for this fiscal year, is for approximately the same amount, substantially, as for our own State's net two-year Budget. Remember, too, the population of the two states is about equal in numbers. In other words Pennsylvania's government costs only about one-half the cost of government in California.

Our Budget is only $100 millions above appropriations, including deficiencies, for the two years just ending. And bear in mind, please, that we will lose $52.5 millions in the next two years in accelerated corporate net income tax.

Without adding our anticipated surplus we have estimated revenues of $836.8 millions from all taxes now in existence if the Legislature re-enacts those requiring re-enactment.

Considering all the estimated funds available for the next two years, we are still $157 millions below the amount of appropriations recommended in the Budget. That presently is the amount of additional revenue needed. It may grow in amount or diminish during your deliberations.

Nothing is included in this Budget for $209 millions requested for capital improvements. These requests come mainly from the welfare institutions, the State teachers' colleges, and Pennsylvania State College.

In my opinion, much construction should be undertaken. It should, however, be given more study before decision. The General State Authority should assume whatever projects are agreed upon. It will then be necessary to raise the borrowing limit of that agency from its present $235 millions. I shall be glad to confer with you on this question, as, of course, I will on any subject having to do with this Budget.

I do not claim this Budget is sacrosanct. It is open to changes, but they should be specified. I invite the closest scrutiny and analysis. In that process you will have every administrative cooperation.

Some preliminary estimates of savings have already been made by the State Government Survey Committee. I have taken immediate cognizance of these estimates which can be reflected immediately in the Budget. A large number of millions in savings over the next biennium will be recommended by the Committee. When their full report is made I shall speak to you on it specifically and in detail.

Those which can now be made by administrative action—some $6 million—have been recognized in this Budget.

Others quite apparently require legislative action to become effective. Still other and more numerous recommendations from the Committee may necessitate amending the Constitution. If we amend the Constitution with many proposed amendments at one time such action could only create confusion. This in itself points up the wisdom of legislative approval for a convention to revise the State's basic law.

This Administration is chiefly concerned with continuous betterment, at the least cost possible, of direct and efficient services from the State to the people.

The appropriations recommended by me for public education represent a little more than half of the entire Budget, and about five per cent increase of the total General Fund Budget.

The next highest amount of appropriations recommended, 29.06 per cent of the Budget—is for public health, assistance, and welfare—all directly beneficial to the public. Economies effected in public assistance brought the percentage down. We propose further savings by still stricter supervision and better non-support laws for family relations.

The State presently pays 42 per cent of the total cost of our schools. This percentage is projected higher. There will be a 22 per cent increase in educational costs during the next biennium, practically all of the increase is already legislated.

Increased appropriations for our six medical colleges are recommended. I am placing these institutions substantially on a par in the amount allocated per student. Pennsylvania currently is not troubled—as is the rest of the Country—by a shortage of doctors. Nevertheless, we must increase their number so that our people will not suffer in the future from their lack. We are foremost now in medical conservators of life and health. We must retain that humanitarian rating.

I am recommending an increase of 15 per cent for our three Universities—Temple, University of Pittsburgh, and University of Pennsylvania—and for Pennsylvania State College. We will bolster its research in veterinary medicine at State College.

Our citizens' safety is a matter of deep concern to all of us. Accidents on our highways are always deplorable. I have already assured more State Police to the Pennsylvania Turnpike. I am now requesting an additional 200 State Policemen to better patrol our highways, including the turnpike, in hope of reducing highway accidents. The State Motor License Fund would bear their cost.

To levy additional taxes on our people, when they now carry a burden under which they must make many sacrifices, is a most serious matter. Before you do so you should be convinced that every dollar of appropriations recommended in this Budget is essential. My outstanding aim as heretofore stated has been to prepare a minimum Budget. I invite your examination of every appropriation recommended to determine whether I have accomplished that purpose. I repeat I will give you my full cooperation in such an examination of the Budget, as will every department and agency under my jurisdiction.

I am hopeful that the citizens of Pennsylvania will actively evince interest in legislative and administrative proceedings concerning the State's financial income and outgo, which, in the last analysis, is of deepest concern to them as taxpayers. I feel that the people, the Legislature, and the administrative branch of government working in close cooperation can achieve best fiscal results. It is my opinion that the Administration has arrived at a fair and a minimum Budget. I want the Legislature and the people to be so convinced, or the Budget be modified in accordance with their wishes.

After you have thoroughly examined the Budget and considered within approximation other appropriation—requests not budgeted, you will then know within reasonable limitations how much money will have to be spent and how much money you must raise during the next biennium. In other words, let us first determine what we are going to spend, and then proceed to raise, as harmlessly as possible, the money for the necessary purposes. At that time I shall cooperate with you to mold the fairest possible tax program. You have my best wishes. May you prayerfully assume and discharge your tremendous responsibilities.

The PRESIDENT. Governor Fine, on behalf of the General Assembly, I thank you for your informative message, and assure you that it will receive our careful and thoughtful consideration.

The Committee on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives will now escort His Excellency the Governor to his Chambers.

The purpose for which the Joint Session of the General Assembly was convened having been accomplished, the Chair declares the Joint Session adjourned.

The Senators will please reassemble in the Senate Chamber.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) in the Chair.

JOINT SESSION PROCEEDINGS TO BE PRINTED in LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

Mr. WESCOTT. Mr. Speaker.

I move that the proceedings of the Joint Session of the Senate and House be printed in full in this day's Legislative Journal.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

L. 1352), entitled "An act providing for joint action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey in the administration, operation, and maintenance of bridges over the Delaware River, and for the construction of additional bridge facilities across said river; authorizing the Governor, for these purposes, to enter into an agreement with the State of New Jersey; creating a Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission and specifying the powers and duties thereof, including the power to finance the construction of additional bridges by the issuance of revenue bonds to be redeemed from revenues derived from tolls collected at such bridges; transferring to said commission all powers now exercised by existing commission created to acquire toll bridges over the Delaware River; and making an appropriation," by authorizing the Governor to enter into a supplemental compact or agreement on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with the State of New Jersey amending and supplementing the compact or agreement entitled "Agreement between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey creating the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission as a body corporate and politic and defining its powers and duties," as heretofore amended and supplemented; enlarging the jurisdiction and powers of said commission with respect to the acquisition, construction, administration, operation and maintenance of port and terminal facilities, the financing thereof, and the fixing, charging and collecting of tolls and other charges for the use of said port and terminal facilities; authorizing the issuance of negotiable bonds and obligations of the commission; providing for the designation of deputies to act for and in behalf of absent ex-officio members of said commission from Pennsylvania; authorizing the combining for financing purposes of any such port and terminal facilities with any bridge or bridges heretofore or hereafter constructed or acquired by said commission; and authorizing the Governor to apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the Congress of the United States for its consent to such supplemental compact or agreement.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 42, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," by prohibiting the abandonment of refrigerators and iceboxes from which latches have not been removed.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Messrs. WATKINS, WATSON, PROPERT and HARNEY read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 43, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 of the act, approved the fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred thirty-two (P. L. 45), entitled "An act empowering cities of the first and second classes to levy, assess and collect, or to provide for the levying, assessment and collection of, certain additional taxes for general revenue purposes; authorizing the establishment of bureaus, and the appointment and compensation of officers and employees to assess and collect such taxes; and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced," by prohibiting the imposition of wage, income or occupation taxes on nonresidents and abolishing such taxes heretofore imposed.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. WATKINS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 44, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 of the Act approved the fourteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two, (Appropriation Acts 70), entitled, "An act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn, in the County of Delaware, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and prescribing certain conditions upon which the appropriation will be available to the school," by increasing the per capita annual maintenance rate of wards of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. MALLERY read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 45, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds" by regulating the reception and discharge of school children from school buses.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I am about to present a bill which would adopt as the official State song for Pennsylvania a song composed by Mrs. Helen Hall Bucher, of Cumberland County.

Mr. President, for the information of the Members of the Senate, this is the song that was used very extensively during the Pennsylvania Week of 1952, particularly by the Department of Commerce of the Commonwealth.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WADE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 46, entitled:

An Act declaring and adopting the song "Pennsylvania" by Helen Hall Bucher as the State song.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 47, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by requiring red markings on the back of hunters.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 48, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 of the act, approved the fourteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two (P. L. 201), entitled "A supplement to the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043), entitled 'An act establishing a public school employees' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees; exempting annuities, allowances; returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties,' by extending certain benefits heretofore granted to school employees entering the armed forces of the United States to certain other similarly qualified school employees," by extending the provisions of said act to employees reemployed by any school district or vocational school district by which employed immediately prior to entrance into the armed forces of the United States.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

THIRD YEAR CLASS OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I have the privilege of presenting to the Members of the Senate the third year class of the South Philadelphia High School for Girls, under the direction of Miss Lefkowitz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the guests of the Senator please rise and take a bow?

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I desire to read an editorial that appeared in the Patriot, a Harrisburg newspaper, on Thursday, January 22, 1953. The editorial is related to the recent riots in the Western Penitentiary and the neighboring penitentiary at Bellefonte. I think the editorial is not only timely, but important as well. For that reason, Mr. President, I think it should be made a part of the record. The editorial is entitled, "Delay and Riots."

"Recently the Pennsylvania Citizens Association for Health and Welfare issued a paper, entitled 'The Missing Keystone in Pennsylvania's Prison Program' authored by Edmund G. Burbank, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Prison Society and vice president of the International Prisoners' Aid Association.

"Mr. Burbank's conclusion echoes alarmingly, in the light of the riots at the Pittsburgh and Rockview penitentiaries:

"The classification issue, therefore, comes down to this: When and how do we get it? Will the Ashe report be translated into a working program of the Commonwealth by the legislature and governor acting with wise foresight? Or will the Ashe report recommendations be achieved only after destructive outbreaks, investigations, and resultant popular demand for government action? The choice is yours. How do you want it to come about?"

"In explanation of the above, as digested from the paper: The Ashe report was made in 1944 after five Pennsylvanians took a long look into our state correctional institutions: Stanley P. Ashe, chairman; Henry C. Hill, William S. Livengood Jr., Herbert Smith and Robert E. Woodside.

"The need was then seen for a reorganization of our whole penal system, with new buildings then estimated to cost $18 million; but most of all establishment of a classification center, with personnel and policies throughout the system geared to modern penal classifications.

"Mr. Burbank notes: 'Few informed persons cling to the view that prisons are solely for punishment. The modern view is that they ought to be primarily corrective in purpose. They exist essentially to undo what has been done, to reorient the individual in his views regarding the responsibility to his community, to give him the training and treatment that will enable him to carry out responsibility and make him wish to do so, and to restore him to a useful and law-abiding place in society.'

"Classification is the term used to designate the modern method of implementing this correctional purpose—studying the prisoner, planning the individualized program of training and treatment that he needs, seeing that the program is carried out.

"The Pennsylvania General Assembly went into the matter thoroughly; and in 1945 enacted two statutes, adopting the classification program, effective on a date to be fixed by the governor in a proclamation declaring establishment of a classification center.

"The Burbank paper notes: 'Seven years later, in 1952, these acts remain on the statute books. In 1945, eight million dollars were allocated for modernization of the correctional system, but the money got diverted into the mental hospital program. Current reports have the Classification Center high on the priority list of the General State Authority.'

"New York and California have placed similar recommendations in effect.

"It is surprising to note Mr. Burbank's comment: 'Current reports also mention powerful opposition in the Commonwealth to implementing the Ashe Report. There is opposition to a statewide correctional system. There is opposition to a Reception Center at Camp Hill. There is opposition to classification as a clinical method of managing a prison.'

"Mr. Ashe and his associates brought to the study a vast amount of personal knowledge; and, obviously the full report merited the confidence of the General Assembly.

"Investigations of these most recent disorders probably will show many instances wherein the conclusions of the Ashe report were profoundly sound.

"Apparently, in final analysis, riots and outbreaks are not the result of spontaneous action by a large group of convicts but develop from constant, nagging agitation by a hard core of prisoners, with the greater group carried away eventually by mass hysteria. Under a classification system, such agitators would be segregated, allowing the mass of the convicts to employ their time properly and constantly to the primary task of rehabilitation.

"If opposition to the Ashe report is powerful and well-founded, those who sponsor it should forthrightly state their positions. Otherwise, it would appear that the General Assembly is well within its province in inquiring as to why its decisions on important policy have not been made effective."

I just want to make this one observation, Mr. President. I am sure you will agree with me that it doesn't make any difference what sort of committees are appointed to make investigations. They can be composed of the most competent people in the world, but after their investigations are made, and their recommendations are submitted and sound, if they are not put into practice and are not made effective, the investigations are made in vain.

Mr. President, I certainly hope that further study will be given to the Ashe Report, as well as other reports which might be submitted to us, and that this Legislature will take proper action to remedy whatever unfavorable conditions might exist.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE PETITIONING CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO CALL CONVENTION FOR PURPOSE OF AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Messrs. BLASS and WOLFE offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

In the Senate, January 27, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully petitions the Congress of the United States to call a convention for the purpose of proposing the following article as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States:

ARTICLE

Section 1. The sixteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

Section 2. The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration: Provided, That in no case shall the maximum rate of tax exceed twenty-five per cent.

Section 3. The maximum rate of any tax, duty, or excise which Congress may lay and collect with respect to the devolution or transfer of property, or any interest therein, upon or in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after death, or by way of gift, shall in no case exceed twenty-five per cent.

Section 4. The limitations upon the rates of said taxes contained in sections two and three shall, however, be subject to the qualification that in the event of a war in which the United States is engaged creating a grave national emergency requiring such action to avoid national disaster, the Congress by a vote of three-fourths of each house may for a period not exceeding one year increase beyond the limits above prescribed the maximum rate of any such tax upon income subsequently accruing or received or with respect to subsequent devolutions or transfers of property, with like power, while the United States is actively engaged in such war, to repeat such action as often as such emergency may require.

Section 5. Sections one and two shall take effect at midnight on the thirty-first day of December following the ratification of this article. Nothing contained in this article shall effect the power of the United States after said date to collect any tax on incomes for any period ending on or prior to said thirty-first day of December laid in accordance with the terms of any law then in effect.

Section 6. Section three shall take effect at midnight on the last day of the sixth month following the ratification of this article. Nothing contained in this article shall affect the power of the United States to collect any tax on any devolution or transfer occurring prior to the taking effect of section three, laid in accordance with the terms of any law then in effect; and be it further

Resolved, That the Congress of the United States be, and it hereby is, requested to provide ratification that said amendment shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the Constitution of the United States, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states; and be it further

Resolved, That a duly attested copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Secretary of the Senate of the United States, the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each member of the Congress from this State.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE RESOLUTION

DIRECTING GOVERNMENT SURVEY COMMITTEE TO SUBMIT REPORTS TO LEGISLATURE AND THAT SAID COMMITTEE APPEAR BEFORE
SENATE COMMITTEE ON STATE GOVERNMENT

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, January 27, 1953.

Whereas, A government survey committee headed by Mr. Frank Chesterman has been investigating the operations of our State Government, and

Whereas, This committee has uncovered widespread inefficiency, waste, extravagance, and duplication of functions within the State Government, and

Whereas, This wasteful and inefficient operation has cost, and is costing the taxpayers of Pennsylvania the unnecessary expenditure of millions of dollars over a period of years, necessitating fantastic budgetary requirements, as well as increased taxation upon our already over tax-burdened citizens, and

Whereas, This Legislature should, before it considers the Budget and Tax Program, effect every possible economy in the State Government by the elimination of waste, extravagance, and the overlapping and duplication of functions, and

Whereas, The aforementioned government survey committee, although it has publicized its findings of surveys completed, has not presented to the members of the Legislature full and complete copies of its reports.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That the aforementioned government survey committee be directed to submit such of its reports as have been completed to the members of the Legislature, on or before February 15, 1953.

And Be It Further Resolved, That said government survey committee be directed to deliver to the members of the Legislature such other reports of surveys as they are completed from time to time.

And Be It Finally Resolved, That the committee be directed to appear before the Senate Committee on State Government for the purpose of giving first-hand information to such Committee and to enable such committee to prepare, offer and recommend such legislation as may be required in the economic and efficient operation of our State Government.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, as much as I dislike to do so, I must object to the immediate consideration of this resolution and ask that it be referred to the proper committee.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Monday, February 2, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 11:36 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Monday, February 2, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, January 27, 1953

The House met at 10:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

O Thou, who art present in every place and whose grace is everywhere the same, hear us as we pray for all those who serve us in the government of our land, especially the Members of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania. Let Thy fatherly hand ever be over them, and Thy Holy Spirit ever remain their constant strength and guide, that they may have strong defense against all adversities and serve Thee faithfully all their days; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to suggest the absence of a quorum.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, suggests the absence of a quorum. The roll will be called to establish the presence of a quorum.

The Sergeant-at-Arms will close the doors of the House. Members will not be permitted to leave during these proceedings. The Sergeant-at-Arms is instructed to admit any Member to the House during the calling of the roll. Each Member will announce his presence as his name is called.

The Clerk will proceed with the calling of the roll.

The Clerk called the roll.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. JOHNSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I think, Mr. Speaker, out of deference to the Members on our side who are absent this morning, the Majority Leader should make a brief statement as to the causes that have come to my knowledge for their absence.

The Honorable Wrayburn Hall, of Potter County, is not present because of the serious illness of his wife, who, I understand, is going to be operated on today in Coudersport.

The gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Kline, is absent because he is in the American Hospital in Philadelphia for a possible throat operation.

I have been informed that the Honorable Earl Hewitt, from Indiana County, is absent today because of a mouth infection, but he hopes to be here next week.

The gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Bell, is absent; we have a telegram from him. He is in the Veterans' Hospital at Aspinwall and therefore will not be here this week.

The gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Shoemaker, is ill. We understand he has a heart condition, and will not be present this week.

Those are the gentlemen, Mr. Speaker, for whom I desire to put in the record the reason they are not present today.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

By consent of the House leaves of absence were granted as follows:

Mr. Johnson for Mr. HALL because of illness in the family.

Mr. Johnson for Mr. KLINE because of illness.

Mr. Johnson for Mr. HEWITT for the remainder of the week because of illness.

Mr. Johnson for Mr. BELL for the remainder of the week because of illness.

Mr. Johnson for Mr. SHOEMAKER for the remainder of the week because of illness.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 27

In the House of Representatives,
Tuesday, January 27, 1953.

House Rule 27 is hereby amended to read as follows:

A committee composed of the Speaker, seven Members of the House selected by the majority party and three Members selected by the principal minority party shall constitute a Committee on Committees, whose duty shall be to recommend to the House the members of the standing committees.

The chairmen and vice-chairmen of the standing committees shall be named by the Speaker. They shall be in addition to the number of Members on the committees and shall have the right to vote.

The floor leaders of the two major political parties shall be ex-officio members of all standing committees, without the right to vote; and shall be excepted from any limitation as to the number of members on committees.

The standing committees shall be the following:

Aeronautics to consist of 15 members.

Agriculture and Dairy Industries to consist of 20 members.

Appropriations to consist of 20 members.

Banking and Building and Loan Associations to consist of 20 members.

Boroughs to consist of 20 members.

Cities—Counties, First—Second and Second Class A to consist of 20 members.

Cities—Third Class to consist of 15 members.

Counties to consist of 20 members.

Education to consist of 20 members.

Elections and Apportionment to consist of 15 members.

Fisheries to consist of 20 members.

Game and Forestry to consist of 20 members.

Highways to consist of 20 members.

Insurance to consist of 15 members.

Judiciary to consist of 20 members.

Labor Relations to consist of 20 members.

Law and Order to consist of 15 members.

Liquor Control to consist of 20 members.

Military Affairs to consist of 20 members.

Mines and Mining to consist of 15 members.

Motor Vehicles to consist of 20 members.

Municipal Corporations to consist of 15 members.

Professional Licensure to consist of 20 members.

Public Health and Sanitation to consist of 15 members.

Public Utilities to consist of 20 members.

Railroads and Railways to consist of 15 members.

State Government to consist of 20 members.

Townships to consist of 20 members.

Ways and Means to consist of 20 members.

Welfare to consist of 20 members.

Workmen's Compensation to consist of 20 members.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the Members, and without objection, the Chair will lay before the House for its consideration, the amendments to each Rule separately as they are proposed.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 13

Mr. ANDREWS, Mr. Speaker, I rise to offer an amendment to House Rule 13. I believe the desk is already supplied with copies of the amendment, but I am sending additional copies to the desk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend House Rule 13 to read as follows: "The House shall convene on Monday at 9:00 o'clock p. m. unless otherwise ordered. On every other legislative day it shall convene at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is perhaps something unique in the history of the House since it is absolutely devoid of political implications. It is an amendment designed to serve the personal convenience of the Members of this House; and not specifically designed to serve the purposes which the leadership may sometimes have in mind.

The present Rule is wholly a Rule devised by the leadership and forced down the throat of the House composed of many Members who are reluctant to accept the change from 9 o'clock to 4:30.

You know there is an impression prevailing on the majority side that if absolute acquiescence is not accorded the desires of the leaders, something terrible will happen to that Member, something positively terrible. He will probably be read out of the Party.

I want to let you in on a secret: (do not tell the Speaker do not tell the Majority Leader, do not tell the Majority Whip,) there is not anybody going to be read out of any Party at this session of the General Assembly. And I want to say to every Member on the majority side that they need you a darned sight more than you need them. The House can make and break leadership but there is nothing you can do that will make you more than 110, from which the sick brigade must be subtracted.

I simply want to point out that on this side of the House, composed of young and vigorous specimens of the human race, you can rely that after this day—and I emphasize that you can rely that after this day—upon a full attendance of the healthy, handsome young people. I see right here talking instead of listening to me a decaying specimen. I think you ought to, as a matter of party policy, and I will support it—I will support the measure—this House ought to retain the services of special physicians to attend the health of various Members of this House.

Now in all seriousness, a Member comes to Harrisburg on Monday and he has various errands he would like to attend to, various commissions. Here and there is a Member who would like to put in a little time reading the legislation that he is going to be called upon to act upon.

When you meet at 4:30 you do not have time for your errands; you do not have time to go over the Calendar to fortify your mind. You are plunged right into a caucus to discuss measures that you have to take on the say-so of a small number of those leaders who have the opportunity to read the legislation.

From our standpoint as the minority, we find that we can have a better caucus at 7:30 than we can have at 3:00. For some mysterious reason the majority says that it can have a better caucus at 3:00 than it can have at 7:30.

They are afraid of these evening sessions because of non-attendance. Now gentlemen, all the expert poker players are over on our side, as experience demonstrates. And I do not believe that you have so many tipplers over on your side that by 9:00 o'clock you would not be able to muster a sober majority.

The only valid reason that has ever been advanced, valid from the standpoint of the majority, against meeting at 9:00 o'clock that I have ever heard about is that when we meet at 9:00 some pestiferous delegation from Philadelphia comes up to the gallery, or gets in the rear of the Hall of the House, and listens in on what goes on and then goes back and tells the people how we transact business, whereas if we meet at 4:30 there are fewer ones to go back and tell the people what we do or how we do do.

Now I emphasize the fact that this proposed amendment does not have one particle of politics in it. It is an amendment to suit the personal convenience of the Members. Enough Members over on your side have personally assured me that they would prefer 9:00 o'clock if it just were not a matter of being regular and sticking with 4:30. And I say to you, you can vote your convictions—you can vote this down or you can vote it in, and especially to the new Members, you are sitting pretty. From this hour forth you can vote just as you darned please, because if they throw one of you out, then they only have 109; if they throw two out, then they have only 107 and when they get down to 107 they have so gosh darned many sick Members that they do not have a majority.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say to the Minority Leader, the gentleman from Cambria that we, too, are vitally interested in keeping the Members of this House vigorous, healthy and active. I look at the record of the number and I find that we have fewer vigorous men out of this House this morning than we have of those healthy young men on the other side of the House.

Our reason for wanting the hour set at 4:30 is purely and simply to help keep those young men that way. Those men who have sat in this House over the years know that when we met at 9:00 o'clock at night there were many many nights we walked out of the Hall of this House at 1:00 and 2:00 o'clock in the morning. I do not think that is conducive to the health and the activity of the Members of this House.

However, there is, as the Minority Leader states, nothing political about this. It is purely and simply a personal thing. We on this side of the House feel that we get much more efficient operation of this House by convening early on Monday. Staying in real late at night presents a terrific problem to us—and that is the printing problem. When we leave this House at 1:00 and 2:00 o'clock in the morning on Tuesday it is almost impossible for us to get back into session until late Tuesday afternoon and have our printing up to date. So for that reason, and that reason alone, Mr. Speaker, I ask that the Members of this House vote down the amendment offered by the Minority Leader.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, just one brief observation. If, by some fell circumstance, this House votes down this amendment do we have the assurance of the majority that the printing situation will be rectified? That we will have the Journal on our desk and that the things that we ought to have will be here at the time they should be?

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I assure the gentleman from Cambria that every effort will be extended to see that that is accomplished.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, with all due deference to the Chairman we would certainly want a recorded vote on this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ANDREWS and were as follows:

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 27

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to offer an amendment to House Rule 27.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria Mr. Andrews offers an amendment to Rule 27 which the Clerk will read.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend House Rule 27 by striking out in the last line of paragraph one the following:

"and shall have the right to vote" and inserting in lieu thereof a new paragraph to read as follows:

"The Chairman of Standing Committees shall not have the right to vote except in the case of a tie vote. This provision shall be applicable to the vice-chairman when he is presiding in the absence of the Chairman."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, first of all I wish to congratulate the Majority leadership upon a magnificent display of party discipline. From now on I presume the correct reply on the part of the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm, would be "we do not like the amendment, we are not going to take the amendment, we have the votes to vote it down. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I call for a roll call."

However, even the gentleman from Armstrong would be compelled to admit that the proposed amendment to House Rule 27 is designed to cure a manifest inaccuracy in the Rule as it now stands.

There is written into the Rules the presumption that we have Committees or will have Committees of twenty members and of fifteen members and that the division, the party division in those Committees will be twelve to eight. Now it is nothing of the kind under the present rules. On every Committee of twenty there is a voting membership of twenty-two. On every Committee of fifteen there is a voting membership of seventeen.

We propose to rectify that discrepancy by providing that neither the Chairman nor the Vice Chairman of a Committee can vote in case of a tie. That would confine your voting membership, except in a case of a tie, to what your Rule says the committee comprises, Committees of twenty, that is what you propose, or Committees of fifteen, with a continuation of the same proportion of representation that we had the last session.

Now it is more than likely that in the case of this amendment you will vote it down. What I do suggest, that if you vote it down you will be forthright enough to correct your Rules and say that certain Committees will be comprised of twenty-two members. Because the members of the Committee are composed of the ones who have a right to vote.

On this particular amendment I will be willing to take the preceding vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I wish to also thank the Minority Leader for his spirit of cooperation, but I do want to point out one thing about his statement.

Our Rule now reads that the Committee on Committees shall appoint committees consisting of twenty or fifteen members, and in addition it says the Speaker of the House shall appoint the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Committee. So the Committee on Committees are doing their job, they are appointing the number of men that they are told by the rule to appoint and it has been the custom of this House over the years that the Chairman and Vice Chairman have been in addition to the membership of the Committee.

The only point of argument that the Minority Leader has is that the ratio is not right. There is nothing in the Rule that says how many members the Minority or the Majority party shall have on that Committee.

Just for your information I would like to point out that without the Chairman and Vice Chairman we are affording the Minority, a three to two ratio on our Committee membership. And with the Chairman and Vice Chairman that ratio goes to about five to three.

Then I would like to have you turn to the record and look at the membership of the Appropriations Committee in the 1937 session. I point out to you that they had at that time when the minority party now, were then the majority, there were forty of their members on the Appropriations Committee to eight republicans.

So I think we are being extremely fair, taking the words of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, in retaining the ratio as low as five to three at the very outside.

For that reason I ask that the Members vote down this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 27

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the amendment to House Rule 27 offered by Mr. Helm, Chairman of the Committee on Revision of Rules.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

House Rule 27 is hereby amended to read as follows:

A committee composed of the Speaker, seven Members of the House selected by the Majority Party and three Members selected by the principal Minority party shall constitute a Committee on Committees, whose duty shall be to recommend to the House the members of the standing committees.

The chairmen and vice-chairmen of the standing committees shall be named by the Speaker. They shall be in addition to the number of Members on the committees and shall have the right to vote.

The Floor Leaders of the two Major Political Parties shall be ex-officio members of all standing committees, without the right to vote; and shall be excepted from any limitation as to the number of members on committees.

The standing committees shall be the following:

Municipal Corporations to consist of 15 members.

Professional Licensure to consist of 20 members.

Public Health and Sanitation to consist of 15 members.

Public Utilities to consist of 20 members.

Railroads and Railways to consist of 15 members.

State Government to consist of 20 members.

Townships to consist of 20 members.

Ways and Means to consist of 20 members.

Welfare to consist of 20 members.

Workmen's Compensation to consist of 20 members.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that we confidently expect to be in control when the next General Assembly meets, there may be some features in the proposed amendment which we might want to continue. It is within the province of the majority to determine matters such as these. Since you have so abundantly demonstrated the fact that you are in complete control of the situation from a parliamentary point of view, we will accept a voice vote on this resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inquire of the gentleman from Cambria whether he proposes to offer an amendment to the amendment to Rule 27 as it was first introduced.

Mr. ANDREWS, I am not at this time offering an amendment to Rule 27.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I also thank the gentleman from Cambria and will accept the same vote.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

AMENDMENT TO RULE 31

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to present an amendment to House Rule 31.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria Mr. Andrews, offers an amendment to Rule 31 which the Clerk will read.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend House Rule 31, by adding after paragraph one, the following:

The Yeas and Nays of the Members of a committee may be demanded by two Members thereof on any question before it, which record shall be entered on the minutes of the committee and made available for public examination.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, democracy is not something just to be proclaimed from the house tops and then defeated by means of parliamentary procedure. The very core of democracy is to center responsibility. It is inimical to any concepts of democracy that its purposes should be defeated in secret. There is no place in our way of doing things for any legislative "iron curtains" and no proper place in our proceedings for empowering any group to defeat what might be the will of the House and then no one ever know who did it.

The purpose of this amendment is to make it possible for two members of any of the Houses standing Committees to insist that Committee roll calls be a public record available to the present public.

I believe that this suggested amendment is sound parliamentary practise, in keeping with the basic philosophy which we profess. The only purpose of secrecy is to hide something.

The older Members, those of long service know that on many occasions bills have been killed in committee which a majority of the House would have gladly supported. They have been knifed and done to death by an unknown hand.

They talk about the presence on the floor of this House of the "legislative engineers" and the lobbyists. The potent place for the lobbyists to operate is behind an iron curtain—a committee.

There are many bills that are being suggested for the consideration of this House in which various special interests are intensely interested. There is in the offing a line of liquor legislation. If that legislation comes out on the floor of the House or if it is killed in Committee, the public has a right to know who opens the gate or who wields the knife. And so I am saying that while it is impossible to corrupt the membership of this House as a whole, the Congressional Record at Washington, irrespective of which party has been in power, and the record of this House over the last quarter of a century has developed many situations where one single man, not a member of this House, has been more powerful than all our membership, solely by reason of the fact that he could operate in secret.

So I am seriously proposing that this Rule be amended, and I say to you in all seriousness, not as a threat but as a serious declaration, that I would consider the defeat of this amendment gives me and the members of my party a first class political issue, because our position is so manifestly right. It is one with which the general public cannot but be in agreement. So if we are compelled to carry this battle from this floor, suffering defeat here, I believe we can carry it to the people of Pennsylvania and win.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Cambria would have you believe that the Committees of this House operate purely and simply behind an iron curtain. I do not agree with that thinking. I think that the Committee operation in this House over the years has been splendid. Under our administration, and in my first session back in 1941 when the minority was then in power, I think the Chairman and the Vice Chairman were very fair even in that session. They just do not operate the way the gentleman would have you believe.

I think in order to clear up the whole matter, I would just like to read the rule as it is now worded:

"Each of the said committees shall keep a record or a minute of all proceedings before them which record or minute shall be open for examination by any Member of the House or Senate, or upon leave granted by the respective committee to anyone. The committee records shall be filed with the Chief Clerk, upon the final adjournment of the House, to be kept for a period of two years."

Now that does not prove to me that Committees are operating behind an iron curtain. By the proper authority, and where the authority should be vested in the majority vote of the Committee, they can make their record public if they so desire.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the privilege of interrogating the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Helm.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Armstrong allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HELM. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman from Armstrong ever heard of an occasion where a responsible Committee of this House ballotted on an important matter, took a secret ballot and destroyed the ballot?

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I have.

Mr. ANDREWS. A further question. Then it is possible under our system for a Committee to proceed in absolute secrecy?

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I will answer the gentleman in this way: I sat in on a Committee—in fact, I think I was Chairman of the Committee—that took a secret ballot, but it was by a vote of the Committee that that secret ballot was had.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. The gentleman from Armstrong states our whole case. He says it was by a vote of the Committee that the proceedings were secret. We say that two Members of the Committee should be empowered to destroy the veil of secrecy. This idea of secret ballots in Committee, Members of this House, is repugnant to every sound concept of decent democratic government. I have no desire to continue the discussion. The issue is plain. We are content to appeal from the decision of this House on this matter, if it goes against us, to the Pennsylvania public.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to continue the debate, but I would like to point out to the gentleman that by the action of the Committee majority, you are carrying out one of the principles of democracy. One of the most important votes that we ever cast as citizens of this great Commonwealth or nation, is cast in secret. Now if the Committee wants to have that type of ballot I think they ought to have by their own authority the right to conduct such a ballot.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, praying the indulgence of the House, I simply want to enter on the record this observation: that no Committee is the master of this House; every Committee is a servant of this House. It is not compatible with sound parliamentary procedure that we establish rules and regulations which in effect make a Committee master of the House. That is the last observation that I care to make on this matter.

On this amendment we want a recorded vote.

I am perfectly willing that every member of the opposition who desires to be recorded against this amendment be so recorded. I wish we could record the absentees on the majority side. And so, we are perfectly willing to take the previous roll-all.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ANDREWS and Mr. READINGER and were as follows:

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 39

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to present an amendment to House Rule 39.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend House Rule 31, by adding after paragraph one, the following:

"The yeas and nays of the Members of a committee may be demanded by two Members thereof on any question before it, which record shall be entered on the minutes of the committee and made available for public examination."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this proposed amendment to Rule 39 is of particular interest to new Members of whom there are many.

Intimes past, perhaps when the wicked Democrats were in control, there were occasions when a Chairman of the Committee carried around in his pocket or had pigeon-holed somewhere, practically all the bills in his possession. That could be repeated when the wise, the noble and patriotic Republicans are in control of the House. There have been times when the wicked Democrats were running things when a Committee that had some forty bills in its possession, and the Chairman would say, "We have met today to consider House Bill so and so," and would lay down one bill. Some lone Member who had a pet measure would peep out something "What about my bill, Mr. Chairman?" The Chairman would give a nod. Some member would move that the Committee adjourn. And the poor member would be left flopping with his bill never brought to the consideration of the Committee.

There have been other chairman who have performed a conscientious service and have seen to it that every bill in their Committee was acted upon either affirmatively or negatively. But the chairmen have been vested with so much authority by tradition that nine times out of ten they control the Committee rather than the Committee controlling the chairmen. This amendment simply suggests that at any meeting of a Committee two-thirds of the members present can insist upon the consideration of any bill they want considered.

If you want an example of real democracy, majority rule that the gentleman from Armstrong has been talking about, how can you better serve the cause of majority rule than to give two-thirds of the members of a Committee—two-thirds of the members present—the right to determine whether or not a particular measure shall be brought to the attention of that Committee?

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I have served in this House—this is the seventh term—under Democratic majority and under Republican majority I have never seen a Committee operate the way the gentleman from Cambria has told you it operates.

Bills are pickled in Committee by the chairman and carried around in his pocket, or he gives a nod to his Committee, and they vote to adjourn. I have never seen that happen in my experience—even under this rule. I do not think that any chairman who was appointed in the last session of the Legislature acted that way.

I know I was rather conscientious in attending meetings and they were very fair. In fact, I will point, Mr. Speaker, to the fact that I think almost as many Democratic bills were acted upon by the last session of the Legislature as Republican bills. I think that is a pretty cooperative spirit. I am glad to see that spirit prevail and I hope it continues. I do not think we need a rule that forces the chairman to bring up a bill because I do not think that is necessary.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, for first-class fiction I have never heard a statement quite equalling the praises that the gentleman from Armstrong has passed to the Committee chairmen. I want to say to him that as one who has been around as long as he has, that if he has never seen an occasion where a chairman has pickled a committed bill, he has not attended very many Committee meetings.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ANDREWS and Mr. HERSCH and were as follows:

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 40

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I offer an amendment to House Rule 40, and yield to the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

That when a bill or resolution has been ten calendar days in the hands of a committee after having been referred to it, any committee may be discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution by a vote of 85 Members.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, this is the $64 amendment. This amendment would cure all the evils of all the rest of the amendments that we have had before.

This amendment is not something new. This House operated under such a Rule from 1935 until 1939, and I defy anyone on either side of this House to say that during that period of time this particular Rule caused any trouble in this House in delaying action or anything else.

I say to the new Members of this House that this is your opportunity to get action on your own particular bills that you feel down in your heart are important to your constituents.

If you will vote for this amendment to this Rule, I feel sure that democracy will work much better in the state of Pennsylvania, and we will give an opportunity to the Membership of this House to vote here in the House on the particular legislation that they are interested in.

I will accept, as Mr. Andrews says, the previous votes taken on the other amendment to the Rules; but if there is any one Member over on the other side of this House who wants to be fair and wants to have his legislation considered by the House of Representatives, if he will stand up and ask that we have a new roll-call, I will be glad to second his request.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, this amendment, of course, is one that is offered in every session. The arguments are the same today as they were two years ago and four years ago.

We feel that a majority vote should be required for discharging a Committee. Now our reason back of that is this: If a group has sufficient strength to demand 105 votes to discharge a Committee, they then have sufficient votes to pass that particular bill. For that reason, Mr. Speaker, I think the rule should be left just as it is, 105 votes necessary to discharge a Committee.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, one brief remark for the benefit of the gentleman from Armstrong to correct his history. He will recall that while there were not enough votes to discharge a Committee from FEPC legislation at various times, when the bill finally came to the attention of the House, it was passed.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to point out to the gentleman from Cambria that what he says is absolutely true. But the bill did come out of Committee and came upon the floor of this House without discharging the Committee. Therefore, I can see no reason why we should change the present Rule.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. LOVETT and Mr. ANDREWS and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 57

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to present an amendment to House Rule 57.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend House Rule 57, by adding after paragraph one the following:

"It shall be the duty of the Committee on Appropriations to require the head of each Administrative Department and Agency of the Commonwealth to appear upon notice before the Committee on Appropriations (or a sub-committee thereof) for a public hearing to be held in the Hall of the House of Representatives on budget requests for the support of the respective departments or agencies.

Members of the House present at the hearings may submit to the Chairman in writing, questions relating to the budget items under consideration.

The general appropriations bill shall not be reported to the House until the provisions of this rule has been complied with."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, yesterday, His Excellency, the Governor, submitted a budget for the consideration of this House. I presume you are all familiar by this time, with the various provisions of that budget. I presume that you have spent your idle time, up to this hour, studying his figures.

Very shortly the House and Senate Appropriations Committees will begin to hold regular sessions. The heads of Departments and their aides will appear before that Committee. They are all experts, the people at the head of the Departments. We have never fortified our Appropriations Committee with a staff of experts, and so, the head of the Department will say that he wants a million and a half for this, and seventeen million for something else, and, the Appropriations Committees, for and on your behalf will reach a decision regarding a billion, four hundred million dollar budget, concerning which the average member of this House will know absolutely nothing, because he will not have had the opportunity to ask the questions that might have occurred to him concerning any particular item.

We are proposing that the House Appropriations Committee, when it hears the departmental requests for funds, meet in the Hall of this House, any Member of this House being permitted to be present, and submit questions in writing. Now, how in Heaven's name are we ever going to become acquainted with the intricacies of our financial situation unless we have some forum in which we can ask questions and receive answers?

The older Members are familiar with the fact that when we have tried in times past, members of the majority, or members of the minority have duly requested information in detail about some budgetary item, and have been dismissed with a statement couched in general terms. So it came about in the end that by and large, the Membership of this House has swallowed budgets that hardly one of us can go back and explain to our constituents, because, I repeat, we have never had the forum where we could ask questions and receive answers.

The alternative to such a proposal would be a willingness to resolve ourselves into a committee of the whole for the purpose of discussing the budget, and to have explained to us why the Department of Forests and Waters wants a blank check for $15 million. Just what are you going to do in detail with the $15 million? You have to accept the judgment of the Appropriations Committee which isn't fortified with a staff that enables it to examine the relative merits of the appropriations the Departments ask. So I say to you, the only way that I can see that we ever can begin to acquaint ourselves with our financial problems is to have the Departments justify their requests for money in a forum in which every Member of this House is privileged to be present, if he wants to be present, and privileged to ask questions in writing concerning any matter in which he is in doubt.

I suggest to the gentleman from Armstrong that if he has any notion as to how we could go about solving those matters with which we should be concerned in relation to appropriations in a more democratic manner than that, and in a more parliamentary manner than that suggested, I'd like to know his solution.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I would like to refer to several things the gentleman from Cambria said. He points out that the heads of these Departments are experts. I would like to remind him that they have, in most cases, been heads of Departments for a matter of four years and I would like to point out for his attention that the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations in past sessions, in my opinion, is pretty much of an expert. He has been the Chairman of that Committee for twelve or fourteen years, and I think there has been very little criticism of the operation of that Committee, or the procedure they use. I have never served on it myself, but I hear that the usual procedure is to call in the head of every Department and question him concerning the budget he offers, or the amount asked for.

I would also like to remind the gentleman from Cambria that there is minority representation on the Appropriations Committee. They have the privilege of sitting in on those hearings, and they certainly can bring back the information from that Committee to their caucus. I think every Member on the other side of the House could get that information without any effort at all, and for that reason, Mr. Speaker, the present system is working properly.

It is unnecessary to conduct a hearing in the way the gentleman suggests, I would like to point out to him also that it may be establishing a precedent to adopt such a Rule. Why is it any more important for matters of that kind to be discussed in a public forum than those before the Education Committee, let us say, or the Labor Committee, or any other Committee? There just are not enough hours in the day, days in the week, or rooms in this Capitol, to conduct that many meetings.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, we have recently had a very able Commission roaming this state, suggesting economies, changes in methods, of practices. The report of that Commission indicates that the procedure to which many of our Departments are committed are not so hot. As was pointed out yesterday, some economies, and of course, $7 million is not much, just a dribble—the Governor himself, has said that he has incorporated in his budget $7 million worth of the findings of the Little Hoover Commission. If the Departments were so hot in their conduct of business that a casual survey could go out and make a finding that means $7 million to the taxpayer, when they admittedly have lacked money on which to operate, goodness only knows what could be done if this House would address itself to the very same problems. The very fact that it has been necessary to employ the Chesterman Committee is a reproach to the Members of this House, because we should have fortified our Committees with expert personnel and we should have so informed the membership of this House. Then we wouldn't have needed any Chesterman Committees. The very fact that a casual citizens' group can come into the Governor's office and throw $7 million worth of Legislative error in our faces is evidence of the fact that it is our duty and our business to begin informing ourselves concerning the problems with which we are dealing.

I presume the gentleman from Armstrong has attended Appropriation Committee meetings. What a little minority member can find out from those sessions concerning the intricacies of departmental maneuver you could stick in your eye, and so, I seriously suggest the adoption of this amendment for the presentation by the majority party of some plan by means of which the membership of the House can have the opportunity to become acquainted with the problems with which we deal. How many Members would avail themselves of the opportunity I do not know, but I say to you now, and the old Members know it, that we do not now have the machinery by which earnest, honest inquiring Members of this House, who wish to know about the growth of bureaucracy in our departments, about the needs, the relative needs of this or that demand, we don't have the means to do it. So I say that if you cannot take this amendment, then devise a plan that will do more to inform the membership than the statements that in the past have been furnished the House by the majority leadership when questioned concerning financial details.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I can only repeat what I said, that the machinery is here now for the minority to get that information. If the minority members of that Committee will attend the hearings and submit any questions they want to submit, I am sure they will be given every consideration possible.

I would just like to point out one error in the gentleman's statement about casual study by the so-called Chesterman group. That has been in operation, Mr. Speaker, ever since the end of the last session or very close to the end of the last session, for a period of one year, so it can't be a casual investigation.

Now I think that the operation of our Appropriation Committee in the past has been exceptionally good. I am sure that in this next session it will be equally as good and perhaps improved. I will suggest to the gentleman that he have the minority groups on that Committee come in there and get all the information they need.

Mr. ANDREWS. I am not so much interested just now in informing the minority but, Mr. Speaker, what we need in this House is an informed majority—a group that knows where it is going, why it is going, what the relative cost is, what the priority should be, which things come first in handling the growing problems presented by the needs of our state institutions, by our penal institutions, by our health service. It is a gigantic problem that faces us.

As we stand here today, we do not have any table of priorities. We don't have any way—we have no forum in which you members of the majority—and you are carrying the burden; it is your show; if you don't want to find out what it is all about, it is all right with us.

I would like a quick roll-call on this amendment. I will present another amendment which we will not debate. I will simply present it, have it read by the Clerk, and then take another roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RULE 90

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I offer amendment to House Rule 90 which we will submit for the consideration of the House without debate.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend House Rule 90, by substituting therefor the following rule:

"A Member in debate may relate what was done in committee but not what was said except such as is contained in the written report or that which is authorized by the committee."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ANDREWS and Mr. HERSCH and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Will the House adopt the resolution offered by the gentleman from Armstrong Mr. Helm, that the Rules of the 1951 House of Representatives be the Rules of this House as amended.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, since so many of the matters to which we were committed failed to be embodied in the final report of the Committee on Revision of Rules of this House, we would ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. ANDREWS and Mr. READINGER and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very happy at this time to look around and see so many happy and smiling faces after the announcement of Committees. It takes a great burden off of everyone's mind, believe me.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to make just one announcement before the Committees organize in regard to the introduction of bills. Members are now privileged to introduce their bills and resolutions, filing them with the Bill Clerk at the Speaker's left. All three copies must be legibly signed and dated. Keep the unbacked copy for your personal use. If you do not write legibly, print your name below your signature. Otherwise, there may be errors in printing the names of sponsors on the bills.

INTRODUCTION OF BILL FOR REVISION OF CONSTITUTION

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to state that I am right now introducing the bill for the revision of our Constitution. I am about to file it with the Clerk.

ORGANIZATION OF COMMITTEES

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I have been requested by the Chairman of the different standing committees to announce the organization meetings which will take place immediately.

I would like to explain to the Members that we have broken the meetings down into three different groups in three different time periods. I would like to request that as soon as their meetings are completed the Members immediately return to the floor of the House so that we can call the next group of Committees because many of the Members may be on some of those Committees also.

For the convenience of the Members there is a list of the Committees and the rooms where they will meet. The time has been left blank because we did not know just what time we would arrive at this order of business.

The following Committees will meet immediately, and we would ask the Chairmen to get their organization meetings over just as soon as possible. We estimate that we can call the next group in about fifteen minutes and have all the Members back in their seats at that time.

For the information of the Members, the 500 rooms are on E Floor and the 300 rooms are on the third floor.

The first group is as follows:

Judiciary Committee will meet in Room 520.
 Cities and Counties—First and Second Class—Room 521.
 Motor Vehicles—Room 522.
 Appropriations—Room 245 and 246.
 Counties—Room 323.
 Boroughs—Room 324.
 Law and Order—Room 325.
 Elections and Apportionment—Room 329.
 Welfare—Room 330.
 Aeronautics—Room 331.

(After organization the above Committees return to the Hall of the House.)

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I would like at this time to announce the meetings of the second group of Committees. I would like to inform the membership that they cannot go one hundred per cent by the chart they have because there are a few changes. I will go slowly so you can mark the changes on your sheet.

Cities—Third Class—Room 521.
 Townships—Room 522.
 Labor Relations—Room 323.

Military Affairs—Room 520.
 Education—Room 324.
 Liquor Control—Room 325.
 Highways—Room 329.
 Workmen's Compensation—Room 330.
 Agriculture—Room 331.

(After organization the above Committees returned to the Hall of the House).

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, this will be the last group of Committee meetings; there are only seven more. I would like to inform the Members of the House that the rooms which were used today by the respective Committees does not necessarily mean in every instance that that will be the rooms where the committees will always meet. There will be a further report of the Committee on Committees which will assign committee rooms to the respective Committees. That will be posted and you will also be advised.

The next group is as follows:

Municipal Corporations Room 521.
 State Government Room 324.
 Professional Licensure Room 325.
 Railroads and Railways Room 520.
 Public Health and Sanitation Room 329.
 Fisheries Room 331.
 Game and Forestry Room 522.

That is all Mr. Speaker and I thank the Members for their cooperation.

COMMITTEES NOT ORGANIZED

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announce that there are five Committees that did not organize today because of illness of their Chairman. The Ways and Means Committee, Mines and Mining, Public Utilities, Banking and Building and Loan Associations, and Insurance. These Committees will organize later on in the session.

REQUESTS TO BE NOTED PRESENT ON CALL OF THE HOUSE

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I happened to be in the building, but not in the Hall of the House, when the roll was called on the call of the House. I would like to be marked as having been present.

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the gentleman will be recorded as having been present. The Chair hears none.

Mr. GEER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded on the quorum roll call which was called earlier today. I was in Harrisburg, but was absent from the House at the moment the roll was called.

The SPEAKER. Hearing no objection the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geer will be so recorded.

Mr. GUTENDORF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to be recorded as having been here today on the call of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Luzerne Mr. Gutendorf wishes to be recorded present on the quorum roll call and will be so recorded. The Chair hears no objection.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. PAUL F. JONES asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON RULES

The SPEAKER. The Chair announces the appointment of the House Committee on Rules: Messrs. Johnson, Chairman, Yeakel, Helm, Bower, Kent and the Speaker, Charles C. Smith, ex-officio.

THANKS EXTENDED

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time desires to express his sincere appreciation for the efficient and prompt manner in which the Committees appointed for the purpose of organizing the House have performed their duties. The Chair includes in his remarks the minority members of the Committee on Committees, the Committee on the seating of Members as well as the Minority Leader of the House and his staff for their cooperation.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. FLEISCHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, February 2, 1953, at 4:30 p. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 1:58 p. m.) the House adjourned.

SENATE

MONDAY, February 2, 1953.

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HARWOOD C. BOWMAN, JR., Pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kittanning, offered the following prayer:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, let us pray.

O God, the Fountain of Wisdom, whose statutes are good and gracious and whose law is truth, we beseech Thee so to guide this Senate that it may ordain for our Governance only such things as please Thee, to the glory of Thy Name and the welfare of the people, through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. HARE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. HARE asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. SNOWDEN, due to illness.

Mr. SILVERT asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. CAMIEL, due to illness.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR JOHN S. FINE TO JOINT SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 26, 1953 PRESENTING THE STATE BUDGET FOR THE 1953-55 BIENNIUM

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY:

I am laying before the General Assembly and the public today a Budget of the State's estimated financial income and outgo for the fiscal biennium from June 1, 1953, to May 31, 1955.

I want to take this occasion to make some comments about the Budget, a copy of which, with my detailed message, will be placed on your desks.

This Budget has been prepared under different circumstances than those existing two years ago. At that time the effects on our economy of the Korean conflict and the national defense program could not be assessed. We are now in a better position to see these effects upon State activities and State finances. However, there are still imponderables in both situations affecting the future. This makes budget-making still somewhat difficult, and to some extent transitory and subject to change.

We correctly assumed two years ago that the defense program would push up the price level. We predicted, rightly, an increase in national income. We assumed, too, that even though civilian production was to be restricted there would be an over-all higher level of business activity. That held true for the first year of this biennium. The steel strike brought an unpredicted decline in our second year.

Also we based the 1951-53 Budget on the forecast of peak employment, with very little unemployment. That, too, proved true. One result is that the Department of Public Assistance happily has given us back $10 millions in unused appropriations.

A major obstacle we have had to contend with in financing the State Government in the overwhelming burden of federal taxation. This burdensome condition had to be considered anew in framing our estimated financial needs.

Before turning to the new Budget I think it will be advantageous to very briefly review the last Budget and what was done with it in the last session of the Legislature.

The Budget presented in March 1951 called for appropriations of $853 millions. We estimated General Funds revenues with a surplus to be $690 millions in available funds. That figure was still $163 millions less than the appropriations requested.

But that only tells part of the story. The Legislature reduced my budgetary requests by $22 millions and then added $61 millions of its own appropriations. This brought the over-all amount of appropriations up to $892 millions. I approved $890 millions.

During the session we had opportunity to revise our estimate of revenues to bring the figure up to $711 millions from taxes in existence at the time the Budget was presented, from transfers from special funds, an actual surplus of $17.9 millions and an estimated $162½ millions of new increased and accelerated taxes passed by the Legislature.

For the first fiscal year of the present biennium, we collected $16 millions more in revenues than we had estimated. The steel strike affected the yield of some taxes in this second year. This is particularly true of the corporate net income tax. We anticipate that its yield this year will be less than in the first year of the biennium.

We estimate that the total revenues to be collected for the second year of the biennium ending May 31st next will bring the total up to $861 millions for the 1951-53 biennium, $12 million below the biennial estimate we made.

Lapses in appropriations build up a surplus; deficiencies pull it down. We are fortunate that the amount of lapsed appropriations will be about $39 millions. This is much higher than usual. But we have $12½ millions of deficiencies as well as loss in estimated revenue. I am recommending appropriations for these deficiencies. Nevertheless, we estimate there will be an unobligated surplus May 31st this year of $9.8 millions.

Several Acts passed by the last session affected the retirement systems for school employes and State employes and imposed about $7 millions additional obligations upon the State. The Legislature did not make appropriations for these obligations.

That is the financial picture as we turn to the State Budget for 1953-1955 biennium. In its preparation I have done my level best to develop a minimum Budget. I have considered the obligations now imposed by law which we computed on the strictest basis to keep them at minimum. Perhaps our computation may be too low by some millions.

In view of the crushing load of the total tax burden our people are bearing, this is no time to add one dollar to that burden that is not absolutely necessary.

The Budget I am submitting today does not represent what the various State agencies feel they need. In the interest of the most rigid economy possible without impairment of services, I have cut $66 millions from their requests, which they computed as necessities. This Budget does not include $209 millions of requests for construction appropriations.

All but about $39 millions of the increases in appropriations recommended in this Budget are required by existing laws stringently construed. That's a point I ask you to remember.

Necessarily some important assumptions had to be made in preparing the Budget. We must assume that the Korean conflict and the national defense program will in the next two years affect our economy pretty much as it is at present. I am assuming that Federal taxes will go no higher. As a matter of fact we are projecting on the theory there may be some considerable reduction during the coming biennium.

Budgetarily speaking this is an optimistic outlook. It may prove to be too optimistic. But we felt we should be bold enough to make it.

On this basis I am recommending appropriations in this Budget for 1953-1955 of about one billion four million dollars. Right at this point I want to call your attention to the fact that California's Budget, just presented for one fiscal year, is for approximately the same amount, substantially, as for our own State's two-year Budget.

Our Budget is only $100 millions above appropriations, including deficiencies, for the two years just ending. And bear in mind, please, that we will lose $52.5 millions in the next two years because of the legislated acceleration of the corporate net income tax.

Without adding our anticipated surplus we have estimated revenues of $836.8 millions from all taxes now in existence if the Legislature re-enacts those requiring re-enactment. Without such re-enactment our revenue estimates would then have to be revised.

Considering all the estimated funds available for the next two years, we are still $157 millions below the amount of appropriations recommended in the Budget. That presently is the amount of additional revenue needed. It may grow in amount or diminish during your deliberations. When we know the amount of revenue needed, then all of us should cooperate to raise the necessary amount in a reasonably short time.

Nothing is included in this Budget for $209 millions requested for capital improvements to be financed from the General Fund. These requests come mainly from the welfare institutions, the State teachers' colleges, and Pennsylvania State College.

In my opinion, much construction should be undertaken. It should, however, be given more study before decision. The General State Authority should assume whatever projects are agreed upon. It will then be necessary to raise the borrowing limit of that agency from its present $235 millions. The raise is necessary because projects now under way and funds committed or allocated will almost bring us up to that limit, with no provision beyond it. I shall be glad to confer with you on this question, as, of course, I will on any subject having to do with this Budget.

I do not claim this Budget is sacrosanct. It is open to changes, but they should be specified. I invite the closest scrutiny and analysis. In that process you will have every administrative cooperation. You may then arrive at some other amount.

Some preliminary estimates of savings have already been made by the State Government Survey Committee. I have taken immediate cognizance of these estimates. Those which can be made by administrative action—some $7 million—have been included in this Budget. Others quite apparently require legislative action to become effective. Still other and more numerable recommendations from the Committee may necessitate amending the Constitution, if they are necessitous. If we amend the Constitution much more such action could only add to confusion. This in itself points up the wisdom of legislative approval for a convention to revise the State's basic laws.

My Administration is chiefly concerned with continuous betterment, at the least cost possible, of direct and efficient services from the State to the people.

In examining this Budget I urge you and our citizens to keep in mind the great upward surge in prices. The State, like individuals, is collecting and spending more dollars; but those dollars buy half as much as they did before World War II.

The appropriations recommended by me for public education represent a little more than half of the entire Budget, and about five per cent of the total General Fund Budget over the appropriations made for 1951-53.

The next highest amount of appropriations recommended, 29.06 per cent of the Budget—or three per cent less than for this biennium—is for public health, assistance, and welfare—all directly beneficial to the public. Economies effected in public assistance brought the percentage down. We propose further savings by still stricter supervision and better non-support laws for family relations.

The State presently pays 42 per cent of the total cost of our schools. This percentage is projected higher.

Transportation of a growing number of school children is becoming more costly. We are, therefore, allowing for an increase of $3.7 millions over the $20.5 millions it cost in the present biennium for this service.

Increased appropriations for our six medical colleges are recommended. I am placing these institutions substantially on a par in the amount allocated per student. Pennsylvania currently is not plagued—as is the rest of the Country—by a shortage of doctors. Nevertheless, we must increase their number so that our people will not suffer from their lack. We are foremost now in medical sentinels of life and health. We must retain that humanitarian rating.

I am recommending an increase of 15 per cent for our three Universities—Temple, University of Pittsburgh, and University of Pennsylvania—and for Pennsylvania State College, that it may, among other things, bolster its research in veterinary medicine.

Our citizens' safety is a matter of deep concern to me. Accidents on our highways are always deplorable. I have already added to State Police on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. I am now requesting an additional 200 State Policemen to better patrol our highways, including the turnpike, in hope of reducing highway accidents. The State Motor License Fund would bear their cost.

CONCLUSION

To levy additional taxes on our people, when they now carry a burden under which they must make many sacrifices, is a most serious matter. Before you do so you should be convinced that every dollar of appropriations recommended in this Budget is essential. My outstanding aim has been to prepare a minimum Budget. I invite your examination of every appropriation recommended to determine whether I have accomplished that purpose. I repeat I will give you my full cooperation in such an examination of the Budget, as will every department and agency under my jurisdiction.

I am hopeful that the citizens of Pennsylvania will actively evince interest in legislative and administrative proceedings concerning the State's financial income and outgo, which, in the last analysis, is of deepest concern to them as taxpayers. I feel that the people, the Legislature, and the administrative branch of government working in close cooperation can achieve best fiscal results. It is my opinion that the Administration has arrived at a fair and a minimum Budget. I want the Legislature and the people to be so convinced, or the Budget be modified in accordance with their wishes.

I have explained that there is a large amount of additional obligations imposed by existing laws. I have also explained the situation involved in the acceleration of the Corporate Net Income Tax to balance the present Budget, which advantage we will not have in the next two years even with acceleration continued.

After you have thoroughly examined the Budget and considered within approximation other appropriation requests not budgeted, you will then know within reasonable limitations how much money will need to be spent and how much money you must raise during the next biennium. In other words, let us determine what we are going to spend, and then proceed to raise, as harmlessly as possible, the money for the necessary purposes. At that time I shall cooperate with you to mold the fairest possible tax program. You have my best wishes. May you prayerfully assume and discharge your tremendous responsibilities.

The PRESIDENT. The communication will be spread upon the Journal.

JOHN S. FINE.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
 Governor's Office, Harrisburg, February 2, 1953.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate, the following named persons to be Commissioners of Deeds, for the term of five years to compute from the dates set opposite their names:

Ralph L. Cocks, Yonkers, New York, January 31, 1952.
 Ralph S. Wallen, Stratford, New Jersey, March 18, 1952.
 (Miss) Elizabeth H. Shannon, West Hartford, Connecticut,
 May 1, 1952.
 Robert M. Shea, West Somerville, Massachusetts, June 19, 1952.
 Frank J. Bloom, Atlantic City, New Jersey, July 25, 1952.
 Thomas J. Ayers, Queens, New York, August 7, 1952.
 (Miss) Rita Regina FitzGibbon, Brooklyn, New York,
 August 7, 1952.
 (Miss) Hilja A. Syri, Hartford, Connecticut, September
 23, 1952.
 Henry Carl Schragger, Trenton, New Jersey, October
 22, 1952.

JOHN S. FINE.

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. WAT-KINS,

That the Senate do advise and consent to said nominations.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. SILVERT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I should like to say a few words in connection with the bill I am about to present.

Mr. President, prior to the election last November, there were considerable newspaper editorials in the city of Philadelphia, the nature of which was this: That in spite of a record registration, there were some twenty-five to thirty thousand citizens in Philadelphia who were disenfranchised because of the present status of our election laws.

Mr. President, I am referring particularly to that provision in our election laws which states that no one is permitted to vote unless they have lived in their election district for a period of two months. Now, in a city like Philadelphia, between September 4 and November 4 of last year, it was estimated that about twenty thousand voters, who moved from one election district to another, were unable to vote in the districts to which they moved, and were unable to vote in their old districts because they had moved from their residence. I, personally, had a number of calls from neighbors who could not understand why, because they moved on October 1st, almost across the street, from one division to another, they had, by reason thereof, lost their right to vote.

Mr. President, this bill is intended to amend our Constitution so as to permit voters who have moved from one election district to another, within sixty days of an election, if they so choose, to go back to their old election district and cast their votes.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. SILVERT read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 66, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section three of article eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania under which certain persons would be permitted to vote in the election district from which they have moved.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Mr. WAGNER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 67, entitled:

An Act to amend subsection (a) of section 2 of the act approved the twenty-third day of May, 1945 (P. L. 913), entitled "An act relating to and regulating the practice of the profession of engineering; including civil engineering, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, mining engineering, chemical engineering, surveying and constituent parts and combinations thereof as herein defined; providing for the licensing and registration of persons practicing said profession, and the certification of engineers in training and the suspension and revocation of said licenses, registrations and certifications for violations of this act; prescribing the powers and duties of the State Registration Board for Professional Engineers, the Department of Public Instruction and the courts; prescribing penalties; and repealing existing laws," by further defining the practice of engineering.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Messrs. PECHAN and RUTH read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 68, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and to further amend the act, approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen, (P. L. 1012), entitled "An act regulating the business of loaning money in sums of three hundred ($300) dollars or less, either with or without security, to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities; fixing the rates of interest and charges therefor; requiring the licensing of lenders; and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act," by increasing the maximum loan to six hundred ($600) dollars, fixing the rates of interest on balances in excess of three hundred ($300) dollars and extending the maturity limitation on loans.

Which was committed to the Committee on Banking.

Mr. McPHERSON read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 69, entitled:

An Act establishing minimum compensation and increments for administrators and members of the faculty of certain State-owned schools and imposing duties on the Boards of Trustees of such schools and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Mr. YOSKO (by request) read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 70, entitled:

An Act validating and confirming certain contracts heretofore entered into by boards of school directors where there is no evidence of fraud or conspiracy, and authorizing or ratifying payments on such contracts by the school district.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. President, the bill which I am about to present pertains to pari mutuel horse racing, and if passed will provide for the establishment of three race tracks in the three greatest Counties of the Commonwealth, Allegheny, Philadelphia and Cambria.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. HALUSKA read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 71, entitled:

An Act providing for and legalizing a State monopoly for the regulation of horse racing, with wagering on the results thereof subject to a State tax and under the mutuel or pari-mutuel system; creating the Pennsylvania Racing Commission as an independent administrative commission; and defining the powers and duties of the commission; providing for the establishment and operation of State racing plants and for their construction by the General State Authority; disposing of all moneys received by the commission; making an appropriation; and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. RUTH read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 72, entitled:

An Act authorizing the judges of the courts of common pleas to create medical clinics for the examination of persons charged with the commission of criminal offenses prior to trial, and of convicted persons prior to the imposition of sentence, and of children charged with delinquency; providing for the creation of joint medical clinics among the several counties, and imposing the costs of maintaining and operating such clinics upon the county or counties creating the same.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. KESSLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KESSLER, from the Committee on Public Health and Welfare, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 20, entitled:

An Act prohibiting lobbying and the practice of law before State agencies, by State elective and appointive administrative officers, and firms, partnerships and associations of which they are members.

Which was re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. DENT read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 73, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 2 of the act approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 720) entitled "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth, under certain terms, conditions and limitations, of certain streets in cities of the second class, second class A, and third class as State highways, and for the improvement, construction, reconstruction, resurfacing and maintenance by the Commonwealth of certain defined widths of said streets; imposing duties on such cities and on public utility companies using such streets; providing that no assessment shall be made upon the Commonwealth in the elimination of any grade crossing thereon; authorizing cities, persons, associations, or corporations to enter into agreements with the Commonwealth to bear a portion of the cost of construction or maintenance; providing for the assessment of certain portions of the cost of street improvements on abutting property owners; regulating the replacement of certain facilities of public utility companies; prohibiting the opening of said streets after improvement without a permit, and providing penalty therefor; regulating the maintenance of detours; authorizing the increase of city, indebtedness in certain cases; and appropriating money in the Motor License Fund for the purposes of this act," by extending a certain route and adding a certain route in the city of Greensburg.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO ELIMINATE FEDERAL GASOLINE TAX

Mr. MAHANY offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Highways:

In the Senate, February 2, 1953.

Whereas, building of roads and highways since the inception of our government has been primarily a State responsibility; and

Whereas, every State of the Union has tremendous problems in maintaining, extending, and building highways and bridges due to the lack of building program during the war year period; and

Whereas, the Federal government has always collected much more than they have sent back to the states for road building purposes; and

Whereas, the costs of building and maintaining roads and highways have increased tremendously; and

Whereas, states have demonstrated they are willing, have, and do cooperate in building the federally designated highways; and

Whereas, the states sensed the responsibility of an integrated highway system as it relates to the national welfare; and

Whereas, the states have demonstrated that they can build adequate highways; and

Whereas, in many instances, many economies can be effected through sole state responsibility of building highways; and

Whereas, because of the foregoing facts and after due consideration, the Council of State Governments in the National meeting December 7 in Chicago, passed a resolution supporting this proposition, and the Governors' Conference, in the National meeting in July, 1952, unanimously passed a resolution supporting this proposition, therefore,

Be it Resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the House of Representatives concurring, That the Eighty-fourth Session of Congress give serious consideration to the question of eliminating the Federal gasoline tax and leaving that area of taxation entirely to the states.

Be It Further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth be and he is, hereby directed to send a duly certified copy of this resolution to the presiding officers of each House of the Congress and to each member of the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress, and that printed copies thereof, showing that said concurrent resolution was adopted by the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, be sent to each House of each Legislature of each State of the United States.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. McCUSKER offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 2, 1953.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 9, 1953, at four o'clock p.m., E.S.T.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 9, 1953, at four-thirty o'clock p.m., E.S.T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE SECRETARY

The SECRETARY. There will be a meeting of the Judiciary General Committee on Tuesday, February 3, 1953, at 8:30 o'clock a.m., in the Capitol Cafeteria where breakfast will be served.

There will be a meeting of the Appropriations Committee on Tuesday, February 3, 1953, at 9:30 o'clock a.m., in the Caucus Room and it is open to the public.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman will state his point of information.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, is this a public hearing tomorrow morning at the Appropriations Committee Meeting?

Mr. PRESIDENT. I do not understand that it is to be.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, for what purpose is the meeting, if the public is invited?

The PRESIDENT. Well, the public is invited if they wish to attend.

Mr. DENT. For what purpose, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will direct your question to the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, Senator Chapman.

INTERROGATION

Mr. DENT. Mrs. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Warren, Senator Chapman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Chapman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHAPMAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Senator Chapman, is there to be a public hearing tomorrow morning at the meeting of the Appropriations Committee?

Mr. CHAPMAN. The meeting is tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, and the public is invited, down in the Caucus Room, and the School Authority will be reconsidered.

Mr. DENT. School Authority? Thank you, Mr. President.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I believe that an important meeting like that ought to have been publicized so that the persons who are interested in that particular subject could be here tomorrow. How can the public come here tomorrow morning to a meeting at 9:30, and the school authorities, when they do not even know there is such a meeting or who is to be present or what is to be studied or looked into?

Mr. President, I am a Member of the School Building Authority of the Commonwealth and, very frankly, this is the first notice I had that we are going to be interrogated tomorrow morning. I think from now on, Mr. President, if there is going to be a hearing of any kind on any legislation or on any of the appropriations that are asked for, that at least one week before the meeting the newspapers and radio and TV news outlets ought to at least be notified that there is such a meeting, in order that the interested parties can gather their data and come before the Appropriations Committee with proper questions. I doubt, unless someone has had an inside track on the information, if there is such a meeting tomorrow morning, who can possibly be there? I think that kind of a meeting ought to be put to the public at least a week before such meeting is held. I hope to be there to find out something, at least.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I think all of us are interested in bringing economy and efficiency into government. After hearing the Republican President speak, now the President of all our Parties,—he spoke about having efficiency and economy on local levels—I was very glad to pick up a newspaper and find that in it one of the elected officials of our State, Mr. William S. Livengood, Jr., who has been Secretary of Internal Affairs of the State of Pennsylvania for a long time, made this statement. He was speaking about a suggestion made by the Chesterman Committee, and he stated that it would not affect economy. This statement he made, and I quote: "I can give them a plan for reorganization of State Government much simpler than the one they have proposed, and one that will save infinitely more money than all of their suggestions put together."

Mr. President, I believe it is the duty of the Majority Leader of this Senate to get in touch with Mr. Livengood, and have him appear before the Appropriations Committee and give his suggestions on how we can save money in government. I believe he has had a very good opportunity, being a sort of little outside Member of the Cabinet for some time on the Hill, to get an idea or what they do in other departments.

For instance, Mr. President, my pet peeve is the Department of Commerce. The Department of Commerce uses all the material in the Internal Affairs Department to get those great ads that they place throughout the State, and also the statements they make about what the Department of Commerce is doing. I understand, though, that there has been a big loss to the Department of Commerce in the last few weeks. One of the best political writers, political speech writers, has become involved in a feud with some bigwig in the Republican Party and lost his job. I think they are now looking around to get another political speech writer to put in the Department of Commerce. I think maybe Mr. Livengood knows what is going on in the Department of Commerce.

Mr. President, I would suggest to the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, if he would ask Mr. Livengood to appear at an open public meeting, especially to the press, well advertised, that Mr. Livengood will appear and will give us his suggestions on how to save money in government and to rearrange different departments so that we will have efficiency in our State Government.

Mr. President, I would also draw to the attention of the Majority Leader that he should, as the leader of the Republican Party, follow the slogan of the National Party, if they are going to have economy and efficiency, and have the man, who now has said he has a plan that will bring economy into State Government, appear before the Appropriations Committee without any more delay so that we can get together.

From the looks of things, Mr. President, it is going to continue like it has in the past. We are going to be down here a couple of days a week indefinitely, and the last week before Christmas we will have to hurry and do our Christmas shopping and also close the budget. I hope that we can do it this year a little earlier, because last year some of my friends did not get a present. I did not have enough time at Christmas to buy a present. Perhaps we should give notice to the Senators today that it is advisable for them to do their Christmas shopping early, do their Christmas shopping these first two weeks, or three or four weeks when they are doing nothing, so that when it comes to Christmas we will at least be prepared for Christmas if we are not prepared for the budget.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I just want to say that in the last several months the Government Survey Committee, headed by Mr. Chesterman, has been issuing newspaper releases on reports it had completed in connection with the investigation and survey of the various departments, boards and commissions of the Commonwealth. I do not know just how many of these reports have been completed, but it was not until this week that a few of the departments involved took issue with the findings of the Survey Committee.

Mr. President, I noticed in the newspaper that the Department of Mines took issue with the Committee; Mr. Livengood took issue with the Committee; the Department of Property and Supplies, in so far as its purchasing function is concerned, took issue with the Survey Committee. Because of that, it seems to me that the resolution I presented the other day, calling for the production of the completed reports to the Members of the Legislature, as well as the appearance of the Survey Committee before the State Government Committee or some other committee of the Legislature, ought to be reported from the Rules Committee and put into effect so that we can start the machinery in motion to effect the economies that have been recommended. I think we ought to know which of the statements made are right and which are wrong. Either the Survey Committee is right or it is wrong, or the departments involved that take issue with the Survey Committee are either right or wrong, and we ought to know this.

Mr. President, we are here to legislate and we certainly cannot legislate without facts. The only way we can get facts is from those reports, and at hearings from the persons who are involved. I, therefore, call upon the Chairman of the Rules Committee to call a meeting of that committee and report my resolution, so that it can be adopted here and we can start the wheels in motion to dispose of the reports of the Survey Committee.

Mr. President, it seems very silly to me for the Governor to appoint this Committee, allocate $100,000 to it to do this work and then deny the Members of the Legislature the information that is compiled by the Committee. I think it is just plain silly and I think we ought to get to work on it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. Dent. Mr. President, I just wanted to say that talking economy and preaching it is one thing, but putting it into effect is another. Mr. Livengood, who seems to have such a grand knowledge of economy in government, might explain to the taxpayers of Pennsylvania why he devoted approximately seven and one-half pages of his monthly bulletin, which the people pay for in Pennsylvania, to a campaign for the election of Mr. Eisenhower to the Presidency of the United States. All of the people of Pennsylvania pay for these departmental booklets, and I think the booklet that came out in October contained approximately seven and one-half pages on the why's and wherefore's of the great Eisenhower tradition which, up until that moment, we had not known too much about.

Mr. President, I think that the people of Pennsylvania ought not to be made to pay for campaigns regardless of which party might be running. The proper thing for Mr. Livengood to do is to clean up his own department before he starts cleaning up the others.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I do not understand that the Governor is denying the Legislature the benefit of this Chesterman Committee Report. I think he and all of us are patiently awaiting the culmination of this work. I understand that not only this committee but the Tax Committee is working assiduously on their job, and that they expect to have something to report to us within the month. I do not like to get these reports from the Chesterman Committee piecemeal, as we have to through the newspapers, but I believe that they are working hard. I expect by the end of this month, perhaps even the middle of the month, to have something from this committee. I will say this to the gentleman, that if we don't have something in the way of a report by the end of this month, I will certainly see if we can pass some kind of a resolution asking that we have their report as soon as possible.

Mr. President, the reason that we are not in a position, of course, to report Senator Yosko's resolution is because the first part of it is certainly framed with a lot of untruths. I do not have any official knowledge from this committee that we are guilty of all kinds of inefficiencies, as he has brought out in the resolution, and I feel that was the wrong type of resolution to introduce. If he wanted a report from this committee, he should have asked for it without all of those whereases which, at this date, are not official information.

Mr. President, as far as Senator Holland is concerned, I would always advise him that it is wise to do your Christmas shopping early.

INTERROGATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Majority Floor Leader, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Majority Floor Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Senator Mahany, do I understand you correctly that if a resolution is presented just to receive these reports as they come, without any whereases, and not being a lawyer I am not so good at those whereases, you will agree to consider the resolution immediately?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, if it does not appear as though these reports are forthcoming within a couple of weeks, I believe that I would be glad to go along with such a resolution.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate the Majority Floor Leader, Senator Mahany.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Majority Floor Leader permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Do you not think when we are doing nothing in these weeks, especially for the next four weeks, if each one of these reports, which I understand are coming in by departments, that if we got these reports by departments we would have a good opportunity to study them? As it is now, you are going to throw on our desks a whole lot of reports and then start to grind the wheel real quickly to get through these departments before you can really digest the reports. We do not have a large office force. We are the office force ourselves, each individual here is an office force. He has to do the studying of these reports. I think it is very unfair to hold back these reports until you get them all, then dump them on our desks and ask us to digest them in a week when the administrative part of the government starts to put bills in here to pass.

In fact, Mr. President, I believe it is about time this Senate starts to assert its authority as a legislative body. We have abrogated our authority over the years, we have been just a slave, subject to the whims of the administration due to the fear that, maybe, they will lick us in the next election. Now, I think it is about time we become legislators and demand the right of having these reports so we can study them. If not, then let us all go home and put some puppets in our place here to wait for the administration to give us something to do. We are either going to be legislators or not, and I say to you, Mr. President, it is entirely wrong to wait until they dump all of these reports on our desks and then expect us to do a good job. Mr. President, I think everybody here would like to do an honest job in studying these reports. We are not going to study the reports if we are going to do it your way. The only way to do it, if you want to do it efficiently, is to let us have one report a week, and they have been coming out, I understand, one a week. If we had one report a week, we at least could study one department each week and have the right type of an answer when the bills are discussed or when the committee is considering the changes in government.

Mr. President, I would ask Mr. Mahany to reverse his decision and agree with us that these reports should be given to us as they come so that we can study them, too. After all, we are elected by the people to represent them. If we do not want to represent them, then we ought to go home and give our check back that we received today, because we have not earned it.

Mr. MAHANY. Well, Mr. President, that is a pretty long question, but I would say that I do not have to reverse my position. I am still going to continue in the same position, and that is that I will do everything possible to see that these reports are expedited. I will be glad to go over with whoever is in charge of this work, and the Executive Director of it, to see if I cannot get them to give us something in the very near future.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, about three weeks ago, knowing that I would have a full time job on my hands trying to analyze the budget and the Budget Message, speaking for the Minority, I requested from the tax study groups any of the reports that they may have completed at the time. Of course, I am being treated the same as the rest of the Members of the Senate, and will not be given the reports until they are fully completed. However, I have been able to pick up a few gleanings from the newspapers as to what may be contained in some of the reports. I have also made it a point to go back through some of the Histories of the Senate, and I find that if the Members of the Senate are really interested in what might be suggested by the Chesterman Committee and the Tax Study Commission, if they will go back through the Senate Journals they will find that in the past six years the Democratic Minority has already given to the Senate ninety per cent of the Chesterman Report.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I am glad somebody representing the administration has now set a time when we will get those reports, and I will go along with Senator Mahany on the end of the month or prior to that. If we do not have the reports by that time, I will be on my feet again asking about them.

Mr. President, with reference to the whereases that he complained about in the resolution, I do not want to bore the Members of the Senate with the provisions of the resolution. However, if Senator Mahany will read the resolution I presented, it states that the Government Survey Committee uncovered widespread inefficiency, waste, extravagance, duplication of function, within the State Government, and I was only quoting from what was reported by the Survey Committee. If Senator Mahany disagrees that those things were uncovered by the Government Survey Committee, I will be happy to get all of the releases that have been submitted to the newspapermen thus far. I will pick out, I believe, the very words that were made a part of this resolution.

Mr. President, there must be widespread inefficiency, extravagance and duplication of function or the committee would not recommend, as of this date, savings up to approximately $50,000,000. There must be waste where there is the unnecessary expenditure of that amount of money, and the Survey Committee has not completed its job yet. I understand there is a rumor in circulation that in spite of the fact that the Survey Committee has not completed its job, its affairs are going to be wound up. If anybody attempts that, I will be here battling against it. I think this Government Survey Committee is doing a good job for the people of Pennsylvania. It may adversely affect the Republican Party or the administration, but that is one of those things that developed over a period of years and it has got to be corrected and somebody has to be blamed for it.

Mr. President, I have said before in letters I have written to Governor Fine that this whole mess which exists here in the State Government isn't his fault; it is the fault of former Governor Duff. He had four years' time to clean it up and he did nothing about it. At least Governor Fine came in and appointed this committee to investigate the things we have been saying about the State Government here on the floor of the Senate, and, unfortunately for somebody, the things that we have been yelping about here have been found to be true.

Mr. President, just let me add one thing to it. If you take a look at the record of last year, you will find that on at least a half dozen occasions I stood before this microphone, presented resolutions to have the departments of the State Government lapse unexpended appropriations, not only from the last biennium but from previous bienniums. I introduced a bill to lapse those appropriations, and I was told by the Majority Leader of the Senate that those appropriations lapsed automatically. I have made a request for an itemized statement of all of the lapses of appropriations, and I find now a piece that appeared in the Philadelphia Bulletin. The heading is, "Fine Finds Funds Under The Rug; Departments Return $39,000,000 in Unused Appropriations," so that what I have been yelping about here for a whole Session has finally come true and when the barrel was scraped, in it they found $39,000,000.

INTERROGATION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, due to circumstances beyond my control I missed the last of the distinguished gentleman's statement, and I would not want to go home deprived of the opportunity of carrying that statement with me. Did I understand the gentleman from Westmoreland to say that ninety per cent of the Chesterman Report had been recommended by the Democratic Party?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, ninety per cent of what has appeared in the paper, such as the intimation that they are going to ask for the abolishment of the Department of Public Assistance, the consolidation of the Department of Welfare activities, the abolishment of the Milk Control Board and the consolidation of many of the functions now contained in the Department of Internal Affairs. These things have been talked about on the floor of the Senate, and your humble servant has made these recommendations time and time again upon the floor.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, do I understand that the answer to my question is "yes"?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in a long way around, yes.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I further interrogate the gentleman?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. DENT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, will the gentleman object if somebody else lays claim to the other ten per cent?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not care who claims anything. I do not claim it because of pride; I claim it to show the way the wheels roll. No one knows what today may bring out that tomorrow may claim. We have had here examples on this floor of the many Members of the Senate that have for years fought for certain reforms, and then all of a sudden they become headline news under the name of another sponsor. For instance, the eighteen year old voting bill. Senator Holland has asked the Senate for fourteen years to pass an eighteen year old voting bill, but all of a sudden it becomes front page news under another sponsorship and Senator Holland is completely forgotten.

I say to you, Mr. President, that if we will take the word and the work of the Members of this Senate we will not have to spend so much money for commissions. I do not care. Senator Walker can have ninety per cent of the claim, he can have one hundred per cent of the claim and he can also have all of the fame. I found that neither one amounts to anything unless you get something done.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I say to the gentleman from Westmoreland that I appreciate that? I am not looking for any credit for anything that the Chesterman Committee might report. I would like to say that I think that there is a lot of merit in the reports, and the fact that everybody is trying to now claim the child would certainly indicate that the reports will receive the very careful consideration of this legislative body here in trying to enact them into statutes.

Mr. President, as far as the comments that were made during the 1951 Session relative to lapsed appropriations, I will be very happy, either on the floor of the Senate or in the Racquet Club, to discuss with the gentleman from Northampton the difference between lapsed appropriations and unused appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in the fear of again stepping on toes, I might say that if this Senate will remember, I have pointed out time and time again in budget messages on this floor the very thing Senator Yosko is calling attention to, the overestimation of the needs and the underestimation of the revenue returns, thereby building up these so-called lapsed or unused appropriations. They are all deliberate, it is part of the method used to balance budgets. It is an unsafe, an uneconomical method, but that is the method we use in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, that $38,000,000 did not accumulate in the last two years since we left this legislative body. It goes back perhaps to 1949, maybe before that, 1947, some of it, but that money has been there and has been accumulating every year. I have asked the Senate to ask for that money so that we would not have to pass taxes. If we have $38,000,000 in unused funds, then the people of Pennsylvania have been taxed $38,000,000 more than necessary. That has been my argument for years and years. Of course, it will not get anywhere any more than the tear-down that I am now making of the budget, and when I present it here, after hours and hours of work, it will probably be discarded as all of the other work has been discarded.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am perfectly willing to discuss the budget at any time, even though I do not want to do it until the gentleman from Westmoreland has had the opportunity to thoroughly assimilate it and give us the benefit of his budget message which I assume will come some time later. I would like to suggest this to him, that the mere fact that there are unused funds in an appropriation does not necessarily draw the conclusion that we were over taxing the people in order to get funds we did not need. One instance that occurs to my mind, Mr. President, to illustrate the point, there was an item of $2,000,000 appropriated to the Department of Agriculture for soil conservation work. The very distinguished Secretary of that Department did not use the money because he could not get an expeditious expenditure of it, or an economic expenditure of it, for the purposes for which it was appropriated and he rightfully did not use the money. He held it back until such time as he could get an economical use of it. Now, I think that the money was appropriated by the General Assembly in all good faith, and it was accepted by the Secretary of Agriculture in the same spirit in which it was appropriated. The mere fact that it was not used does not mean necessarily that the General Assembly overtaxed the people of Pennsylvania. I think that everybody on the floor of the Senate, who has served at least one term, has sometime during his career in the Senate suggested economies that they hoped would be written into the law.

Mr. President as the Majority Floor Leader has very sincerely said, he is very anxious to get these reports in our hands as soon as possible so that we can study them and I think that the gentleman on the Minority Side should be willing to accept that and give him the opportunity to corraling these reports and submitting them to us in toto instead of having them piece by piece

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not say that it is more important for the newspapers of Pennsylvania to get these reports in a so-called piecemeal fashion than it is for the Members of the Senate who must, in the end, act upon the reports. I am sure that some of the reports will change character between the first submission and the last acceptance.

Mr. President, when the Senator from Allegheny speaks about lapsed funds, he might also remember, and I know that his memory is very good, that I called attention to that very appropriation he is talking about and said at the time that we could not do the work because you could not get the material, and that it was wrong to appropriate money for such work, for which money has been appropriated, due to the lack, or the inability to get materials and services to perform these operations. The Histories of the Senate are filled with the protests of the Minority against the appropriation of large sums of moneys for purposes that were not clearly defined. We will continue to do so; that is the role of the Minority Party. Maybe that is what keeps them in the minority.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the distinguished gentleman from Allegheny County said that he would be glad to discuss with me the difference between unused funds and lapsed funds. He said he would like to do it in the "Coffee Shop" or the "Racquet Club." I do not care to discuss the subject in the "Racquet Club" or any other place outside of here on the floor.

Mr. President, unsued funds, as I understand them, are unexpended funds, funds that have been appropriated and unexpended. Lapsed funds just revert back to the General Fund because they have not been expended. It is just as simple as all that. What I was trying to do during the whole Session last year was to determine which departments had unexpended balances, unencumbered and no more use for them, so that they could revert back to the General Fund or be lapsed into the General Fund.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I might say to the gentleman from Northampton that it is my understanding that an unused fund in an appropriation is simply a fund where the project is not as yet completed and where the money is being held to complete the project. A lapsed fund is a surplus in an appropriation over and beyond the needs that they actually found after the project had been completed. The surplusage is a lapsed fund. The unused portion of an appropriation for an incomplete project is an unused fund. I trust that is sufficiently confusing.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I hope that this discussion will result in expediting these reports and I hope that we do not try to use these reports as political footballs.

Mr. President, I think we are all definitely going to study these reports and definitely try to effect all economies recommended by them. We intend to debate the matter at full length; we intend to certainly effect all the economies which can be effected by the recommendations of this report. Of course, there are some of them that we cannot, because we are going to run into trouble with the public. We are going to give the public a chance to tell us what they think about the various recommendations, and then those that we can accept we certainly are going to put into effect.

Mr. President, I think for the purpose of this discussion we perhaps could go on until midnight, going back and forth. However, I think we probably have said everything that can be said about this at the present time.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to assure the gentleman that we, too, do not intend to use these reports as political footballs. I have studied the action of the Republican Minority in Washington and watched how they have handled reports that have come from committees. I have suggested to our boys that we follow them, because it was very successful and they knew how to handle them and they did not play politics any more or any less than what we intend to.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, February 3, 1953, at 11:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. HARE. Mr President, I second the motion

The motion was agreed to

The Senate adjourned at 5:25 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Tuesday, February 3, 1953, at 11:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, February 2, 1953.

The House met at 4:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) in the Chair.'

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we beseech Thee to look with favor upon our land and people. All undeserving Thou hast made us great among the nations of the earth. Let us not forget that this place and this power have come of Thee, and that we have them as a trust to use in thy service. Save us from pride and arrogance; make us quick to see the needs of those less fortunate than ourselves, and to be resolute in our purpose to promote goodwill and fellowship among all men; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL NOT APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Tuesday, January 27, 1953?

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews. For what purpose does the gentleman from Cambria rise?

Mr. ANDREWS. To inquire whether the approval of the Journal is the next order of business, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. For the gentleman's information it is the next order of business.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to object to the approval of the Journal until the Journal is in print, and so move.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. KORNICK.

RESOLUTION No. 1.

In the House of Representatives, January 27, 1953.

Whereas, Recent riots and threatened riots at State Penitentiaries indicate serious faults in the operation and administration of these institutions, calling for prompt remedial measures; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint a special committee of seven members to make an immediate inspection and investigation of all the Commonwealth's penal institutions, with a view to determining the causes of the unrest among the inmates and how further outbreaks can be prevented. The committee shall have the power to subpoena all persons and require the production of all books, papers and records it deems necessary in connection with the carrying out of its functions. The committee shall make a report of its findings and recommendations to the House as soon as possible during the current session of the General Assembly.

By Mr. VARNER. RESOLUTION No. 2.

In the House of Representatives, January 27, 1953.

Whereas, The football team of Clarion State Teachers College recently completed its eight game regular season unbeaten and untied, and in addition emerged victorious over a worthy opponent, East Carolina State, in the Lions Bowl game at Salisbury, North Carolina, on December 13, 1952; and

Whereas, The members of the football team of Clarion State Teachers College have shown a high competitive spirit, through team work, great sportsmanship and expertness and sagacity in the execution of the various skills necessary to the development of an unbeaten team of outstanding calibre; and

Whereas, The basketball team of Clarion State Teachers College was undefeated in seventeen regular season games, and was accorded the high honor of representing Pennsylvania in the National Invitational Basketball Tournament for small colleges at Kansas City, Missouri, after winning two Pennsylvania playoff games; and

Whereas, Clarion State Teachers College has set an example to other colleges and universities of this Commonwealth in the accomplishment of this "double eagle" in the field of competitive sports, by the stressing of physical adeptness in conjunction with mental accomplishments and alertness; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of this House of Representatives hereby extend their hearty and sincere congratulations to the members of the great football and basketball teams of Clarion State Teachers College, to the coaches of those teams, and to the administration faculty and student body of this excellent school for their fine accomplishments in the development of magnificent unbeaten teams in two separate phases in the field of competitive sports.

By Messrs. ERB, LIGHT and McCULLOUGH. RESOLUTION No. 3.

In the House of Representatives, January 27, 1953.

Economy in Government is a noble end to be pursued in any age or time. But such a purpose is essential in our time, if our heritage of freedom is to survive.

The catastrophe of world war with its attendant world economic collapse has settled upon the American people a financial burden unparalleled in the history of man. The troubled nations of the world, unable to protect themselves from communist tyranny, have turned to America as their sole hope for salvation. America's answer has been magnificent but the cost is tremendous.

With so much of America's tax money being invested in the cause of freedom, all other governmental functions must be limited to those which are essential to our way of life, and operated at the lowest possible cost compatible with efficiency; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives dedicate themselves to the cause of economy in Government, and direct all of their official acts, as guardians of the public purse, to this end; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives admonish all those entrusted with the machinery of government at Federal, State and local levels, to strive with all the energy they possess to search out and eliminate every extravagance and waste of any size, wherever found in any cost of government, and dedicate themselves, as do these members, to the continuance of an economically sound nation, in which every American may enjoy the full fruits of his labor.

By Mr. VAN SANT, Mrs. MARKLEY and Mr. STIMMEL. RESOLUTION No. 4.

In the House of Representatives, January 27, 1953.

Whereas, The Art in Industry program inaugurated in 1950, by the Lehigh Art Alliance, has done much to coordinate the efforts of industry at its best with art in its finest form in portraying industry at work through fine media of esthetic interpretation; and

Whereas, The latest effort of the members of the Lehigh Valley Art Alliance was presented as a "Portrait of the Dairy Industry," and consisted of 289 paintings, ceramics and sculpture by 119 area artists; and

Whereas, The permanent collection, known as the "Lehigh Valley Dairy," is comprised of 40 art forms, in 7 media, and represents the work of 29 artists, and is part of the original collection known as "Portrait of the Dairy Industry;" and

Whereas, The permanent collection, known as the "Lehigh Valley Dairy" is currently on exhibition at the State Museum Building; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives hereby extends its sincere congratulations to the Lehigh Art Alliance for its entire Art in Industry program, and to the Lehigh Valley Cooperative Farmers, Allentown, Pennsylvania, for its presentation of its permanent collection "Portrait of the Dairy Industry," from the work of the Lehigh Art Alliance.

By RAGOT. RESOLUTION No. 5.

In the House of Representatives, January 27, 1953.

Governor Fine's handling of the four-day mutiny at Rockview Penitentiary at Bellefonte as well as at Western State Penitentiary was very impressive and worthy of commendation.

His refusal to negotiate with the rebel convicts who had seized three cell blocks and held six guards as hostages at Rockview, causing them to unconditionally surrender contrasts strikingly with the appeasement of revolting convicts in other prisons throughout the country last year.

In one of these cases the authorities did the surrendering, the convicts having won all their demands, plus a lavish steak and ice cream dinner given them as a reward for their condescension in settling their "strike".

The forceful, no-compromise way of handling prison riots, as shown by Governor Fine, is the only solution to this problem, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania offer its congratulations and commendations to his Excellency, John S. Fine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for his impressive handling of the prison riots at Rockview Penitentiary at Bellefonte and at Western State Penitentiary, and for his instituting an investigation to identify the ring leaders in the rioting and to meet proper punishment; and be it further Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be transmitted to John S. Fine, Governor of this Commonwealth.

RESOLUTION No. 7.

In the House of Representatives, January 27, 1953.

Whereas, as a result of recent riots staged at the Western State and Rockview Penitentiaries, public attention has been centered upon the problems which the Commonwealth's penal system presents, and

Whereas, His Excellency the Governor has appointed a committee instructed to inspect the Commonwealth's penal institutions and "inquire and examine into their methods of instruction, discipline, detention, imprisonment, care and treatment of prisoners and the government or management of prisoners," and

Whereas, this inquiry is a matter of proper concern to the Members of this House, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Speaker of this House appoint a committee of five Members of this House; three from the Majority Party membership and two from the Minority Party membership, whose business it shall be to sit as observers, (without vote or authority to interrogate) with the Members of the committee appointed by His Excellency the Governor, and

Be It Further Resolved, that this committee, as a result of its observations, be instructed to report its conclusions to the Members of this House and that in addition it survey the findings and recommendations of commissions or committees operating for and on behalf of the Commonwealth during recent years, and

Be It Further Resolved, that this committee report to this House not later than April 15, 1953.

MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 31 RELATIVE TO ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY PROJECT

The SPEAKER laid before the House Michigan Legislature House Concurrent Resolution No. 31 relative to the St. Lawrence Seaway Project.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

By consent of the House leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. Vaughan for Mr. BELL because of illness for the week.

Mr. Granville E. Jones for Mr. PETTIGREW for today's session.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GOODLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, as a tiller of the soil, I think I would be remiss in my duty if I did not call to the attention of this House the serious condition in which Pennsylvania farmers find themselves.

I can probably give you a cross-section of my own life and it would be exactly what I might want to say, but I think one Daniel Krainov, who, according to this article, is the special correspondent to the United States for Pravda, has stated the case quite clearly, even better than I could, so I ask your permission to read this article.

I hope you people from the cities especially will pay strict attention to this so that you might know the real condition of the Pennsylvania farmers. It seems that Mr. Krainov was taking a motor tour through Pennsylvania, and this is what he had to say:

We had been traveling for more than two hours along the narrow country roads of Pennsylvania, meeting almost no one. The few houses we passed looked deserted. From time to time we noticed abandoned farms. The cottages stared at the road through windows with broken panes. All around was absolute quiet.

When I asked my companion, a New Yorker by the name of Harrison, who knew these parts and the condition of the farmers, where all the owners were, he said they had gone to the city to escape starvation!

I expressed surprise, so there was nothing to do but get out. Yes, the farmers could not even feed themselves, my companion asserted, when I repeated my question.

Some time later we turned off the road and stopped the car at what seemed to be an inhabited farm.

There I made the acquaintance of the owner, Haley, and his wife, as well as a neighboring farmer, Lessing, with his wife. They were making a call at the time.

We started talking and I discovered that both farmers were heavily in debt. Haley said he felt that neither the farm nor the land was his. Lessing added with a gesture of hopelessness that they could scarcely make ends meet. He was nearly 60. He had been working here for almost 40 years. He had started life in debt and would probably die in debt.

These words were followed by silence. The farmers seemed lost in gloomy thought. Then Haley made the remark that they were commonly called independent farmers, but actually they were laborers of the banks which had paid for the farm, laborers of the company that was supplying them. He would be paying back his debt to the bank for another 26 years, he said.

I learned from Harrison that when once an American farmer mortgages his farm, he is as much a free man as the serf of the middle ages. The chains of his enslavement are not always evident, but they are strong enough to keep several generations of a family in serfdom.

The American farmer is not master of his destiny. His farm can be sold and is often sold right out from under him. I asked Haley and Lessing if there were any hope of getting out of the chains. No, they said, they did not even hope to pay off their debts on time and keep hold of the farms.

En route back to New York, I asked Harrison if there were many farmers in America like Haley and Lessing, with no hope of escaping bankruptcy. He thought a moment and said, "about 4,000,000."

And that's the end of the sad story. It should bring a chuckle and a snort of indignation from Pennsylvania's farmers. Its purpose is obvious.

I wish to call this to the attention of the House for several reasons. In the first place, I know that in this session any bill desiring to help these poor farmers will have the serious consideration of this House, and with your permission, Mr. Speaker, I should also like to ask that those of us who are tillers of the soil be allowed to line the corridors from time to time with a tin cup in one hand and a sign in the other.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the trouble with the observer from Russia, Pravda's correspondent, was that he did not travel in York or Adams, or Lancaster County. He was lost in the wilds of Cameron County.

"But that, Mr. Speaker, was not what I originally had in mind to say when I asked permission to address the House.

I wish, first of all, to call the attention of the Rules Committee, and of the Members of the House, that there is pending before the Rules Committee a resolution which would empower the Speaker to appoint a committee of five, three members of the majority party, two members of the minority party, to sit as observers with the members of the group the Governor has appointed to investigate conditions at the Western Penitentiary and our other penal institutions.

This resolution specifically states that the members of this committee if named, would not have any power to vote, and would not be authorized to interrogate any witnesses. They would simply serve as observers for and on behalf of the House; be a listening post for us, and comprise a group that could advise us as, if, and when, the committee appointed by His Excellency, the Governor reports. I think that the Members of this House should have some knowledge of their own concerning the conditions that have prevailed in our penal institutions.

Unfortunately, were I to offer a resolution providing for an investigation by the Members of the House, it would be charged that it was tainted with a political slant. The issues which our penal institutions present are in no sense political to my mind, and I do believe that we should have the opportunity to sit in with our observers at the meeting held by the committee which the Governor has appointed, and I call that resolution to the attention of the Rules Committee.

I wish to say a word about another resolution which I shall present at the proper time. I believe that the Members of this House desire to acquaint themselves with the financial problems that confront the various departments and bureaus of our state government. They would like to have some notion concerning the structure of those departments. They would like to have some idea of what those departments are supposed to do. They would like to have some notion as to how many men and women are employed by the various bureaus. They would like to have some idea as to the amount of money that was allocated during the present biennium for a particular bureau as compared with the amount of money that it is ask for the next biennium. And so, the resolution which I shall offer provides that the Chair would request every department head to supply every individual Member of this House with the following information:

First, an organization chart for each department of our State Government. Very easily done.

Second, an analysis of the functions which the various bureaus which comprise our State Government performs.

I have been here a long time, and I could not sit down and tell you the functions which the various bureaus of our various departments are supposed to perform. And I do not believe there are very many Members of the House that could sit down and analyze our departments and bureaus and tell us what they are to do.

Third, a statement showing the number of persons employed by each bureau one year after it was organized, and the number that are presently employed.

Fourth, a statement showing the amount allocated for the functioning of each bureau for the biennium ending May 31, 1953, together with the amount of the appropriation requested for the use of each bureau for the biennium ending May 31, 1955.

Fifth, a statement showing estimated department deficits or surpluses at the end of the current biennium.

I believe, Mr. Speaker, that all of that is information that should not simply be at the disposal of the Ways and Means Committee, or the Appropriations Committee, but should actually be at the disposal of every Member of this House, so that we can intelligently pass upon the reorganization plans that may be presented, and upon the requests for money that will inevitably face us.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. JOHNSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I have listened, Mr. Speaker, with great interest to what the Minority Leader has to say about the resolution that he has already submitted. It has been referred to the Committee on Rules and will be given consideration in due time.

I want to say to the House that Governor Fine has done a very sensible thing in appointing a five man board to begin a probe of the prison system in Pennsylvania. I understand that they met today in the Governor's office at 2:30; they elected General Devers as the President.

Governor Fine, after they had organized, issued a statement to them wherein he charged them with the big job of investigating our prison system, told them to let the chips fall where they might, to not pull any punches, to make it a good, thorough investigation. Therefore I feel that with the very able men who are on the Committee, such men as John C. Burke, who is the Warden of the Wisconsin State prison of Wisconsin, Joseph E. Reagen the Warden of the Stateville Penitentiary at Joliet, Illinois, Judge Burton R. Laub of the Erie County Common Pleas Court in our own state, and William P. Witherow a Pittsburgh industrialist, besides Chairman Devers.

I think that this non-political, non-partisan group will make a thorough study of the prison situation as it exists today. They will call witnesses, take testimony and will file, I am sure, a very able report which will let all of us in the House, when the report is filed, determine for ourselves what the situation is in the prison system in Pennsylvania.

Prison riots had to happen to all states it seems. As you know during the last campaign Governor Stevenson was greatly embarrassed by the prison riot in the great State of Illinois.

Governor Williams had it on his hands in Michigan. It seems to be happening all over. It seems to be the order of business, the business of the day.

It would be interesting to all of us to receive this report from this very able board that Governor Fine has appointed who, as I say, will impartially tell us just what they think is wrong, if anything, with our prison system in Pennsylvania.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

SENATE MESSAGE

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, February 2, 1953.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 9, 1953, at four o'clock p. m., E. S. T., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 9, 1953, at four-thirty o'clock p. m., E. S. T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. TAYLOR from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed, House Bill No. 7, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1107), entitled "An act providing for the construction, erection and maintenance of roadside rests adjacent to State highway routes; providing for the acquisition of interests in land by gift, purchase or condemnation; granting powers to, and imposing duties upon, the Department of Highways, the Secretary of Highways, the Governor and the Department of Property and Supplies; authorizing rules and regulations; and providing penalties for violations thereof; and making an appropriation," by eliminating the maximum cost of any one roadside rest.

Mr. AMARANDO from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 14, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act, approved the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1006), entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor, to sell and convey three contiguous parcels of land."

Mr. GUTENDORF from the Committee on Motor Vehicles, reported as committed, House Bill No. 29, entitled:

An Act to further amend section 717.1 of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by increasing the fee for inspection certificates.

Mr. ERB from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 35, entitled:

An Act giving the consent of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the acquisition by the United States of America of approximately one hundred and thirty-four acres of land in the County of Butler, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, known as the Veterans Administration Hospital, and ceding jurisdiction to the United States.

PERMISSION TO INTERROGATE MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHNSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know, if the Majority Leader cares to inform the House, why we have been denied the privilege of voting upon an FEPC bill when we reconvene next week.

Mr. JOHNSON. Would you repeat the question, Mr. Andrews the very last part of it?

Mr. ANDREWS. I said I would like to know, if you care to inform the House, why we have been denied the privilege of voting upon an FEPC bill when we reconvene next week.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that question I believe on interrogation last week I said there would be an administration FEPC bill. Governor Fine in his message at the opening of the Legislature made it very plain that he strongly approved an FEPC bill and that one would be introduced. The bill is just about ready, and will be introduced next Monday in this House.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.

ANNOUNCEMENT

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

SENATE

TUESDAY, February 3, 1953.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HARWOOD C. BOWMAN, JR., Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kittanning, offered the following prayer:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen. Let us pray.

Most gracious God, we humbly beseech Thee as for the people of this State in general, so especially for their Senate now assembled, that Thou wouldst be pleased to direct and counsel its consultations to the advancement of Thy glory, the safety, honor and welfare of Thy people, that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavors upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established among us for all generations.

These, and all other things of necessity for them, we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ, Thy most blessed Son, our Lord, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. HARE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 80, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of the Wynnefield Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, for the last three Sessions I have introduced a bill to abolish the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission and each year that it has been presented it died in committee, even though the Democrats tried in the last Session to discharge the committee from further consideration of the bill.

Mr. President, I am very pleased to note that the "Blue Ribbon Committee" appointed by the Governor has made recommendations stating that this is one commission that should be done away with. When it first started out in 1935, Mr. President it was supposed to be self-sustaining, and it was a creation of the depression days. In 1935 and in 1937, they did not require any appropriation from the State. They used the fees that they collected to conduct the business of the Milk Control Commission, but it seemed that just as soon as Governor James came into power, Governor Martin and Governor Duff, the Commission was made a place for good jobs and large payrolls. The result of this is that it kept increasing their appropriation, and using the appropriation from the State each Session until this year they have asked for an appropriation of $531,500. Taking the receipts they have received from the different milk companies, they will expend $825,000 in the next biennium, so they say, to control the price of milk which has steadily risen since 1939, since the Commission has had a very fine payroll.

Now, Mr. President, I believe that the time has come when the milk industry of Pennsylvania should stand on their own, because with full employment there is no lack of buyers for milk. There is plenty of money in circulation, due to the twenty years of the Democratic role, which I hope will continue under the Eisenhower role. There has been plenty of money in circulation to buy milk. The worker's family is not being deprived of milk, because the head of the family has been making a decent wage in the steel mills and the industries of Pennsylvania. Therefore, I feel that the continued existence of the Commission is useless, and this baby of the depression should now be forgotten—those turbulent depression days of Hoover are gone—and take its stand in the free enterprise system that we are all trying to work and which has proven very successful.

So, Mr. President, I am very pleased to know that I have the endorsement of the Chesterman Committee for the abolishment of the Milk Control Commission, and I hope that the committee which considers this bill will meet very soon and report it out, and start on the first steps toward the economy which the Republican Party has talked so much about but has done so little about.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HOLLAND and FLEMING read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 81, entitled:

An Act to abolish the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission, and to repeal the act by which it was created.

Which was committed to the Committee on Agriculture.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, each year of the Session we appropriate considerable money to get out the Legislative Record. We now find that the amount of money we have appropriated is not sufficient to get it out on time, and it seems very foolish to send the Legislative Record to the people who are interested in legislative months after the legislation is passed.

Mr. President, I firmly believe that something should be done. I think that the group of workers who are working on the Legislative Record here in the Capitol have given it all the effort that they can. They work late at night, but we ought to have a better system or else discontinue it, because it is silly to go to all this expense of mailing it out and when the people get it, it is all old news and it goes in the wastepaper basket. I have received letters from practically everyone who is on my mailing list stating, "Why don't we get it on time? It is no use to get it after the Session is closed."

Mr. President, I also find that we today do not have the Legislative Record of last Session in any position so that we can use it in this Session. There is no way we can look back on the last Session and find out what took place, because it is still in the printer's hands. Now, in the Congress of the United States, the Congressional Record is mailed out every night. That is done by having a corps of secretaries or reporters who take the notes, and as they get one batch of notes done they go immediately to the recording room and record their notes and prepare it for the record, so that when the Session is over all of the material to go into the Congressional Record is ready to go to the printer. It is printed that night and in the mail by one o'clock in the morning.

Mr. President, there is no reason why we cannot do the same thing here. If we do not want to do the same thing here, then I think we should discontinue our lists of sending out the Legislative Record and save that money, because it is money wasted. I urge the Republican Majority to do something about it, because as it now stands it is just a foolish gesture that does not mean anything to the people of Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I thoroughly agree with Senator Holland and will try to see that something is done this week about that.

Mr. President, I would also like to ask the Members to check their mailing list. As you know, we get a blank form from the Secretary's office each year before we go into Session, saying that we are entitled to send out so many of these each week and I think sometimes we scramble for names to put down there. I notice that some use up the whole thirty of their names and others only have one or two. A lot of your people that you put on that mailing list evidently, and probably, just throw the thing in the wastepaper basket when they get it. So, if you would, you could save the Commonwealth a lot of money in mailing and sending these Journals out if you will go over your list and check with those that you are sending them to, and ask them if they read them and if they really need them. If they do, keep them on the list; if they don't, of course, it would save, as I say, a lot of money if you would just strike those names off your list. Just because you are entitled to send out thirty does not mean that you have to send out that many, and between now and next week I will see what we can do about speeding up this printing of the Journal.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, while we are on the question of lists and mailing records relative to the Legislature, it might be a good idea, too, for somebody to look into the matter of printing the Pamphlet Laws. You know we adjourned, I think, on December 23, 1951, and we did not get the Pamphlet Laws until about one year later. It certainly should not take a whole year to print the Pamphlet Laws and get them ready for distribution.

SENATE RESOLUTION

EXTENDING BIRTHDAY FELICITATIONS TO SENATOR JOHN CARL MILLER

Mr. KOPRIVER, JR. offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 3, 1953.

In the past years many distinguished men have served as Members of the Pennsylvania State Senate. In the course of events, we, as members of the Pennsylvania State Senate, are occasionally privileged to welcome new members to our legislative body. It is with a feeling of joy that we welcome the Honorable John Carl Miller, a new member to our midst, and rejoice with him upon the anniversary of his birthday.

Senator Miller, though young in years, has actively pursued and attained many goals in a relatively short span of time. The son of Dr. and Mrs. John L. Miller, he is well known in Western Pennsylvania for his numerous activities as a civic leader.

A veteran of World War II, he served our State and Country faithfully, and through his pleasant personality has acquired a tremendous following that transcends political, racial and religious lines.

Before coming to the Senate, he served as a member of the House of Representatives. Because of rendering the type of service his people desire, he set new records for vote-getting in his district. The fact that he is the first Republican State Senator in his district in the past twenty years, clearly indicates he must be well received by his people; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby congratulates the Honorable John Carl Miller on the celebration of his thirty-third birthday, and extends its best wishes for abundant health and happiness in the years ahead.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO AMEND FEDERAL SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

Mr. CROWE offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on State Government:

In the Senate, February 3, 1953.

Whereas, The present status of the Federal Social Security Act, prohibits employes of the State or its political subdivisions from availing themselves of the benefits of Federal Social Security, when the State or its political subdivision has an existing pension or retirement system therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Congress of the United States be memorialized as follows: That the Congress amend the Federal Social Security Act to permit employes of the State or its political subdivisions to avail themselves of the benefits of the Federal Social Security Act, notwithstanding the existence of a pension or retirement system in the State or its political subdivision.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

URGING DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS TO CONSTRUCT OVERPASS OVER ROUTE 30

Messrs. DENT and WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Highways:

In the Senate, February 3, 1953.

Whereas, The crossing of Route 30, better known as the Lincoln Highway, between Circleville and Jacktown, in Westmoreland County, is hazardous to children and adults who must cross the said highway in passenger cars and school buses; and

Whereas, The promotion of highway safety has long been an established policy in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby urges the Department of Highways to construct an overpass over Route 30, known as the Lincoln Highway, at a point between Circleville and Jacktown, in Westmoreland County, for the purpose of avoiding danger to highway users crossing the Lincoln Highway between the aforementioned municipalities.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LANE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 82, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1172), entitled "An act establishing certain streets in boroughs and incorporated towns as State Highways, and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth," by adding a new route in Washington County.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I am not going to take too much time. I only want to call the attention of the Senate to something that I think is very important.

Mr. President, yesterday, if you remember, we discussed at length the proposition of receiving the so-called "Little Hoover Reports"; while we are waiting for the final report we can receive the interim reports. Now, of recent date, the so-called "Little Hoover Commission," or the Chesterman Committee in the public print stated that it would recommend a constitutional change abolishing the so-called Department of Internal Affairs. Now, I have been told by reliable sources that the so-called task force that does the actual field work for the "Little Hoover Commission," in studying the Department of Internal Affairs, recommended the directly opposite and does not recommend the abolishment of the Department of Internal Affairs.

Mr. President, how can this Senate, or the Legislature as a whole, act intelligently unless we receive not only the Chesterman Final Report of its recommendations, but respectfully solicit the Majority Floor Leader to petition that we receive, at the same time, the report of the task force or the investigating committees that are working for the Chesterman Committee. I think that it is important, because if we have such a divergence of views on this one particular item in their report, how can we know whether their report is based upon what they want us to do or what the task force found to be the right thing to do?

Therefore, Mr. President, I request that the Majority Leader, before he leaves today, ask that we receive both the Chesterman Reports and the substantiating material.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I am just as anxious to see these work sheets as Senator Dent or any other Member of the Senate. We will do everything we can to see that all material in connection with this report is made available to each and every one of us.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the first reading of all bills reported from committees for the first time at today's session.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 5, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 814) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the second class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, election officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors; and imposing penalties," by further providing for the composition of the registration commission; imposing duties on the county commissioners and ending the terms of the present commissioners.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 7, entitled:

An Act to amend Sections 3 and 4 of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1440) entitled "An act concerning notaries public and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," by requiring notaries to be qualified electors.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 12, entitled:

An Act relating to certain commercial transactions in or regarding personal property and contracts and other documents concerning them, including sales, commercial paper, bank deposits and collections, documentary letters of credit, bulk transfers, warehouse receipts, bills of lading, other documents of title, investment securities, and secured transactions, including certain sales of accounts, chattel paper, and contract rights; providing for public notice to third parties in certain circumstances; regulating procedure, evidence and damages in certain court actions involving such transactions, contracts or documents, and to make uniform the law with respect thereto.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland, will state his point of information.

Mr. HOLLAND. For the information of the Senators, Mr. President, will next week be a two-day week or a three-day week?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would be pleased to advise the Senator, if he knew. Perhaps the Majority Floor Leader could answer your question.

Mr. MAHANY. I think, Mr. President that we will have two-day sessions until such time as I advise you otherwise.

INTERROGATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Walker, a very important bill was introduced the first day of the Session, and it is imperative that it be passed and made a law in the early part of this Session so it can be used in the present Session of the Legislature.

Senator Walker, this bill, Senate Bill No. 22, governing lobbyists, is in your committee. I see that you had a meeting today and I would like to know if you considered Senate Bill No. 22.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, we did not.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Chairman, do you intend to have a meeting next week?

Mr. WALKER. We do, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Will you consider Senate Bill No. 22 next week at this meeting?

Mr. WALKER. I certainly cannot answer that question at this time, Mr. President. It depends entirely upon the ability of the committee to discharge the responsibilities that are upon them, and the bill will be considered by the committee in due course of time.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland, will state his point of information.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, maybe you can give me this information. I think it is very important that I get it.

Mr. President, I would like to know who the lobbyists are that decide what bills shall be passed. I also would like to know which lobbyists has Senate Bill No. 22, so that over the week end I could lobby him to get my bill out of committee.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I say to the gentleman from Allegheny that if he is suggesting that any lobbyist, including the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, has the ability to keep a bill in or get it out of the Judiciary General Committee, he has been misinformed. I herewith invite the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, even though he is not a member of the committee, to come down any time we are holding a meeting and we will be happy to have him and the benefit of his sage counsel.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I thank the gentleman from Allegheny for inviting me to a meeting of the committee, and I promise him that I will be at every meeting the Judiciary General Committee has for the rest of the Session, or until my bill comes out.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to advise the gentleman, if he happens to be there, that under the Senate Rules he will be present but not voting.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I thought there was some catch to the invitation.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Monday, February 9, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 11:49 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Monday, February 9, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, February 3, 1953

The House met at 11:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, we beseech Thee mercifully to receive the prayers of Thy people who call upon Thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfill the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL OF FEBRUARY 2, NOT APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Monday, February 2, 1953?

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I move that the approval of the Journal for yesterday February 2, be postponed since the Journal is not in print.

The motion was agreed to.

JOURNAL OF JANUARY 27 APPROVED

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, since the Journal is now on the Members' desks for Tuesday, January 27th, I move that the Journal for that date be approved.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRETH asked and obtained unaimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the Members of this House to one item in the Governor's budget regarding deer seasons in the state of Pennsylvania.

Like a great many other Members I am a deer hunter and I prefer to hunt buck. Now there is nothing wrong about hunting antlerless deer, I will assure you, and at times it is necessary for the Pennsylvania Game Commission to open a season on antlerless deer. But to my mind it is the prime responsibility of the Game Commission to manage the deer herd all over the state in an effort to produce the maximum number of bucks for buck hunting.

In the past four or five years we have had repeated antlerless deer seasons declared by the Game Commission.

For example, in 1947 a single doe day was declared, and on that one day more than 63,500 antlerless deer were killed and taken out of the woods. There was no doe season in 1948, but the Game Commission declared an antlerless deer season—another doe day—in 1949, with the result that 84,000 antlerless deer were killed and taken out of the woods.

You buck hunters know also that in 1950, 1951 and 1952 the Game Commission continued its antlerless deer season. The result was that in the regular buck season there was a total of between 400,000 and 500,000 deer taken out of the deer herd in the state of Pennsylvania in the past four or five years.

Practically every experienced deer hunter who has been hunting every year has noticed the effect of this decrease of the deer herd, and last year during the buck season there were hundreds of deer hunters who not only failed to see a buck with antlers, but they noticed that all deer were conspicuous by their absence. In fact, in the opinion of many buck hunters, and a great many Members of this House, the buck season of 1952 was the worst for buck it has ever been. The bucks just were not around to be seen.

The reason for this is obvious. A baby buck is born in May or June. It grows tiny buttons its first Fall. The next year it has long spikes, and one of those spikes may get a little fuller. However in its third year it really becomes a legal buck and may have six or more points.

However, unrelenting antlerless deer seasons the past four years has meant that thousands of little button bucks have been killed, and the percentage of buck fawns left to continue to grow to their third year has been steadily decreasing, and that is why buck hunters failed to find bucks in the woods last fall.

The point to my remarks today is this: as it is now, the buck crop for this coming fall season will be very small, perhaps even smaller than it was last year. And buck hunters can expect fewer bucks for the next three years, because most of the button buck fawns that would have been legal buck, have been taken out of the woods in the past three buck seasons.

It is simply out of the question to expect a normal supply of buck deer when four antlerless deer seasons in a row in the past four years have removed thousands of button bucks in the 400,000 deer taken in those years.

Buck hunters are well aware of this. And while they know that the deer herd might have needed thinning, it did not need to be knocked completely to its knees. Among others, after four doe season in a row I expected that the remaining deer in the state would be given a respite from antlerless deer killing, and that at least for the next year or two the annual crop of button bucks would be permitted to survive in order to provide at least normal buck hunting in the future.

Mr. Speaker, I am disturbed by an item that I discovered in the Governor's budget for this next biennium, and I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader about it.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHNSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman familiar with the item in the Game Fund account on Page 56 where it shows the total money received by the Game Commission for special antlerless deer licenses in the last two years 1951 and 1952 amounted to $444,000?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I am familiar with that particular fund in the budget but I would like to yield to the Representative from York, Mr. Goodling, who is Chairman of the Committee on Game and Forestry in the House, who I am sure is better posted on game matters than I am. So I would like to yield to Mr. Goodling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Goodling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GOODLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, in directing my interrogation to the Chairman of the Game Committee, I want to say that he has proved himself to be a very efficient Chairman and interested always in the betterment of hunting in the state of Pennsylvania.

However, has the gentleman noticed that in the estimated revenue for the next two years in the budget I mentioned for 1953 and 1954 the sum of $400,000 is included in the Game Fund to be raised from the sale of special antlerless deer licenses?

Mr. GOODLING. I have, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, does this mean that this estimated $400,000 that the Pennsylvania Game Commission has in its announced Game Fund Budget, that the Game Commission has made up its mind to declare two more statewide antlerless deer seasons?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Clearfield already knows how I feel on the antlerless deer seasons that we have had in the past. But in fairness to the Game Commission in this particular matter, I must inform him that these budgets have to be submitted well in advance of the time we meet here. As I recall all departments on the hill must submit budgets in September and October, I think or no later than November. And that budget, as we well know, was submitted before we had the last antlerless doe season. I wish I were in a position to be able to tell him that they are not anticipating an antlerless doe season during the next two years; but I am sorry to say that I cannot do that.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, if the Game Commission did submit this $400,000 item as revenue from antlerless deer licenses in the next two years last October, would it mean that they had made up their mind to have those seasons?

Mr. GOODLING. No, Mr. Speaker, I would not say that they had made up their minds.

Mr. BRETH. Is the gentleman aware that the Game Commission has already announced its regular game seasons for this year? And while a regular buck season was declared—no antlerless deer season was?

Mr. GOODLING. I am familiar with that, yes.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman then has no specific information as to exactly how that $400,000 item was included in the budget?

Mr. GOODLING. No, I do not.

Mr. BRETH. As Chairman of the Game Committee of the House, would the gentleman be willing to find out how this item was included, and also if it is a fact that the Game Commission has decided to hold two more antlerless deer seasons this Fall or next year?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, for my own information and for the information of the House and the gentleman from Clearfield I shall make an effort to find that out.

Mr. BRETH. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, for one, and I know there are many other buck hunters on both sides of the House here, I am going to be greatly interested in learning more about the intentions of the Game Commission in setting future antlerless deer seasons, particularly because I am a member of the Game Committee of the House.

It was announced by the Commission a few weeks ago that it was going to conduct an aerial survey of the state deer woods to determine whether or not an antlerless deer season was necessary. I believe that if the Game Commission had consulted a great many average deer hunters who hunted last fall in their own fields there would have been sufficient information about the number of deer left that it would have decided that the deer herd was low enough and it would have given it a chance to come back.

The Pennsylvania deer herd is very definitely at a very low point in many sections and I want to say this, if it is the intention of the Game Commission to try to have to two more antlerless deer seasons this year and next year, as it appears to be in the budget, I am prepared to introduce legislation immediately to restrict antlerless deer season in this state to one antlerless deer season every three years as a maximum in order to give at least a few of our annual crop of bucks a chance to grow into legal bucks.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would just like to go along with a lot of the remarks that Mr. Breth made in reference to the way our deer situation has been handled. I do not think I am going to be quite as easy on the Pennsylvania Game Commission as the gentleman from Clearfield has been.

Quite some time ago I made a statement in which I referred to them as incompetent, inefficient, high and mighty, and I meant every word of it. Two years ago we gave the Game Commission the opportunity of establishing the fact as to whether or not we needed an antlerless season. If they did, the county had no means of abrogating that season.

The Game Commission, could have very easily by questioning the fellows who really knew, found out whether or not we needed an antlerless season throughout the state. But they did not do that. They made it just a wide blanket. If they had a lot of deer that was swell. If they did not have them, why, that was swell too.

I believe I am safe in saying that our deer herd is probably not over 25 per cent of what it was six to eight years ago. They say we have seven hundred thousand deer. I think if they would say we had two hundred thousand they would be nearer to it. They now claim that they can take an airplane, one plane, and they can tell you how many deer we have in the state.

What I do not know about flying would fill a book, but

I have been a pilot for about twenty years and I am satisfied that there is no pilot, not only in Pennsylvania but in the United States, that can fly over our mountain areas and tell us how many deer are in those many canyons and ridges.

Up at Kinzna I happen to know that they took a few fellows and went over a ridge, each man reported how many deer he had seen. They figured that if there were so many in that one area then there would be so many in the State, not thinking that probably all these men may have seen the same deer.

They claim we do not have feed. That is not true. We have plenty of browse; there is plenty of feed. In most sections there may be some places we do not have it but in most places we do have it. They refer to the farm areas, that many deer are being killed by cars. That may be true, but there are still is just a scarcity of deer in the places that they should be.

I certainly can agree with Mr. Breth that if we have two more years of shooting of the antlerless deer—which turn out to be about 60 per cent button bucks—if you want to see a deer you will go to the Zoo to see it. So I think there is only one answer to it, that we will have to reenact the bill which allows the counties to say whether or not they will have an antlerless season.

When I refer to the Pennsylvania Game Commission I am referring to the Chairman of that Commission, because I think he writes most of the tickets. I do not know; I have checked back for many years and found that he has served in many of the different departments. But I certainly do not think that he qualifies to say whether we need an antlerless season or whether we do not. I certainly would like to see every sportman in this state who hunted deer to fill out a questionnaire and say whether he thinks we need one or not. I think if that were true you would find that 90 per cent would say that we do not.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I missed some of the remarks of the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, and I would like to interrogate him to the extent of one question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I failed to hear just exactly what the gentleman said while he was speaking.

and there was one question: do I gather that the gentleman wants to shoot the deer or does he want to shoot the Game Commission?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. If I just had one shell, I do not think I would waste it on a deer.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE AND READ NON-PRIVILEGED RESOLUTION

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House and to read a non-privileged resolution.

Whereas, during the last thirty years there has been much talk about "taking the farmers out of the mud" insofar as "home to market highways" were concerned, and

Whereas, farmers and other rural residents have constantly expressed a lively desire to get out of the mud, and

Whereas, Pennsylvania's Governors and Highway Department executives have constantly pointed to Pennsylvania's highway system as probably the best system in the universe, and

Whereas, there are apparently no reliable figures available showing how many Pennsylvanians are still living on dirt roads, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Highway Department be requested to furnish this House with figures indicating how many Pennsylvania people reside along dirt roads and are still in the mud as far as our highway construction program is concerned.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. THOMAS H. W. JONES asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. KOHL asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, February 9, 1953 at 4:30 p. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 11:47 a. m.) the House adjourned.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1953.

140th of the General Assembly.

Vol. 33.

HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1953.

No. 6.

SENATE

MONDAY, February 9, 1953.

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HARWOOD C. BOWMAN, JR., Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kittanning, offered the following prayer:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen. Let us pray.

Almighty God, by Whom the just are governed, and from Whom alone cometh the wisdom and understanding we seek, we, Thy servants here assembled in Thy Name, do most humbly beseech Thee to send down Thy Heavenly wisdom from above to guide Thy servants who now sit as representatives of all Pennsylvania in this Senate. Grant, we beseech Thee, that, having Thy judgment always before their eyes and laying aside all private interests and prejudices, the result of that which they do may be to the advancement of this Commonwealth and the welfare of all persons within the same, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. HARE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Mr. WATKINS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 86, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 4 of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 382), entitled "An act providing for the incorporation as bodies corporate and politic of 'Authorities' for municipalities, counties and townships; prescribing the rights, powers and duties of such Authorities heretofore or hereafter incorporated; authorizing such Authorities to acquire, construct, improve, maintain and operate projects, and to borrow money and issue bonds therefor; providing for the payment of such bonds, and prescribing the rights of the holders thereof; conferring the right of eminent domain on such Authorities; authorizing such Authorities to enter into contracts with and to accept grants from the Federal Government or any agency thereof; and conferring exclusive jurisdiction on certain courts over rates," by extending the purposes and powers of Authorities to include housing projects and authorizing the leasing and fixing of rentals in the operation thereof.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. KEPHART read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 87, entitled:

An Act to reenact subsection A of section 1012 of the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 624) entitled, as amended, "An act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers, and of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of National banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers, and employes mutual banking associations; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers and employes' mutual banking associations, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations, employes' mutual banking associations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by and other corporation, association or person and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," by making further provision concerning the powers and limitations on powers of banks and trust companies.

Which was committed to the Committee on Banking.

Mr. PEELOR read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 88, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 1742), entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a State tax relating to certain documents; prescribing and regulating the method and manner of evidencing the payment of such tax; conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain persons, partnerships, associations, and corporations, recorders of deeds, and the Department of Revenue; saving certain local taxes and authorizing amendments, extensions and supplements to the ordinances and resolutions relating thereto; and providing penalties," by exempting certain documents from said tax, fixing the value of certain land for tax purposes, exempting persons accepting any document from payment of the tax, changing effect of failure to pay the tax, and affix stamps, and validating certain documents to which insufficient stamps have been affixed.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. CROWE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I am about to introduce two bills that have to do with a serious situation that now exists in this Commonwealth. During the early part of May, I was on a business tour in western Pennsylvania and learning of a fire that had occurred at the Indiana State Teachers' College, on the 15th of April 1952, I called on the President, Dr. Willis E. Pratt, to ascertain how such a loss was handled. It was the general understanding that there was an Insurance Fund to take care of a situation of this kind as the State does not carry fire insurance but has a fund, established in 1915, for this purpose.

Dr. Pratt informed me that when he went to Harrisburg to see about rebuilding, he found that there was $450,000 in the Fund.

On the other hand, the loss to their classroom amounted to about $1,000,000 for the building and $167,000 for the equipment. It also developed that later on, around July 29th, 1952, they suffered a second fire in their Biology Building which amounted to a loss of $7,800. Dr. Pratt was informed that in order to replace this property, he must get a grant from the General State Authority which is in the form of a debt, and in which connection the money must be returned in the form of rent paid over a period of years. So, instead of an actual reimbursement, an additional burden is placed on that Institution.

Upon my return to my home, Mr. President, I wrote on May 16, 1952 to Mr. Ray S. Melroy, Senior Real Estate Expert, Division of Real Estate and Insurance, Department of Property and Supplies, asking him the following questions:—

- (1.) Is an Insurance Fund in existence?
- (2.) If there is an Insurance Fund, how are the funds derived for this Fund?
- (3.) If there is an Insurance Fund, what is the present amount of this Fund?
- (4.) Is the Insurance Fund re-insured or a Catastrophe or Disaster Policy carried? If so, how much?

At the same time, I wrote to Honorable Artemas C. Leslie, Insurance Commissioner, asking him the same questions.

On May 19, 1952, Mr. Ray S. Melroy wrote me that he had referred my letter to May 16, 1952, regarding Fire Insurance, to Mr. Lloyd L. Dunkle, Secretary, Board of Public Grounds and Buildings, Department of Property and Supplies, for attention and reply.

Mr. President, on May 20, I received an answer from Insurance Commissioner Leslie in which he said:

"There is an 'Insurance Fund', which was created by the Act of May 14, 1915, P. L. 524, as amended by the Act of May 8, 1919, P. L. 157, by the Act of May 12, 1921, and by the Act of April 22, 1943, P. L. 64."

He further stated that the original appropriation in 1915 had been for $300,000 and that the present fund was approximately $450,000. Also, that the Fund was not re-insured and that no catastrophe or disaster policies were carried.

On June 3, 1952, I again wrote to Mr. Ray S. Melroy stating that I had received no reply from Mr. Lloyd L. Dunkle.

On June 11, 1952, I wrote to Mr. Joseph W. Butler, Deputy Auditor General, asking him what information he could give me about a State Insurance Fund.

On June 16, 1952, practically a month after I had asked for the information, I received a reply from Mr. Lloyd L. Dunkle and I quote:

"The State Insurance Fund was created in 1915 and provided that all outside insurance be cancelled as of December 31, 1920. A further provision was that 2% of premiums issued by foreign insurance companies be deposited into said fund. In 1919, the provision of 2% premiums was repealed and money derived from 2% premiums was then payable to a fund to be expended to various volunteer fire companies throughout the State.

"Under the provisions of Act No. 33-A, approved April 26, 1929, there was appropriated to be paid into the State Insurance Fund, the sum of $1,199,000.00 (In round figures.)

"The amount of money in the State Insurance Fund as of the close of business June 16, 1952, is $142,024.69."

Mr. President, on June 17, 1952, I wrote to Mr. Dunkle stating that Insurance Commissioner Artemas C. Leslie had given me the amount of the Fund as $450,000.00, and that I had received this same figure from the President of the State Teachers' College at Indiana.

On June 19, 1952, I received a letter from Mr. Ralph H. Alexander, Deputy Insurance Commissioner, in which he stated, and I quote:

"I was contacted today by Lloyd L. Dunkle, Department of Property and Supplies, in reference to our letter to you of May 20, 1952, in which we advised you that the amount of the 'Insurance Fund' was $450,000.00.

"Mr. Skelton's long-hand notes on your original letter of May 16th clearly indicate that Mr. Dunkle at that time did mention the figure of $450,000. Mr. Dunkle now admits that he had given no thought to the fact that some poor investment practices over a period of thirty years had had a bad effect on this Fund. He now gives us the figure, which I understand he has given you, $142,024.69."

On June 19, 1952, I received a letter from Joseph W. Butler, Deputy Auditor General, in which he stated that the State Insurance Fund as of May 31, 1952 is $541,408.00, and that the Act of 1915 limits the amount that shall be in the Fund at any one time to the sum of one million dollars. He further states that it is his personal opinion that the Act should be revised and modernized.

Mr. President, on June 19, 1952, I received a further letter from Mr. L. L. Dunkle in which he stated that the State Insurance Fund, as of the close of business June 16, 1952, was $142,024.69 and that there were no invested funds. He further stated that his records, during the period of time June 1, 1932 through May 23, 1952, reflected expenditures allocated from the State Insurance Fund in the amount of not to exceed $952,052.83.

On June 20, 1952, I again wrote to Mr. Dunkle asking him why there were figures of $450,000, $142,024.69, and $541,408; also, what were the "poor investment practices" over a period of thirty years that he mentioned to Deputy Insurance Commissioner Ralph H. Alexander.

On June 26, 1952, Mr. Dunkle replied, in another letter, that the amount of the State Insurance Fund as of May 31, 1952 was $541,408.00, including an investment of $400,000.00. He further stated that the State Insurance Fund is not re-insured nor are there Catastrophe or Disaster Policies carried.

On June 26, 1952, Mr. Dunkle wrote me to disregard his letters of June 16 and June 19, because the information contained therein, in part, was incorrect.

Mr. President, on the same day, Deputy Auditor General Joseph W. Butler wrote me, verifying the figure as of June 16, 1952 as being $542,024.69. He further stated that on June 23, 1952, the Governor approved the expenditure of $26,493.94 for furnishings and equipment for Indiana State Teachers' College, to be used in temporary buildings or rented quarters for the summer school of 1952 and 1952-53 college year.

In answer to the question as to how much the Commonwealth had spent for insurance, surety and fidelity bonds in the biennium ended May 31, 1952, Mr. Butler gave me a figure of $1,894,744.65.

Since that time, the prison riots in the western penitentiary and Rockview have resulted in a further loss to the Commonwealth of six or seven hundred thousand. Mr. President, I want to say in making this investigation, there was no ulterior motive as my insurance concern or myself do not carry a nickel of State Insurance of any form or description. I have talked to officials of the Insurance Agents Association of Pennsylvania, and of the Insurance Federation of Pennsylvania as well as many insurance experts, company officials and others, who all feel that this serious situation should be reviewed and something constructive done.

From a bulletin of the "National Board of Fire Underwriters," I note that the Michigan State Office Building in Lansing burned, with a loss estimated at $2,850,000 and that the prison riots caused damage of $2,500,000 in that State. Here the Insurance Fund was completely wiped out and there was a big deficit. Also, there was no other insurance coverage on their property giving a more adequate form of protection than the Fund.

Mr. President, I have communicated with many States to ascertain what is done in such cases. I find that in New Jersey, West Virginia and Delaware they cover important buildings with insurance. Other States have an adequate fund that is constantly being built up to take care of these hazards. Still other States carry Catastrophe or Excess Insurance to protect their funds in case of disaster.

Mr. President, our own Fund was started with a tax on foreign or insurance companies that have their main offices outside the State. This money was diverted to the Volunteer Firemen at a later date, thus leaving only the interest of this Fund to go into the Insurance Fund. This is not nearly adequate when you consider buildings such as the Capitol, which is worth approximately ten to twelve million dollars. The Finance Building is six million and the Education Building is eight million. On top of this there are many large-sized buildings scattered throughout the Commonwealth without insurance.

One of the bills which I am introducing calls for the State carrying in excess of $500,000 on its properties. The other appoints the Insurance Committee of the Senate and House to investigate the State insurance situation and to report, within ninety (90) days, to the General Assembly, together with their recommendations. A small appropriation is carried in this same bill which I believe will be sufficient as I am confident that such good Pennsylvania Companies as The Insurance Company of North America Fire Association of Philadelphia, National Union of Pittsburgh, The Farmers of York, Pennsylvania Lumbermen's Mutual, Merchants and Businessmens' Mutual, Pennsylvania Thresherman and Farmers' Mutual and many others, will be glad to furnish experts to cooperate with this Committee. I also feel that the Insurance Agents Association, as well as the Pennsylvania Insurance Federation, will likewise be glad to furnish experts to make the proper survey.

With an expenditure of $1,894,744.65 for insurance, surety and fidelity bonds in the biennium ended May 31, 1951, surely there must be some change in program that can be made to adequately use some of this money for proper protection.

Mr. President, it has been reported to me that the reason that the present Fund is so low was due to the investment of the Funds in the bonds of some water company about twenty-five (25) years ago. This company later got into financial difficulty and defaulted on its payment and thus the Commonwealth took a serious loss. This matter should also be investigated.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. CROWE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 89, entitled:

An Act requiring a joint examination of the Insurance program of this Commonwealth and reporting of their findings and recommendations to the General Assembly by the Insurance Committees of the Senate and the House of Representatives; and making an appropriation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Insurance.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 90, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 7 of the act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 524), entitled "An act creating a fund for the purpose of rebuilding, restoring, and replacing buildings, structures, equipment, or other property of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, and regulating the placing of insurance thereon, and providing penalties for any violation of the provisions of this act," by authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to purchase insurance on property owned by the Commonwealth against loss or damage by fire or other casualty exceeding five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) and resulting from a single occurrence.

Which was committed to the Committee on Insurance.

THE HONORABLE JOHN C. BELL, JR., PRESENTED TO SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has the pleasure at this time to present to the Senate a distinguished former Lieutenant-Governor and Governor of the Commonwealth, and presently a member of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth. The Chair requests the Honorable John C. Bell, Jr., of Montgomery County, to take a bow.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I noted the titles of the bills that were introduced by the gentleman. After the discussion that he gave us I am just wondering whether or not he has in mind, Mr. President, a complete investigation of the disappearing funds; whether or not there has been any malfeasance or misfeasance in the handling of these funds; whether or not there has been any what we might call, corruption in government that we heard so much about recently; and whether or not the funds might have been used at one time or another to purchase a few mink coats and some deepfreeze units.

Mr. President, I think it is just as important for the people of Pennsylvania to know that. For years they have worked under the assumption, we in the Legislature have worked under the assumption, that this fund was a growing fund, and one that was accumulating over the years. Here when we have need of the money, we go to the cupboard and the cupboard is bare.

Mr. President, I think it is just as important to have honesty in the administration of government here as it is in Washington. We have all agreed, now that the new broom is sweeping clean in Washington, that we may need the same type of broom here, but unless you have in mind the introduction of a resolution calling for an investigation of the administration of this fund, and the department under whose jurisdiction it comes, I do not see how the mere introduction of legislation would correct that which has gone on in the past.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. CROWE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. CROWE. The second bill which I introduced, Mr. President, calls for this committee to investigate the entire insurance situation. I do not say that either one of these bills are perfect; they are just something to start the ball rolling. I feel sure that this committee, when they do this investigating, can also take on this fund by amending the bill. If not, we can introduce a separate resolution.

Mr. President, I just learned of the shortness in money, because of this bad investment policy, at the last moment, and I did not have a chance to check on it. In fact, it was difficult and for that reason I did not have a resolution drawn up separately to investigate the shortage of funds.

INTERROGATION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Crowe.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Crowe, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CROWE. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Senator Crowe, it is your intention then, as I understand it, to delve more deeply into this situation and find out whether or not all the gold is in Fort Knox.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I certainly am.

Mr. DENT. Thank you, Mr. President.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. FLEMING read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 91, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 5 of the act, approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1198), entitled "An act providing for the conservation and improvement of land affected in connection with the mining of bituminous coal by the open pit mining method; regulating such mining and providing penalties," by further regulating backfilling and operation reports.

Which was committed to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. KESSLER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 92, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 406 of the act, approved the twelfth day of April, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages, amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto, regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in, and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages, and the persons engaged or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships for the abatement of certain nuisances and in certain cases for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option and repealing existing laws," by authorizing licensed establishments to sell until two o'clock antemeridian on Sundays.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. WAGNER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 93, entitled:

An Act to further amend section eleven of the act approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 644), entitled "An act relating to and the regulating the solicitation of moneys and property for charitable, religious, benevolent, humane and patriotic purposes," by exempting Young Men's and Young Womens Christian Associations.

Mr. PECHAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 94, entitled:

An Act requiring employes of the Commonwealth or its agencies or political subdivisions to testify relating to government affairs or conduct of officers or employes of the Commonwealth or its agencies or political subdivisions, and to waive certain immunities.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. SILVERT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, at the last Session of the Legislature, the House, by a substantial majority, passed a Fair Employment Practice Bill. This bill, as all know, died in committee in the Senate. Notwithstanding that, both Parties in the 1950 campaign pledged themselves to the passage of a Fair Employment Practice Bill.

Mr. President, I, therefore, on behalf of my colleagues, Senator Stiefel, Senator Weiner, Senator Camiel, Senator McCreesh, Senator Barr, Senator Holland, Senator DiSilvestro, Senator Leader and myself, present this bill to prohibit discrimination because of race, color, religious creed or national origin by employers, employment agencies, labor organizations and others.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also (By request) read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 99, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 56 of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by requiring coroners to keep their offices and public records and papers at the county seat in offices furnished by the county commissioners.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. RUTH read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 100, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the tenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," by providing for the election of school directors in school districts of the second, third, and fourth classes by nonpartisan ballots at special elections, subject to local option.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 101, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 25, Article 5, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania establishing a method for the selection of judges of the appellate courts and the courts of record of First and Fifth Judicial Districts and the adoption of the same method for other courts of record upon approval of the electors.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Messrs. LANE, BARR, HALUSKA and DENT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 102, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 614 and clause 2 of Subsection (b) of Section 615 of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by making further provisions for the revocation and suspension of operator's licenses and learner's permits.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. BARR read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 113, entitled:

An Act to further amend Sections 4 and 8 of the act approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 207), entitled "An act providing when, how, upon what property, and to what extent, liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements, for the removal of nuisances, and for water rents or rates, sewer rates, and lighting rates; for the procedure upon claims filed therefor; the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims; the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened; the distribution of the proceeds of such sales, and the redemption of the property therefrom; for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed, and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed, within six months before the passage of this act; and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly," by authorizing the assignment by municipal authorities organized by cities of the second class of their municipal claims and liens to and the purchase thereof by cities, boroughs and townships in which the property subject to such municipal claims or liens is located.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 114, entitled:

An Act to further amend the title and Section 2.1 of the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1286), entitled as amended "An act empowering counties of the second class, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, and townships to charge and collect from owners of and water users in property served thereby, annual rentals, rates or charges for the use of certain sewers, sewerage systems and sewage treatment works, including charges for operation, inspection, maintenance, repair, depreciation, and the amortization of indebtedness and interest thereon; empowering counties of the second class, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns and townships to contract with authorities, incorporated towns and townships to contract with authorities organized by counties of the second class or by cities of the third class for sewer, sewerage and sewage treatment services; to grant, convey, lease, transfer, encumber, mortgage and pledge to such authorities, their sewers, sewerage systems and sewage treatment works; to assign and pledge to such authorities rentals, rates and charges charged and collected by them for the use thereof, and to assign to such authorities their power to charge and collect the same; and validating all such contracts, grants, conveyances, leases, transfers, assignments, encumbrances, mortgages and pledges heretofore made," by extending to authorities organized by cities of the second class the provisions therein affecting authorities organized by counties of the second class or by cities of the third class.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 115, entitled:

An Act to reenact and amend the title and Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of the act, approved the fourteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 482), entitled as amended "An act authorizing and requiring cities, boroughs, townships and municipal authorities engaged in the supplying of water, to shut off the supply of water for nonpayment of sewer, sewerage, or sewage treatment rentals, rates, or charges imposed by municipal authorities organized by counties of the second class or by cities of the third class; authorizing and requiring them to supply to such authorities lists of metered water readings and flat-rate water bills and other data; authorizing them to act as billing and collecting agents for such authorities; and conferring certain powers upon the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission in connection therewith," by extending to authorities organized by cities of the second class the powers granted therein and imposing upon public utility companies the obligations imposed therein upon cities, boroughs, townships and municipal authorities engaged in the supply of water.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE SAFETY MEASURES ON THE PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE

Messrs. MAHANY and DENT offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 9, 1953.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Turnpike is world famous as the greatest toll highway ever constructed; and

Whereas, It has brought to our Commonwealth an ever increasing flow of tourists from all the States of the Union and serves as a working model for future highway development; and

Whereas, Much information and misinformation has appeared from time to time, concerning its safety factor for vehicular traffic; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of five Senators to act jointly with a similar committee of five House Members, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the said committee be empowered to investigate the subject of Turnpike safeguards and safety regulations; and

Be It Further Resolved, That this committee shall make a report of their findings and recommendations to the General Assembly as soon as possible.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

COMMENDING RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION FOR ITS LEADERSHIP IN ESTABLISHING NATIONAL DEFENSE WEEK OBSERVANCE, AND MAKING CERTAIN RECOMMENDATIONS

Messrs. PECHAN, HARE and HOLLAND offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 9, 1953.

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Department of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States is again taking the lead in consideration, by all our citizens, of the state of our nation's strength through its traditional observance of National Defense Week, a period sought by the ROA and proclaimed by the President of the United States, the Governor of our State, and the Mayors of our various cities, and

Whereas, misinformed or apathetic public opinion concerning our military affairs constitutes in itself a serious breach in our national defense, and

Whereas, international jealousies, distrusts, selfish interests and conflicting ideologies tend to loose upon the public a flood of rumors, distortions of truths and biased statements, it is more important now than ever before that each citizen be kept informed throughout the entire year of the true status of our national defense and be made aware of the importance of his role in the defense of our freedom and traditions.

Therefore Be It Resolved, by the House and the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that we commend the Reserve Officers Association for its leadership in establishing this National Defense Week observance; that we pledge to the ROA and the many organizations assisting in this observance our fullest cooperation; and that we urge all of our fellow citizens to join together in this all-important observance; and finally, that we recommend to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that he appoint a member of the Reserve Officers Association to his staff (without compensation) to advise and assist him on those matters pertaining to Reserve activities.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. MADIGAN offered the following concurrent resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 9, 1953.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 16, 1953, at four o'clock p. m., E. S. T.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 16, 1953, at four-thirty o'clock p. m., E. S. T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

ESTABLISHING SCHOOL OF VETERINARY MEDICINE AT PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE

Messrs. LANE, BARR, BANE, DENT, HALUSKA and LEADER offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Agriculture:

In the Senate, February 9, 1953.

Whereas, There are now on Pennsylvania farms dairy animals, poultry and general livestock, worth in the aggregate more than $412,000,000, producing approximately 75 per cent of the total annual income of Pennsylvania agriculture or in monetary terms about $575,000,000 a year; and

Whereas, The greatest economic losses to the dairy, poultry and general livestock industry, are occasioned by the inroads of animal diseases and parasites; and

Whereas, Existing facilities for training persons, qualified for the practice of veterinary medicine within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, are inadequate to meet the existing and still growing need for doctors of veterinary medicine; and

Whereas, The Pennsylvania State College, by virtue of its scientific personnel, its resources for research, its close working relationship with dairy, poultry and general livestock raisers, throughout the State, and its physical location is the appropriate institution to develop the needed facilities; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House concur), That the members of the General Assembly hereby request the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania State College, to authorize the establishment of a school of Veterinary Medicine at the Pennsylvania State College, and at the earliest possible time to erect such buildings, employ such personnel, and establish such programs of research and instruction, as in their judgment are requisite to the proper maintenance and operation of such a school of veterinary medicine; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of the General Assembly hereby pledge their support in obtaining the funds required to construct and to equip essential research, instructional, clinical and administrative buildings, for a school of Veterinary Medicine at the Pennsylvania State College, and for the operation and maintenance of the proposed School of Veterinary Medicine, it being understood, however, that funds cannot be appropriated for such buildings and their maintenance at the 1953 Session of the General Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the understanding and intention of the members of the General Assembly, that funds ultimately appropriated for the construction and equipment of such buildings and for the operation and maintenance of such a School of Veterinary Medicine, shall be in addition to the amount appropriated at that time for the general operation and maintenance of the Pennsylvania State College as then constituted; and be it further

Resolved, That the trustees of the Pennsylvania State College be requested to prepare and to present to the members of the 1955 Session of the General Assembly specific and detailed information concerning the nature and estimated cost of requisite buildings and equipment, and also an estimate of the annual expense involved in the operation and maintenance of a School of Veterinary Medicine at the Pennsylvania State College, under conditions which, in the judgment of the said trustees, would best meet the reasonable needs of the Commonwealth and its citizens for such veterinary medicine service; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania State College.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am going to present a concurrent resolution. I will leave it up to the judgment of the Majority Party as to whether or not it should be immediately considered. I think it deals with a very serious situation.

Mr. President, in the past week there have been a series of articles appearing in a newspaper of wide circulation. I believe that I have been instructed to say that it is of general circulation, but I think all of you know that I am getting to be allergic to generals. This newspaper has sent a reputable reporter into the field, and the charges that he makes in the public press call for immediate action on the part of this Senate and Legislature. It is too serious to let go by the board without some action. In fact, Mr. President, it is common talk, though I do not subscribe to the gist of the common talk, but it is common talk among the guards at Rockview and Western Penitentiary that a whitewash is being planned by the Governor's Committee. I do not think it is quite fair to the Committee to say that that is true, but I do believe, in the face of the seriousness of the charges made, that this Senate ought to immediately constitute a committee to operate independently of the Governor's Commission, because the charges made herein are so serious that they require and demand some action.

Mr. President, in order that you may have some understanding of what is happening, I am going to call your attention to some of the charges that have been made; namely, the debauchery at the prisons, the perverted morals, the charges of thievery, the disappearance of seven carloads, for instance, of valuable steer without any trace, the disappearance of untold amounts of food and building materials from the premises, not of recent date but over the years, the serious charges made against the superintendents of these institutions, the charge that these conditions are the direct cause of the riots and the unrest in these institutions, the danger that the same conditions are prevailing in other institutions in the Commonwealth.

Mr. President, the Governor's Committee is studying the immediate problem of the riots. I understand they met for two days and now are making their report, or preparing it. This question is one that goes further than into the study of the riots. It must delve into the management of these institutions, and the programs that are in effect in these institutions. The entire picture must be analyzed by the men and women who have to pass the legislation.

Mr. President, I am directly opposed to any commission being set up in Pennsylvania to make any study without participation of the General Assembly, because in the end we are not any better off when we are asked to vote for legislation recommended by these commissions than we were before the commissions were created. I say to the Membership of this Senate, I leave it entirely upon the conscience of the Members of the Majority Party whether or not this resolution should have immediate action, where there has been evident mismanagement, where there has been evident misappropriation of public goods, where there has been evidence submitted of a degeneration of the morals of the inmates of the institution, and, in instances including the official families of the institutions, where charges have been made that the superintendent lives with utter disregard to the rights of the taxpayers or the laws of decency, living in a sphere over and above anything ever intended by the Legislature when it created the position of superintendent.

Mr. President, I believe that these things are serious, and I warn the Republican Members of the Senate that to disregard these matters at this time may bring down upon their heads the same wrath that you generated of recent months against another central government of this great Nation of ours. You cannot talk out of both sides of your mouth at one time. If you meant to clean up what you called the mess in Washington, then it is your duty to clean up uncovered messes in the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I call your attention to the headlines of one of the articles, "Rockview Mess Bared By The Doctor." The doctor, who was in attendance in this institution, decried the conditions and told in detail some facts, some incidents that go beyond the imagination of a normal person to comprehend.

Mr. President and Members of the Majority Party, I say to you we have not the votes to pass this resolution. We urge you, on behalf of the people of the Commonwealth, on behalf of the taxpayers of the Commonwealth and in the name of decency to pass this resolution at this time. I leave it in your hands.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, before the resolution is read, I would also like to call to the attention of the Members of the Senate some information that has come to me in this regard.

Mr. President, I understand that the Director of Prisons is in Mercy Hospital, in Pittsburgh, suffering from a heart attack brought on by demands of certain people in the administration to put people to work whom he considered inadequate and not capable. It has also been brought to my attention that a Doctor Jones, I am almost positive of the name, has been fired due to the fact that he would not play politics with a certain group within the department. He is a Doctor of Penology, and resides in the city of Johnstown.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CONDITIONS AT ROCKVIEW STATE PENITENTIARY

Messrs. DENT and HOLLAND offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read as follows:

Whereas, the daily newspapers of this Commonwealth, upon their own investigations have uncovered fraudulency, misconduct, extravagance and waste in the administration of more than one State Penitentiary, and

Whereas, the following statement was made in the Pittsburgh Sun Telegraph, as of Saturday, February 7th—

"Warden J. W. Claudy lives in all, the comfort and luxury of a millionaire and at the taxpayers expense. He has a town house and a country house; a staff of servants to run both establishments; all the food he and his guests can eat; he does not pay rent * * *," and

Whereas, the same newspaper, as of Friday, February 6th, made the following statement:

"Rockview is a dissension-riddled prison without adequate supervision and fraught with sex perversion * * *"

They also verified reports that meat, lumber and other prison supplies have been vanishing over the years."

Whereas, the lurid and unrefined tales of moral misconduct denote a degeneration beyond comprehension and that these conditions are charged to be in existence at Rockview and Western Penitentiary and that on the scene testimony appears to incriminate officials in the widespread debauchery which may have been the underlying causes for the grave disturbances that endangered the lives of not only officials and guards but also of nearby residents, and

Whereas, the following five specific charges have been set forth in documented and a signed series of articles from a reputable newspaper correspondent—

- (1) Petty and grand larceny have been going on at the prison for years.
- (2) Guards were fired for stealing but were never prosecuted.
- (3) Sexual perversion is common among inmates and Warden J. W. Claudy has made no real effort to stop it by segregating known sex offenders.
- (4) That Claudy placed Gerald Evey, a favorite, in charge of the prison farm and it has been costing more money to operate, although the books are juggled to present a better picture in Harrisburg.
- (5) There also was a report that meat shipped to Western Penitentiary had found its way to the black market during the war and that money had been sent to a storekeeper in State College, Pa.

Whereas, the Governor has named a committee to make a study of so-called prison conditions, and

Whereas, the Legislature is not, and has not been, represented on a Board of Inquiry on this serious matter, and believing that representative participation in this inquiry is of utmost importance and a matter of serious consequence to the people and the general welfare of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, therefore be it

Resolved, if the House concurs, that a committee of ten members—five from the Senate, five from the House, not more than three to be of any one political affiliation from either House—the said committee be appointed by the President Pro Tempore and the Speaker of the House, respectively, and further be it

Resolved, that this committee be authorized and empowered to employ counsel, investigators, stenographic assistance, have the right of subpoena and to hear witnesses under oath, so as to determine responsibility to the end that necessary legislation may be introduced so that such conditions can no longer exist, and be it further

Resolved, that such investigation be held forthwith and a report of its findings be made immediately to the Governor of the Commonwealth and to the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, and be it further

Resolved, that any necessary funds that be required by this committee be drawn from the General Fund of the Commonwealth.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I feel that a resolution like this should be referred to committee. There are some things in there, no doubt, that are controversial, and I think, in line with our past policy, we always referred such resolutions to the proper committee.

I feel, too, Mr. President, in answer to Senator Dent's discussion about the Governor's Committee, that we should at least wait until they make a report before we move in. In the event that this committee does not give us a full and adequate report, then, perhaps, we can decide whether or not we should make our own investigation. However, I think, in deference to that good committee which has been appointed by the Governor, that we should at least give them the opportunity of making a report before we do anything further. I, therefore, ask that the resolution be referred to the proper committee.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on State Government.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON asked and obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the nominations reported at today's Session.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. WATKINS,

That the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the nominations reported at today's session.

Which was agreed to.

The nominations were read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, Penna., January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the Honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD

Frank D. Armstrong, Paxtang, Harrisburg, from March 3, 1952, until November 29, 1957, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

JOHN S. FINE.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, Penna., January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with the law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

Thomas C. Egan, Philadelphia, from January 3, 1953, for the residue of the term ending April 1, 1955.

JOHN S. FINE.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, Penna., January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

Leon Schwartz, Nanticoke, from March 4, 1952, for the residue of the term ending April 1, 1961.

JOHN S. FINE.

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, Penna., January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

P. Stephen Stahlnecker, Philadelphia, from January 2, 1953, for the residue of the term ending April 1, 1957.

JOHN S. FINE.

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. WATKINS,

That the Senate do advise and consent to said nominations.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, before voting on these nominations, I would like to make a short statement. Mr. President, at the recess this afternoon, a number of us had the opportunity to meet with what now will be the Majority Members of the Public Utility Commission. I would like to report that this meeting was more than satisfactory, and they have given to us their full intentions of issuing a public statement in a short time which I think will be most beneficial to all of the utility users in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—50

Bane,	Hare,	McCusker,	Stiefel,
Barr,	Harney,	McGinnis,	Taylor,

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. ANDREWS.

RESOLUTION No. 9.

In the House of Representatives, February 3, 1953.

Whereas, during the last thirty years there has been much talk about "taking the farmers out of the mud" insofar as "home to market highways" were concerned, and

Whereas, farmers and other rural residents have constantly expressed a lively desire to get out of the mud, and

Whereas, Pennsylvania's Governors and Highway Department executives have constantly pointed to Pennsylvania's highway system as probably the best system in the universe, and

Whereas, there are apparently no reliable figures available showing how many Pennsylvanians are still living on dirt roads, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Highway Department be requested to furnish this House with figures indicating how many Pennsylvania people reside along dirt roads and are still in the mud as far as our highway construction program is concerned

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

SENATE

TUESDAY, February 10, 1953.

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HARWOOD C. BOWMAN, JR., Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kittanning, offered the following prayer:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen. Let us pray.

Almighty God, Who has given us this good State for our heritage, we humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will.

Bless our State with honorable industry, sound learning and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord and confusion, from pride and arrogancy, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds. Imbue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom, in Thy Name, we entrust the authority of government. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail, all of which we ask through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amend.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. WALKER, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Which was committed to the Committee on Reapportionment.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a brief statement before introducing this bill.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I appreciate very much the privilege which has been accorded me in being authorized to introduce this bill.

Mr. President, this bill increases the maximum aggregate number of officers and men in the State Police Force from 1,800 to 2,000 persons, subject to the Governor's approval. This increase was recommended in the Governor's Message

Now, Mr. President, it is a fact that in our cities, principally in our large cities of the Commonwealth, in Philadelphia and in Pittsburgh, the statistics definitely show that there are fewer accidents in those cities than in the rural areas. I think we all know and have had the experience of riding with people who are on the lookout for police cars. When they see a police car in sight, they slow down and when they think there are no policemen in sight, they tramp on the gas and jeopardize their own lives, the lives of those who are riding with them and others who are using the highways and complying with the law.

This bill, Mr. President, in my opinion, will do a great deal to promote safety on the highways of Pennsylvania.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. MALLERY read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 121, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two hundred five of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. An Act to amend section 406 of the act, approved the twelfth day of April, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 90) entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages, amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto, regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in, and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages, and the persons engaged or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships for the abatement of certain nuisances and in certain cases for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option and repealing existing laws," by authorizing licensed establishments to sell until two O'clock antemeridian on Sundays.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 134, entitled:

An Act to amend sections 401 and 406 of the act, approved the twelfth day of April, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages ages, amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto, regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in, and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages, and the persons engaged or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships for the abatement of certain nuisances and in certain cases for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option and repealing existing laws," by authorizing licensees at certain times to sell bottled liquor for consumption off the premises.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 135, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 157), entitled "An act regulating the selection, drawing, and summoning of all jurors and talesmen, in counties of the third class, and defining their qualifications in such counties; creating a jury board and defining its powers and procedure; providing for the appointment of a clerk to the jury board and fixing his maximum salary; providing for the custody of the jury wheel, and the filing and custody of jury lists; providing for the public drawing of jurors and the methods thereof; giving the trial judge the right to excuse jurors; prescribing the time of challenging jurors or the array, regulating the procedure if array is quashed; providing for the drawing of names of jurors from wheels heretofore filled; and repealing inconsistent acts," by abolishing the jury board and transferring its powers and duties to the jury commissioners.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland, will state his point of information.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, have you had any word that the Liquor Board is going to sell eggnog, milk eggnogs, from now on?

The PRESIDENT. Which board, Senator?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, the Liquor Control Board.

The PRESIDENT. Is going to sell eggnog?

Mr. HOLLAND. Yes.

The PRESIDENT. I regret to advise that I have not been let in on that.

Mr. HOLLAND. Well, Mr. President, I was surprised to find out that the Senate okayed Mr. Armstrong on the Milk Control Board.

The PRESIDENT. Is he an exponent of eggnog?

Mr. HOLLAND. Well, Mr. President, he must be because we thought we confirmed his appointment to the Liquor Board, but we find that he is on the Milk Board.

The PRESIDENT. Well, it seems as though we have adopted the Chesterman Report in consolidation already.

Mr. HOLLAND. Further, Mr. President, I want to inform the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, that no church groups sent me fifty dollars. I have been asked by a number of the Members of the Senate whether or not I received a donation from the church groups, because in the Morning Patriot there is a heading that says, "Church Sends $50 to Holland." I am not doing any lobbying for Reverend Forney.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I say to my colleague from Allegheny County that it would not hurt him occasionally to do some lobbying for Reverend Forney.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, for the past several months the Chesterman Committee, which is conducting a survey of the operations of the State Government for the purpose of recommending economies and improving efficiency, has released a series of its preliminary reports in the form of press releases. Frankly, I have had considerable difficulty in gathering together one complete set, although I requested a set from the Executive Director, Mr. O'Neil, who is acting for the survey committee, and he told me he was out of them. For that reason, I had to dig up individual copies until I got a set together.

I think these reports, Mr. President, are very important to the Members of this Senate and to the Members of the Legislature, as well as to the public generally. For that reason, it is my opinion, and I am sure the opinion of all of the Members on the Democratic side and I am sure on the Republican side, that these reports should be made a part of the record.

Mr. President, I noted a news item in the paper last night indicating that of the reports released thus far, a saving of $78,143,185 was recommended by the Chesterman Committee, and that recommendation does not include, I think it is, four additional reports which will be forthcoming in the near future.

I, therefore, Mr. President, request unanimous consent to incorporate these reports in the record, which will, of course, save me the trouble of reading them. If there is objection to my request, I will begin to read the first report, and my colleagues will join me in reading the rest of them so that we can get them into the record. I now present these reports, and request that they be made a part of the record of today's proceedings.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Yosko, yield for just a moment?

Mr. YOSKO. I will, Mr. President.

(The Senate was at ease.)

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will be in order. The Senator will resume.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I present the following reports, which are in the form of newspaper releases, from the Government Survey Committee headed by Mr. Chesterman. They are Releases No. 2, No. 3, No. 4, No. 5, No. 6, No. 7, No. 8, No. 9, No. 10, No. 11, No. 12, No. 13, No. 14, No. 15, No. 16, No. 17, No. 18, No. 19 and No. 20. I request that they be made a part of the record of today's proceedings.

The PRESIDENT. Senator Yosko transmits Reports of the Chesterman Committee, and requests that they be spread upon the Journal of today's Session. The reports will be spread upon the Journal.

"Release No. 2

"Public Education

"The State Government Survey Committee today expressed belief that many millions of dollars can be trimmed from Pennsylvania's rocketing public education budget without the slightest impairment of educational values.

To back up its assertion, the Committee put forth five specific recommendations which alone would save the Commonwealth approximately $15,000,000 a biennium.

"The Committee's survey of the field of public education was one of thirty studies undertaken following its appointment by Governor John S. Fine last March to recommend means of promoting efficiency and economy in the transaction of State business.

"It is obvious that in the comparatively brief time available for the study of such a complex subject we should have to confine ourselves to a general appraisal of conditions and needs," Francis J. Chesterman, Philadelphia, Chairman of the Committee, explained.

"However, we are convinced that an invaluable service could be rendered to the cause of public education through a truly comprehensive survey pursuing further the matters briefly covered by our report."

"The Committee's recommendations dealt principally with:

"1. The organization of the Department of Public Instruction, which the Committee found 'not organized properly to administer its great responsibilities.'

"2. The operation and policies of the Pennsylvania State College and State teachers' colleges.

"3. Defects in the present formula for distribution of State subsidies to local school districts.

"The present plan of organization in the Department of Public Instruction is outmoded, confused, and allows little delegation of authority," the Committee noted. "As a result, the Commonwealth lacks leadership, program and administrative organization for its almost half-billion dollars a biennium expenditure for public education."

"In this connection, the Committee offered a six-point program aimed at putting the department on a sounder administrative basis:

"1. Responsibility for administration of public education should be vested in a State Board of Education, comprised of lay members, with overlapping terms, appointed by the Governor. Such a Board would supplant the present State Council of Education, which has advisory status only.

"2. The Superintendent of Public Instruction should be appointed by the State Board for a term of 7 years without regard to his place of residence or his political affiliation. Pennsylvania, the Committee noted, is one of only five states in which the Superintendent of Public Instruction is a direct appointee of the Governor.

"3. All professional personnel of the Department should be appointed by the State Board, but only on the recommendation of the Superintendent.

"4. Pending the statutory and constitutional adjustments necessary to the preceding changes, there should be a radical revision in the organization of the Department, aimed at more efficient operation.

"5. Professional licensing, the administration of the Solicitation Act, and the Board of Motion Picture Censors should be transferred to a more appropriate department.

"6. The Department's school plant division should be more adequately staffed to give school districts necessary advice on their building programs.

"The Committee expressed concern over 'the expansion of the Pennsylvania State College—an expansion described as 'expensive to the State and detrimental to the State's privately supported liberal arts colleges, and which requires most of its students to live away from home while at college.'

"The State should create additional opportunities for higher education through cooperation with private universities and colleges throughout the State, as has been done successfully and economically in other states such as New York and New Jersey," the Committee declared.

"On the subject of teacher training, the Committee found that the State teachers' colleges 'are not fulfilling their original purpose, which is the training of teachers.'

"During the ten-year period from 1941 through 1951," it was pointed out, 'only 14,114 teachers' college graduates out of a total of 20,000 entered the teaching profession in the State. This despite the fact that the State subsidizes 30 to 50 percent of total expenses for teachers' college training.

"In other words, the State in that period helped pay for the teacher college training of approximately 6000 men and women who, at least as far as Pennsylvania schools are concerned, never became teachers.'

"To help correct this situation, the Committee recommended that students at teachers' colleges be required to teach within the Commonwealth for a certain minimum period or reimburse the State for the cost of their education.

"Limiting the enrollment at teachers' colleges to prospective teachers would allow the closing of half of the present 14 teachers' colleges.'

"Such a step, it was estimated, would save the State at least $5,000,000 a biennium.

"Any possibility that a reduction in the number of teachers' colleges would aggravate the teacher shortage was dispelled by the Committee with the declaration that privately supported institutions 'can and will supply sufficient numbers of teachers at no cost to the State if they are given the cooperation and encouragement that is needed.'

"Despite the fact that there is a continuous shortage of teachers," the Committee explained, 'the Department of Public Instruction does not actively encourage the liberal arts schools to participate in teacher training.'

"The professional courses now required for teacher certification are so numerous that many graduates highly qualified in particular fields—graduates who are fully qualified to teach in surrounding States—are prevented from teaching in Pennsylvania.'

"The Committee also offered numerous recommendations for more equitable and efficient distribution of State subsidies, noting that the amount granted by the State to local school districts during the 1951-53 biennium is four times what it was ten years earlier, and that under existing law the Commonwealth will be obligated to increase its grants from the present $286,000,000 a biennium to an estimated $488,000,000 in 1959-61.

"Such a rapid increase in the State obligation for public education makes it imperative that defects in the formula for the distribution of subsidies be corrected as promptly as possible," the Committee observed.

"Four examples were given to show the possibilities for huge savings in this regard:

"1. More than 100 school districts in 1950-51 made a practice of using one teacher for two different kindergarten groups per day and received reimbursement for two teaching units. Limiting reimbursement for kindergarten teachers to the actual number employed would save the Commonwealth $4,000,000 a biennium.

"2. More than 400 districts in the fiscal year 1950-51 received in subsidies for instruction $2,169,000 in excess of what they actually spent for instruction. Limiting reimbursement in all cases to an amount not greater than the cost of instruction would save the Commonwealth at least $4,000,000 a biennium.

"Items included under the cost of instruction, the Committee explained, are the salaries of teachers, supervisors, principals and clerks, expenditures for textbooks and library books, all instructional supplies, the cost of teachers' institutes, and the expense of school commencement.

"3. In 1950-51 a total of 334 one-room schools were reimbursed as teaching units in spite of the fact that they had less than the designated number of pupils. Strict application of the reimbursement formula would save at least $450,000 a biennium.

"4. The law provides two exceptions to the uniform application of the subsidy formula, stipulating that no district shall receive less than $1000 per teaching unit, and in no event less than it received in 1949-50. Elimination of these two exceptions would save at least $1,000,000 in a biennium.

"Pointing out that grants to financially distressed school districts amounted to $29,000,000 during the period from 1931 to 1952, the Committee recommended that more attention be paid to curing the cause of insolvency instead of perpetuating insolvency through repeated grants.

"The Committee also called attention to the possibilities for savings in the program for vocational education, for which $2,865,000 was appropriated in the 1951-53 biennium—an increase of 258 percent over 1937-39.

"The Committee reported it had found increasing evidence of abuses in the vocational program, particularly in regard to extension recreational activities and recommended stricter supervision of such activities, along with the elimination of unnecessary classes.

"In the development of an adequate and aggressive teacher training program—including a definite course of instruction for privately supported colleges to follow—the Committee suggested that teachers' colleges might profitably concentrate their efforts on the training of elementary teachers, leaving the training of high school teachers to liberal arts colleges, with the universities providing the graduate work."

"NEWSPAPER INFORMATION
FOR RELEASE
Sunday, December 7, 1952

"Release No. 3

"More than $5 million per biennium can be saved in the dietary expense of State institutions with no sacrifice in food quality or nutritional value, the State Government Survey Committee reported today.

"Actually, the question is not so much one of economizing as it is of achieving good food management and dietary competence," the bipartisan committee, headed by Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, pointed out.

"The Committee's report, one of many which will be completed in the next few weeks, was based on the findings of a subcommittee, or 'task force,' led by H. J. Heinz, II, president of the H. J. Heinz Company, which spent months studying the problem of institutional feeding.

"As in the case of nearly thirty other task forces drafted by the Survey Committee, the Heinz subcommittee made its study at no expense to the Commonwealth. Members donated their time, paid their own expenses, and secured whatever clerical and stenographic help they required.

"Included in the report were specific suggestions for saving $2,520,000 per biennium—mostly through standardization of purchasing practices—and recommendations for a thorough overhauling of food management procedure which the Committee estimated should save at least $2,500,000 more.

"The Survey Committee was appointed by Governor Fine early this year to study the structure of the State Government with a view toward more efficient and economical operation. Chairman Chesterman, retired President of the Bell Telephone Company, had served previously as State Chairman of the Citizens' Committee for the Hoover Report.

"Other members of the Committee are Herbert P. Sorg, former Speaker of the House of Representatives; Ralph Kelly of Philadelphia, former President of the Baldwin Locomotive Works; Common Pleas Judge W. C. Sheely, Gettysburg; Hugh C. Boyle, President Judge, Orphans' Court, Allegheny County, Pittsburgh; Mark W. Cresap, Jr., Vice President, Westinghouse Electric Corporation, Pittsburgh and Mark Witmer, Vice President, Eastern Farmers Exchange, Dalmatia.

"The report disclosed that the total dietary expense in the 61 institutions owned and operated by the State is more than $37,000,000 in a biennium, or 27 percent of their operating cost. More than 60,000 persons in the institutions are served three meals daily. Approximately 15,000 employees are served some or all of their meals.

"With an estimated 76,000,000 meals served annually," it was noted, "a reduction of only one cent on each meal through better management would result in a saving of $1,520,000 in a biennium."

"Highlights of the Committee's findings:

"1. There is a lack of uniformity in local purchasing practices. Some institutions are buying U. S. Prime, Choice or Good beef while others use the more economical grades. Some use butter almost entirely; in others, oleomargarine is used almost exclusively. Some are buying white eggs, when brown or mixed colors are cheaper.

"2. A lack of standards appears in every phase of dietary operations, including specifications, control of local purchases, inspection, standard portions, number and classification of dietary employees, purchase of kitchen equipment, and design for kitchens and dining rooms.

"3. Cost accounts and records maintained by the institutions are not uniform. No recognized food accounting reports are prepared. As a result, departmental cost accounting is meaningless.

"Much of the responsibility for the inefficiency of the institutional feeding program was placed on a system which vests much of the authority for operation of institutions in nearly autonomous local administrative boards, leaving the secretary of the department virtually powerless to effect changes.

"The Committee recommended that such administrative boards function in an advisory capacity only, and that full authority and responsibility for the operation of institutions be given to the department secretary concerned.

"The inescapable conclusion from the analysis of the institutional feeding problem," the report observed, "is the need for definite centralized responsibility and control at the department level."

"On the subject of meat buying, the Committee noted that good quality restaurants generally serve U. S. Commercial grade meats, and that it is primarily the method of preparation which determines the palatability of the portion.

"If all institutions were to use the more economical grades of beef, lamb and veal in place of choice cuts," the Committee concluded, "the saving would be approximately $600,000 a biennium on this one item alone, with no sacrifice in the quality of food."

"There were numerous other suggestions for saving on purchasing, including more thorough inspection of products as they are received, better timing of canned goods buying, the use of dried milk instead of fresh milk for cooking, and the elimination of the practice of purchasing three or four varieties of items such as mustard and cranberry sauce.

"The Committee's detailed proposals for improving the efficiency of other phases of the institutional feeding program, such as administration, record keeping, meal planning, preparation and service, were predicated upon three main recommendations:

"1. The secretary of each department involved (Health, Welfare and Public Instruction) should be given complete authority to appoint and control all administrative positions in his department, inasmuch as the present system of primary control by local administrative boards leads to a lack of uniformity in every phase of dietary operation.

"2. A single dietary staff should be established to serve all state-owned institutions, regardless of departmental jurisdiction, and should be given the responsibility to develop standard practices and procedures and investigate and minimize deviations.

"3. A food accountant should be employed to set up an adequate uniform cost accounting system so that accurate dietary costs can be determined for all institutions.

"The Committee urged that recommendations of the dietary staff and the food accountant be enforced by the secretary of the department having jurisdiction through the management of the institution, and proposed that there be a direct line of responsibility from the management of the institution to the head of the dietary staff.

"Serving on the Institutional Feeding Task Force with Mr. Heinz were: A. L. Schiel, Retired Executive Vice President of the H. J. Heinz Company, Vice Chairman; Frank Davenport of Davenport Restaurants, Harrisburg; Sidney Bergman, Administrator of the Montefiore Hospital, Pittsburgh; Dr. Lucius R. Wilson, Director of the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia;

"Gurdon F. Flagg, Secretary and Treasurer of the Duquesne Club, Pittsburgh; Dr. Hilda Kroeger, Administrator of the Magee Hospital, Pittsburgh; James F. Hutton, Vice President of the Slater System, Inc., Philadelphia; Miss Irene Wilson, Head of the Dietetic Department of Shadyside Hospital, Pittsburgh; W. W. Butts, Manager of St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem; Miss Helen Druley, Dietitian at the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital, Harrisburg; Erwin J. Hainisch, Cafeteria Manager of the H. J. Heinz Company, Pittsburgh.

"The subcommittee was aided in its compilation of basic data by the staff of the Western Division of the Pennsylvania Economy League, Inc."

"NEWSPAPER INFORMATION
FOR RELEASE

(Date) Tuesday, A.M., December 9, 1952

"Release No. 4

"The tremendous increase in retirement system costs to the State in recent years—from less than $9 million in the 1941-43 biennium to more than $50 million in 1951-53—calls for a thorough reappraisal of the entire retirement program, the State Government Survey Committee pointed out today.

"At the same time the Committee, headed by Mr. Francis J. Chesterman of Philadelphia, offered a five-point program for bringing retirement costs into line and urged that the various courses of action—most of which would require new legislation—be given 'full consideration':

"1. Establishment of a State Investment Council, similar to that set up by New Jersey in 1950, to aid retirement boards in obtaining the best possible investment of State funds.

"2. A reduction in the 4 percent State-guaranteed rate of interest for all withdrawals and refunds.

"3. The transfer of certain classes of employees to Federal Social Security.

"4. Investigation of the possibility of integrating the State system with Federal Social Security.

"5. Administrative improvements, particularly any which would capitalize on the similarities of the various retirement systems, such as a combined punch card installation.

"The report on retirement systems—the State Employees' Retirement System, including the State Police Retirement System, and the Public School Employees' Retirement System—marked the completion of the first of 30 separate studies undertaken by the Survey Committee since its appointment by Governor John S. Fine early this year.

"The Committee was given the job of studying the structure of the State Government with a view to recommending means of achieving more efficient and economical operation of governmental affairs. Chairman Chesterman, before taking on the Survey Committee assignment, had been State Chairman of the Citizens' Committee for the Hoover Report.

"The Survey Committee's report on retirement systems was based on a study made by L. H. Longley-Cook, Philadelphia, Actuary of the Insurance Company of North America, and a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries.

"As in the case of nearly all of the other studies made for the Survey Committee, that on retirement systems was done without cost to the Commonwealth, the Insurance Company of North America donating Longley-Cook's services as a public service.

"The Public School Employees' Retirement System was set up in 1917. It has been revised and extended in its application from time to time and this year covered 87,991 employees with salaries of $267,391,000. There are 9896 annuitants.

"The State Employees' Retirement System, set up in 1923, also has been revised and extended. This year it covered 44,952 employees with salaries of $140,658,000, in addition to 2274 annuitants.

"Contributions to the teachers' system are made by the State, local school boards, and the employee. Contributions to the State Employees' system are made by the State and the employee. Total funds held by the two systems now amount to approximately $500,000,000.

"The comparatively slow expansion in the cost of the two systems over the years 1933-43 is not surprising, the Committee observed, 'but the expansion since 1943, and especially since 1949, is a matter to which attention should be directed.

"It should be noted for example that appropriations for 1951-53—exclusive of administrative costs—are as much as 5½ times those for 1941-43 and nearly 2½ times those for 1947-49."

"The Survey Committee credited the rapid rise in costs to three major factors: liberalization of the systems through improvement of benefits and coverage of additional classes of employees; a sharp rise in remuneration; and a drop in the rate of interest earned on the funds.

"On the subject of interest return, the Committee noted that funds invested by the State Employees' system earned 2.95 percent interest in the year 1950-51 compared with 2.25 percent on funds of the Teachers' system, although the legal range of investments of the two funds is identical.

"If it had been possible to increase the yield of the teachers' fund, through the choice of more suitable investments, from the figure of 2.25 actually earned to the figure of 2.95 earned by the State Employees' Fund, the Committee explained 'the State would have saved over $2,250,000 in that year alone, or $4,500,000 per biennium.'

"The Committee expressed confidence that under the supervision of a State Investment Council, the funds of the two retirement systems could be invested to yield a rate of interest under current conditions of between 3 and 3¼ percent without any decrease in the financial security of the funds.

"For example, it was pointed out, investment policies should be liberalized to permit investments other than in bonds to the extent permitted by the laws governing investment of trust funds.

"The benefits of such reinvestment are obvious, the Committee added, for each increase in the yield of the funds of one-tenth of one percent there would be at the present time a saving to the State of approximately $1 million per biennium.

"The total potential savings to the State, on the basis of the Committee's recommendations pertaining to investments, would be about $10 million per biennium. While this saving could not be fully effected in the 1953-55 biennium, with enabling legislation a portion of it could be achieved in the second year, with progressive increases in each succeeding biennium as a result of investments with a higher yield than at present.

"On the subject of transferring certain classes of employees to Federal Social Security, or of integrating the retirement systems with Social Security, the Committee noted that in many cases the Federal Social Security benefit would be greater than that provided under the State systems.

"For example' it was pointed out, 'the State of Virginia in 1952 repealed its Teachers' Retirement plan so that all teachers could be brought under Federal Social Security' the funds in respect to employees not yet eligible for retirement being held so that they could be later withdrawn or applied to a new retirement system to be set up at a later date.

"It is believed that changes will be made shortly in the Federal Social Security legislation to allow State retirement systems to be integrated with Federal Social Security a less cumbersome manner. While such integration presents a number of problems, it would be most desirable for this idea to be fully explored in view of the possible savings which might result."

"Serving on the Survey Committee with Mr. Chesterman are: Herbert P. Sorg, former Speaker of the House of Representatives; Ralph Kelly of Philadelphia, former President, Baldwin Locomotive Works; Comon Pleas Judge W. C. Sheely, Gettysburg; Hugh C. Boyle, President Judge, Orphans' Court, Allegheny County, Pittsburgh; Mark W. Cresap, Jr., Vice President, Westinghouse Electric Corporation, Pittsburgh; and Mark Witmer, Vice President, Eastern States Farmers Exchange, Dalmatia.

"Release No. 5

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS

"The State Government Survey Committee today coupled warm praise for the operation of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways with a warning that the Department is threatened with a sharp decline in administrative efficiency through depletion of its technical engineering force.

"Of the 303 engineers now employed by the Department,' Francis J. Chesterman, Philadelphia, Chairman of the Committee, pointed out, '200 are 50 years of age or older, and the number under 40 is alarmingly low.

"In another ten years the Department stands to lose well over half of its technical personnel with no large group of younger engineers and trainees to replace those dropping out or moving up."

"The Survey Committee, appointed by Governor John S. Fine to recommend means of promoting efficiency and economy in the operation of the State Government, found the Department of Highways—which spends more than $300,000,000 a biennium—to be 'well administered and run in an economical and consistent manner.'

"Although a number of administrative and organizational changes were recommended, the Committee termed recruitment of younger technical engineering personnel as by far the most serious deficiency.

"The report on the Department of Highways was based on a survey conducted expressly for the Committee by the Pennsylvania Economy League, Inc., under the direction of Welles A. Gray, Vice-President, and Richard E. O'Daniel, of the State Division staff, with Sidney R. Collins, consulting engineer, of Lewisburg, serving as technical consultant. The Economy League made its study without cost to the Commonwealth.

"Even when the Department is able to hire young graduates from engineering schools,' the Committee noted, 'most of them leave within 18 months—a normal period in which to gather practical experience and then depart elsewhere.

"The conclusions to be drawn are full of serious implications. Not only is the Department not getting the technical people it needs, but it is not keeping those it has, and in some cases it is losing men of some years' standing.

"The advancing age of the remaining engineers clearly shows that within a few years the available pool of technical talent will drop off at a rapid rate. This situation makes it even more imperative to have a younger group of trainees working up through the ranks."

"The shortage of staff engineers is being reflected already, the Committee found, in large outlays for contract engineering work.

"Since 1946,' it was pointed out, 'the Department has contracted with private engineers for surveys and plans of roads at a total cost of $7,850,000. During the past year this work amounted to $2,110,000.

"If the Department could have recruited an adequate engineering staff, their services would have been available on a full-time basis at lower cost. Such recruitment also would have provided valuable training for technical personnel, insuring continuity for replacements at higher levels."

"To help overcome the recruitment problem, the Committee recommended a review of pay scales in the light of the current demand and competition for engineering personnel, and suggested a closer tie-in with engineering colleges in the State.

"Other recommendations made by the Committee deal with the creation of an advisory board to aid the Secretary of Highways in the formulation of general highway programing, reassignment of responsibilities in a number of top Department jobs, more efficient assignment of equipment and handling of materials, and more economical road design.

"The Committee suggested that members of the Highway Planning Commission which undertook a study of Department operations several years ago would be an ideal group to constitute the new advisory board because of their familiarity with highway matters.

"At the present time,' the Committee observed, 'there is no responsible and official group upon which the Secretary of Highways can lean for continuous advice in the development of highway policy.'

"The Committee noted that the Department of Highways' is following to a great extent' the recommendations of the Highway Planning Commission in its 1950 report to the Governor and the General Assembly, and expressed the hope that further recommendations by the Commission for reclassification of road responsibilities between the State and local units will be enacted into law.

"To put Departmental organization on a more efficient basis, the Committee recommended the creation of a new post, Chief of Right-of-Way, 'in recognition of the enormous rise in right-of-way expenditures in recent years,' suggested that the Signs and Signal Unit report to the Chief Maintenance Engineer, the Materials Testing Laboratory be under control of the Chief Construction Engineer; and the Planning and Traffic Unit and the Architectural Unit report to the Chief Design Engineer.

"On the subject of new construction, the Committee found that the work of the Department meets' an acceptably high standard.' At the same time attention was called to two possibilities for more economical construction:

"1. There is a tendency toward over-design for rural roads carrying low volumes of traffic. Insistence on perfect alignment and grades on those roads frequently results in exorbitant property damage and right-of-way settlement. Simpler design of rural roads would cut construction and right-of-way costs and still be satisfactory.

"2. In the construction of multiple lane highways greater use should be made of the practice of separating opposing lanes, both in alignment and grade, to take advantage of the most suitable terrain. The saving in construction costs would more than offset the additional cost of the wider right-of-way."

"Also in connection with new construction, the Committee noted that 'urban or municipal extensions of State highways are often deficient in comparison with rural highways', adding:

"While more difficult to design and more costly to make, more emphasis should be placed on designing projects within urban areas since the major portion of highway tax revenues are derived from traffic in these more congested regions."

"Insofar as maintenance of the 41,000-mile State Highway System is concerned, the Committee reported that a check of 800 miles of all kinds of highway indicated that 'maintenance costs were satisfactory and performance generally commendable.'

"Here again, the Committee suggested two opportunities for savings:

"1. In 1952 the Department contracted with outside firms for the unloading, handling and application of 20,000,000 gallons of bituminous materials at a cost of $428,000 or $4.28 a ton. Purchase by the Department of the equipment needed to handle its own distribution of such materials would save approximately $500,000 a biennium. A trial in one highway district was recommended.

"2. Maintenance equipment is distributed among highway districts without regard to type of manufacture. Assigning a district vehicles of the same manufacture as far as practical would simplify the stocking of spare parts and facilitate repairs."

"Liquor Control Board

"The State Government Survey Committee turned its attention to the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board today with a plan for trimming several million dollars a biennium from warehousing and delivery costs.

"On the basis of conservative estimates,' Chairman Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, pointed out, 'the recommendations offered by the Committee should reduce the total direct operating budget of the Liquor Control Board by more than 6 percent, and make a saving of approximately $2,033,185 a biennium available to the General Fund.'

"The report marked the completion of the fifth of thirty separate studies undertaken by the Survey Committee following its creation by Governor John S. Fine last March to recommend means of promoting greater efficiency in government.

"The Committee based its recommendations on a survey made through the cooperation of F. Carter Schaub, general manager of Sears Roebuck and Company, Philadelphia, who assigned D. S. Valentine and W. C. Yerg, of his company, to the project. As in the case of most of the other 'task forces' drafted by the Committee, the work of the Sears Roebuck team was given without cost to the Commonwealth.

"The Liquor Control Board study dealt with warehousing and delivery operations almost exclusively. The only other subject touched upon was retail store rentals.

"In this connection the Committee reported that it had checked store locations and rentals in Harrisburg and planned spot checks in other parts of the State.

"If the stores throughout the State average approximately the same as those analyzed in Harrisburg,' it was observed, 'it would appear that an excellent job of retail store leasing has been done.'

"By way of contrast, the Committee found that the Liquor Control Board is paying excessive rates for warehouse space and for delivery of stock to retail stores by contract carriers.

"The Liquor Control Board leases a total of 461,915 square feet of warehouse space in four cities—Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton and Erie—at a square foot cost varying from a high of $1.72 to a low of $1.17,' it was pointed out.

"These storage rates are much higher than those enjoyed by private enterprise, which vary from a high of 75 cents to a low of 50 cents a square foot.

"If the State's storage costs per square foot were brought down only to private enterprise maximum of 75 cents, a saving of $743,516 a biennium would result."

"On the subject of deliveries to stores, the Committee estimated that the State could save $1,289,669 a biennium through various economies, including the establishment of a new classification of clerk-receiver for liquor stores to eliminate the necessity for helpers on the trucks of contract carriers.

"Deliveries of liquor from the warehouses to the stores are made by contract carriers on a per case basis,' it was explained. 'Because of the requirement that the carrier place merchandise in the stores, trucks hauling for the Liquor Control Board carry one and sometimes two helpers who are productive only during the loading and unloading period.'

"As a result, the rates paid by the Liquor Control Board are approximately 50 percent higher than common carrier rates, which do not include this service.

"If there were combination clerk-receivers in each liquor store, the helper or helpers on trucks could be dispensed with, thereby reducing transportation expense as much as $14 to $30 per truck per day."

"Aside from the creation of the new clerk-receiver classification in stores, the Committee offered a number of other recommendations for improving the warehousing-delivery situation, including the establishment of two new warehouses, in Harrisburg and Altoona.

"By having warehouses in Harrisburg and Altoona,' it was explained, 'all stores within a radius of about 50 to 60 miles could be serviced from these two points, reducing the number of long runs presently being made from Philadelphia, Scranton, Pittsburgh and Erie.'

"The addition of two such warehouses would not result in any increase in overall inventory, since the inventory presently carried in the four warehouses could be reduced."

"The Committee also proposed that:

"1. Warehouse space be leased in suburban areas or on the outskirts of a city rather than in congested areas.

"2. Long-term leases be negotiated rather than the more expensive short-term leases.

"3. High ceilings and good cubic area be taken into consideration as well as modern materials handling equipment when warehouse space is being leased.

"4. Erection of one-floor warehouses with modern equipment either by the State or private interests be considered as another means of materially decreasing present costs.

"5. The Liquor Control Board manager in each warehouse be thoroughly trained in the importance of building up full loads, routing and other economical practices.

"6. Trucks be garaged at the warehouses in order to permit night loading at much cheaper rates than day loading.

"The Committee reported it had checked the rates charged the Liquor Control Board for the handling of liquor stocks within the warehouses, and found such rates to be 'comparable and in line.'

"In its check of retail store rentals in Harrisburg, the Committee reported that rentals ranged from one-half of one percent to 1½ percent of total store volume.

"As a matter of general information,' it was noted, 'Liquor Stores in other States can afford to pay between 6 and 10 percent of gross sales where privately owned and operated. Therefore, if the stores throughout the State average approximately the same as those analyzed in Harrisburg, it would appear that an excellent job of leasing has been done.'"

"Forests and Waters—Fish and Game Commissions

"The State Government Survey Committee today proposed the consolidation of the Department of Forests and Waters, the Fish and the Game Commission into one Department of Conservation—a move which Pennsylvania sportsmen were assured would result in improved hunting and fishing with no increase in license fee.

"By eliminating duplication of facilities, manpower and services, such a consolidation should result in savings of at least $1,000,000 a biennium, the major portion of which would be available for additional fish and game propagation," Francis J. Chesterman, Philadelphia, Committee Chairman, pointed out.

"Chesterman, an ardent hunter and fisherman, as are other members of the Committee, made it clear that the proposed consolidation would guard the separate identities of the present fish and game programs and guarantee hunters and fishermen even more sport for their license fee dollars than they are receiving now.

"The separate funds of hunting and fishing license fees will not pose any problems,' he explained, 'because the costs of protection can be readily prorated to each division.'

"The recommendation for the creation of a Department of Conservation was the highlight of the sixth of a series of reports by the Survey Committee which was set up by Governor John S. Fine last March to recommend means of achieving greater efficiency in the affairs of the State government.

"The study on which the report was based was made for the Committee by a 'task force' from United Engineers and Constructors, Inc., of Philadelphia, consisting of William E. Steele, III, vice-president; Col. Frank E. Lamphere and Carl Schubert. As in the case of most of the other 'task forces' called upon by the Committee, the conservation study was made without cost to the Commonwealth.

"Establishment of a separate department for the control and direction of activities effecting conservation of natural resources is by no means an experimental undertaking, the Committee pointed out.

"Approximately 20 states have already set up consolidated departments of this type,' it was noted, 'and the results of their experiences offer convincing evidence that the plan has everything to recommend it.'

"The 1949-51 appropriation for the Department of Forests and Waters was $21,615,000 (including $17,000,000 for desilting Schuylkill River). The Pennsylvania Game Commission operates on its own funds made up of all the receipts from the sale of hunting licenses, which amounted to $7,757,468 in the 1949-51 biennium. All receipts from the sale of fishing licenses accrue to the Fish fund which is used to pay all expenses of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission. In the 1949-51 biennium the receipts were $3,007,953.

"As an example of the benefits of consolidation, the Committee pointed out that fish wardens and game wardens would be combined into one field force with common duties, and that there would be a reciprocal arangement with Forest Wardens that would eliminate much of the need for temporary help.

"Such a field force would be able to serve the needs of the State's fishermen and hunters far more effectively and efficiently than is possible with separate forces at the present time,' it was noted.

"Such employes generally have the same duties to perform, but their services are restricted to the protection and public use of a particular section of the Commonwealth's natural resources, even though in many instances the field of their various activities is located in the same land area and their dealings with the general public involve the same persons. What is more, the peak activity of each of these groups occur at a different season of the year.'

"Under the consolidation plan, clerical and administrative duties common to the three organizations would also be merged—into one Bureau of Administration.

"The Committee also proposed consolidation and realignment of field offices, noting that the Department of Forests and Waters has 24 Forest Districts, 5 Regional Forest offices and 4 Regional Park offices; the Game Commission, 6 Wildlife Conservations Districts and 150 Field Districts; and the Fish Commission has 6 Field Divisions.

"Another recommendation of special significance to sportsmen is the creation of a Bureau of Research and Planning to develop long-range plans and conduct necessary research in all phases of conservation.

"The successful direction of resource conservation activities is dependent largely upon research and development of basic long-term programs,' it was explained.

"Establishment of a Bureau of Research and Planning would give the proper standing and permanence to this most important function, so essential to the proper handling of the Commonwealth's conservation problems.'

"In addition to the functions already charged to the Department of Forests and Waters, the Fish Commission and the Game Commission, the Committee recommended that the new Department of Conservation also be responsible for the conservation of other natural resources within the State, including gas, oil and minerals.

"The Committee also called attention to the numerous independent administrative boards and commissions which have responsibilities bearing upon the field of conservation, and urged that all such boards be made advisory in nature in the interests of an integrated conservation program

"The Water and Power Resources Board is an administrative board connected with the Department of Forests and Waters. The Sanitary Water Board is an administrative board connected with the Department of Health. The Brandywine Battlefield Park Commission is an independent administrative Board responsible directly to the Governor. Advisory commissions have been created for various other historical parks. The State Forest Commission, the Flood Control Commission and various other boards and commissions connected with the Department of Forests and Waters are already advisory with no administrative duties.

"In other recommendations the Survey Committee proposed:

"That an impartial study be conducted to determine the effectiveness of the propagation programs of both the Fish Commission and the Game Commission.

"That all legal work for the new Department be transferred to the office of the Attorney General.

"That the nursery now operated by the Department of Highways be transferred to the Bureau of Forests."

"Institutional Farms

"Pennsylvania's institutional farm program won the commendation of the State Government Survey Committee today.

"The over-all average efficiency of operation on State-owned farms appears to be high," Chairman Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, reported. "There are opportunities for substantial savings, to be sure, but that should not obscure the fact that in the main an excellent job of farming is being done."

"The State Government Survey Committee was appointed by Governor John S. Fine last March to recommend means of promoting increased efficiency in governmental affairs.

"Interest in its appraisal of State farm operations—the seventh of thirty specific studies now being brought to completion—was heightened by the fact that one professional farmer and two 'part-time farmers' are included in the Survey Committee's membership.

"Mark Witmer, of Dalmatia, Northumberland County, operates three farms and is one of the leading poultrymen of the State. He is vice-president of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange.

"Chairman Chesterman and Attorney Herbert P. Sorg, former speaker of the House of Representatives, both are enthusiastic part-time farmers.

"The survey on which the Committee's report was based was made through the cooperation of Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the Pennsylvania State College, who assigned to the project Dr. L. F. Miller, professor of Farm Management, Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology, School of Agriculture.

"Evidence of the general efficiency of farm operations is to be found in the high rates of production of crops and livestock," the Committee reported, "and in the practices being followed in such important areas as disease and pest control in crops and livestock, use of the best adapted varieties, strip cropping and other soil conservation measures, the use of fertilizers and livestock breeding and management."

"At the same time the Committee noted a wide range between the productivity of the best one-third and the poorest one-third of the institutional farms, and suggested that the latter group 'seriously consider making changes to bring their production up closer to the present average.'"

"Specific dollar savings through this and other suggested improvements cannot be calculated," it was pointed out, "because of the incompleteness of present cost records, and the difficulty of comparing the institutional farms with those which are under private management."

"But it is interesting to note that if through better management the cost of producing milk on the highest-cost one-third could be reduced to the average, the saving in this one respect alone would be approximately $120,000 a biennium."

"Altogether, the Committee offered five specific recommendations for the improvement of institutional farm practices:

"1. Only such farming enterprises as are of economically sound size should be undertaken on institutional farms. This would mean less diversification and larger units. A study should be made to determine what enterprises would be best suited to each farm.

"2. A system should be organized permitting efficient interchange of produce among state institutions.

"3. The proper use of inmate labor at these institutions should be studied with a view toward determining not only economical operation but also the therapeutic value of such activity.

"4. Purchasing practices should be improved in order not to hamper farm operations with impractical and antiquated standards.

"5. Better cost records should be maintained by the Department of Welfare to reflect adequate details of farm expenditures and results.

"In addition to pointing up opportunities for more efficient over-all operation, the Committee's report served to fill in a picture of a little known phase of Pennsylvania farm activity.

"The Commonwealth operates 27 institutional farms—at 21 mental and 6 penal institutions. They comprise a total of 36,556 acres, of which 13,868 are tillable. Gross annual production was $4,579,000 for 1952, or the equivalent of the output of 460 commercial Pennsylvania farms.

"The cost charged to farm operations by the Department of Welfare in 1952 was $2,813,723.

"This would indicate that institutional farming is being carried on not only efficiently but profitably," the Committee observed. "However, costs cannot be compared with those of commercial farms for the most part, because they do not include such items as taxes, depreciation and insurance, and, in many instances, labor costs are not comparable."

"The average institutional farm has 1354 acres, of which 514 are tillable; 76 milk cows, 51 litters of pigs, and 1059 layers, and had a gross annual production for the year ending May 31, 1952, of $169,594. Dairying brings in 36 percent of the gross receipts, general farm enterprises 31 percent, with truck garden and piggery enterprises each constituting 14 percent, and poultry 5 percent.

"The Committee found that the crop index for the 27 institutional farms was well above the ten-year county average of 100. For the highest one-third the group index was 224; for the lowest one-third of the farms it was 148.

"Milk production per cow was considerably above the average 7868 pounds for Central Pennsylvania farms," the report continued, "ranging from 13,444 in the highest one-third to 9980 in the lowest one-third. In fact, milk production per cow for all State-owned farms was as high as the highest 10 percent of the privately operated farms in Central Pennsylvania."

"In egg production per hen, two-thirds of the State farms had a production equivalent to, or higher than, the upper 10 percent of the privately operated farms. Production ranged from 254 eggs per hen in the upper third to 176 in the lowest third.

"It would be a mistake to suggest that every institutional farm should have a crop index of 2243, a production of 13,000 pounds of milk per cow and 254 eggs per hen. The cost of obtaining such high yields may exceed the returns. But it seems safe to conclude that those farms in the lower one-third could profitably strive to bring their production up at least to the current average for all institutional farms."

"In an effort to determine the efficiency of the production which institutional farms have achieved, the Committee considered total cost per unit of product as well as the value of the product obtained per $100 expenditure for feed.

"The average value of milk produced in 1951 per $100 of feed averaged $226 for the institutional farms and $229 for commercial dairymen who belonged to the Dairy Herd Improvement Association," it was observed.

"This suggests that the dairy enterprises on the institutional farms are of comparable efficiency with the better commercial dairymen. However, there are indications that the lowest one-third of the farms are losing money in hog and poultry production."

"Determination of total cost per unit of product was based on cash expenses only, plus the value of home grown feeds, and the Committee cautioned, therefore, against comparison with commercial farm costs which include items such as taxes, depreciation and insurance."

"The total cost per 100 pounds of milk for the best one-third of the farms was $4.40; for the least efficient, $7.20. The total cost per pound of pork for the best was 15 cents, for the least efficient, 35 cents; and the total cost per dozen eggs ranged from 34 to 77 cents.

"Feed costs represent approximately 70 percent of the total cost of producing milk and eggs on the institutional farms, and about 80 percent of the cost of producing pork," it was noted.

"Since these percentages were about the same for each of the three cost groups, this would indicate that the important variations in total cost among these farms are due largely to differences in the efficiency of utilizing feed.

"As in any business," the Committee observed, "the degree of success depends to a considerable extent on the quality of management. The wide variations noted in production are in part a reflection of the differences in management ability of the farm manager and of the interest of the head of the institution.

"It is difficult to overestimate the importance of this factor, because the average institutional farm involves a much larger volume of business than the average private farm, and there are great potentialities for making substantial savings with a relatively small improvement in efficiency.

"The Department of Welfare is fully aware of the basic importance of management. It has a program of apprenticeship for young men who are interested in becoming farm managers, and has an in-service training program for present managers."

"Other subjects on which the Committee commented were:

1. Labor

"The problem of obtaining and keeping farm help is one of the most serious. Workers in industry get consistently high cash wages although farm wages may be supplemented by additional prerequisites which are not always appreciated in their true light. Likewise, ward attendants receive higher wages than farm labor, thus creating a feeling of discrimination. There is a great variation in practice and evaluation of the problem of inmate or patient labor."

"2. Diversification of Enterprises.

"Institutional farms have a more diversified system of enterprises and smaller units than experience has proven profitable on commercial farms. This leads to management problems and results in activities that cannot utilize labor and machinery in an efficient manner.

"For example, a poultry flock of a thousand layers is not adequate to justify the hiring of a trained poultryman. Yet without a trained worker, costs will be high and production low.

"The principal reason for diversification is providing food for the institution. If the farm concentrated on what it could produce economically and transferred the surplus to other state institutions, better and more economical management could be achieved."

"3. Purchasing Policies.

"The purchase of feed and fertilizer on the basis of chemical analysis at competitive bidding has limitations. Present purchasing specifications are outmoded. For feeding, chemical analysis is not a reliable measure for it does not take into consideration such factors as palatability and quality of the mix, and for fertilizers it does not give much indication whether it can be spread satisfactorily by machine. In the purchase of farm machinery, the wide variety of manufacture has led to an excess of spare parts and costly breakdowns."

"4. Farm Records.

"Records maintained in the Department of Welfare are incomplete and do not provide a breakdown of expenditures nor an inventory of machinery."

"As to the over-all role of the farm in the total institutional program, the Committee reported that there was a sharp difference of opinion even among the superintendents of the institutions.

"Some thought that farms are not justified either on the basis of the rehabilitation of the inmates or from the standpoint of subsistence," the Committee reported.

"Others believed that the farms contributed to both to some extent. One viewpoint was that rehabilitation of inmates would be better aided by industrial work because of the essentially industrial nature of the Pennsylvania economy."

"In summary, the Committee pointed out that 'the fact that the present farms at state institutions are generally efficient and profitable does not mean that in the future, farm operations should be developed at new institutions in the interest of economy.

"Present farms represent very large capital investments in buildings, land, machinery, and equipment which should be maintained and operated as efficiently as possible. In establishing new institutions, however, it may be seriously questioned whether it would pay to make such large investments unless the farm serves other important objectives beyond the production of food.

"If these other considerations do warrant establishing a farm at future institutions it would appear desirable to concentrate on such enterprises as truck corps, potatoes, and dairying, including the production of good roughage."

"Automotive Equipment

"The State Government Survey Committee declared today that the Commonwealth could save at least $300,000 in the next three years through more efficient procurement and management of State-owned motor vehicles.

"The biggest saving suggested by the Committee would be achieved by substituting medium-priced cars for a number of the larger, more expensive type automobiles now maintained by the State.

"Such a step would result in savings totaling about $210,000 by reducing both capital outlay and operating expenses, Chairman Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, pointed out.

"An additional $75,000 per biennium could be saved, it was explained, by encouraging more of the drivers of State-owned cars to procure gasoline and oil at bulk facilities maintained by the Commonwealth, rather than at commercially operated service stations.

"And finally, the Committee declared, at least $8500 a biennium could be saved by discontinuing the practice of equipping State cars with governors—"inasmuch as it is the opinion of commercial fleet operators that their use as safety devices has been discredited."

"The Committee also offered numerous other recommendations relating to the management and operation of State-owned cars but pointed out the potential dollar savings could not be estimated, partly because of a lack of uniformity in basic reports and records.

"Some departments and agencies have developed their own reports and in several instances they are superior to those called for in current administrative practices," the Committee pointed out.

"Some reports requiring much clerical and accounting effort appear to have little value while other essential data does not appear to be available at all.

"The Committee has not had time to make a detailed study of the subject, but our findings indicate it to be a fertile field for a comprehensive study which might result in substantial savings in clerical and accounting labor and a much more valuable set of operating records."

"The Committee's study of the management and procurement of motor vehicles was one of thirty separate surveys undertaken following its appointment by Governor John S. Fine last March to recommend means of achieving greater efficiency in governmental affairs.

"The volunteer 'task force' with which the Committee worked consisted of Edgar C. Bickel, general building and supplies superintendent of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, chairman; Gaven M. Laurie, Atlantic Refining Company, Philadelphia; S. G. Page, Equitable Auto Company, Pittsburgh; Harley L. Swift, Harrisburg Railways Company; and Charles W. Woods, West Penn Power Company, Pittsburgh.

"On the subject of the assignment of passenger cars, the Committee reported that there are approximately 27

Cadillacs and 149 Buicks and similar class cars in the State fleet.

"Assignment of cars of this type only to the Governor and Department heads or officials of an equivalent status would result in a reduction from 27 Cadillacs to 6 Cadillacs or equivalent class and of Buicks and similar class cars from 149 to 41," the Committee observed. "Such cars, when being replaced, should be sold on the market, and not passed on down the line."

"On the subject of purchases of gasoline and oil, the Committee reported that of approximately 3,840,000 gallons of gasoline purchased in 1951 for automobiles under the supervision of the Automobile Division of the Department of Property and Supplies, only 67 percent was procured from State-operated bulk facilities.

"Based on the standards of good commercial fleet operation," the Committee noted, "at least 80 percent should have been procured from the States bulk facilities."

"Bulk facilities are maintained at State highway garages, institutional garages and the Harrisburg garage of the Automobile Division.

"Factors contributing to the limited use of such facilities, the Committee found, are 'lack of knowledge about their location, unwillingness to go out of one's way to get to them, and a desire for conveniences such as battery and tire checking and windshield cleaning which are offered by commercial service stations and are not offered by State facilities.'

"On the subject of the use of governors, the Committee reported that the State buys about 500 annually at an approximate cost of $8.50 each, using them as a means to reduce operating costs, speeding and accidents.

"This practice is not now followed in private business," the Committee pointed out in urging their elimination. "It is generally recognized today that the economical use of motor equipment and the prevention of speeding results from training and supervision rather than from mechanical devices."

"In other recommendations relating to the individual operation of cars, the Committee suggested:

"1. That passenger cars owned by the State, except for law enforcement agencies, be painted a distinctive color or have the name of the appropriate department or agency displayed on the rear, as 'a means of materially reducing misuse.'

"2. That the mileage rate allowed for the use of personal cars be increased from the present 6 cents a mile to 8 cents a mile for the first 600 miles per month and 4 cents for additional miles over 600, as a means of encouraging personnel to use their own cars for low mileage operations.

"3. That a number of cars with low monthly mileage presently assigned in Harrisburg and vicinity be turned over to the Harrisburg Motor Pool. Also that small departmental or agency pools be encouraged inasmuch as it has been demonstrated that one pool car can replace three personally-assigned low mileage cars.

"The Committee also found that the State is incurring needless expense by its failure to adopt a 'realistic' policy for the replacement of motor vehicles.

"Too much weight is given to high mileage and long life," it was noted. An arbitrary replacement standard of 90,000 miles has been in general use and this has resulted in unusually high maintenance costs.

"The State of New Jersey now has a policy of trading in passenger cars after two years, and many commercial fleets also have found it economical to make replacements on schedules ranging from two years up."

"On the subject of management and administration, the Committee noted that all State-owned vehicles come under the general supervision of the Automotive Division except the fleet of the Department of Highways which under the administrative code is exempted from such control.

"Staff supervision now given to automotive equipment is quite loose," the Committee reported. "Several departments have developed their own motor vehicle operating staffs but these have no official status under the code, nor are their practices uniform. The work load of the two field inspectors of the Automotive Division is too heavy and their inspections are inadequate.

"Some departments have developed their own reports. Many require much clerical and accounting effort that has little value. Reporting practices in general have not been reviewed or revised for a number of years.

"The present manual relating to the use of automotive equipment was last revised August 1, 1947, and is out-of-date in many respects. In this manual are the rules and regulations that govern operation of State cars, and the list of garages and service stations under contract with the Commonwealth to do repair work and sell gas and oil. A number of sub-standard garages and stations are on this list because the only requirement for such a listing is the submission of an application.

"The State carries no fire insurance on automotive equipment and State garages, although it would seem that protection from loss from fire should be considered where there are large concentrations of cars such as the 150 units in the Harrisburg garage or where the total investment is substantial." This protection could be secured at the nominal cost of $1000 per year.

"To help put management and procurement on a more efficient basis, the Committee recommended that:

"1. Supervision of State automotive equipment by the Automobile Division of the Department of Property and Supplies should include recommendation of policies, practices and methods for the entire State fleet; the preparation of training programs, the furnishing of staff assistance to other departments and agencies on request; preparation of replacement budgets and schedules, general supervision over cost reporting; the operation of the Harrisburg Motor Pool; and the making of field inspections and supervision of repairs to those vehicles not under the jurisdiction of a departmental motor vehicle supervisor.

"2. All departments and agencies with more than 150 motor units should have a motor vehicle supervisor reporting to the head of the department and working closely with the Automobile Division of the Department of Property and Supplies.

"3. The entire system of records, reports and cost accounting needs simplification and revision.

"4. The Harrisburg Motor Pool should have more adequate garage and maintenance facilities, and its facilities and services for State cars should be increased.

"5. The present chief of the Automotive Division is fully qualified and competent and should be recognized in prestige and given the authority to carry out the above recommendations."

"Records Systems

"The State Government Survey Committee today urged the complete overhaul of the Commonwealth's system of records-keeping in the light of up-to-date business practices, declaring that such a modernization program could ultimately lead to savings of $3,000,000 a biennium and perhaps a great deal more.

"The business of the State government has grown so tremendously in recent years," Chairman Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, pointed out, "that the old methods, systems and procedures for handling records are not only proving extremely costly, but are no longer equal to the job.

"Like governmental agencies everywhere, the Commonwealth today finds itself at the point where an up-to-date, over-all program of efficient records management is desperately needed to keep pace with quickly expanding governmental services and requirements.

"It is difficult, naturally, to calculate what such a far-reaching undertaking would mean in terms of dollars and cents, but from what we have observed of the possibilities both in Pennsylvania and elsewhere, we believe the estimate of an eventual saving of $3,000,000 a biennium to be a very conservative figure."

"The Survey Committee, appointed last March by Governor John S. Fine to recommend means of achieving greater efficiency in the transactions of State business, took up the matter of records administration in one of a series of reports on various phases of governmental operations."

"Its findings were based on a survey made by Thomas Amelia, assistant director of the Southeastern Division of the Pennsylvania Economy League, Inc., who has won national recognition as an authority on records management."

"Mr. Amelia, whose services were made available without cost to the Commonwealth by Dr. Charlton S. Chute, League vice president and Southeastern Division director, is best known for his records-management studies in behalf of the United States Department of Justice and for the Committee of Fifteen in Philadelphia, where he supervised the formation of a separate records department."

"The opportunities for improvement in the field of records-keeping," Chairman Chesterman observed, "lie for the most part in such seemingly trivial matters as forms which are awkward to fill out on a typewriter, the continued use of obsolete, time-consuming equipment, and the storage, year after year, of old and useless records."

"Taken by themselves, they may not seem particularly serious, but duplicated as they are hundreds, yes, thousands, of times throughout the State government, they pose a problem of tremendous importance—and one that can be solved only by clear thinking, good planning and forceful action."

"Fortunately, the Commonwealth has many employees who are familiar with the problems of records administration and are fully qualified to operate a suitable program under a qualified records administrator. The employment of paid specialists to do the work is unnecessary."

"Because of the comparatively short time available for its study, and the great number and variety of the Commonwealth's records—it is estimated that the State uses at least 14,000 different forms—the Committee contented itself with a few random examples of the opportunities for savings, Chesterman explained."

"However," he added, "the savings in just these few instances would be sufficient to offset the cost of approximately $120,000 a biennium which we estimate would be required for the establishment of adequate control over all phases of records administration."

"The Committee also cited the experience of the state of Michigan, where a survey considerably more detailed than that undertaken in Pennsylvania indicated direct savings of nearly $2,000,000 a biennium through better records management, exclusive of large but unestimated savings in indirect costs."

"The principal need seen by the Committee in the overhaul of Pennsylvania's records procedure is the establishment of a central authority 'to determine what is best and most economical for the entire state government.'"

"At present," it was pointed out, "all printed forms and official reports must have the Budget Secretary's final approval, although in practice this approval is largely restricted to the quality of paper and number of copies ordered."

"There is no central control over thousands of other forms that are reproduced by means other than printing. In most instances the creation of such forms is left to the individual departments."

"Nor is there any regular program for the disposal of old records, with the result that many documents no longer needed in the performance of official business continue to take up valuable office space."

"As an example of the extra work and expense involved in the use of unsatisfactory forms, the Committee pointed out that many of the forms supplied by contract printers have entry spaces which do not conform to the mechanical spacing action of a typewriter."

"As a result," it was noted, "employees are required to spend an unwarranted amount of time manipulating the typewriter roll by hand to achieve proper spacing, with resulting low production, unsatisfactory work, increased fatigue and poor morale."

"To show how serious a matter such improper spacing can be, the Committee had a time study made of the preparation of twenty copies of ten improperly spaced forms and discovered a time loss of 480 minutes—the equivalent of a full day's time for one employee."

"The average salary for employees doing this type of work is $2500," the Committee pointed out. "A better job of spacing on these ten forms alone could save the Commonwealth approximately $5000 a biennium."

"To show the time and money saving advantages of using modern mechanical equipment, the Committee analyzed one particular file of 4,500,000 cards now housed in eight-drawer, two-section file cabinets."

"If rotary files were installed," the Committee reported, "better service would be given to the public and the clerical force could be reduced from 59 to 24 at a saving of $115,200 a biennium. Space savings estimated at $4800 a biennium would also be possible. These savings in one biennium, would more than pay for all the new equipment."

"On the subject of microfilming records to save space, the Committee reported that 'an analysis was made of the advantages of microfilming one group of records consisting of 2,260,000 documents, and the net saving to the Commonwealth from this one operation would be over $19,000.'"

"As an example of the savings that are possible through the disposal of old and useless records, the Committee recalled a 'housecleaning' undertaken in a district office of the Department of Banking a year or two ago that released 25 file cases and 48 steel transfer cases, and resulted in savings of $2826 a year in rent."

"In some instances, the Committee found, when records are disposed of they are taken to the Harrisburg incinerator under safety protection and burned."

"Considerable income would accrue to the Commonwealth," the Committee suggested, "if such records were sold as waste—either by utilizing recently developed pulping machinery which can be moved right into the office concerned or by transporting the paper under protection to a mill for immediate pulping."

"As a guide to the development of a modern records administration program the Survey Committee proposed:

"1. A records service unit under competent direction and authority should be established with powers to prescribe and administer standards for methods, management and equipment to be used in the reproduction and keeping of all records for public reference."

"2. The control over records should include creation, revision or purchase of all forms, reports, record books or other printed or reproduced material."

"3. Continuous inventories of all Commonwealth records should be undertaken."

"4. Schedules for the periodic disposition of useless old records should be established. All such records should be sold under adequate safeguards."

"5. Records of historical significance should be preserved, classified and indexed by the Historical Commission."

"Public Assistance

"The State Government Survey Committee asserted today relief payments made on fraudulent applications constitute a major source of loss of State funds."

"Sterner measures for the recovery of funds from those who deliberately misuse the aid program, the Committee emphasized, could easily lead to a saving of $1,600,000 a biennium in the State's share of relief costs.

"At the same time the Committee estimated that further savings in even greater amounts could be achieved over a period of years through gradual improvement in overall relief administration, noting that while the record of public assistance in Pennsylvania is generally quite good, the work is being carried on in the face of a number of serious obstacles.

"For example," it was explained, "the Department of Public Assistance has one administrative problem which is almost unique. Its casework load and the financial requirements which stem from it are to a very large extent the result of economic conditions beyond the Department's control. Furthermore, the fluctuation in load makes sensible future planning difficult and, at the caseworker level, aggravates an already high personnel turnover.

"Secondly, while the participation of the Federal government has been helpful financially, it has added to the administrative burden and has made the work of visitors and supervisors increasingly difficult. And finally, there is the problem of the division of responsibility for administration between the state DPA and local county boards which makes for inefficiency and lack of strong controls."

"The Committee's scrutiny of the State Public Assistance Program was one of a series of studies undertaken following its appointment last March by Governor John S. Fine to recommend means of achieving greater efficiency in the conduct of the State business.

"In 1950, for example, the Committee reported, overpayments due to fraudulent relief applications were estimated by the Department of Public Assistance at $4,860,000, or about four percent of the total paid out in relief. However, because of the participation of the Federal government in the relief program to the extent of about 35 percent, only $3,159,000 of this was chargeable to the state.

"The Department is aware of this situation and has begun—under the direction of Secretary of Assistance Eleanor Evans—a program designed to stiffen its collection administration."

"Whereas the present collection policies of the Department would indicate a final collection of about $1,579,500, or 50 percent of that amount," the Committee observed, "a tougher collection policy could reasonably be expected to increase final collections to 75 percent, or $2,369,300. This increase of $800,000 is the equivalent of the saving of $1,600,000 a biennium."

"As a means of keeping relief 'chiseling' in check, the Committee proposed:

"1. Reduction in the amount of assistance grants up to a maximum of 10 percent as a means of recovering overpayments on fraudulent claims, unless such action would involve severe hardship.

"2. Authorization of the Department of Public Assistance to take summary court action in the case of minor offenses resulting from fraud instead of being obliged to use the more time-consuming machinery of the county courts.

"The Committee also suggested that some consideration be given to the merits of garnishment of wages and salaries up to a maximum of 10 percent to recover overpayments in cases involving fraud, pointing out that while Pennsylvania does not as a matter of general policy permit the garnishment of wages for personal debt, the existence of fraud might well be considered ample justification for such action.

"The Department of Public Assistance has for the most part been averse to using reduced grants as a means of recovering overpayments, the Committee explained, although it recently started such a program experimentally in six counties.

"From the moral standpoint," the Committee declared, "grant reduction has a great deal to recommend it. Under the present policy, the Department is in the position of offering encouragement to those who have fraudulent leanings.

"These people know, or soon find out, that as long as they remain on the relief rolls the Department of Public Assistance will do nothing to punish them for their effense.

"After they leave the rolls, if they do, collection of the DPA claim depends upon the uncertain results of pressing for settlement. Here is a situation in which an irresponsible person has nothing to lose. On the other hand, reduction of grants should be visible proof that 'chiseling' is not to be tolerated."

"In other recommendations the Survey Committee proposed:

"1. That in the case of a relief recipient with responsible relatives capable of contributing to his support, court action to obtain and enforce a support order be instituted by the Department of Public Assistance.

"Such a procedure, it was pointed out, would increase the effectiveness of support claims, eliminate much book-keeping and assure the relief recipient a steady income.

"2. That two steps be taken to help overcome the present serious shortage of applicants for jobs for public assistance 'visitors.' First, that the present requisite of a college education or its equivalent be broadened to permit the hiring of persons who may not have had a college education but are qualified by judgment, skill and experience in dealing with all kinds of people. Second, that the appointment and advancement of employees be placed on a statewide basis rather than a county basis to increase the opportunities for advancement.

"3. That the right of access to relief rolls be accorded to legitimate organizations and individuals requesting information without the necessity for indiscriminate publication of such lists.

"4. Further studies should be made relative to the responsibility of the Department of Public Assistance in the field of rehabilitation with a view to clarification of the law and the Department's responsibilities. In this connection, work programs should not be developed except in times of business recession and unemployment.

"5. Aid to dependent children should be more carefully administered. The difficulty is due to the complex Federal regulations applying to this category.

"6. In addition to checking done within the Department of Public Assistance, audits of eligibility and grants should be made annually in every county by the Auditor General. The auditing staff of the Department of Public Assistance should be used as specialists to be moved into any county where the Auditor General found a high percentage of exceptions.

"7. Audits of cases receiving assistance should be used more extensively to eliminate overpayment and to improve the administration of the programs in the various counties. From these the Department of Public Assistance should establish yearly performance standards against which to compare the work of each county.

"In a general appraisal of the public assistance program, the Committee noted:

"Eligibility rules and regulations and the level of grants of assistance generally follow conservative practices. The Department's program is generally executed with a reasonable amount of accuracy.

"Studies of the county units, while they indicate many opportunities for improvement, show that in numerous cases the assistance program is well administered. Certain important counties, on the other hand, fall well below the average in performance."

"On the subject of the respective roles of state and local governments in the administration and financing of public assistance, the Committee observed:

"While at present the State pays the entire cost, the responsibility for administration is divided between the counties. The Committee does not believe it is within its province to develop recommendations regarding fundamental questions of state and local administrative relationships. It does believe, however, that thorough study should be made of the proper assignment of responsibility for administration of public assistance and other welfare services at both the state and local levels.'"

"Personnel

"The State Government Survey Committee today offered a series of recommendations relating to personnel practices which it predicted would not only result in more efficient performance of duties by State employees, but would eventually be a saving to the Commonwealth.

"Among the Committee's major proposals were:

"1. Extension of a reasonable measure of job security to an additional group of professional, technical and specially-skilled employees not covered by any form of security system at present.

"2. Establishment of an improved plan of personnel administration under a qualified Personnel Director, with specific provision for the continual reexamination of position classifications and grades to keep pace with changing administrative and economic conditions.

"3. Revision of employee leave policies to bring them more in line with practice in private industry.

"The Survey Committee, headed by Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, was appointed last March by Governor John S. Fine to suggest means of achieving greater efficiency in the conduct of the State's business.

"Its findings on the subject of personnel procedures were based on a study conducted by the Institute of Local and State Government of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Stephen B. Sweeney, director, and Dr. James C. Charlesworth, assistant director.

"For the year ending May 31, 1952, the Committee noted, the Commonwealth's expenditures for salaries were $97,514,443; and for wages, $40,832,254, a total of $138,346,697. On September 30, 1952, there were 41,527 salaried employees and 19,035 per diem employees on the payroll.

"On the subject of extension of job security, the Committee reported that approximately 36 percent of all general State employees are covered by some form of security system at present, and suggested that coverage might advantageously be extended to one-fourth of the remainder, or approximately 50 percent of the total employees.

"Of the total of 48 states,' it was pointed out, '26 accord security to a greater percentage of their employees than does Pennsylvania.

"The six states, other than Pennsylvania, with more than 25,000 employees, have extended security to an average of 83 percent, while of the 15 most populous states, only Texas, North Carolina and Tennessee rank below Pennsylvania in coverage.

"It is of first importance that key technical and professional employees be given a reasonable measure of job security. It is not merely low pay that deters many qualified persons from entering the State service, but the absence of a sound personnel administration.

"Job security is more essential in the upper levels of positions than in the lower, since turnover is more costly. There is already a tradition of continuing service among bank examiners, bridge and highway engineers, physicians, accountants, etc., but this condition should be regularized and strengthened.

"Just which position should come under this technical category should be recommended to the Governor by a Pay Plan Board, but it is estimated that about one-fourth of the employees should be in this class. These key employees would constitute a career service in each department, headed by a permanent Deputy Secretary who should be subordinate to the policy Deputy Secretary as well as to the Secretary.

"The Office of Personnel would classify positions throughout the State service, and determine fitness, but would have no jurisdiction over the appointment or dismissal of employees beyond the scope of this career service. The Pay Plan Board would establish uniform compensation for like positions.'

"As to the degree of security to be accorded employees under the new system, the Committee had this to say:

"The Committee believes that conventional civil service regulations place too much emphasis on security of tenure, with the result that too many employees drag their feet. Sometimes two employees are drawing pay where one should suffice.

"It is recommended that employees dismissed with the approval of the departmental appeals board (to be established) should have no appeal on factual grounds to the Office of Personnel or other central agency. An unsatisfactory employee, cited for dismissal by his section supervisor, should have his case reviewed by the supervisor's superior and so on up through the bureau head to a departmental appeals board, made up of appointees of the Secretary, from a panel representing all classification levels. (One member of the board to be of the same rank as the appellant).

"This board should report to the Secretary, and his action should be final, provided these procedures have been followed. If the employee has been denied his hearing or hearings, he should be entitled to a hearing before the central Personnel Board. The central Board should have powers of reinstatement only in cases where proper procedures have not been followed. The procedures for employees subject to Federal Civil Service control would remain as presently constituted.

"In cases where the proper procedures have been followed, and the dismissal has been affirmed by the departmental Secretary, the employee should have the right to state his case publicly to the central Personnel Director (for record purposes only), at which time the affected department should be represented if it wishes.'

"On the subject of salary rates and the classification and grading of positions, the Committee noted that "the personnel task force as well as other task forces have reported that State salaries are too low to attract or retain competent trained personnel.

"The turnover rate among salaried employees is 18 percent,' it was disclosed, 'which entails a heavy cost of training replacements.

"In the Department of Highways, for example, two-thirds of the engineers are 50 years of age or older, and 80 percent of the resignations within the fiscal year 1950-51 were persons having less than 18 months service in the department.

"A similar situation exists in the Department of Banking where a large percentage of the Bank Examiners are over 50 years of age. There is no young group in either department being developed for increasing responsibilities.'

"Basic salary schedules were adopted in 1933 for departmental employees and in 1926 for institutional employees. Cost-of-living increases and across-the-board increases have been granted at various times since then, it was explained, but the majority of these increases benefited the low-level employees.

"The departmental minimum of $900 in 1933 increased 117 percent to $1956,' the Committee said. "However, the maximum of $12,000 has increased only ten percent to $13,200. As a result, salary schedules lack regularity of progression from lower to higher grades. Incentives for employees to remain in State service are few and the turnover rate is extremely high.'

"To help overcome this situation, the Committee suggested that the classification and grading of positions be undertaken as 'a continuing process and not limited to one every ten or fifteen years as in the past.'

"Changes in administrative programs, in living standards, and in pay rates in private industry are now so rapid that inequities in State positions constantly develop," it was pointed out.

"Therefore it is recommended that classification technicians in the Office of Personnel and methods analysts in the line departments work steadily at this task, constantly examining positions to see if they have changed, as compared to other state positions and to parallel compensation in private industry. (Experience elsewhere has demonstrated that surprisingly large savings can result from thorough procedural analysis of operations and positions). Classes of positions should be allocated to grades, and grades should be translated into pay groupings, by a standing Pay Plan Board, comprised of a representative of the Budget Secretary, of the Office of Personnel, of the Executive Board, and of the Directors of Personnel of the two largest departments involved in the positions being surveyed."

"On the subject of employe absences, the Committee declared that 'a saving of millions of dollars annually, at present pay rates, could be made if leave policy could be brought more in line with practice in private industry.'

"Departmental employes are allowed 15 days vacation," it was explained. "Additional leaves up to 15 days may be approved by the department head in special and meritorious cases. Employes generally consider this as 'sick leave.'"

"Further leave ranging up to 20 days for persons with ten years service may be granted by the Executive Board. There are fourteen official State holidays."

"On the subject of personnel administration in general, the Committee suggested that such activity 'be integrated as much as possible with line operations and not be confined to a central agency removed in body and sometimes in spirit from the workers.'

"Therefore," it was added, 'the Committee recommends that the principle be followed of assigning to the central Office of Personnel only those functions which cannot be discharged as effectively in the line departments.'

"Personnel rules for adoption by the Personnel Board, the Committee suggested, should be proposed by a committee of five deputy secretaries named by the Governor."

"For membership on the Personnel Board, the Committee suggested the appointment of 'five laymen who have the citizen's rather than the administrator's point of view, and who have demonstrated a judicious temperament in their business or professional life.'

"Members of the Personnel Board would meet at scheduled intervals and be compensated on a per diem basis. Their functions should be limited to the adoption of rules and the hearing of appeals."

"Responsibility for all of the administrative work of the Office of Personnel would be given to a Personnel Director to be appointed by the Governor from a panel of three names submitted by the Personnel Board."

"Personnel administration should be supported by adequate appropriations," the Committee emphasized.

"Experience in industry and in other public jurisdictions demonstrates the reasonable expenditures for this purpose produce net over-all savings. It is recommended that two-thirds of one percent of the payroll of employes served by the personnel establishment be appropriated for the Office of Personnel and personnel technicians in the departments."

"Building Management

"The State Government Survey Committee today urged that a thorough study be made of the opportunities for more efficient utilization of office space by the Commonwealth in the interests of economy."

"The task force studying building management," the Committee pointed out, 'reports that the proper use of office space in existing state-owned office buildings in Harrisburg should permit the vacating of a considerable amount of rented area, thereby effecting a minimum saving to the Commonwealth of $500,000 a biennium in the cost of rented space.'

"The Committee also urged that consideration be given to construction or purchase by the State of office buildings in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh for the purpose of housing all Commonwealth operations in each area in one suitable location."

"The Survey Committee, headed by Francis J. Chesterman of Philadelphia, is conducting a sweeping study of governmental operations at the request of Governor John S. Fine."

"Although similar committees have been established by legislative action in a number of other states, Pennsylvania is one of the few states, if not the only one, in which such a study was ordered by the Governor on his own initiative."

"The Survey Committee's report on Building Management was based on a study made without cost to the Commonwealth by a joint committee representing the Building Owners' and Managers' association of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh."

"As of January 1, 1950, the latest date for which complete figures were available, the Committee reported, the State was leasing a total of 3,577,616 square feet of office space at a cost of $3,373,144 a year."

"The heaviest concentrations of leased space are in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Harrisburg," it was pointed out, 'although there is not a county in the State in which there are not quarters leased for some department.'

"The Committee's tabulation of leased space in each of the principal cities follows:

"Philadelphia—In July 1952 the State was leasing 146,232 square feet of office space in Philadelphia, exclusive of the Supreme and Superior Courts. The total annual rent was $332,803. The average cost per square foot was $2.27, but rates varied from a low of 95¢ to a high of $6.00 per square foot."

"Pittsburgh—In June of 1952 the State was leasing in Pittsburgh a total of 209,566 square feet of office space at a total cost of $476,544 per year. The average cost per square foot was $2.27."

"Harrisburg—In September 1952 the State was leasing in Harrisburg more than 427,484 square feet of office space at a total cost of $562,242 per year. The average cost per square foot was $1.18. These leased quarters were occupied by 14 different departments."

"The Committee pointed out that the study of space utilization, to be effective, 'should be conducted by someone with experience in the building management field, and must be supported by a determination to reallocate office space as required.'

"Such a study should explore each of the three main avenues for savings in this regard," the Committee pointed out.

"1. Better utilization of existing office space in the light of modern business practices."

"2. The release of large additional areas of 'valuable office space presently occupied by dead files."

"3. The limiting of mailing rooms one to a building and the placing of some reasonable limitation on the number of conference rooms."

"All leased office space should also be reviewed for economy and efficiency of operation as well as proper coordination of departmental work."

"There is ample evidence from the report of this and other task forces," the Committee declared, "that reallocation of space along such lines would not only lead to important savings, but would result in more efficient operation of the business of government."

"The Committee also recommended that the operation and maintenance of all state-owned buildings be centralized under one authority, pointing out that there are certain departments which do their own cleaning and maintenance with employes who are not under the Director of Buildings and Grounds of the Department of Property and Supplies."

"Licensing

"The State Government Survey Committee today urged that steps be taken to put the Commonwealth's complex licensing functions on a sounder basis both administratively and financially.

"The Survey Committee, which is making a study of the operation of the State Government for Governor John S. Fine, pointed out that legislative action to correct a number of 'inequities' in licensing would result in immediate savings of $560,000 a biennium, and that future savings in much greater amounts should be possible as other recommendations are put into effect.

"Involved in the Committee's plan for the reorganization of licensing functions are three basic recommendations:

"1. That the handling of licenses and renewals be concentrated insofar as possible in a centralized Bureau of Licensing to be created in the Department of State, where the work could be handled far more effectively and economically by standardizing it and adapting it to modern machine methods.

"Excluded under this plan would be licenses such as those for boilers and elevators, because of the technical details involved; dog, fishing and hunting licenses, because of the desirability of issuing them at the local level; and the licensing functions of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and the Liquor Control Board because of the large volume and present high degree of mechanization.

"2. The upward adjustment of existing fees, where necessary, to assure the Commonwealth a return sufficient to meet the cost of issuance and inspection—a step which the Committee estimated would save the State at least $400,000 a biennium.

"Considering only direct salary costs," it was pointed out, "it is apparent that the State is losing money on at least 14 of the types of licenses issued."

"3. The levying of fees, commensurate with the costs of administration, inspection or examination, for airports, insurance agents' and brokers' examinations, teachers' certificates and teachers' placement services.

"Approximately 20,000 certificates are issued to public school teachers annually at a minimum administrative cost of $60,000," the Committee observed. "There is no charge for these certificates.

"A placement service is also offered both teachers and school boards at no charge. Furthermore, during the fiscal year 1951-52 almost 14,000 names were listed for insurance agent and broker examination at no charge.

"If nominal fees were charged for such activities, the saving to the State should amount to $160,000 a biennium.

"Also, the members of several professional and occupations—among them dietitians and practicing psychologists and well drillers—do not require licenses in Pennsylvania although many other states do license them."

"The Committee based its licensing recommendations on a study made possible through the cooperation of Dr.

Rufus H. Fitzgerald, chancellor, and Dr. Charles B. Nutting, vice chancellor, of the University of Pittsburgh. Dr. William G. Willis directed the study. Staff assistance was provided by Dr. Albert B. Martin and Dr. Rosalind L. Branning.

"The effect of the recommendation for the establishment of a centralized Bureau of Licensing, the Committee explained, would be to undertake on a statewide scale what is already being done on a smaller scale in the Bureau of Professional Licensing in the Department of Public Instruction.

"In fact, the Committee suggested, the present Bureau of Professional Licensing might well be transferred to the Department of State to form the nucleus of the proposed new acticity.

"The Survey Committee found that twenty departments, boards and commissions are issuing a total of approximately 150 different kinds of licenses and permits for which fees are charged.

"There are many variations in the method of handling and mailing as well as in the form of the license or renewal and the quality of the paper," the Committee explained.

"The Bureau of Motor Vehicles, the Liquor Control Board, the Bureau of Professional Licensing, the Insurance Department and, in part the Department of Labor and Industry, are utilizing modern mechanical equipment—although many of the advantages of the card form of renewal used in the Bureau of Professional Licensing are lost by the insistence of certain boards on the inclusion of irrelevant questions.

"In all other departments licenses are prepared either on the typewriter or by hand. In one instance it was found that division chief not only addressed the envelopes for renewal applications by hand, but had his family help him with such work at home in the evening. In the same division an inspector had been called in from the field to assist in placing applications in envelopes."

"During the fiscal year 1951-52, the Committee reported, the Commonwealth issued more than 10,000,000 licenses and received nearly $95,000,000 in fees.

"The actual expense of issuing these licenses is difficult to compute since the State does not keep cost accounting records on licensing functions," it was explained. "However, from the figures that are available, it would appear that the cost to the State per license issued may vary all the way from 40 cents to 90 dollars—depending upon the complexity of the procedures and methods involved and the efficiency with which the work is performed.

"Nor does there appear to be any logical relationship between costs and fees charged.

"The Bureau of Professional Licensing in the Department of Public Instruction has original license fees ranging from $2 to $100. Renewal fees vary from $1 to $10.

"The State Athletic Commission issues licenses for boxers, wrestlers, promoters and other ring officials. The receipts from these licenses in the fiscal year 1951-52 were $18,335 while the total expenses of the Commission in the same year were $71,669.81.

"The Department of Welfare received $555 in the fiscal year 1951-52 for licensing infants' boarding homes, yet the salary expenses alone for this work were $10,000."

"To increase the efficiency and effectiveness of licensing operations under the proposed new centralized bureau, the Survey Committee suggested:

"1. That the professional and occupational licensing boards now attached to the Department of Public Instruction and Department of Health be abolished and be replaced by advisory boards attached to the Bureau of Licensing—each such board to have two lay members to represent the public interest and three members to represent the professional or vocational interest.

"2. That such boards serve as liaison between the Licensing Bureau and the various professional associations and make recommendations on such matters as qualifications, the content of examinations, and policies. A Division of Professional and Vocational Licensing should have full responsibility for the coordination, enactment and enforcement of the various boards' recommendations.

"3. That the setting of standards and the required inspections for other than professional and vocational licenses be done by the various departments having primary responsibility for the activities licensed. If the licenses have no direct connection with the other functions of the department in which they are now issued, all activities should be transferred to the Licensing Bureau.

"4. That the substantive part of examinations be recommended by departments or boards concerned, but the facilities of the present Civil Service Commission or recommended Personnel Board should be used for preparing, administering, and scoring examinations wherever possible.

"5. That procedures for revocation of licenses and refusals to renew be standardized and all licensees have the benefit of a hearing. Where there is no Advisory Board attached to the Bureau of Licensing, appeals from revocation of license or refusal to renew should be heard by the Advisory Board of the Department concerned or in the absence of any such board by the head of the Department."

"Mines

"The State Government Survey Committee today recommended that the Department of Mines—one of the State's smallest departments—be combined with the Department of Labor and Industry in the interest of both efficiency and economy

"It is believed that the Department of Mines as presently constituted is too small an administrative unit and too restricted in scope to warrant status as a separate department," the Committee observed.

"Combining it with the Department of Labor and Industry should not only result in a more efficient operation, but should lead to a saving of at least $100,000 a biennium in administrative costs."

"The Department of Mines has 123 employees. Its 1951-53 appropriation was $2,423,000.

"The Survey Committee, which is looking for opportunities to economize in the operation of the State Government at the request of Governor John S. Fine, was aided in its study of the Department of Mines by a Task Force consisting of Edward G. Fox, Philadelphia, Chairman; Maurice Coulter, Indiana; Carroll A. Gardner, Jeddo; R. T. Laing, Altoona; Ralph E. Moore, Cresson; E. A. Siemon, Pittsburgh; Harry A. Sutter, Pittsburgh; and Edgar C. Weichel, Scranton.

"The Committee reserved judgment on a Task Force suggestion that the State's mine-sealing program be abandoned—a proposal which would save about $1,000,000 a biennium.

"The Task Force states that mine-sealing has not been effective and that generally it cannot be made effective, and that in some instances mines are sealed but crevices on the surface allow water and air to enter," the Committee explained.

"However, the Department of Health estimates the mine-sealing program to be 90 percent effective in improving stream conditions. It is admitted that no attempt is made to seal every mine and that shallow cover mines cannot be effectively sealed.

"The Fish Commission cites two instances of excellent fishing streams—the Loyalsock and the Youghiogheny —that were being threatened by seepage from mines, and reports that mine-sealing has been effective in restoring both streams.

"Because of the technical nature of the subject and the length of time required for a full investigation of the contrary viewpoints, the Committee recommends that further study be made of the effectiveness of the mine-sealing program."

"In other recommendations the Survey Committee proposed:

"1. That examinations for mine inspectors be conducted by the present Civil Service Commission or the proposed new Personnel Board (creation of which has been suggested by the Committee), rather than by the Anthracite and Bituminous Boards, as is the practice now. (Appointees should continue to have the security of job tenure).

"2. That regulatory legislation for oil and gas well drilling be enacted by the legislature and the responsibility for enforcement placed with the proposed new Division of Mines. There is no regulation of oil and gas well drilling at the present time.

"3. That inspection of mines by state and federal authorities be conducted cooperatively, and that reports be coordinated and consolidated.

"At the present time," the Committee noted, "there is no coordination of federal and state inspections with a resultant waste of time, inconvenience and additional expense."

"4. That responsibilities in relation to strip mining be clarified by giving the Division of Mines jurisdiction over strip mining but stipulating that its supervision relating to back-filling, leveling and reforestation should be coordinated with the present policies of the Department of Forests and Waters or the proposed new Department of Conservation, which under an earlier Committee recommendation, would be created by merging the Department of Forests and Waters, the Fish Commission and the Game Commission."

"Internal Affairs

"Curtailement of the functions of the Department of Internal Affairs through the transfer of many of its activities to other departments—and the eventual abolition of the Department by constitutional amendment—was advocated today by the State Government Survey Committee.

"As presently constituted," the Committee, headed by Francis J. Chesterman of Philadelphia, pointed out, "the Department of Internal Affairs can be described only as an administrative 'fifth wheel' with a hodge-podge collection of unrelated responsibilities—an agency that has no counterpart in either the Federal Government or any other State Government."

"The Survey Committee, which is seeking means of achieving greater efficiency and economy in the operation of the State Government at the request of Governor John S. Fine, declared that the first step in its suggested reorganization—the transfer of certain functions to other departments—would save approximately $100,000 a biennium, and that final elimination of the Department would result in biennial savings of at least $100,000 more.

"We want to emphasize," Chairman Chesterman pointed out, "that the Committee's suggestion for the dissolution of the Department of Internal Affairs is in no sense a reflection upon the manner in which the Department's present duties are being performed.

"Our feeling is simply that a Department such as this —no matter how efficient its operation—has no place in modern government."

"Here is how the Committee sees the disadvantages of the Department of Internal Affairs from the administrative and functional points of view:

"1. It is the only administrative department headed by an elective official who, except for the matter of appropriation, is exempt from control of the Governor.

"2. It has no general purpose or area of responsibility of its own.

"3. Its primary activities are not only unrelated to each other, but in a number of cases, overlap or encroach upon the functions of other agencies.

"4. Its responsibility includes both regulatory and promotional functions, which usually demand two quite different approaches to administration.

"The five line functions of the Department, the Committee noted, are the making of topographic and geologic surveys, the gathering and publication of industrial and public utility statistics, the custody of basic land records, the promotion of sound municipal administration and harmonious state-local relations, and the enforcement of standard weights and measures.

"The Survey Committee's plan for reassignment of these activities follows:

"1. The Bureau of Municipal Affairs should be transferred to the Department of State, with the exception of the Division of City Planning and Landscape Architecture, whose work should be coordinated with the State Planning Board.

"2. The enforcement of standard weights and measures laws should be transferred to the Department of Labor and Industry.

"3. Local assessment and tax statistics should be transferred to the State Tax Equalization Board.

"4. Public Utility statistics should be transferred to the Public Utility Commission.

"5. Geologic and topographic surveys should be transferred to the present Department of Forests and Waters or the proposed new Department of Conservation.

"6. Industrial Statistics should be transferred to the Department of Labor and Industry. This final change would be dependent upon constitutional amendment, inasmuch as the constitution provides that the Department 'shall embrace a Bureau of Industrial Statistics.'

"The Survey Committee's report was based on a study made possible without cost to the Commonwealth through the cooperation of Dr. Rufus H. Fitzgerald, Chancellor, and Dr. Charles B. Nutting, Vice Chancellor, University of Pittsburgh. Dr. William G. Willis directed the study. Staff assistance was provided by Dr. Louis W. H. Johnston and Dr. William C. Seyler.

"Originally the Department of Internal Affairs seems to have been conceived primarily as one that would develop into a general supervisor of the State's policies in the field of economic affairs," the Survey Committee observed.

"However, through the years," as the public policies of the State in economic affairs became specific and expanded beyond a statistics-gathering and report-receiving purpose, new agencies were created to administer the new policies in specialized areas.

"As a result, the Department of Internal Affairs became and remains a collection of miscellaneous and unrelated functions."

"Property & Supplies—Purchasing

"The State Government Survey Committee declared

today that the Commonwealth could ultimately save as much as $20,000,000 a biennium by revamping its procurement procedure in line with modern business techniques.

"The Committee's estimate was based on conclusions reached by its 'procurement task force'—a group of nationally known purchasing officials headed by Bruce D. Henderson, General Manager of Purchases and Traffic, Westinghouse Electric Corporation, who made a study of State purchasing practices.

"We do not want to convey the impression that a very poor job of procurement is being done," Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, Survey Committee Chairman, pointed out. "For, as a matter of fact, Pennsylvania's procurement activities compare quite favorably with those of other states.

"Nor do we wish to suggest that a governmental agency, with its many rigid restrictions, can hope to attain the same degree of procurement efficiency attained by modern business. However, we do believe many improvements can be made and that the estimate of an eventual $20,000,000 saving is a reasonable and attainable figure."

"The Survey Committee, asked by Governor John S. Fine to recommend means of achieving greater efficiency in the conduct of State affairs, submitted eleven specific recommendations in the interest of improving all phases of State procurement and getting the greatest value for each dollar spent."

"The recommendations are:

"1. Responsibility for the direction and control of all procurement functions should be centralized in a Secretary of Supply in the present Department of Property and Supplies or a proposed new Management Administration.

"2. The Secretary of Supply should have direct supervision of procurement by all administrative agencies and some form of control over independent State agencies including the various Authorities for the reason that the expenditures of the Authorities will ultimately be paid for out of taxes even though they are not directly financed by State appropriations."

"3. An Advisory and Review Committee should be appointed to advise the Secretary of Supply on procurement policies and practices and to hear complaints from suppliers.

"4. The Bureau of Standards in the Department of Property and Supplies should be expanded and its responsibilities increased to give it the authority to make decisions based upon professional knowledge and judgment rather than upon stereotyped rules.

"Standards and specifications should be brought up to date, and greater use should be made of existing industrial and commercial specifications. Architectural, engineering and other contract specifications should be reviewed carefully for possible savings.

"5. To save time and paper work, the limit for purchases permitted on a Buyer's responsibility should be increased from $100 to $500. On field orders by institutions the limit should be raised from $10 to $25 without bids, and from $50 to $100 with two bids.

"6. Institutions should be kept posted on food prices and should be permitted to purchase perishable foods at market price or lower without going through any bid process.

"7. Procedures for competitive bids should be improved to accelerate receipt of material. Requirements for competitive bids should be relaxed in an emergency or where the amount of money involved is inconsequential. Names of inactive and undesirable bidders should be removed from vendors' lists.

"8. Commodity records should be maintained for all items purchased as the basis for estimating requirements on future bids.

"9. The Administrative Code should be amended to permit the use, with proper safeguards, of an 'escalator clause' in contracts.

"10. Every effort should be made to expedite the delivery of material to the requisitioning agency and to pay all bills in time to take advantage of discounts.

"1. All functions currently performed by the Department of Property and Supplies that have no connection with procurement—such as janitor service and maintenance—should be transferred to more logical agencies.

"The present Bureau of Standards,' the Committee declared, 'is totally inadequate in its operating functions.'

"This one Bureau, currently staffed with 17 employees,' the Committee added, 'has the responsibility for preparation of specifications (other than architectural, engineering and construction specifications) for everything procured by the State except perishables.

"Many specifications are incomplete and out of date. Existing specifications on paint were prepared 30 years ago, and one agency requesting a recent type of paint had to secure special permission to buy it.

"Specifications are not always written to existing commercial standards of quality, although commercial standards would serve as well or better and reduce costs and avoid delivery delays.

"One specification for soap does not conform to any existing commercial specification. When this soap is requisitioned it has to be made especially for the States.'

"On the subject of competitive bids, the Committee pointed out that 'many vendors find State business undesirable because of restrictive specifications, uncertain quantities and delays in payment.'

"It requires about 54 days to process a routine purchase requisition,' it was explained, 'and correspondingly longer for the more complicated ones. The task force reports that because of the routine involved it is not uncommon for it to take from six months to a year to secure material after the requisition is initiated.'

"On the need for the revision of the Administrative Code to permit an 'escalator clause' in construction contracts, the Committee commented:

"By insisting on a firm and inflexible price on every contract, the State is paying whatever contingency the contractor deems necessary to protect himself against possible increases in labor and material costs during the life of the contract. Furthermore, no concession can be obtained from the contractor should such costs decline.'

"Serving with Mr. Henderson on the procurement task force were Ralph C. Moffitt, Director of Purchases, United States Steel Company; Cedric W. Lutz, Director of Purchases, Gulf Oil Corporation; P. J. Clarke, Director of Purchases, Rohm & Haas Company; and M. L. Lampe, General Purchasing Agent, Armstrong Cork Company.

"Field work was done by a team consisting of Chester M. Baringer, Assistant Director of Purchases, United States Steel Company, chairman; Earl J. Schill, Staff Assistant, Westinghouse Electric Corporation; Fred A. Bealafeld, Purchasing Department, Gulf Oil Corporation; and Wilbur C. Wilson, Purchasing Agent, Aviation Gas Turbine Division, Westinghouse Electric Corporation."

"Release No. 18

"Agriculture—Milk Control

"The State Government Survey Committee today recommended the abolition of the Milk Control Commission and the transfer of its duties to the Department of Agriculture at a saving of approximately $75,000 a biennium in administrative expense.

"The Milk Control Commission operates as a separate administrative agency headed by a three-member commission,' the Committee pointed out. Its functions as outlined in the Milk Control law are the supervision, investigation and regulation of the entire milk industry, but in practice its activities are limited to price-fixing and regulation.

"If the Commission were abolished and its duties transferred to a bureau in the Department of Agriculture it is estimated that the savings would amount to at least $75,000 in a biennium.'

"The Survey Committee, which is seeking means of achieving greater efficiency in the operation of the State Government at the request of Governor John S. Fine, also suggested the transfer to the Department of Agriculture of the Bureau of Milk Sanitation, now a part of the Department of Health.

"There would be no significant financial saving to the State in the latter change for the reason that 85 percent of the expenses of the Bureau of Milk Sanitation are paid by the Federal Government,' the Committee explained. 'However, it would eliminate much duplication and overlapping of authority and resultant annoyance to the farmer.'

"The effect of the two moves would be to give the Department of Agriculture the entire responsibility for pure food law regulation and enforcement.

"At present the Health Department's Milk Sanitation Bureau tests the bacteria count in milk and investigates the sanitary conditions in milk plants, while the Department of Agriculture is given the responsibility for defining the butterfat content of milk and is charged with the regulation of related products sold by dairies, such as cheese, butter, ice cream and soft drinks.

"The only other recommendation offered by the Survey Committee in a report encompassing the activities of both the Department of Agriculture and the Milk Control Commission, was a proposal that the law governing the distribution of funds for agricultural exhibits be strengthened to make certain that only bona fide agricultural fairs receive State aid.

"Under existing law,' the Committee explained, 'it is possible for even a carnival to qualify for a share of these funds merely by including a minor agriculture exhibit in the show.'

"The Survey Committee reported it found the Department of Agriculture to be 'an example of good management—operating efficiently and economically and providing excellent service to the public activities and interests it is serving.

"That the Department is conservative in the use of public funds,' the Committee added, 'is demonstrated by the fact that in many cases, where special funds were appropriated to the Department by the Legislature for specific projects, the Department spent only what was justified under the circumstances and turned back the unexpended portion.'

"The total appropriation for the Department of Agriculture in the 1951-53 biennium was $6,571,000 including $4,316,000 for salaries and expenses, egg laying contest, State Farm Show Commission and Soil Conservation Board; $2,000,000 for animal indemnities; $100,000 for encouraging agricultural exhibits, and $155,000 for research.

"The total 1951-53 appropriation to the Milk Control Commission was $504,750.

"Actually, there are many times more employees on U. S. Department of Agriculture payrolls in Pennsylvania than are employed by the State Department of Agriculture,' the Committee revealed.

"Federal employees work in the Crop Reporting Division of the Department on a cooperative basis. The Federal Government supplies technical personnel supplementing State personnel working on the control of Bangs disease and tuberculosis in cattle.

"In the soil conservation program the Federal Government supplies technical personnel to assist the local districts in their projects, while the State Board of Soil Conservation approves the projects and coordinates the work on a statewide basis.'

"The great majority of federal employees work on crop control and payments, and on farm home loans, the Committee added. There is no state participation in either of these activities.

"Although the efforts of the States and Federal departments have been satisfactorily coordinated in most instances, the Committee observed, 'duplication and overlapping of services and functions do exist between the Federal Government and the state extension services and experimental stations.'

"The survey on which the Committee based its study of the Department of Agriculture and the Milk Control Commission was made by a volunteer task force consisting of R. N. Benjamin, chairman; E. Lowery Humes, G. A. Boger, Ralph L. Culver, M. Dice Statler and L. A. Thomas, Jr., secretary."

FOR RELEASE

A. M., Wednesday, February 4, 1953

"Release No. 19

"Health—Welfare—Public Assistance

"The State Government Survey Committee today pointed the way to the saving of an estimated $13,000,000 a biennium in the mounting cost of Pennsylvania's health, welfare and public assistance programs. Approximately $10,000,000 of this saving would be realized by the transfer of the 10 general medical and surgical hospitals from state to local control and financial responsibility.

"At the same time the Committee emphasized that certain of its recommendations for which dollar-savings could not be estimated—notably those dealing with preventive and correctional measures and the establishment of a penal classification center—should eventually result in economies amounting to many millions more.

"The key to the whole problem of reducing health and welfare costs, the Committee declared, is the development of 'an integrated and coordinated system of health and welfare service that will meet the conditions of the Commonwealth as they exist today and not as they were several decades ago.'

"To this end the Committee urged the consolidation of the three departments primarily concerned with such services—Health, Welfare and Public Assistance—into a single Health and Welfare Administration under a capable administrator to take advantage of the opportunities for more efficient management and to eliminate widespread overlapping of functions.

"Such a consolidation would save at least $1,000,000 a biennium in administrative costs alone, the Committee predicted.

"Other recommendations for which dollar savings were estimated:

"1. The transfer to local financial responsibility and local management of 10 general medical and surgical hospitals now owned and operated by the State, at an estimated saving of $10,045,000 a biennium.

"2. The closing of 'the outmoded and obsolete' Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Erie and the transfer of guests to other veterans' facilities, at an estimated savings of $425,000 a biennium.

"3. The adoption of some reasonable and consistent standards for the collection of fees from those able to pay for treatment at state-owned hospitals. Estimated savings if collections at institutions with poor collections records were brought up only to the present average: $1,560,000 a biennium.

"As evidence of the urgent need for the best possible management of operations in the health and welfare field, the Survey Committee pointed out that the 1951-53 appropriations for such services amounted to $292,243,440 or 32.81 percent of the biennial budget.

"Of that amount, $9,720,500 or 3.3 percent, represents the administrative costs of the three departments; $122,- 331,000, or 42 percent, is the cost of operating state-owned institutions; and the balance, $160,191,940, or 54.6 percent, is for direct grants to state-aided institutions and needy individuals and for other health and welfare programs.

"The 1951-53 appropriations, by departments, were: Health, $27,343,000; Welfare, $131,385,940; Public Assistance, $133,514,500.

"At the present time,' the Committee pointed out, 'each department is headed by a secretary responsible directly to the Governor. Each department operates its own program in virtually complete independence of the others, even though their services are clearly related and their functions often overlap.

"We realize that the proposed creation of a single administrative unit to encompass all State health and welfare functions involves a reversal of past trends in the development of the State administrative structure. Nevertheless, we believe that this would be the most effective method of establishing an organization that meets modern standards of good public administration.'

"As an example of overlapping services, the Committee cited an appropriation of $1,300,000 in the 1951-53 biennium to the State Veterans' Commission in the Department of Military Affairs, 88 percent of which is for public assistance grants to the families of needy veterans.

"The separate appropriation to the State Veterans' Commission for assistance grants should be discontinued,' the Committee asserted, 'because the program is one that duplicates the responsibility of the present Department of Public Assistance, which should administer all assistance programs and pay all grants.'

"Again, the Committee observed, the Departments of Health, Public Assistance and Public Instruction all are involved in different phases of school health; and in certain counties, visitors from two departments sometimes call on the same families.

"In other recommendations bearing upon the consolidation of the three departments, the Committee proposed:

"1. In all cases the superintendents of state-owned and operated institutions should be responsible to the Department head and should have the benefit of advice from Citizen Advisory Boards.

"2. That a competent group of laymen be appointed to conduct a thorough study to determine the extent to which the functions now performed by the Local Health Unit, the County Board of Assistance and the County Institution District should be combined. In this connection the Committee noted that Pennsylvania is one of six states in the nation with no requirement for local contribution to any assistance program.

"The 10 general medical and surgical hospitals which the Committee recommended turning back to local management and local financial responsibility were originally acquired by the State to provide hospital care in mining communities, but in 1939 were declared general hospitals without priority for injured miners.

"There is no local participation in defraying the expenses of these hospitals,' the Committee pointed out. 'Consequently, these 10 communities are receiving special privileges at State expense not enjoyed by the balance of the State.

"The recommended transfer should be gradual over a period of time, but it should be completed by a definite date to be determined by the Legislature.'

"The Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Erie which the Committee recommended closing 'consists of outmoded and obsolete buildings which should be disposed of,' it was explained.

"Practically all of the guests at this home come under the jurisdiction of the Federal Veterans Administration and should be afforded the services available to other veterans.'

"The Committee reserved judgment on the status of two institutions in a related field—the Scotland School for Veterans' Children and the Thaddeus Stevens Industrial School at Lancaster, which provide education for soldiers' orphans and other dependent children.

"Present thinking is that foster home care is much better for the child from every standpoint than institutional care,' the Committee commented, 'but sufficient good foster homes are difficult to obtain.'

"The Thaddeus Stevens School, in addition to providing resident institutional facilities, is furnishing training at the expense of the State similar to that performed in many localities under the local public education system at local expense.

"The question is: should such a program continue and be expanded to other locations throughout the State or should it become a local responsibility?"

"On the subject of collections at State hospitals, the Committee pointed out that the percentage of collections in the 1949-51 biennium varied, for medical and surgical hospitals, from a low of 30.87 percent at Shamokin to a high of 78.19 at Connellsville; and for mental hospitals, from a low of 5.83 percent at Philadelphia to a high of 23.03 at Norristown.

"At the present time,' the Committee explained, 'the hospital superintendent has no responsibility for collections. A Revenue Agent is appointed in each institution. In large institutions the agent is an employee of the Department of Revenue; in smaller ones an employee of the hospital accounting office is usually designated.

"If, under improved procedures, all collections were brought up only to the average, the indicated saving to the State would be $300,000 a biennium for medical and surgical hospitals, and $1,260,000 a biennium for mental hospitals.'

"In its remaining recommendations the Survey Committee proposed:

"1. That appropriations to private institutions and homes, other than hospitals, be carefully screened to determine the quality of service rendered and its need in the over-all welfare program of the State.

"Specific appropriations are made to 58 institutions with payments being channeled through the Department of Welfare,' the Committee explained, 'although the Department does not screen the requests and has no authority to supervise the expenditure of the funds appropriated.

"Some of the institutions receiving these appropriations are the Home for Veterans of GAR and Wives, $17,000; Ladies GAR Home, $28,000; Northern Home for Friendless Children, Philadelphia, $25,000.'

"2. That a special commission be appointed by the Governor to study grants made to state-aided hospitals and recommend the best method of calculating such grants.

"A total of 182 hospitals receive $6.50 for each day of free service rendered. Hospitals having nurses' training schools also receive $150 annually for each student nurse being trained. The Department of Welfare sets minimum standards of service and may withhold payment of subsidies if these standards are not met.

"3. That a long-range program of research and planning should be instituted in the prevention of early detection of mental illness, crime, dependency and other social ills 'to halt the rising incidence of these cases with its attendant staggering costs of care and construction of new facilities.'

"One of the most obvious deficiencies in the present system,' the Committee declared, 'is the absence of organized effort or long-range planning in the field of prevention.

"Approximately $70,000,000 is appropriated annually for treatment of the mentally ill, but practically nothing for the development of preventive measures. More and more mental hospital facilities will be required in the future unless effective measures are developed for the early detection and treatment of emotional disturbances.

"Similarly, the Public Assistance program is concerned primarily with meeting human needs at minimum costs. There is no adequate program for returning relief recipients to an independent status and no definition of responsibility for this important phase of any social work.'

"4. That a classification center of prisoners be established immediately and the entire penal system adjusted to implement a program stressing correction and rehabilitation.

"In the penal and correctional field,' the Committee asserted, 'not only is there no coordinated program for crime prevention, but the State lacks one element considered essential in a modern correctional system—a classification center for segregating various types of prisoners into homogeneous groups.

"Such segregation has everything to recommend it and nothing to condemn it. It prevents the contamination of the general prison population by hardened criminals and sex offenders; it accommodates training according to needs of each group; it facilitates the provision of maximum security measures for those requiring it, promotes more efficient prison labor and more than justifies itself on the grounds of economy.

"The immediate establishment of such a Classification Center was urged in the Ashe Committee report on the State correctional system in 1948 and its recommendation is confirmed by the best penological thinking of today.'

"The Committee's survey of governmental operations is being made at the request of Governor John S. Fine. Research for its study of health and welfare services was done by the Pennsylvania Citizens Association for Health and Welfare, Charles H. Frazier, President, and Thomas B. Harvey, Vice President. Staff functions were directed by A. David Bouterse, Executive Director of the PCA."

"Commerce

"The State Government Survey Committee proposed today that the Department of Commerce be abolished as a separate, independent agency and that its various promotional activities be suspended pending a reappraisal of their effectiveness.

"The various changes suggested by the Committee—including a reassignment of the duties of the State Planning Board and the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission—would probably save the Commonwealth as much as $1,-180,000 a biennium, Chairman Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, declared.

"Indicating that it has serious doubts about the usefulness of the department's three principal promotional programs—tourist and recreational promotion, industrial development and Pennsylvania Week—the Committee observed:

"It is our conviction that no department of state government should continue to exist and be supported by public money for the primary purpose of promotion unless it can be definitely established by documentary evidence that it is effective in improving the economic condition of the Commonwealth.'

"The Survey Committee, which is seeking means of achieving greater efficiency in the conduct of state affairs at the request of Governor John S. Fine, suggested 'that a careful, factual study be made of all promotional programs at the State level and that no phase of such activity be continued unless the evidence justifies it.'

"On the subject of the Commerce Department's tourist and recreational program, the Committee had this to say:

"Expenditures for this program are approximately $378,000 a biennium, consisting primarily of newspaper and magazine advertising and the preparation of elaborate brochures. The bureau has very little data to show the effectiveness of its program in attracting tourist business to Pennsylvania and thereby improving the economic status of the State as a whole.'

"On the subject of industrial development:

"Expenditures for this program are approximately $360,000 a biennium. Heavy emphasis is placed on bringing new plants or industries into the State with little attention being given to the necessity for strengthening the competitive position of already established industries. A field force operating on this program does not appear to be productive.

"Considerable expenditures are made for magazine advertising. Criticism of both the media and content of this advertising is widespread. It does not appear that any industry would be influenced in its choice of location by these advertisements. Promotional activities of the transportation and power companies are judged to be much more effective.

"As in the case of tourist and recreational program, there is little attempt at evaluation of the industrial development program and little specific evidence to show what effect it has had in increasing industries in the State and thereby improving economic conditions in the Commonwealth."

"On Pennsylvania Week:

"Promotion of this program cost the State approximately $154,000 in the 1951-53 biennium. A large part of the expenditure is for advertising. Questions regarding the desirability of continuing this program have been raised every year since its origin, but it has always been renewed in the hope that some good results were being achieved."

"In recommendations regarding other functions and activities of the Department, the Committee proposed that:

"1. The State Planning Board should be abolished as a departmental administrative board and be reconstituted as an advisory board to the State Planning Department in the proposed Works Administration. It should be interested primarily in the long-range planning and coordination of public construction projects.

"2. The Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission should be abolished. Its functions should be performed by a bureau in the proposed Works Administration, with greater emphasis placed on airport construction and improvement.

"3. The functions of the Commission with respect to airport inspection, regulation and licensing should be transferred to the proposed Department of Licensing. Any services which are duplicated by the federal government should be discontinued at the state level.

"4. Immediate steps should be taken to effect the transfer of the Harrisburg Airport to municipal or combined municipal-county ownership under the Municipality Authority Acts.

"5. There should be further study of the necessity for and advisability of maintaining a newspaper clipping service.

"The weakness of the State Planning Board as it is presently constituted," the Committee noted, "is that it has not been accorded its rightful place in the over-all planning of state projects."

"The primary concern of the Planning Board has been the stimulation of interest and activity in the fields of local and regional planning," it was added "and its efforts in that direction have been successful. However, the board is not regularly consulted by the various departments in preparing their recommendations for building programs, nor by the Authorities in allocating funds for projects."

"Operation by the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission of the Harrisburg State Airport at New Cumberland, the Committee observed, 'does not appear to be a proper function of a regulatory body, nor does it appear to be an activity that should be carried on by the State.'

"The airplanes owned by the State are hangared at this airport," it was added, "and it is also the headquarters base for the Air National Guard, but these two activities constitute only a small portion of the total traffic.

"Exact figures on receipts and expenditures for this airport were not available, but a representative of the Commission stated that the receipts do not quite meet all expenditures, primarily because expansion or improvement of facilities is always going on."

"The operation of a newspaper and magazine clipping service, the Committee noted, was transferred to the Department of Commerce upon its inception in 1939.

"Clerical help for this service is supposed to be provided by the various departments," it was explained, "but in recent years there has been reluctance on the part of other departments to contribute employees for this purpose. As a result, it is costing the Department of Commerce approximately $14,000 a biennium."

"The Committee's study of the Department of Commerce was based on a survey made possible through the cooperation of Dr. Rufus H. Fitzgerald, Chancellor, and Dr. Charles B. Nutting, Vice Chancellor, University of Pittsburgh. Dr. William G. Willis directed the study. Staff assistance was provided by Dr. Bela Gold and Dr. J. P. Watson."

SENATE RESOLUTION

IN MEMORIAM GEORGE W. KUNKLE

Mr. WADE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 10, 1953.

George W. Kunkle, Chairman of the Cumberland County Republican Committee since May, 1948, passed away Monday evening February 2, 1953. He was sixty-three years old.

Mr. Kunkle became interested in Cumberland County politics in the early 1930's. He was elected prothonotary in 1934 and served two terms. In 1942, he was appointed deputy sheriff, serving two years until 1944, when he was elected register of wills, a post he held until 1948. During this period he also served as treasurer of the county committee.

For a number of years, he was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Industrial School at White Hill, a position he held until his death. He served as a delegate to the Republican National Convention in Chicago last June.

Mr. Kunkle was also active in civic and fraternal affairs, being a member of St. John's Lodge No. 260, F. and A. M. 260; St. John's Royal Arch Chapter No. 171; St. John's Commandery No. 8, Knights Templar, Carlisle Shrine Club, Boiling Springs Lions Club; Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 1299, the Red Men, Harrisburg Republican Club and the Carlisle Fish and Game Association. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, Boiling Springs, and its Men's Bible Class.

In the death of George W. Kunkle, the Republican party and Cumberland County lose a staunch adherent and a warm personality that will be missed by his many friends.

Resolved, By the Senate, That we hereby pay tribute to the career of George W. Kunkle, and extend to his widow and son our heartfelt and deepest sympathy in their loss; and be it further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to his widow, Mrs. Mary Carr Kunkle, and his son, Robert C. Kunkle, Boiling Springs, Pennsylvania.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO ENACT CERTAIN LEGISLATION RELATIVE TO GASOLINE TAXES

Mr. SNOWDEN offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 10, 1953.

Whereas, An excise tax on gasoline, which form of taxation is the rightful prerogative of the several states, is presently being levied by both the United States of America and the several states, and

Whereas, From time to time the United States has changed its rate of taxation on this commodity which action makes it increasingly difficult for the respective states to develop a comprehensive tax program to provide revenue for the improvement and maintenance of their highways, therefore, be it

Resolved, If the House of Representatives concurs, that the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of United States to enact such legislation as will:

(1) Return to each state without restriction all Federal taxes on gasoline collected therein until such time as the individual state is able to enact legislation as may be necessary to permit it to collect such tax;

(2) Eliminate the tax on gasoline now collected by the United States as soon as the individual states have enacted legislation as may be necessary to permit the state to collect the tax;

(3) Eliminate Federal Aid for Highways except in those states where the revenues produced by a tax of two cents per gallon of gasoline is less than present Federal Aid Allocations to such states;

(4) Change the present functions of the Federal Bureau of Public Roads so that it would become a consultive and advisory engineering agency which would collect, correlate and disseminate information relative to the design, construction, maintenance and operation of highways and bridges and the materials used therefor, and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be directed to forward copies of this resolution upon its passage to the President of the United States, the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Chief Clerk of United States House of Representatives, to all members of the Pennsylvania Congressional Delegation, to the Governors of all other states, and to the presiding officers of the legislative bodies of all other states.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I am about to present a resolution, with the co-sponsorship of my colleague from Lehigh Senator Freed, for such action as this Senate may deem appropriate.

SENATE RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES MADE IN COMPLAINT OF THE MOTOR TRUCK OPERATORS IN PUBLIC HEARINGS

Messrs. YOSKO and FREED offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Highways:

In the Senate, February 10, 1953.

Whereas, on January 17, 1953 the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, and other plaintiffs, all motor truck operators, began a suit in which the Eastern Railroad Presidents Conference and a number of railroads are defendants; and

Whereas, In their complaint the plaintiffs alleged "16. The defendant Byoir was given carte blanche by the defendant Conference and its members, on behalf of the defendant railroads, to carry out their illegal conspiracy to monopolize freight transportation, and defendant Byoir immediately instigated a vicious, corrupt, and fraudulent campaign against the plaintiffs and others similarly situated, with the complete knowledge, consent and approval of each and every other of the other defendants, designed to impede their operations in every way possible, and ultimately to deprive them of any freight business. The means of this campaign, which will hereinafter be alleged in more detail, include the following:

(a) Bribery of public officials; ..... " and Whereas, the plaintiffs further alleged in their complaint that defendants disseminated false and malicious reports or propaganda including the charge "that plaintiffs are dishonest in their business methods, being 'five per centers,' who use bribery and corruption of public officials to gain their ends;" and

Whereas, these charges cast reflections upon the integrity of all public officers and must create serious doubts and grave apprehension among the people concerning the good conduct of their government; and

Whereas, the seriousness of such charges demand immediate action in interest of the citizens of the Commonwealth to discover such unlawful conduct, if true, or to protect the good name of public officers, if false; therefore be it

Resolved, that a committee of ten members be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, five of whom shall be members of the majority party and five to be members of the minority party and the said committee be and are hereby authorized and directed to make an immediate investigation of all of the said charges made in the complaint of the motor truck operators in public hearings, and that the committee shall make its report to the Senate at the earliest possible moment before the adjournment of this session of the General Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records, or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOLFE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 136, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred sixty-eight (P. L. 73), entitled "An act to authorize the recorder of deeds in the several counties of this Commonwealth to record the discharges of all honorably discharged officers and soldiers," by specifying in more detail the authority of recorders of deeds in certain instances.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 8, on second reading, entitled:

An Act authorizing contact representatives of Veterans Administration hospitals to take affidavits and acknowledgments of persons undergoing treatment therein and providing for the effect thereof go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, at the request of various interested parties, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 12, Printer's No. 3, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. I object, Mr. President, and may I explain to the gentleman from Westmoreland why I am objecting at this time?

Now, Mr. President, when this bill appeared on the Calendar, there had been an assumption on the part of the people who are interested, and an assumption on the part of the Judiciary Committee, that all of the controversial problems had been eliminated from the bill. Yesterday, before yesterday's Session, the gentlemen of the Senate were advised by Mr. Teemer, representing a group of surety companies—Mr. Teemer, Senator Holland, is a lobbyist—that a controversy had arisen among the surety companies as to whether or not a certain section of the bill did or did not do certain things legally. They, therefore, requested that we take no action on the bill.

Mr. President, I submitted this problem to the Editorial Board of the American Law Institute and of the American Bar Association, who have been instrumental in preparing this particular code. The Chairman of that Committee is a former Attorney General of the Commonwealth, a very distinguished lawyer, Mr. William A. Schnader, of the Philadelphia Bar. Mr. Schnader has discussed the matter since yesterday morning with Mr. Cross, who represents the United States Fidelity and Guaranty and also represents a number of the surety companies involved. Their committee has had a series of discussions with the Editorial Board which as I said, was instrumental in preparing this.

Mr. President, they have come to this agreement among themselves: That this coming Saturday, the Editorial Board, and a group of lawyers and representatives of these surety companies, are meeting and submitting briefs and discussing whether or not the interpretation placed upon this particular section of the statute involved is interpreted as the Editorial Board interprets it, or whether Mr. Cross and his group are correct in their legal approach to the problem involved.

Mr. President, predicated upon a decision coming from them, they have decided that they will do one of two things. If an amendment is necessary, they will request the House to include the amendment, or, secondly, it may be cheaper and more feasible to do it by a separate amendment.

Mr. President, Mr. Schnader assured the gentlemen who are representing the surety companies that there would be no attempt to put this bill through the House without giving them an opportunity. I asked Mr. Schnader if they had come to an agreement so that we could go ahead with the bill in the Senate, and he said "Yes", that we could. Later in the morning, Mr. President, I discussed the matter with Mr. Teemer, here on the floor of the Senate, who, unfortunately, because of our Rules cannot take the floor and speak for himself, and he assured me that it would be perfectly all right to put the bill up. Mr. Teemer is in the Hall of the Senate, but outside the rail of the sacred confines of this legislative body.

Mr. President, if the gentleman from Westmoreland will yield and if we can have what is called a temporary recess, or be at ease, I will confer with Mr. Teemer to see whether there has been a shift in the signals in the legal lights involved. It is my firm understanding that we can proceed with the bill in the Senate in order to give them a chance to work this out. In other words, Senator Dent, they are moving in a higher echelon than the gentleman from Westmoreland.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have not been advised by the lobbyist representing the various parties in interest, but I am glad to know that Mr. Schnader is allowing the Senate to act on this bill and is going to let the House consider the bill when they are ready. I am very glad, too, to know that if Mr. Teemer says that the bill can be passed, why, it can be passed. I do not care a hoot what Mr. Teemer says, or Mr. Schnader. I am only representing the people. I wonder, too, if this conference on Saturday might invite some of the people.

Mr. President, this bill is three hundred and sixty some pages. It appears on the Calendar and, very frankly, my Executive Assistant and myself spent some very valuable hours last night, when we might have been doing other things during those hours, looking at this. We found there are some features in it that do not quite make what we think is proper sense, and we do not have an understanding of the bill. I do not have an understanding of the bill, and I do not care what Mr. Teemer, or Mr. Schnader or anybody else says for or against the bill. At this instant, I am only interested in what the bill does and I, frankly, cannot vote intelligently on it at this moment. I believe that we ought to let it go over in order, because it is more important than the three bills that were moved over without any suggestion of rush or haste. By the time we get back here on Monday, if we have any amendments we can put them in at that time.

Mr. President, I have heard the gentleman from Allegheny, many times on the floor, say that it is the Senate's duty to do what the Senate thinks is right and not to pass over to the House the obligations of the Senate or the desires of the Senate. If this bill is to be amended, it certainly should not be amended by Mr. Schnader or Mr. Teemer. It ought to be amended by Legislators and Senators. I admit, Mr. President, that I respect the judgment of these learned men, and I will be glad to discuss any problems they have in any legislation that might come before us. However, I think it is a terrible admission to make on the floor of the Senate, Senator Walker, that Mr. Schnader has kindly consented to let the Senate act on the bill when he is ready. I think it is a terrible thing to say.

Mr. President, I know that the lobbyists have a great deal of interest in legislation and properly so. They represent industry in the Commonwealth; they represent civic groups in the Commonwealth; they represent the Commonwealth itself; and it is proper for them to advise the Senate Members as to what a bill does, but they certainly should not tell us when a bill is or is not to move.

Therefore, I will be glad to have a side-bar conference with you, Senator Walker, but I must say that I am prejudiced in my decision. Therefore, Mr. President, I am going to insist on the bill going over or taking a vote on it, either one.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the gentleman from Westmoreland knows, or should know, and his Executive or Administrative Assistant knows, that this bill has been before the American Law Institute for over five years; that there has been a lot of very patient effort, by people who are very learned in the subjects involved, as to the various component parts of the present codes that are incorporated in this Uniform Commercial Code.

Mr. President, the gentleman from Westmoreland should know, and probably does know, that the American Law Institute, the American Bar Association, the banking groups, the surety groups, the shipping groups and all of the various industries and professions involved, have been correlated in trying to perfect the finest Commercial Code that it is possible to submit.

Mr. Schnader, whom I referred to previously on the floor, is Chairman of the Committee of the American Law Institute, he is Chairman of the Committee of the American Bar Association, he is Chairman of the Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, which are charged with the responsibility of drafting this act. The reference to Mr. Schnader was not in the form of lobbying. The reference to Mr. Schnader was because of his position as Chairman of the Committee, and because of his intricate, detailed knowledge of all of the phraseology in the various sections involved.

Now, Mr. President, yesterday, when we discussed this bill on the floor of the Senate, there was only one section that was in controversy and that was raised by the surety companies, as I have already explained. This matter was submitted to the Joint State Government Commission during the 1951 Session of the General Assembly. A committee was appointed by the Joint State Government Commission, and various Members of the House and Senate served on that committee. The bill was approved by the committee, and I would like to refer to some of the gentlemen who were on that committee who represent both sides.

Now, I will admit, Mr. President, that the Minority Floor Leader was not on that committee, and for that reason I appreciate the fact that he did not have the benefit of the discussion that went on at that time. Serving on that committee at that time, from the Minority side, was Senator Rosenfeld who is no longer with us and, therefore, is not in a position at this point to advise the Senate, from a seat on the Floor, as to his reaction to the bill. The Minority Floor Leader in the House attended all of the committee meetings, and has repeatedly approved the bill. Also on the committee were Albert Readinger and Ted Schmidt, both Members of the House and both Members of the Minority Party.

Mr. President, I want to say to the gentleman from Westmoreland that there is no attempt to ram any bill down anybody's throat, except that when you have a Uniform Code, as every lawyer in the Senate knows, the success of a Uniform Code is to keep it uniform. That is why we stressed our earnest desire not to have any amendments to this bill because it spoils the uniformity of the code.

Mr. President, I want to say further to the gentleman from Westmoreland that I know the bill is long, and I know it is involved, because it involves most of the technical phases of commercial law that come before any lawyer who is actively engaged in practice. I want to say very frankly to the gentleman from Westmoreland that even if he hired a staff of lawyers, it would take weeks if he proposed to make a careful, detailed study of the matters involved in this code.

This is not the first time that a code has been presented to the General Assembly, and may I say, Mr. President, that usually when a code is presented a number of the Members of the Senate have been prone to take the recommendations of the committee involved, and the recommendations of the various experts who are directly involved, in the reaction to the code proposed as being the thing to do for the greatest good of the largest number of citizens in the Commonwealth. I want to assure the gentleman from Westmoreland that this code has been very carefully analyzed by every possible industry or profession involved, and that no harm can come to the citizens of Pennsylvania by restating the various codes that are involved in this present Uniform Commercial Code.

I also want to assure the gentleman from Westmoreland that, and it is my very sincere opinion, this will improve the law in Pennsylvania, not only for the lawyers, which, of course, is always the first accusation that is made, but for the industries, the professions and the people that are obliged to deal with it.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, maybe I can straighten this up a bit. There have been several gentlemen referred to as being ready to have this bill go through, but there is one gentleman that I must be guided by before I can go along with moving this bill up. That gentleman is the Chairman of the Republican Caucus, Senator Berger.

It seems that yesterday, Mr. President, we took action in the Republican Caucus that the bill would go over until such time as we agreed otherwise.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I now ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 12, on second reading, entitled:

An Act relating to certain commercial transactions in or regarding personal property and contracts and other documents concerning them, including sales, commercial paper, bank deposits and collections, documentary letters of credit, bulk transfers, warehouse receipts, bills of lading, other documents of title, investment securities, and secured transactions, including certain sales of accounts, chattel paper, and contract rights; providing for public notice to third parties in certain circumstances; regulating procedure, evidence and damages in certain court actions involving such transactions, contracts or documents and to make uniform the law with respect thereto go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am caught between the North and the South, and, like every individual that is caught in a pincer movement like that, I would be out of my mind to keep standing here and insisting. In order to preserve some shreds of sanity, even though it is difficult to prove it at times, Mr. President, I join in that request. Let's put the bill over by all means, so that peace and tranquillity will reign in the Senate Chamber.

The PRESIDENT. If it is the Chair's privilege, he would also like to join in the request.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I just want to pass on to the gentleman from Allegheny, now that he is caught in a pincer movement, some advice which has been given on many occasions, "Just relax and enjoy it".

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I have just been informed that some people interested in this bill tried to secure a copy of it when the bills were distributed, and they were refused a copy. They were told that the order came from Senator Walker, not to pass out these bills. I would like to know if there is any truth in that.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator wish to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker?

Mr. HOLLAND. I do, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated with reference to who refused to give the bill?

Mr. WALKER. It is always a pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Senator Walker, I am awfully glad to note, too, that you have recognized that there are lobbyists, and that it would be a nice thing to have them registered.

Mr. WALKER. I have recognized you for years, Senator.

Mr. HOLLAND. The only difference, Mr. President, is that I am easily recognized because I tell everybody who I work for. If I were a lawyer, I would not want to be registered either, I guess.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, am I here to be interrogated?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am only returning a like kind to a like kind.

Mr. WALKER. I have not heard a question yet, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Senator Walker, you will get the question soon enough.

Senator Walker, I have been informed that you have told those—you or someone else, but your name was used—who pass out the bills that they are not to pass out copies of this bill to people who ask for them.

Mr. WALKER. That is not correct, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Then I wish you would get in touch with the proper authorities and rescind your order.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in answer to that harpoon that was just thrown, I do not suppose it is necessary for me to suggest to the gentleman from Allegheny that he did not hear my answer because he did, and his faith in the veracity of the statement certainly has been evidenced.

May I say to the gentleman, Mr. President, that due to the size of the bill and to the interests involved, the Sergeant-at-Arms, who is charged with the responsibility of taking care of the printing, was advised, at my order, not to give out bundles of copies of this bill to Mr. Holland's fellow lobbyists for fear the supply would disappear and then we would have to reprint it. They are being given out to interested parties by the Sergeant-at-Arms as long as the requests are made for individual copies and not for bundles.

Mr. President, as the gentleman from Allegheny County knows, there is a practice on Capitol Hill, which has been here since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, that large bundles of bills are mailed out to various people, or are sent to various people or are given to various people. Due to the size of this code, I exerted what might be called a restraining influence on the number given to any one customer. We are trying to maintain only one to a customer, Senator, and if you have any constituents who would like to have a copy, all you have to do is request it from the Sergeant-at-Arms and they will get them.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I wish to thank the gentleman for his explanation on how he indirectly told them to be very careful also who gets copies of these bills. However, I want to inform him that unfortunately I have no connection with the lobbyists, because I have yet to get any of the lobbyists to buy me a meal.

Mr. President, at the session this morning in which we were considering the lobbyists' bill, one of the objections to the bill was that it would stop lobbyists from buying Senators dinners. I am one who does not enjoy that privilege because, as you know, I have done my best to keep the lobbyists in tow in the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the gentleman from Allegheny forgets that being a lobbyist he should be on the buying end and not the receiving end. "Keeping the lobbyists in tow" reminds me of the old and vulgar statement that we had when we were back on the other side of the tracks, "It always takes one to know one."

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I do not want my distinguished colleague, Senator Walker, to think I am joining in ganging up on him, because I am not. I think he is a fine gentleman.

Mr. President, a week ago today, Senator Walker, who is Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee, called a breakfast meeting down in the capitol restaurant and very kindly bought us all a very fine breakfast. After the breakfast was over, he gave us a very intelligent summary of all of the study that has been made in connection with this bill. Without the committee going over it or studying it, he requested that it be reported from committee so that it could get on the Calendar and everybody have a chance to look at it and study it.

Mr. President, I think Senator Walker should stick to his word and wait until such time when there is agreement by all concerned before he tries to get this bill by the Senate. I think, too, that in the future, if members of the committee are requested to extend a courtesy in reporting a bill out, to get it on the Calendar so that everybody has a chance to look at it, that the person making that request actually give everybody a chance to look at it and not come out here and try to push it through.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I believe I should have the privilege of answering the gentleman from Allegheny County when he speaks about me being a lobbyist. I will give him an opportunity next Monday, if he wishes, if he is honest and shows integrity.

Mr. President, I intend to introduce a bill in this Senate which provides that every Senator shall divulge the source of his income. I think it is about time that the Members of this Senate, that we do not know who they represent, divulge their source of income, and if any man has anything to hide, I know he will not be for the bill. I intended to introduce this bill, and I certainly hope that the gentleman from Allegheny County will give me his help to have it reported from committee.

Mr. President, it is true that I work for a living; I am not a lawyer, I am very proud to say that I have been connected with the labor movement, and my father before me was connected with the labor movement. My father was at the Homestead strike, and had twenty-six stitches in his head because of the industrial barons at that time. In 1913, I was blacklisted out of the steel mills because I dared to ask for better working conditions for men who were working twelve hours a day and every other week, twenty-four hours, on a six and seven day week.

Mr. President, I am very glad that I am fighting every day to get people better wages, and to get workmen's compensation, and unemployment compensation and public health programs, because I think I am benefiting the great majority of the people of Pennsylvania, because all the people in Pennsylvania are not attorneys. Some people work in the mills, in the mines and in the factories. These are the people I am lobbying for, and they are in the millions. When you get those people better money, better working conditions and money to spend, they are the ones who make their communities better places in which to live, because they spend their money and pay their rents, buy their groceries and buy clothes, and send "Johnny" and "Willie" to school and put music into the homes. That is what I am lobbying for. I am lobbying for the betterment of the American boy and girl today, who is coming out of the coal pits, and the industrial cities, and towns and from the farms. I am proud of that. Mr. President, I am very proud of that and I resent the—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Point of order, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Majority Floor Leader, Mr. Mahany, will state his point of order.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I think we are certainly wandering too far afield here. I want to raise a point of order. There is nothing before the Senate but the Calendar, Senate Bill No. 12, Printer's No. 3. A request has been made that the bill go over in its order, and that is the only question before the Senate. I do not think this is any time for the Senator to make a long-winded speech. That is my point of order, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I —

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator yield?

Mr. HOLLAND. I will, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is compelled, under the circumstances, to rule that the point of order is well taken. The request that the bill go over in order is the only business before the Senate, and I do not see how the Chair can permit the Senator to continue debating extraneous matter when a point of order has been properly raised.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I will agree with the Chair and I will answer further on Monday, at which time I will give the gentleman from Allegheny County a chance to be honest.

The PRESIDENT. There being no objection, Senate Bill No. 12 will go over in its order.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 44, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 of the act approved the fourteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two (Appropriation Acts 70) entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn in the County of Delaware Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and prescribing certain conditions upon which the appropriation will be available to the school by increasing the per capita annual maintenance rate of wards of the Commonwealth go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 52, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend clause XV of section 1202 of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" by further defining the powers of boroughs with regard to garbage rubbish sludge and other waste treatment and disposal acting separately or jointly with other political subdivisions go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the first reading of all bills reported from committees for the first time at today's session.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 16, entitled:

An Act to amend Sections 31 and 32 of the act, approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred sixty (P. L. 427), entitled "An act to Consolidate, Revise and amend the Laws of this Commonwealth relating to Penal Proceedings and Pleadings," by permitting the trial of cases of involuntary manslaughter in quarter sessions courts.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 18, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 3 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the Appropriations Committee is scheduling a series of hearings of departments relative to their requests for appropriations, which I think is a good idea. It has been announced that these hearings are open to the public. I do not know whether that is to be construed as public hearings or not. Although I am in agreement with the policy of the Appropriations Committee, I would suggest that we be advised at the end of each Session just which department will be called on next.

For instance, Mr. President, I did not know, and I do not believe that anybody else knew, until last evening when we adjourned that the Department of Public Assistance was going to appear before the committee this morning. That was at seven o'clock last night, I believe. We certainly do not get a chance to compile whatever data we want to compile, with which to go to the hearing. We do not get a chance to prepare a program for ourselves with which to go to the meeting, on such short notice.

Mr. President, I, therefore, suggest that the Appropriations Committee make up a schedule of the departments that will be called, so that we can prepare for those hearings. I would suggest further that we have those hearings not on the day that we have a legislative Session, but here is the Department of Public Assistance, and I am not finding fault with it. They are asking for an appropriation of $111,000,000. They start the hearings at half past nine; at eleven o'clock we are to convene. You just cannot do the things that ought to be done in an hour and a half, when $111,000,000 is involved. I also believe that we ought to try to make these real public hearings and have one of the transcribers present, so that whatever testimony is given can be made available for transcription, if possible; that is, if anybody would want to get a transcript of the questions and answers that are brought forth at these hearings.

Mr. President, a third suggestion would be that if the hearings are going to be held on a day when we are in Session, that we do not schedule regular committee meetings. This morning there was a meeting called at nine o'clock of the Judiciary General Committee and before it got started, it was time to go down to the Appropriations Committee. Those of us who serve on a number of committees here in the Senate cannot be at two places at one time, and we cannot discharge our duties as we should discharge them in committees if one committee meeting is going to be set at too close an hour to the other committee meeting.

Mr. President, I am just making these remarks merely as suggestions to the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I dislike very much to take up the valuable time of the Members of the Senate, but I observed in the past debate that just as soon as Senator Holland took this floor and defined what he thought were the proper duties of the Members of this Senate, the Majority Party decided to pull this point of order business. I have been here a long time, and that seems to be a favorite move on the part of the Majority when they want to shut off debate.

Mr. President, I agree that probably both were out of order, but it seems unusual to me that just as soon as a Member of the Minority Party takes this floor and ably defends himself, someone talks about a point of order. I wish to assure you, Mr. President, that maybe peace and tranquillity will not prevail in this Chamber if the Majority Party continues along those particular lines.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I think that we take too much time in talking about a lot of things that are not on the agenda and, therefore, do not have sufficient time to take care of the things that Senator Yosko would like to do.

I think, for this Session that we should try to preserve our order a little better. If there is anybody on this side of the aisle who is out of order, then it is perfectly within order for any Senator on the other side to raise a point of order. Let us try to have a little bit more decorum and try to keep this Session running according to the rules of parliamentary procedure, for one Session, at least.

Mr. President, when anyone is out of order on the other side, we are not trying to stifle debate or anything else. We are trying to run the Session according to schedule.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I agree with the remarks of the Majority Leader. I believe that we should be orderly in our work and in our processes, but, Mr. President, I must insist that it is a poor rule which does not work both ways.

Mr. President, We, of the Minority Party, very rarely pull this point of order move. We sit back and listen, and we feel that this is a chamber of free speech, that a man can get on the floor and talk as long as he desires. We believe that is his privilege, whether he be from the Majority or the Minority. However, I do not agree that we should sit here and listen to the Majority talk, but as soon as a Member of the Minority takes the floor, someone pulls a point of order. It just does not go down with me.

STATEMENT BY THE CHAIR

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to make this observation. In the order of business, under Petitions and Remonstrances, a point of order probably would not lie, if a member should decide to talk about a certain fish in the Amazon River, or any other irrelevant matter.

I have to call them as I see them. I am just a referee. You gentlemen will have to decide who is in or out of order.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to make an announcement, if there is no objection. I want to announce to the Senate that the Democratic group met last night, and after a great deal of deliberation has decided on a course of action during this Session, which we believe will be for the betterment of our State Government.

Mr. President, we are going to refuse to vote for any appropriation bills during this Session of the Legislature, unless said requests for appropriations are accompanied with a detailed object classification of the appropriation. By that we mean that we want a breakdown similar to the breakdowns that the departments must prepare, I believe, for the Budget Director of the Governor. We want to know out of, say, a figure of $111,000,000, for instance, for the Department of Public Assistance, how much of it is spent for administration. In this administration, how much of it is spent for printing leaflets and, in many instances build-up literature, such as the Secretary of Internal Affairs' literature which goes out every month and tells you what a great guy the Secretary is; stuff of that nature, which is all right for him. I know, for instance, we just received one recently from one department where three pictures of the department head appeared in the same issue. Of course, I must admit they were different poses. He is rather photogenic, and it made nice looking work.

Mr. President, we believe that we cannot honestly vote for appropriations as we have in the past, because in these public hearings we are already finding out that it is impossible for the departments, themselves, to tell us how much of each dollar is spent for the various items of government in their department. For instance, how many automobiles are in a department and of these automobiles, how many are Cadillacs that could be Fords? What is the tax dollar doing in the various departments? I believe the Republican Majority joins me in this because, if you will note, in Washington they have objectively demanded to know just where every tax dollar is going, and whether or not the budget can be sloughed off or cut off.

I think, Mr. President, they have set up a wonderful new departure in government and that it becomes our duty, too, in Pennsylvania to insist on knowing how much of the money that goes into a department is spent for the various items of administration, the items of carrying on office work, and, for instance, the item of travel is very interesting.

I understand, Mr. President, that an officer of government, a high ranking officer of government, has seen fit to make a couple fishing trips and a few other things. In some way or another, they end up on the expense account the same as the salesman's overcoat; it could not be seen, but it was there. I think that we ought to know that. If we budget ahead the amount that a department can spend for travel, or the amount they think they will need, the amount they will need for automobiles, the amount they will need for the different items of publications, etc., then we can say, "Well, why do you have to spend, like the Department of Public Assistance, $182,000 for publications," which was revealed this morning.

Mr. President, we require $19,000,000 for the administration of a relief fund in the State of Pennsylvania. For many years we have demanded that this department be put into—exterminated, in plain words, the hands of the Department of Welfare where it belongs. I know that it would not take $19,000,000 a biennium for that department, already set up, to take care of this work. You know it and every other man in here knows it.

Mr. President, we want to now put the departments on notice, the Executive Branch of Government on notice, that as a group, the Democratic Minority will not vote for any appropriations unless we are told categorically just where the money is being spent, and how much of it, for the various items in their administration.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I think we can go along with that, because the Republicans will also be glad to know every item in these budgets and if we can cut down on any of them we will certainly be pleased to do so.

Mr. President, I think the Governor, in his Budget Message, asked us to go into this in great detail, and if we can find any place where the budget can be slashed, he invites us to do it. The Republicans and Democrats can certainly work together on this one.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I think it is up to the Senate to announce to the papers that the Pennsylvania Economy League, the Chamber of Commerce and the different labor groups who are represented here in the Capitol, are also entitled to attend these public hearings and ask questions. You will notice that when you attend these hearings of the Appropriations Committee, no outside groups who have made a study of the budget are present.

Mr. President, I understand that these people feel they are not entitled to attend the meetings and ask questions. They would like to have this made clear in the newspapers, that any outside interests in a public hearing are entitled to attend these public hearings, and also take part in the debate regarding the budget and the amount of money the different departments require.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President. I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Monday, February 16, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 12:39 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, until Monday, February 16, 1953, at 4:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, February 10, 1953

The House met at 11:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Reverend Leo G. Fallon, Assistant Pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Pittsburgh, guest and friend of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Olsen, offered the following prayer:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Let us Pray.

O God, by whose Word all are sanctified, pour forth your blessing upon these creatures; and provide that everyone will make use of your graces and blessings according to your law and your will and that through the invocation of your Holy name they may possess health of body and strength of soul through Christ, Our Lord. Grant to us, who are surrounded with the new light of Thy incarnate Word, we pray Thee, almighty God, that the faith which shines in our minds, may also be shown in our actions. Through the same Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God for ever and Ever. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

APPROVAL OF JOURNAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Monday, February 9, 1953?

Mr. HELM Mr. Speaker, I move that the Journal for Monday, February 9, be not approved since it is not in print.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. HOCKER. (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 10.

In the House of Representatives, February 9, 1953.

The Pennsylvania Department of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States is again taking the lead in consideration, by all our citizens, of the state of our Nation's strength through its traditional observance of National Defense Week, a period sought by the Reserve Officers Association, and proclaimed by the President of the United States, the Governor of our State, and the Mayors of our various cities.

Misinformation or apathetic public opinion concerning our military affairs constitutes in itself a serious breach in our national defense.

International jealousies, distrusts, selfish interests and conflicting ideologies tend to loose upon the public a flood of rumors, distortions of truths and biased statements. It is more important now than ever before that each citizen be kept informed throughout the entire year of the true status of our national defense and be made aware of the importance of his role in the defense of our freedom and traditions; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs) That we commend the Reserve Officers Association for its leadership in establishing this National Defense Week observance; that we pledge to the Reserve Officers Association and the many organizations assisting in this observance our fullest cooperation; and that we urge all of our fellow citizens to join together in this all important observance; and finally, that we recommend to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that he appoint a member of the Reserve Officers Association to his staff (without compensation) to advise and assist him on those matters pertaining to Reserve activities.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. WORLEY. RESOLUTION No. 11.

In the House of Representatives, February 9, 1953.

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania's General Assembly, on behalf of the people whom they represent, extend to the President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower, a warm invitation to make his home in Adams County, Pennsylvania, the Nation's Summer White House.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

SENATE MESSAGE

STATE LEGISLATURE, COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, February 9, 1953.

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Department of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States is again taking the lead in consideration, by all our citizens, of the state of our nation's strength through its traditional observance of National Defense Week, a period sought by the ROA and proclaimed by the President of the United States, the Governor of our State, and the Mayors of our various cities, and

Whereas, misinformed or apathetic public opinion concerning our military affairs constitutes in itself a serious breach in our national defense, and

Whereas, international jealousies, districts, selfish interests and conflicting ideologies tend to loose upon the public a flood of rumors, distortions of truths and biased statements, it is more important now than ever before that each citizen be kept informed throughout the entire year of the true status of our national defense and be made aware of the importance of his role in the defense of our freedom and traditions.

Therefore be it resolved, by the House and the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that we commend the Reserve Officers Association for its leadership in establishing this National Defense Week observance; that we pledge to the ROA and the many organizations assisting in this observance our fullest cooperation; and that we urge all of our fellow citizens to join together in this all important observance; and finally, that we recommend to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that he appoint a member of the Reserve Officers Association to his staff (without compensation) to advise and assist him on those matters pertaining to Reserve activities.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. TOMPKINS asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Judiciary to meet during the session of the House.

RESOLUTION

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Messrs. JOHNSON and ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 10, 1953.

Thursday will mark the one hundred and forty-third anniversary of the birthday of the sixteenth President of our Nation.

Born on February 12, 1809, among the high hills and deep gorges of Kentucky, he rose from cabin up to Capitol.

No other man in the history of our Country has ever better illustrated that equality of opportunity, which is our proud boast, nor the heights that are accessible to every youth; no one has ever so inspired those who followed him, and no one has ever been more worthy of emulation.

Of all that has been written of Abraham Lincoln, nothing better describes this "man who matched the mountains" than the words of Edwin Markham, in his poem on "Lincoln The Man of the People:"

"The color of the ground was in him, the read earth
The tang and odor of the primal things—
The rectitude and patience of the rocks;
The gladness of the wind that shakes the corn;
The courage of the bird that dares the sea;
The justice of the rain that loves all leaves;
The pity of the snow that hides all sears;
The loving-kindness of the wayside well;
The Tolerance and equity of light."

Study and contemplation of the life of Lincoln, especially during the progress of the war that saved the Nation, cannot help but aid and guide us in the performance of our duties; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, as Members of this House, shall strive to follow the course that he blazed, that in our Legislative work we forget place, and power and preference, that we throw away envy and jealousy and pettiness and that we emulate the courage and the rectitude and the justice and tolerance and equity that were his.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

SENATE

MONDAY, February 16, 1953.

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

By Appointment of the PRESIDENT and PRESIDENT pro tempore:

The PRESIDING OFFICER (John M. Walker) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN C. MOORE, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Coudersport, offered the following prayer:

Direct us, O Lord, in all our dealings with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Name, and with Thee take new courage that, through us as through our forefathers of old, Thy purposes may be fulfilled with new vision for a better day. Amen.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDING OFFICER

The PRESIDING OFFICER. For the information of the gentlemen of the Senate, it is a great sorrow to announce the death of the mother of the Lieutenant-Governor, and at his request I am presiding today.

It has been suggested that I also advise the gentleman of the Senate that this request was approved by the President pro tempore of the Senate.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. LETZLER, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. BERGER asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. HARE, due to illness.

He also asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. WADE, because of pressing business.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

MEMBER OF PENNSYLVANIA AERONAUTICS COMMISSION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, February 2, 1953.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate, Dr. Herbert Spencer, Angels, Wayne County, for appointment as a member of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission, to serve until June 2, 1954, and until his successor shall be duly appointed and shall have qualified, vice Ralph Earle, Haverford, resigned.

JOHN S. FINE.

MEMBERS OF SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

JOHN S. FINE.

GENERAL COMMUNICATION

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication, which was read by the Clerk:

STATE OF IOWA

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE RESOLUTION 3

By: Schwengel of Scott, Weiss of Crawford, Burrows of Benton, Ringgenberg, of Story, Robinson of Delaware. (Senators Berg, Lord, Nesmith, Walter).

Whereas, building of roads and highways since the inception of our Government has been primarily a state responsibility; and

Whereas, every state of the Union has tremendous problems in maintaining, extending, and building highways and bridges due to the lack of building program during the war year period; and

Whereas, the Federal Government has always collected much more than they have sent back to the states for road building purposes; and

Whereas, the costs of building and maintaining roads and highways have increased tremendously; and

Whereas, states have demonstrated they are willing, have, and do cooperate in building the federally designated highways; and

Whereas, the states sensed the responsibility of an integrated highway system as it relates to the national welfare; and

Whereas, the states have demonstrated that they can build adequate highways; and

Whereas, in many instances, many economies can be effected through sole state responsibility of building highways; and

Whereas, because of the foregoing facts and after due consideration, The Council of State Governments in the National Meeting December 7 in Chicago passed a resolution supporting this proposition, and the Governors' Conference in the National Meeting in July, 1952, unanimously passed a resolution supporting this proposition, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of the 55th General Assembly of the State of Iowa, the Senate concurring, That the Eighty-Third Congress give serious consideration to the question of eliminating the Federal gasoline tax and leaving that area of taxation entirely to the states.

Be It Further Resolved, That attested copies of this concurrent resolution be sent to the presiding officers of the Congress of the United States and to each member of the Iowa delegation in Congress, and that printed copies thereof, showing that said concurrent resolution was adopted by the legislature of Iowa, be sent to each house of the legislatures of the states of the United States.

I hereby certify that the foregoing Concurrent Resolution was adopted by the Fifty-Fifth General Assembly of Iowa on the 23rd day of January, 1953.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LANE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 137, entitled:

An Act requiring persons conducting the business of strip mining on leased land to file bonds, cash or securities conditioned upon payment of wages and salaries to employees, providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. CROWE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 138, entitled:

An Act to add Section 607.1 to the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by requiring applicants for renewal of operator's license to take a reexamination every fifth year for the renewal thereof; and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, recently the fourteen State Teachers' Colleges here in Pennsylvania were attacked in a report filed by the Chesterman Commission. It was alleged by that committee that about one-third of the young men and women graduated by the Teachers' Colleges never teach, and they also alleged that the academic standard of the State Teachers' Colleges are inferior. It seems to me that our Teachers' Colleges, for some unknown reason, are a focal point for attack from various quarters at almost every session.

The first charge that the graduates all do not enter the teaching profession is, in all probability, true but how in the world can anyone place a limitation or a requirement that graduates teach for a period of, say, two or three years in the public schools of Pennsylvania? Such a limitation or requirement, to say the least, is, in my opinion, ridiculous because circumstances very often alter cases. Mr. President, often those who have planned on a teaching career find that their plans have been changed, just as many students from liberal arts colleges, who have set their sights on other careers, have drifted into teaching or adopting some other profession. If we were to adopt such requirements or limitations as mentioned by the Chesterman Commission, it would seem to me that it would also be applicable to all State-aided institutions and hospitals too, if you please. It just doesn't make sense, and I might also point out, for the benefit of the Membership, that the Commonwealth contributes millions of dollars to privately owned colleges and universities of Pennsylvania and, I believe that all of you will agree that much of this money is used to educate out-of-State students. If we were to save money by cutting down appropriations or eliminating a part or all of the Teachers' Colleges in Pennsylvania, I believe we can also save considerable money by eliminating appropriations to these privately operated educational institutions.

Mr. President, another ridiculous charge by the Chesterman Commission is that academic standards in our State Teachers' Colleges are low, and I am inclined to disagree very emphatically with that charge because some of our finest teachers are graduates from our Teachers' Colleges. If we were to accept the recommendations of the Chesterman Commission on their suggestion that we eliminate or reduce the number of Teachers' Colleges here in Pennsylvania, it would appear to me to be very poor economy because our capital outlay now is millions and millions of dollars and most of this would be a total loss.

I also wish to inform the Membership that I, for one, know for an actual fact that a great percentage of our public school teachers would not be members of that profession today if it had not been for our Teachers' Colleges; particularly so in my district, as we have an old institution there, a tradition if you please, which is the California State Teachers' College, formerly called the California State Normal School. It is located in a little town called California, Pennsylvania. The citizenry of that particular community are proud of their college and I might also say, Mr. President, that this school has the facilities to educate students from all points of western Pennsylvania. Its faculty is highly respected and form a substantial part of that community. Its actually a poor man's school; a poor man's institution of higher learning.

I say to you here this afternoon, Mr. President, that none of us should be stampeded into accepting recommendations by any commission until such time as we ourselves are convinced, beyond a reasonable doubt, that such recommendations should be adopted. I feel quite sure that at that time Teachers' Colleges will still remain a part of our educational system here in the Commonwealth.

I might also add, Mr. President, if at least one-third of the Teachers' Colleges' graduates actually entered the teaching profession, then we must all agree that these State institutions are providing a source of teaching material that would be lost entirely if the colleges or any one of them were eliminated. I wish to state here and now that I am for, and will support, economical government, economy in all phases of government, but to reduce the number or eliminate our Teachers' Colleges would be a step in the wrong direction. We would be "penny wise and pound foolish," and I will close this statement by quoting the words of the Honorable Sam Rayburn, formerly Speaker of the National House of Representatives, who recently said, "That any damn dumb mule can kick a barn down, but it takes a good carpenter to build one."

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I regret that I must differ to some extent with the conclusions arrived at by my distinguished colleague, Senator Lane.

I am assuming that sometime before the Legislature adjourns we will have public hearings on the Chesterman Committee Reports, including the one on State Teachers' Colleges. I will say now that I do not agree with the report on reducing the number unless evidence so warrants, and neither will I say I am for reducing appropriations unless the facts so warrant. However, Mr. President, in principal, I am for the recommendation made by the Chesterman Committee on compelling students who graduate from normal schools to teach in the public schools of Pennsylvania for a specified time. Unless I am mistaken, these schools were originally established to guarantee a supply of school teachers in the educational system of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, if the schools are being used for some other purpose, then the original intent is destroyed. If it is proven that too many of the students who acquire an education at these State schools go into other than our school systems, and there is a shortage of schoolteachers, and that we must go into other States to get our supply of school teachers, then I repeat that I would be inclined to go along with the Chesterman Committee recommendations. At some future date I shall extend my remarks on that point.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I hesitate in taking the floor twice under Petitions and Remonstrances but the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Yosko, has taken it upon himself to take the floor and state that he is more or less in support of the Chesterman Committee's recommendations. I would like to inform the gentleman from Northampton County that without Teachers' Colleges in Pennsylvania, the public school teaching profession, itself, would be vitally handicapped.

Mr. President, I wish to also inform the gentleman from Northampton County that if any rule would apply whereby a graduate of any Teachers' College would be bound to teach in Pennsylvania or to enter the teaching profession, we should also make that rule apply to hospitals that are State-aided, whereby nurses would also work in State hospitals. The same would apply to these privately owned and operated educational institutions, whereby the State of Pennsylvania appropriates millions of dollars. I say to you here and now, when the time comes that this Senate takes it upon itself to eliminate Teachers' Colleges, you can count on me to vote against appropriations for privately owned and operated educational institutions.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, under Petitions and Remonstrances, I have some material here which I desire to insert in the record.

Mr. President, I have before me a resolution which was passed by The Allegheny Valley Industrial Union Council, and I request that it be inserted into the record of the Senate Journal. I have also a statement by Floyd B. Noerr, President of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, which is very important to the Members of this General Assembly, and I suggest that both be inserted into the Journal.

"Dear Senator Dent:

"At a regular meeting of The Allegheny Valley Industrial Union Council, on February 6, 1953, the Delegates went on record as opposing the following:

"Whereas: Manufacturers have seen fit to discriminate against workers from the years of forty and over, under our Council's jurisdiction for employment, and

"Whereas: The cost to insure an employee of forty years and over has been placed high in payment, and, insurance companies taking advantage of said rates, people for employment with years of forty and over find themselves without jobs.

"Resolved: That our Labor Council will request our Legislators in Harrisburg to investigate these charges and to provide legislation to take care of these facts:

"1. By seeing that this practice is discontinued.

"2. To lower the age limit on social security and raise the monthly payment.

"3. The State to provide employment for those who are physically able.

"Statement by Floyd B. Noerr, President, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, Telegraph Building, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

"The enemies of highway transportation in Pennsylvania have launched a vicious whispering campaign intended to bring discredit on the reputation of Governor John S. Fine and on the good names of the individual members of both houses of the State Legislature. I deem it my responsibility as a citizen of this Commonwealth, and as President of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, to make this public declaration in defense of our able Chief Executive and the honorable men who serve in our General Assembly.

"The gist of the reprehensible whispers spread covertly across our State is that the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association and 37 trucking companies have insinuated corruption in the highest executive and legislative offices of the Commonwealth in a suit recently filed in Federal District Court alleging violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law by 31 railroads and the Eastern Railroad Presidents Conference.

"No such insinuation exists. The whispering campaign is a cowardly and repugnant means of creating smear, intimidation, public confusion and mistrust at the expense of an able and honest body of men. We abhor its objective, which is to defend illegal actions by propaganda and whisper rather than in the courts.

"The Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association has submitted its case against the railroads to the courts. We shall prosecute it there with substantial fact and voluminous evidence. We shall rely on American justice. We shall do it in the American way. The American people will support fair play. We decry this effort to escape the implications of guilt under a smokescreen of rumor. We leave smear and counter smear to the exponents of the big lie.

"Let it be spread publicly on the record where its origin is known and with our name attached, that the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association does not and never has questioned the integrity of Governor Fine or any member of the Pennsylvania legislature. We feel fortunate that in these trying times the people and industry of Pennsylvania are served by officials devoted to the public good and above even the suspicion of wrongdoing. Few, if any, States in this Country can take such pride in the caliber of the men they have voted into public office.

"The Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association does not hide behind false fronts. Nor does it float ugly whispers with the idea they cannot be traced back to their origin. This statement is issued under authority of a vote by the Executive Committee of the Association in Harrisburg, February 4, under which I am directed to make public the specific paragraphs of the anti-trust conspiracy complaint which have become the basis of the whispers. The onus of alleged wrongdoing lies clearly with the railroads, and with Carl Byoir and Associates, a public relations firm which acted as agent for the Eastern Railroad Presidents Conference.

"These are the paragraphs:

"Acting under the Railroad conspiracy herein alleged, the full force of the Byoir organization was immediately used against the Bill (in the 1951 Legislature to equalize truck weights in Pennsylvania with those permitted in surrounding States.) When these efforts failed, and the Bill passed both House and Senate, the Byoir agency then instigated a campaign to bring about the vetoing of the Bill by Governor Fine. To that end, Byoir mobilized the protest of and composed releases for numerous organizations, including the Pennsylvania State Grange, the Pennsylvania Association of Township Supervisors, and others, attacking the Bill and attacking the plaintiffs and others in their situation. The Governor naturally assumed that this was a bona fide and independent grass-roots protest, whereas in actual fact it was all plotted, created, and masterminded in the Byoir office at the behest of the Railroads. To some of the 'independent' protest groups, Byoir gained access by bribery of their officials, who sacrificed the interests of their members to serve Byoir's ends.

"An important consideration in Governor Fine's vetoing of S. 615 was the Maryland Road Test No. 1, an experimental test of the effect of truck traffic on highways, being conducted under the sponsorship of eleven States, including Pennsylvania. The Byoir organization, as an alternative to defeating passage of S. 615, set out to delay its passage until the aforesaid Maryland test should be completed, because Clinton M. Johnson, public relations agent of the State Highway Commission of the State of Maryland, was receiving payments from Byoir, in return for which he had agreed to, and did in fact, publish a misrepresented and distorted account of the test to the disadvantage of the truck operators before the official analysis of the results was made on April 1, 1952.

"The only inference from these paragraphs is that, in the opinion of our association, Governor Fine gave careful consideration and responded, with sincerity and integrity, to what he believed to be the desires of the people of Pennsylvania. We salute him and respect him for it. If there be others who disagree, let them stand where they can be seen and speak so their voices can be recognized."

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The two petitions will be spread upon the Journal.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HALUSKA read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 143, entitled:

An Act to validate and quiet the title to real estate in this Commonwealth held by a foreign corporation not authorized to transact business in Pennsylvania, and heretofore conveyed to a citizen or citizens of the United States or a corporation authorized to hold such real estate.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Messrs. HALUSKA and LANE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 144, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897) entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service bases; requiring employers to keep records and make reports, and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons; providing procedure and administrative details for the determination, payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation; providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies; creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer and prescribing penalties," by increasing benefits.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 145, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736), entitled as amended "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employee in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; and prescribing penalties," by changing the maximum rate of compensation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CROWE, from the Committee on Mines and Mining, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 91, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 5 of the act, approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1198), entitled "An act providing for the conservation and improvement of land affected in connection with the mining of bituminous coal by the open pit mining method; regulating such mining; and providing penalties," by further regulating backfilling and operation reports.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, this is a bingo bill. A short time ago, the Governor issued a directive, which was directed against the clubs of Pennsylvania, on gambling. Although I am opposed to gambling, there are some exceptions to it. I was asked that question a short time ago, and I said that I would be for legalizing horse racing, and I would be for legalizing bingo and a lottery under State supervision, if the proper proposal was made in that connection.

Mr. President, this bingo bill is on a local option basis and if enacted into law would authorize local municipalities to pass an ordinance allowing bingo, or, by ordinance, authorize a referendum. The bill calls for the local municipality to issue a permit. The permit can only be issued to a chartered organization or a church group. In the case of a chartered organization, the application would have to be signed by the officers. In the case of a church group, it would have to be signed by the clergy. Only one permit could be issued a week to any one organization. The prizes for the bingo would have to be merchandise. The application would have to specify the time, date, place and the hours the bingo would be played. There would have to be a constable or a special policeman present at the bingo games, to make sure that the law was not violated.

Then, Mr. President, there are penalty clauses in the bill.

Mr. President, I was at a dinner last night, a club dinner, and the president of the club happened to be a lady. She said to me, "Senator Yosko, do you think, after what we read in the newspapers over the week-end, it would be all right for us to play bingo in the club?" I said to her, "I do not know. The District Attorney is here, there is a Judge here and the Mayor is here; you will have to find out from them. However, I will tell you what I would do if I were you. Tomorrow, I would check a little bit, and if you find that you are able to play a horse with a bookie, or write a number with a number writer, or buy a lottery ticket, or, in other words, if you find that the racket guys are operating around here, then you play bingo. If they come and raid you, you just tell them in plain words that they should get rid of the racket guys instead of bothering an innocent bingo game."

Mr. President, men have a lot of recreation. Bingo, as I understand it, is purely a woman's game. We men have football, baseball, soccer, boxing and all sorts of recreation. We play a little poker and have some other forms of recreation or entertainment, but the women have nothing but bingo.

So, Mr. President, I hope that you will go along with passing this bill. The bill is on a local option, and will give the ladies something to do.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. YOSKO read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 146, entitled:

An Act permitting bingo games for prizes in merchandise when licensed by the municipality; providing for local option thereon and prescribing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CHAPMAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 147, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of maintaining the public roads and improving and replacing bridges thereon through the Cornplanter Indian Reservation in Elk Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS REGARDING FOREIGN RESIDUAL FUEL OIL

Messrs. LETZLER and PEELOR offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations:

In the Senate, February 16, 1953.

Whereas, The importation of residual fuel oil has assumed such stature as to be a matter of great concern to a large economic segment of the American population; and

Whereas, In the three years, 1946 to 1948, imports of residual fuel oil averaged fifty million barrels annually, rose to seventy-five million barrels in 1949, to one hundred twenty million barrels in 1950 and 1951 and when the figures are complete will show an import of approximately one hundred twenty-eight million barrels in 1952, or the equivalent of thirty-one million tons of coal; and

Whereas, These oil imports adversely effect the sale of coal from both deep mining and strip mining operations; and

Whereas, Incalculable damage has been inflicted on the bituminous coal industry through closing of existing mines and permanent loss of valuable coal already developed, and on the Nation's economy because of unrestricted importations of residual fuel oil from foreign sources; and

Whereas, The importation of these high quantities of foreign residual fuel oil causes the loss of millions of dollars in wages to coal miners, the loss of employment by many railroad workers, and injuries, and in many instances destroys, small business enterprises located within the trade area of mining communities which depend upon the production and sale of coal for their prosperity; and

Whereas, Existing tariffs, as well as trade agreement legislation and policies, afforded wholly inadequate protection for the great American bituminous coal mining industry which has played an indispensable role in the development of our great American economy and way of life; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to provide for an adequate limitation upon the quantity of foreign residual fuel oil to be hereafter imported into the United States in order to avoid further loss of employment in the United States, impairment of the bituminous coal industry, and unwise dependence on foreign sources of fuel, contrary to the best interests of this Nation; and be it further

Resolver, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Presiding Officers of each House of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KEPHART read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 148, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Philadelphia Textile Institute at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 149, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania for the School of Veterinary Medicine.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 150, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 151, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation from the General Fund to the Department of Forests and Waters for the payment of expenses incurred in continuing the development of the Independence Mall in Philadelphia.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. FELMING and WALKER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 152, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the general maintenance and operation of the Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 153, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the general maintenance and operation of the university.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 154, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation from the General Fund to the Department of Forests and Waters for the payment of expenses incurred in continuing the development of the Point Park in Pittsburgh.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOLFE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 155, entitled:

An Act prohibiting the attaching of metal or other hard substances to public utility poles.

Which was committed to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. YOSKO read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 156, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds" by further providing for the suspension of resident licenses and operating privileges on the basis of a point system.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE OF SENATE EXTENDED

TO THE HONORABLE LLOYD H. WOOD AND FAMILY UPON DEATH OF HIS MOTHER

Mr. PROPERT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 16, 1953.

Mrs. George Lynn Wood, the mother of our Lieutenant-Governor, died early Sunday following a long illness at Pottstown Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Wood, the former Maude Goss, was born in January, 1880, in Houtzdale, Clearfield County. Her parents were the late John and Matilda Williams Goss. From her parents, Mrs. Wood inherited a deep love for her State and Nation, and their sense of duty and willingness to sacrifice for a noble cause. Her father served with the Union forces and fought and bled on the soil of his own State, falling wounded at Gettysburg.

Mrs. Wood passed her heritage on to her children and it was through her great faith in him, the inspiration of her teaching, that one of her sons attained the high position of leadership he now holds. The unquestioned integrity of all of her sons, and the esteem in which they are held by all who know them, are creations of hers, moulded through the years by her patient and loving care.

Mrs. Wood was a member of the Evansburg Methodist Church and gave generously of her time and effort to the work of its ladies auxiliary. To her, rearing a family and church work, were not duties but the happy realization of the purpose of living. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania extend their individual sympathy to her sons, Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood, Gar S. Wood, and Robert L. Wood, to her sister Mrs. Nannie Gearhart and to her five grandchildren, in their hour of loss, and bid them take solace in the knowledge that their loved one has fulfilled her destiny, and has received the promised reward for a life well lived.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I noted in the National newspapers recently that the State of Arizona, with a Republican controlled Legislature, passed a resolution memorializing Congress to hold for the people of the United States the public domain known as "The Tidelands Oil Properties." In keeping with this thought, and believing that to do otherwise would create a precedent that may endanger the vast and unlimited wealth now contained in the public domains of this Nation, I am presenting to the Senate today a resolution memorializing Congress on the "Tidelands Oil Properties."

In doing so, Mr. President, I wish that the Members of the Senate would listen attentively to the reading of this resolution, because, in as short a space as possible, I have tried to contain some of the threats that are found if such a move is made.

I find, Mr. President, that we have, within the confines of the various States of the Nation, a great deal of public land containing many billions of dollars of mineral, woodland and various other forms of wealth. I am reliably informed, through the public press, that Senators from various States have prepared legislation, and immediately upon the passage of "The Tideland Oil Grab," there will be presented in the United States Congress legislation looking forward to taking all of the public domain that resides within the confines of any particular State; meaning, the Yellowstone National Park, Glacier National Park and the many other National Forests that we now hold to be the property of the people of the United States.

There are those who fail to realize, Mr. President, the significance of the move now being considered by Congress and twice considered previously. The President of the United States, in upholding the Supreme Court of the United States, twice vetoed the land-grab acts that were passed by Congress. We are a Legislative body; we are supposed to look after the interests of the people of Pennsylvania. We have within our power the right and the duty, as I see it, to call upon Congress to give serious study to the proposition to take these public domains and give them into the hands of a few restricted areas of this Nation. It will mean to this State of ours many millions, yes, billions of dollars, that are being taken from the public domain for the benefit of a few of the peoples in a very restricted land area.

I say to the Members of this Senate, Mr. President, that there is not any act facing the people of this Nation today that contains more danger to them. Back years ago, in the beginning, when the transportation companies and the communication companies first were organized, there was a great land-grab perpetrated upon the people of this Nation. Today, we are beginning to see the opening of another wedge in order that a few may again take from the public, properties that properly belong to all of the people.

Mr. President, I present to the Senate this resolution memorializing the Congress of the United States, asking them not to pass legislation against the decision of the Supreme Court of these United States, and, in keeping with the public good and the public welfare, to maintain the sovereignty of this property to all of the people of the United States, who are its rightful owners.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS ON OWNERSHIP OF TIDELANDS OIL RESERVES

Messrs. DENT, RUTH, BARR and LANE offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 16, 1953.

Whereas, A bitter debate has been raging pro and con on the question of Tidelands Oil property ownership for a period of many years, and

Whereas, The issue is one that strikes at the fundamental rights of the people as a whole to the ownership or non-ownership of public domain, and

Whereas, The Supreme Court of the United States, the highest tribunal in our land, has expressly set forth, in a decision rendered by this august body, a reiteration of the common-held concept of the ownership of public domain and have decreed that said Tidelands Oil properties are rightly the property of all of the people of the United States, and

Whereas, Former President Truman, upon two separate occasions, abiding by the decision of the Supreme Court, vetoed Congressional Acts looking towards raiding the public domain for the benefit of a few people residing in a restricted area, and

Whereas, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has a direct economic stake in the final disposition of said Tidelands properties, pursuant to the action of President Truman in giving to the Navy Department control over the disputed oil reserves, he has made it possible for the people of Pennsylvania, as well as the people of all of the other States of the Union, to enjoy the full benefits of public ownership, of public lands, public reserves, and public wealth, by giving too our defense effort first claim and final control upon any and all of the minerals contained in these valuable reserves. Other direct economic benefits to the people of Pennsylvania and to the people of the various States of the Union will accrue if, and when, there is no longer a need from a defense standpoint for the wealth contained in the Tidelands preserves. Then pursuant to the Senator Hill Amendment, the Federal revenues derived from said properties will be devoted to Federal-aid to education. By their actions, the Supreme Court and the President of the United States have made it possible for various States in the Union and their people to benefit from any exploitation of the public domain, and

Whereas, The proposed plan to delegate the public domain to the use of three States claiming title to said properties will open a floodgate of demands that eventually will strip the people of the untold billions of dollars worth of minerals, woodlands and other forms of economic and material wealth contained in the public domain for the benefit of the various States, who are singularly blessed by having within the confines of their borders public property heretofore considered to be part of the public wealth, and

Whereas, There has already been a bill prepared by Senator Daniels of Texas, calling for the land to the State of Texas, any and all of the wealth contained on the sea bed of the entire Continental shelf, stretching untold miles, and if passed would give the State of Texas full and absolute control and ownership of areas far and beyond the dreams and demands of any States' rights proposals heretofore conceived, and

Whereas, The public newspapers have made reports of the preparation of a bill in the Federal Congress to give to the various States wealth contained in the public parks and public lands now owned by the Federal Government for the exploitation of the individual States wherein such lands are situated, the States' rights advocates in this instance claim that there is no difference between off-shore and on-shore Federal properties and that if the Tidelands Oils are returned to the States for State exploitation, then the same must hold for all of the lands and waters now held in the public domain, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That this General Assembly does herewith memorialize the Federal Congress to maintain the integrity of the Supreme Court decision by refusing to pass legislation that will deprive the people of the Commonwealth of their inherent wealth and defeat any measure presented in Congress that will give to the singular and several States the Tidelands Oil reserves and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Speaker of the House of Representatives in Washington, D. C., and to the President of the United States Senate and a copy to the President of the United States.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, as has been pointed out by Senator Dent and also the wording of this resolution, this matter is highly controversial, and I do not think it would be right for us to take immediate action on this resolution at this time. I think it should be referred to the proper committee, and after their study and reporting of it from committee, it should again appear before us, and then we may have the benefit of debate on both sides before making up our minds as to whether or not to pass this particular resolution.

Mr. President, as I remember, it was pointed out by Senator Holland a Session or so ago that most of these resolutions memorializing Congress to do various things find their way into the wastepaper basket down there. I think it would be better for us to give more thought to the laws affecting our own particular State, rather than trying to back-seat-drive acts into appearing before our Federal Congress.

Therefore, Mr. President, I must object to the immediate consideration of this resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There being objection raised by the gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany, to the immediate consideration of this resolution, the resolution is referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I can agree with the Senator, the Majority Leader, that it is a very serious subject, and I can agree that it ought to be studied and debated fully. I cannot agree, however, when he said that we ought to adhere to those matters that are germane to the State, because I think this particular issue is very germane to the welfare of the State of Pennsylvania. I am anxious to know—and I hope that I am assuming the right position in this—whether or not the committee that will receive this resolution will give it consideration.

I am reminded, Mr. President, of a resolution I presented just three weeks ago calling for immediate action on the building of a barrier, a medial strip, on the Turnpike. That committee has never met, has never acted upon it, and yet seven innocent people have lost their lives since that resolution was introduced. There have been many wrecks, but there are seven, rather, not seven—I beg your pardon—but nine known deaths as of this date because of cars going over the medial strip and crashing into automobiles on the other side of the road, which had no part in the accident whatsoever, other than to be innocent victims.

Now, Mr. President, if this resolution is going to find its way into the same kind of cubbyhole, then I would press for immediate action. However, I will say to the Senate that this is so serious to the people of Pennsylvania, and to the children of Pennsylvania, the education of the children of Pennsylvania, that I am perfectly willing to let the resolution go to committee, but I suggest to the Senate that if I have not heard from that committee in two weeks, then I must take the floor in an attempt to have the resolution brought before the Senate for debate.

INTERROGATION

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Washington, Mr. Lane, desires to interrogate the Majority Leader. Will the gentleman from Crawford permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. It will be a pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, are you sympathetic to the intent as set up in this resolution?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I do not think I am prepared to say that. I have a Congressman down in Congress who is looking after my affairs there, and he hopes that I am looking after his particular interests up here. I think we ought to let him go into that controversy. He and the other Congressmen down in Washington. I think we try to tell those fellows down there how to run their jobs too much. I think we should run our jobs up here, and let them run theirs down there.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Then your objection to this resolution. Senator Mahany, means, in all probability, it will land in the wastebasket. Is that correct?

Mr. MAHANY. Oh, no, I cannot tell any committee what to do. The resolution has been referred to a very good committee, with a good chairman, and I am certainly not going to tell the chairman that he should bury it. I think that they should study it, and if it has merit they should report it to the floor.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the Majority Leader.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MAHANY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mahany, would you use your influence with this committee in order to have them properly consider this resolution at an early date?

Mr. MAHANY. I do not know how much influence I have, Mr. President, but I hope that all committees will work arduously and consider all bills and resolutions before them at as early a date as possible.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I wish to thank the Majority Leader for his very intelligent answers.

Mr. President, I just want to say a few words in support of this resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. May I call to the attention of the gentleman from Washington the fact that the resolution is not before the Senate for action? We are under the heading of Original Resolutions.

Mr. LANE. I thank you, Mr. President. I will refrain from discussing the matter any further at this time.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. MADIGAN offered the following concurrent resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, February 16, 1953.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 23, 1953, at four o'clock p. m., E.S.T.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, February 23, 1953, at four-thirty o'clock p. m., E.S.T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. McCUSKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McCUSKER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 157, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Temple University Medical School at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 158, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of Temple University at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 159, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

AUDITOR GENERAL TO ASCERTAIN EXPENSE OF PUBLISHING POLITICAL MATERIAL BY DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Mr. LEADER offered the following concurrent resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 16, 1953.

Whereas, In the October 1953 issue of a monthly bulletin published by the Department of Internal Affairs, no less than ten pages of politically inspired propaganda, concerned with General Eisenhower, was published; and

Whereas, In an editorial, signed by Secretary of Internal Affairs Livengood, in the same bulletin, further political material is carried; and

Whereas, The above mentioned bulletin carried the following statement, "Published under the direction and authority of Secretary of Internal Affairs, William S. Livengood, Jr."; and

Whereas, The only reason or excuse which has been given for the above politically inspired publication at the expense of the taxpayers of this Commonwealth is that the forebears of General Eisenhower were residents of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, The above reasons are of a flimsy and politically biased and partial nature; and

Whereas, No mention of Governor Adlai Stevenson was made in the above-mentioned bulletin, although his lineal antecedents and forebears were also residents of and domiciled within Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, It is a corruption of the purposes of public office, an abuse of power, and wilful and callous misappropriation of public funds to publish at the expense of taxpayers politically inspired material with the purpose of influencing an election; and

Whereas, Secretary Livengood has approved the aforementioned abuses by signing the editorial and directing the publication of the bulletin at Commonwealth expense under his assumed authority, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Auditor General is hereby directed to ascertain the expense to the Commonwealth of publishing the political material hereby condemned and forthwith to take any and all measures, and to perform all acts necessary to surcharge Secretary of Internal Affairs William S. Livengood Jr. for the full amount thereof.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, this is the first time I knew that the State of Pennsylvania could lay claim to that great statesman, Adlai Stevenson. Had I known that before, I might have changed my vote. Now that I know it, I would suggest, when the committee studies this resolution, that they also bring this to the attention of Secretary Livengood and perhaps he might write an article in his bulletin on Adlai Stevenson, too.

Mr. President, I object, of course, to the immediate consideration of this resolution and ask that it be referred to the proper committee.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, yield until the Chair refers this resolution to the proper committee inasmuch as objection has been raised to its immediate consideration?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before the resolution is referred I want to talk.

Mr. President, sometimes I can appreciate the position that the Majority Leader is in, but I cannot quite swallow the lame excuse for sending this to committee. The remark made about having the committee inform the Secretary of Internal Affairs so that he might write an article about Governor Stevenson is not well taken, for the simple reason, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, that it is not so much the fact it was General Eisenhower or Governor Stevenson or any other political figure. The fact remains that we are asked every two years to raise the taxes on the people of Pennsylvania. The reason we are asked to raise the taxes is because so much revenue is misspent by various department heads and elected officials.

Mr. President, this is a clear case of misappropriation of funds. These funds were never intended to be used for purely political purposes. The Secretary of Internal Affairs appeared on radio and TV stations during the campaign, and I want to confess, had I not known Secretary Livengood, I would have sworn that he was the most pious man in Pennsylvania. Had I not known a little about the man, a little about his career here on the Hill, I would have never believed that some of the things he said that day could have been true. He raved and he ranted about the misspending of Federal funds by Federal officials. He talked about mink coats and about deep-freezes, and things of that nature. I never dreamed that a man of that pious character could possible ever spend taxpayers' money the way he spends it.

Now, Mr. President, I do not want to refer to his school days; I thing many people know about his school days. I do not want to refer to his chauffeur school days and things of that nature, but I have often said that if a man lives by the sword, he will die the same way. Secretary Livengood did not hesitate to upbraid the entire Democratic Party as a group of thieves and philanderers of public trust.

Mr. President, I say to the Members of this Senate here today that he has left himself open for charges and surcharges. I did not have in front of me that day this booklet, but a few days later I had it. When I read it, I just could not understand how a man who had signed this article, at taxpayers' expense, using tax money, could stand before the television audience of western Pennsylvania and tell about the piety of Republican officeholders.

Now, Mr. President, I know that everyone in politics takes a little liberty with the public funds, and I have lived by the rule that both parties are guilty in that respect. I just say to Mr. Livengood, this is not personal, it is departmental. It is the Department of — I think you in the Republican Caucus have named it very well. You call it "Stuff and Stuff"; I call it "Sense and Nonsense." Here is a man who upbraids the Democratic Party for spending moneys for periodicals and publications for political purposes, and, at the same time, he is guilty of the very charges he is making against others.

Mr. President, I say to the Senate, this is not a resolution that can be ignored because if you ignore it over there, you put your stamp of approval upon it. The trouble that you are in today in this State—and I say that you are in trouble in this State. You are in trouble in the departments, you are in trouble over the wasteful spending of the taxpayers' money and you are in trouble for one reason only, because you have chosen to ignore, during the past four Governors' Administrations, any statements of criticism that have been made by the Minority. Maybe we in Washington, as the Democratic Party there for twenty years, chose the same course. However, if they did do that in Washington, they were wrong. If they were wrong, you are doubly wrong, because you are the ones who protested so loudly and long against the treatment of the so-called Minority charges in Washington.

We have before us much evidence, Mr. President, of so-called wrongdoing in the various departments. We are trying to clear it up piece by piece. We have not any staff of high paid investigators, such as Mr. McCarthy and the rest of his ilk have. We have to do it by searching through the record books one by one and finding these things.

Mr. President, today your Governor is in trouble with the newspapers of Pennsylvania, and yet, if you look behind the so-called "gag rule" of the Governor, you will find immediately behind it the very things we are complaining about in this resolution. As I understand the Governor's order, and I would like to read it to the Senate so that you will know what is going on, the Governor states, and this is February 16, 1953:

"To: Heads of all Administrative Departments, Independent Administrative Boards and Commissions, and other State Agencies under the Governor's jurisdiction.

From. The Governor

"Because so many people have misinterpreted my directive to you of February 9, 1953, I am clarifying that directive as follows:

"All Departmental, Board, and Commission publicity material prepared for release to the public which deals with Administration policy—and Administration policy only— shall be submitted to this office prior to release.

"All other information to which the public is entitled of the official activities of these agencies under the Governor's jurisdiction is to be released as heretofore upon the responsibility of the heads of these agencies.

"Official Departmental activities are to be given free access to the press so far as factual data is concerned.

"This step is taken to insure that the public is given information factually, correctly, and accurately."

May I inject at this point, Mr. President, that booklet, that monthly periodical, put out by the Secretary of Internal Affairs, is not accurate, is not correct and is not factual. So, the Governor was compelled to put a "gag rule" in many departments.

"This was the intent of the directive of February 9th which is hereby clarified but in no way changed and is designed solely in the interest of securing needed conformity to Administration policy.

"It places the responsibility of Administration policy upon the Governor where that responsibility rightfully and legally belongs."

Now, Mr. President, what the Governor means by "Administration policy" is his matter within his own Administration. Let us see what is born of this kind of action.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, will state his point of order.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I would like to be generous with all my colleagues, but if we are going to run this Senate in an organized and expeditious way, and according to the Rules of Parliamentary Procedure, then we must take up these things as they come.

Mr. President, I do not understand that we are on any Order of Business except a resolution. A resolution has been offered by Senator Leader, a request was made for immediate consideration, and I objected to it and told him my reasons why, which I did not have to do. I could have just objected to it generally and not said anything more. Perhaps after this that is what I will do. However, I do want to now raise the point of order that the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, is out of order in making this speech at this particular time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Mahany, has raised a point of order. The Chair must point out to the gentleman from Westmoreland, as he did when the gentleman started to speak, inasmuch as there has been an objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution, the only thing under the Rules of the Senate that the Presiding Officer can do is to refer it to committee.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his point of information.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, are we still under Original Resolutions?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. We are.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have an original resolution I would like to present, and for the information of the Senate I want to read it.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Now, will the gentleman permit the Chair to refer the resolution that Senator Leader presented?

Mr. DENT. That is why I was talking, Mr. President, because it was not yet referred, but we will take the point of order without argument because I can still handle what I want to handle anyway.

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, I would like to have unanimous consent, if Senator Dent will yield for a moment, to make a brief statement to the distinguished Majority Leader.

Mr. DENT. I yield, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from York, Mr. Leader, has requested unanimous consent to make a short statement.

Mr. LEADER. I simply want to say, Mr. President, that I believe in moderation in all things, even in making speeches. I want to say that I know this resolution did not take the Majority Leader by surprise, but if these conditions prevail, I am going to present a resolution later asking for an investigation of the expense accounts of the Secretary of Internal Affairs for the full fourteen years that he has held office.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. May the Chair now refer the resolution offered by the gentleman from York, Mr. Leader? The resolution, having been objected to under the Rules of the Senate, is referred to the Committee on Elections.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have an original resolution. Since it is so difficult to always understand what is contained in a resolution, I think it is proper that I read it.

Mr. President, this resolution was bred of a resolution that appeared in the public print, and I believe it to be of importance, and of such great importance that the people of Pennsylvania ought to be given an opportunity to know how we feel about matters of such importance.

I have here, Mr. President, prior to the reading of the resolution, the reasons for introducing this resolution, which are contained in a resolution passed by the Legislative Correspondents at Harrisburg. In their "whereas" clauses, they contain some very serious charges that I think the Members of the Senate ought to know about. I am quoting from their resolution:

"Whereas, There have been strenuous protests raised over an Executive Order calling for all but routine releases to be cleared through the Governor's office, and

"Whereas, The Governor has since advised the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association that such a policy will apply only to matters concerning administration policy on legislation, and

"Whereas, It is evident that State Officials in general now construe the Governor's order as a form of censorship, and

"Whereas, Prior to the order, the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association has for many years sought to break down various forms of censorship existent in the Executive and Legislative branches of the State Government, and

"Whereas, The Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association, the oldest organization of its type in America with the largest number of full-time correspondents assigned to any state capitol in America, believes that all restraints at all level of government in the free flow of public information must be abolished in the public interest, therefore,

"Be it Resolved, That the Governor and other independent State officials notify all departments, boards, commissions and bureaus to lift existing restraints to the free flow of public information, including the refusal to provide promptly data on pay rolls and expense accounts, contract bids and awards, use of State-owned automobiles by individuals, pension schedules, operation of State institutions, minutes of meetings of boards and commissions and new Administrative Orders, and

"Be it Further Resolved, That secret committee votes in the Legislature be abolished and that all committee chairmen announce the vote by individual members immediately following each committee meeting, and

"Be it Further Resolved, That the Governor set up regularly scheduled press conferences, preferably weekly, and that existing barriers preventing access to the Governor be removed, and

"Be it Further Resolved, That the Governor, by proclamation, call upon all local political subdivisions to remove whatever restrictions may now be in effect on the availability of public information, and

"Be it Further Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be sent to the Governor, the Presiding Officers of the Senate and House of Representatives and to the following departments, boards, commissions and agencies where the relationship with the press prior to the Governor's news clearance order, in the opinion of a majority vote at a meeting of the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association, leaves much to be desired: Banking, Commerce, Forest and Waters, General State Authority, Labor and Industry, Military Affairs, Pardon Board, Property and Supplies, Revenue, State Employees' Retirement Board, State Police, Security Commission, State Highway and Bridge Authority, Treasury, Welfare and Turnpike Commission.

"Adopted this 13th day of February, 1953, by the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association in meeting assembled."

Mr. President, pursuant to that information which for the first time has been made public by this group of newspaper correspondents, a search was made, and in this search we discovered some very interesting items that ought to be the property of the Members of the Legislature. I am not trying to be a McCarthy, so I have a difficult time trying to gather information which has a nasty nature to it. I have usually, in all my life, tried to be the type of fellow who wants to allow things to grow normally, and where I find something radically wrong, I do my little bit to try to help correct it. I do not go around maligning persons, and when I make charges on the floor of the Senate, I want you to know that I do so believing that what I am doing is in the common good.

This resolution, Mr. President, deals directly with this problem, and I am being as fair as I know how. I probably, as a Democrat, ought to upbraid the Governor and in a political sense tear the hide off him for the so-called "gag rule." However, when I started into the search, I discovered that the problem was fundamental; that it was one that the Governor had to cope with; that he had men on his payroll in important positions who have employed public relations representatives, not to represent the public but to represent the officials, not to tell the public the actions of the department in so far as routine matters are concerned or any outstanding events but to publicize the head of the department and put him in a good position to enter the race for Governor or United States Senator.

Now, the cost of that is getting out of hand, because we have discovered on the payroll, Mr. President, not only the public relations man, but we have discovered, in many instances, a public relations man's man. I understand it is getting to the point where there is a public relations man's man's man.

The point is getting to the ridiculous, and 250,000 odd dollars a year is no small item to spend to build up the Livengoods and the rest of the candidates for Governor. Now, they can run the same as the Democrats run, run without any form of build-up and try to win, and that is exactly what I believe he will do, try to win.

Mr. President, this resolution deals with a pertinent problem. I know you are going to object to it but when you do, remember the warning that I have given you time and time again, that no matter if we err, then you ought to learn by our errors.

Mr. President, I do not want to bring up the question but with respect to memorializing Congress, for the past twenty years there was not a Session when the Republicans did not have a raft of memorializing resolutions to present to the Senate and to the House of Representatives. Now, all of a sudden, we are to mind our own business. There is an old man at home who used to run a weekly paper and he always said, and it reminds me of my Daddy's advice, "I wonder whose ox is being gored."

Mr. President, I read the following resolution, presented on behalf of Senator Leader and myself:

RESOLUTION

"REFUSING TO APPROVE ANY APPROPRIATION FOR ANY DEPARTMENT UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS

"In the Senate, February 16, 1953.

"Whereas, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is being criticized in the public newspapers for the imposing of a so-called gag rule on the various departments of the Commonwealth, and

"Whereas, a search of the budget reveals that appropriations of $250 thousands of dollars is being appropriated biennially for the purpose of employing departmental public relations personnel, and

"Whereas, there is every reason to believe that said public relations personnel, although they are paid by the taxpayers of the Commonwealth, are principally used for the personal publicity of the various department supervisors, and

"Whereas, this is a flagrant misuse of public funds and demands a thorough investigation of the charges openly made, that the public relations personnel, instead of providing the facts for the public, in many instances are used as a screen to keep the regularly employed news agencies and staff representatives of the various newspapers from obtaining valid information essential to the public welfare, and

"Whereas, it is also charged in the public press that departmental public relations representatives have been used by the State Republican Campaign Committee for partisan political purposes, and

"Whereas, the first duty of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania is to work towards the proper spending of its funds to stop the raiding of the public till for personal reasons, the employ of which is contained in the feeble attempts by the various departments' public relations personnel to destroy the effectiveness of the Little Hoover Commission reports by setting up barriers against the recommendations of this Commission. The aforesaid recommendations are in possession of the State Legislature, therefore be it

"Resolved, that the Senate refuse to approve any appropriations for any department where payrolls are padded for the benefit of the personal publicity of the department heads"

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, of course it is one thing to allege and another to prove. There are certainly allegations in that resolution which I do not believe have been proved, and certainly this body is not now ready to act one way or another on allegations that have no particular basis in fact. Therefore, that is the purpose of committees, to take these resolutions, these bills, and look into their merits. If they have merits, then they refer them back to the floor where we then can have the benefit of their findings and the benefit of debate on them.

Mr. President, I think it is certainly unwise for this Senate to ever take resolutions such as this and, without any particular thought or study, take immediate action on them. As long as I am in this particular seat, not just as Floor Leader, but as Senator from the Fiftieth District of Pennsylvania, I am going to object to such hurried action on any resolution.

Mr. President, I, therefore, object to the consideration of the resolution at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the Rules of the Senate, the resolution is referred to the Committee on State Government.

INTERROGATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Senator Dent, when did you receive notice to attend an Appropriations Committee Hearing, which was held this morning? When did you receive your notice?

Mr. DENT. When did I receive a notice?

Mr. HOLLAND. Yes.

Mr. DENT. I do not know what you call a notice. I have not received any yet.

Mr. HOLLAND. You have not received any yet. That will be all, Mr. President.

INTERROGATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BARR. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, advise the Senate as to when he received a notice, if any, to attend the meeting of the Appropriations Committee this morning?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I received notice at two o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. HOLLAND. The first hearing was held when?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, this morning at ten o'clock, I believe.

Mr. HOLLAND. Thank you, Mr. President.

INTERROGATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Stiefel.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STIEFEL. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, would the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Stiefel, advise the Senate if and when he received a notice to attend a hearing of the Appropriations Committee this morning?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I received a notice upon my arrival in Harrisburg.

Mr. HOLLAND. At what time was that?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, it was at one o'clock.

Mr. HOLLAND. Thank you, Mr. Stiefel.

INTERROGATION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator DiSilvestro.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. DiSilvestro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, would the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator DiSilvestro, advise the Senate if and when he received a notice to attend a hearing of the Appropriations Committee this morning?

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, what does the gentleman mean, by mail or by hand?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, any type of notice; by mail, by air or by ear.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. What would you like me to say, Senator? Mr. President, I received a letter, along with all my other correspondence today.

Mr. HOLLAND. Thank you, I know you are telling the truth.

Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Senator Ruth.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Senator Holland, the Chair suggests that it is his studied opinion that the ground work has been laid for the introduction of the resolution.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, in other words you will accept the answers given for Senator Haluska and Senator Ruth?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair is merely suggesting. The gentleman may follow whatever course of conduct he desires.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am trying to do it according to the Rules of the Senate.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I think the interrogations I have made have cleared a point, and that is that there were hearings held by the Appropriations Committee this morning, beginning at ten-thirty, for which many Members of the Senate did not receive the notice until after the hearings were over.

Mr. President, when the Senate Appropriations Committee Chairman stated that they were going to have public hearings on the budget, and would ask the department heads to attend these meetings, we all thought that ample time would be given so that we could be prepared for these meetings. However, lo and behold, we find upon coming to Harrisburg today that not even the press knew anything about the meetings that were being held by the Appropriations Committee. I called the Chamber of Commerce and the Pennsylvania Economy League, and both of them said they did not hear, and did not read in any local paper, that hearings were being held by the Appropriations Committee today.

Mr. President, I feel that we should at least show some outward appearance of having these hearings in such a way that the public will have some faith in the type of hearings we are having. As it is now, these hearings are going to amount to nothing but a fake and a mockery. In other words, what we would like to know, we cannot get that information from the heads of the departments because we do not have the material. We should find out first, and also have the original request of the department heads to the Budget Committee. We should find out what this money is being used for, instead of in one lump. We should find out what is being paid to the different clerks and employees of the various departments. This is not being discovered in these hearings.

Mr. President, to correct this condition, I now present to the Chair, on the part of my colleague, Senator Yosko, and myself, a resolution.

RESOLUTION

URGING CHAIRMAN OF APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE TO GIVE PROPER NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS

Messrs. HOLLAND and YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 16, 1953.

Whereas, the present Session of the Legislature has been called upon to approve the largest budget in the history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which, if approved as submitted, will require about $157,000,000 in new and additional taxes, and

Whereas, because the people of the Commonwealth are already over taxburdened, it is imperative that every possible economy be effected in order to reduce budget requests of agencies of the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, to accomplish this end, it is essential that public hearings be held to make it possible to scrutinize expenditures, budget requests, as well as effect economies recommended by the Chesterman Committee, and

Whereas, the Appropriations Committee has scheduled a series of hearings without giving proper notice to the Members of the General Assembly, the Press, the Pennsylvania Economy League, the State Chamber of Commerce and other interested organizations and individuals; also sufficient time has not been allotted by said Appropriations Committee to complete a thorough examination of each agency summoned to such hearings, making it impossible for the Legislature to conduct a thorough inquiry of the administrative policies and financial affairs of the Commonwealth;

Therefore, be it resolved that the chairman of the Appropriations Committee,

(a) Schedule a series of public hearings with the agencies of the Commonwealth, which have requested appropriations for the 1953-55 biennium;

(b) Designate the time date and place of each hearing;

(c) Schedule said hearings in a manner to allow ample time for a thorough inquiry into the administrative and financial operations of each agency;

(d) Give at least one week's notice of such hearing to Members of the Legislature, the Press, the Pennsylvania Economy League, the State Chamber of Commerce, and other interested organizations and individuals in order to afford ample opportunity to prepare for such hearings;

(e) Arrange to have a public stenographer at such hearings to take testimony for reference purposes;

(f) Instruct each agency summoned to produce at such hearings a statement of receipts and expenditures by object classification, accounts receivable, accounts payable, appropriation balances, and all requisitions indicating expenditures, as well as all other financial data pertaining to the current biennium ending May 31, 1953; also a statement by object classification indicating budget requests for the 1953-55 biennium, together with such recommendations for economies as the heads of agencies desire to submit.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I object to the immediate consideration of this resolution.

I was under the impression and understanding, Mr. President, that these matters were entirely within the hands of the committee, and it certainly is not within our province to tell them that they should have public hearings or should not have public hearings. I understand that public hearings are being held. I received my notice in the regular course of the mail last week, regarding the hearing this morning, and I attended the meeting. I also noticed that a couple members of the press were in attendance at this particular hearing.

Mr. President, I would suggest, however, if it is within my province, that the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, if he is going to have public hearings, see that these people have proper notice so that they will be sure to be there.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Crawford, Senator Mahany, having objected to the immediate consideration of the resolution, under the Rules of the Senate the resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have inquired from some of my Republican colleagues, and I understand that they did receive notice through the mail regarding these hearings. I think that probably is one of the most high-handed things that has been pulled in the Senate in my thirteen years on this floor.

Mr. President, no one on the Democratic side was notified by mail of these hearings. I am greatly interested in two of these departments which had hearings this morning, the Public Utility Commission and the Department of Justice. There was certain pertinent information that I wanted. I did not want this information for myself, but for the people of the city of Pittsburgh whom I represent.

Mr. President, I resent the fact that the Republicans received notice of this meeting and the Democrats did not. I think that if the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee wishes to be fair, he will have the hearings over again.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I would like to speak on the resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair would like to point out to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, that the resolution is not before the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am not going to speak on the resolution, but I would like to clear up one statement made by the Majority Leader. The members of the press, who were at the meeting, appeared after I went down and asked them if they had been invited, and they said "no."

HOUSE MESSAGE

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE SAFETY MEASURES ON THE PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE

In the Senate, February 9, 1953.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Turnpike is world famous as the greatest toll highway ever constructed; and

Whereas, It has brought to our Commonwealth an ever increasing flow of tourists from all the states of the union and serves as a working model for future highway development; and

Whereas, Much information and misinformation has appeared from time to time, concerning its safety factor for vehicular traffic; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of five Senators to act jointly with a similar committee of five House members to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the said committee be empowered to investigate the subject of Turnpike safeguards and safety regulations; and

Be It Further Resolved, That this committee shall make a report of their findings and recommendations to the General Assembly as soon as possible.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The President pro tempore of the Senate has requested the Chair to announce the appointment of the following Senate Committee, under the provisions of the resolution entitled "Joint Committee to Investigate Safety Measures on the Pennsylvania Turnpike":

The gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare, Chairman; the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Snowden; the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Pechan; the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wagner; and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KEPHART read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 160, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Moore Institute of Art, Science and Industry, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 161, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare to reimburse State-aided hospitals and the Philadelphia General Hospital for part of the cost of training student nurses in approved schools of nursing.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON asked and obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the nominations read by the Clerk.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr.
KESSLER, that the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the nominations reported at today's session.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. WATSON and Mr. Mc-PHERSON, JR., that the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bucks, Senator Watson.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Watson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATSON. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Bucks, Senator Watson, inform me as to the length of time he is going to hold up the Athletic Commission?

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, that is entirely up to the Democratic Minority.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I will go along with that as long as it is a reasonable time. I believe that one week is time enough.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, vizz:

YEAS—48

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 5, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L.
814) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the second class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, election officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors; and imposing penalties," by further providing for the composition of the registration commission; imposing duties on the county commissioners and ending the terms of the present commissioners.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 7, entitled:

An Act to amend Sections 3 and 4 of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1440) entitled "An act concerning notaries public and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," by requiring notaries to be qualified electors.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. FLEMING offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out "and 4"; amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 4, by striking out the word
"are" and inserting in lieu thereof "is"; amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 3), page 2, lines 7 and 8 by striking out "a qualified elector of the county wherein he seeks appointment"; amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 3), page 2, line 13, by inserting after the word "appointment" the following: "and is a registered elector"; amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 4), page 2, lines 14 to 19, both inclusive by striking out all of said lines; amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 4), page 3, lines 1 to 5, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. FLEMING offered the following amendment:

Amend Title, Page 1, line 1 of Title, by striking out "Sections 3 and 4" and inserting in lieu thereof "Section 3"

It was agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 7, on second reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 8, entitled:

An Act authorizing contact representatives of Veterans Administration hospitals to take affidavits and acknowledgements of persons undergoing treatment therein; and providing for the effect thereof.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 12, entitled:

An Act relating to certain commercial transactions in or regarding personal property and contracts and other documents concerning them, including sales, commercial paper, bank deposits and collections, documentary letters of credit, bulk transfers, warehouse receipts, bills of lading, other documents of title, investment securities, and secured transactions, including certain sales of accounts, chattel paper, and contract rights; providing for public notice to third parties in certain circumstances; regulating procedure, evidence and damages in certain court actions involving such transactions, contracts or documents, and to make uniform the law with respect thereto.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 16, entitled:

An Act to amend Sections 31 and 32 of the act, approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred sixty (P. L. 427), entitled "An act to Consolidate, Revise and Amend the Laws of this Commonwealth relating to Penal Proceedings and Pleadings," by permitting the trial of cases of involuntary manslaughter in quarter sessions courts.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 18, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 3 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2045), entitled as amended "An act relating to the support of indigent persons providing for the support of such persons by certain relatives and for the recovery of public moneys expended for care and assistance from the property and estates of certain persons providing for guardians of the person and property of such persons providing for the arrest and seizure and sale of the property of deserters and providing procedures" by providing that the petition for support in certain cases shall be prepared by the executive director of the assistance board of the county where the relative liable and financially able to support resides imposing duty on district attorneys to file such petitions and further modifying such procedure.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate one of the sponsors of this bill, either Senator Mallery or Senator Stevenson.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, in looking over the amendment Senator Mallery has inserted in this piece of legislation, I wonder if he would explain the contents of the same for the Members of the Minority Party, just what it actually does.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, the purpose of this bill is to facilitate and expedite the payment of public assistance to indigents who are rightfully entitled to public assistance. The bill applies to the relatives liable for support, who live in counties other than the county where the indigent applying for assistance resides. I think that is the gist of the bill, sir.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, may I further interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Senator Mallery?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mallery, I notice that you more or less grant continuing jurisdiction in this amendment here, and you place considerable authority with the Executive Directors of the County Boards of Assistance in the various counties, whereby they have the authority to file a petition with the district attorney's office and proceed along that particular angle.

Senator Mallery, just what is the purpose of conferring this authority upon the Executive Directors of the County Boards of Assistance?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, it is my understanding that the directors now have that authority.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I am inclined to disagree with the gentleman from Blair, Senator Mallery.

Mr. President, I think it is in the amendment, but may I further interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, would the Senator be kind enough to let this bill go over in order temporarily and perhaps we could get together and talk over this amendment?

Mr. MALLERY. Gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Senator Mallery.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, while we are thinking about further amendments, I would like to ask whether this bill, as it now appears, only applies to people within the Commonwealth. We have cases where liable persons, liable for support, reside in other States. What about that liability?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, it applies only to relatives liable for support, or who may be liable for support, who live in the Commonwealth.

Mr. HALUSKA. Don't you think, Senator Mallery, while you are making a new amendment, that the bill should apply to those relatives who live in adjacent States?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I welcome any amendment to this bill that will improve it. I do not know whether that could be done, but possibly it could. If Senator Haluska could come up with an amendment that would bring into the act relatives outside of the State, it would then be a matter that we could pass upon.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would be glad to assist because I have had some experience along those lines and if the committee is willing, I should be glad to offer my suggestions.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 18, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 27, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 1 of the act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 476) entitled as amended "An act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged and collected by the recorder of deeds in counties of the second class" by further increasing regulating and changing such fees.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BARR offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 1, page 7, line 13, by striking out the words "one dollars ($1.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof "twenty dollars ($20.00)"

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 27, on second reading, go over in its order, as amended.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 44, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 of the Act approved the fourteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two, (Appropriation Acts 70), entitled, "An act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn, in the County of Delaware, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and prescribing certain conditions upon which the appropriation will be available to the school," by increasing the per capita annual maintenance rate of wards of the Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Watkins.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Watkins, has just been called to the telephone on an important conversation.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, inasmuch as the sponsor of the bill is not on the floor, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 44, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 52, entitled:

An Act to amend clause XV of section 1202 of the act, approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," by further defining the powers of boroughs with regard to garbage, rubbish, sludge and other waste treatment and disposal, acting separately or jointly with other political subdivisions.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 88, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 1742), entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a State tax relating to certain documents; prescribing and regulating the method and manner of evidencing the payment of such tax; conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain persons, partnerships, associations, and corporations, recorders of deeds, and the Department of Revenue; saving certain local taxes and authorizing amendments, extensions and supplements to the ordinances and resolutions relating thereto; and providing penalties," by exempting certain documents from said tax, fixing the value of certain land for tax purposes, exempting persons accepting any document from payment of the tax, changing effect of failure to pay the tax, and affix stamps, and validating certain documents to which insufficient stamps have been affixed.

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Indiana, Senator Peelor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Peelor, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PEELOR. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SILVERT. Senator Peelor, I have read the amendments which your act proposes to the Real Estate Transfer Tax and I, personally, can see no objection to the amendments which you propose. However, I would like to ask you to have the bill go over for this reason. I know that in Philadelphia, ever since the passage of this Real Estate Transfer Tax, there has been a great deal of confusion as to who is to pay this tax. Sometimes the seller pays it, and other times the buyer pays it and other times it results in a great deal of argument and confusion, etc.

I believe, apparently, that this act was not sufficiently clear as to who was to pay this one per cent real estate tax.

Mr. PEELOR. For your information, Senator Silvert, it is definitely fixed in that bill that the tax is payable now by the grantor.

Mr. SILVERT. Senator Peelor, is that in your present amendment?

Mr. PEELOR. That is in the bill. It also fixes the matter of conveyance from heirs to one of the other heirs and their spouse. It takes care of the matter of the placing of tax on agreements, fixing February 1, 1952, I believe.

Mr. President, there is also a validating clause in there. There is also a clause where deeds made to institutions, hospitals, etc., that they are not taxable. As I said before, there is a validating act and the penalty is changed where the title is not disrupted by failure to put on stamps. We changed the penalty so that there is a monetary penalty; I believe it is twice the stamps that should have been put on in the first instance.

We tried to take care of the various cases, including the cases that went to the upper courts and those appealed from the Attorney General, etc.

Senator Silvert, this bill has been in the hands of several people. I have no objection, however, to the bill going over in its order.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I should appreciate that.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 88, on second reading, go over in order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 112, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 1 of the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 226), entitled "An act to establish and regulate the fees to be received and charged by the prothonotary of the courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth, in counties having over eight hundred thousand, and less than one million five hundred thousand, inhabitants, according to the last preceding United States census," by changing and further fixing the fees to be charged by the prothonotary.

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BARR offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 2, line 3, page 19, by striking out after the word "effective" the following: "on the first day of September one thousand nine hundred fifty-three," and inserting in lieu thereof after the said word "effective" the following: "immediately upon final enactment."

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 112, on second reading, Go over in its order, as amended.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the first reading of the bill reported from committee for the first time at today's session.

Mr. McCUSKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 91, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 5 of the act, approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1198), entitled "An act providing for the conservation and improvement of land affected in connection with the mining of bituminous coal by the open pit mining method; regulating such mining and providing penalties," by further regulating backfilling and operation reports.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, last Tuesday I had made a part of the record all of the releases issued by the Chesterman Committee or the State Government Survey Committee. Since last Tuesday, another report has been issued. This is Release No. 21 and in my opinion it is one of the most important, if not the most important, releases that has been issued thus far. It deals with and discusses the hodgepodge accounting system we have here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I might say at this time that if the Accountant General Bill, which was introduced by Senators Diehm and Probert at the last Session of the Legislature, and which was discussed fully on this floor of the Senate, had been enacted into law, the criticisms outlined in this report would not have been possible.

Mr. President, inasmuch as I made the other reports a part of the record, it is my opinion that this report, because of its importance, should also be made a part of the record. I shall, therefore, make the same request which I made last Tuesday and ask that it be made a part of the record without reading it.

Mr. President, if there is no objection, I request that Release No. 21, issued by the State Government Survey Committee on Accounting, be made a part of the record of today's proceedings.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Northampton, Senator Yosko, requests that Release No. 21 be made a part of the record in conformity with the action taken by the Senate last week. The Chair hears no objection. The gentleman will submit the report to be made a part of the record.

"Release No. 21

"Accounting

"The State Government Survey Committee today put forth what was described as a pivotal recommendation and 'key' to the whole problem of increasing governmental efficiency—establishment of a sound, modern system of accounting for State funds.

"To implement such a program the Survey Committee, headed by Francis J. Chesterman, of Philadelphia, proposed the creation of a central accounting department to be headed by a qualified Accountant General.

"It is the considered judgment of the Survey Committee," Chairman Chesterman declared in a statement underlining the urgency of the proposal, "that of all the recommendations resulting from the Committee's manifold studies this is one of the most important.

"The common weakness of the various accounting systems now in use by the State, is the fact that they are designed to show only cash receipts and disbursements. They do not distinguish between expenditures for operations and expenditures for permanent improvements. They do not include proper accounting for non-cash assets nor for obligations incurred but unpaid. They do not relate the measure of "benefits derived" to the "cost of producing" these benefits for comparable fiscal periods.

"Consequently it is virtually impossible to obtain an accurate picture of the financial condition of the Commonwealth, and the Governor, the Legislature, and the people are deprived of adequate means by which to manage, to control, and to judge the cost or effectiveness of the conduct of the State's affairs."

"The Survey Committee, which is seeking means of achieving greater efficiency in the operation of the state government at the request of Governor John S. Fine, based its recommendations on a survey of accounting practices made by a volunteer 'task force' composed of members of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

"Members of the task force were Robert W. Williams, of Philadelphia, chairman; Harold C. Stott, Clarence L. Turner, Sydney V. Young, I. T. Krekstein, Thomas M. O'Neill, Samuel W. Price and Harry H. Steinmeier.

"There have been many arguments reported in the public press about the existence of a so-called "surplus" or "deficit," the Committee recalled, and the annals of each succeeding session of the Legislature are replete with conflicting assertions regarding financial matters which result in controversy and public distrust.

"Such confusion results from the absence of proper accounting and financial reporting. A designated surplus may actually be a cash balance without regard to existing obligations. Payment of these obligations may transform a so-called surplus to a deficit because the obligations exceed the cash available."

"The Budget Office, the Committee noted, 'holds that it has all the necessary data for adequate financial reports and that these reports are always available.'

"While the Budget Office does have many reports,' it was added, 'they are inadequate in the accounting sense for the simple reason that the rigid cash-basis of record-keeping does not provide the full facts.'

"Another factor contributing to the inadequacy of the state's accounting procedure, the Committee asserted, is the 'overlapping of authority in the fiscal administration of the state's affairs.'

"The Auditor General has statutory pre-adult responsibility which is strictly an executive function and not an auditing function,' it was explained. 'The Treasurer is also charged with responsibility for the accounting functions surrounding the receipt and disbursement of funds.'

"The Governor has full authority over the State's accounting except as he is required by law to consult with the Auditor General and except as certain accounting matters are charged to the Treasurer.

"The Budget Secretary as a representative of the Governor endeavors to exercise the delegated powers of the Governor over accounting methods. This we believe is basically wrong because budgeting, although based on accounting, is not in itself accounting and the two should not be confused."

"To overcome such difficulties, the Survey Committee proposed:

"1. That the present cash-basis of accounting be modified to conform with sound modern governmental practice, and that the proposed Accountant General be given authority to establish a system in all bookkeeping and financial reporting functions of the State, including those of all State officers and all departments, boards, agencies and commissions.

"2. That the Accountant General be given authority over all accounting matters with the exception of post-auditing and audit reports.

"3. That present statutes be revised to relieve the Auditor General of all pre-audit functions inasmuch as these functions are an essential part of administrative accounting. The Auditor General should continue post-auditing and performance review functions as at present, and should continue to be completely independent of the administration to permit him to be exclusively an auditor and financial critic.

"4. That the office of the Budget Secretary be reconstituted as exclusively that of financial advisor to the Governor on budget matters—the Budget Secretary to rely on data statistics furnished by the Accountant General without maintaining duplicate bookkeeping records, accounts or controls.

"5. That the Accountant General be made responsible for authorizing the payment of monies out of any fund of the State and for certifying the approval to the State Treasurer for payment. In the event of the Accountant General's disapproval, the item in question should be returned to its source, with the right of appeal to the Governor.

"The complete reorganization of accounting practices along the suggested lines, the Committee observed, would have to be completed step by step.

"If a qualified person were to be appointed by or before June 1, 1953,' it was observed, 'it would be reasonable to expect that he will obtain control of all phases of the state's accounting by December 31, 1954, and produce relatively complete and reliable statements of the results of operations for the biennium ending May 31, 1955.'

"The cost of setting up and operating the new accounting system the Committee predicted, 'would be considerably less than the ultimate savings to be realized in elimination of present inefficiencies.'

"The difficulties of endeavoring to estimate the costs and benefits of such a broad program are obvious,' it was pointed out, 'not only because of the lack of any real source of cost data at present, but because of the fact that the availability of complete and accurate cost and financial data can be expected to make possible self-accelerating improvements and economies of great significance. In this latter development alone there lies the probability of vast economies in operating costs.'

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, February 17, 1953, at 12:00 o'clock m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 6:23 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Tuesday, February 17, 1953, at 12:00 o'clock m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, February 16, 1953

The House met at 4:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Charles C. Smith) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Rev. Robert Knechel, guest Chaplain, Pastor of the Church of the Brethren, Gettysburg, and President of the Gettysburg Ministerium Association, guest of the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, offered the following prayer:

Almighty Sovereign of Life—as the Creator of All Thou hast deigned to give unto man superior wisdom and understanding. Grant, we beseech Thee, that these servants of Thy people may clearly see the issues of our age, may intelligently provide the laws which shall govern our Commonwealth, and may they stand courageously opposed to all issues that shall mar the happiness and security of Thy family. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

JOURNALS OF FEBRUARY 9 AND 10 APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Monday and Tuesday, February 9 and 10, 1953? If not, and without objection, the Journals are approved.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. BAZIN, LEVIN, GLICK, GRANVILLE E. JONES, HAGGARD, PETTIGREW, Mrs. VARALLO, Mrs. COYLE, Mrs. MONROE, and Mr. PAUL F. JONES, (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 12.

In the House of Representatives, February 10, 1953.

Whereas, The Governor has named a committee to investigate the recent riots among prisoners at the Western State and Rockview Penitentiaries, and

Whereas, Among the prisoners in said institutions are colored persons, and

Whereas, Any investigation to be complete should include the viewpoint of colored prisoners as to the causes giving rise to the riots, and

Whereas, The colored viewpoint could be more readily understood were the said committee to have added thereto two forthright colored members, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby urge the Governor to name two forthright colored members to his committee for the investigation of the riots at Western State and Rockview Penitentiaries.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. VAUGHN, (Concurred) RESOLUTION No. 13.

In the House of Representatives, February 10, 1953.

Whereas, The Red Cross has made requests for additional blood to save the lives of our soldiers and sailors; and

Whereas, Pennsylvania being one of the greatest states in these United States having a population of over ten million citizens should set an example in this worthy purpose; and

Whereas, The members of the General Assembly and every elected official and every employe of this great Commonwealth should join the army of blood donors; and

Whereas, Upon the giving of blood by as many citizens of Pennsylvania as is possible the same should be used as the basis of an appeal by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to every other state and every possession of the United States and every officer and employe of the United States, to join with Pennsylvania in this great undertaking; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a legislative committee is hereby created, consisting of three members of the House of Representatives, appointed by the Speaker, and two members of the Senate, appointed by the President Pro Tempore, whose duty it shall be to meet with the Director of the Harrisburg Red Cross Blood Bank and arrange for the giving to it of blood by the members of the General Assembly, all elected State officers and all the employes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and thereafter to make appeals to all the other states and the possessions of the United States and all United States officers and employes, to continue a nation-wide giving of blood so as to prove to the boys on the Korean Front they do not stand alone.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. GUTENDORF.

RESOLUTION No. 14.

In the House of Representatives, February 10, 1953.

Whereas, Medical science, notably as a result of long-sustained and of factual studies at Yale and Johns Hopkins universities and at many clinics both in the United States and elsewhere, has established the existence of the disease of alcoholism as separate and distinct from social indulgence on the one hand and drunkenness on the other, and

Whereas, The American Medical Association, the Pennsylvania Medical Association and the medical societies in many Pennsylvania counties, notably those of Lackawanna, Philadelphia, Allegheny and Erie, have concurred in the clinical findings and definitely declare that alcoholism is an allergy that threatens even with the first indulgence of intoxicants, and

Whereas, Medical scientists of the United States and Canada, meeting in annual Congress at Pocono Manor in the last week of May, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two, honored Governor John S. Fine as the first chief executive of an American state to discuss the tragedy of alcoholism in its relation to public welfare, and

Whereas, The Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Committee on Alcoholism set up by that department also concur in the medical findings, and

Whereas, It is revealed that alcoholism has been shrouded in false modesty and secrecy by those who otherwise protect its victims who, by estimate, may be as many as a million in our Commonwealth, and

Whereas, His Governor of this Commonwealth, on the advice of his Secretary of Health, has proposed establishment of clinics for the study of the disease of alcoholism in Scranton, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives herewith extends to a lay authority on the effects of this illness, upon the welfare of our people, an invitation to address this House at a time convenient to our members and to the lay authority, Mrs. Marty Mann, Executive Director of the National Committee on Alcoholism, Inc., Academy of Medicine, New York, and who recently returned from a mission organized under government auspices in British possessions in Africa where conditions of alcoholism are officially reported to resemble in many phases the ravages of the ailment in our own Nation and Commonwealth; and that Mrs. Marty Mann be afforded a period of forty-five minutes to acquaint this House with her knowledge and experience in combating what medical scientists believe to be an expanding evil partly supported by legal distribution of alcoholic beverages under a monopoly store system from which our Commonwealth receives annually about one hundred million dollars of citizen expenditures, with vast profit to our State government.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

GASOLINE TAX

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, February 10, 1953.

Whereas, An excise tax on gasoline, which form of taxation is the rightful prerogative of the several states, is presently being levied by both the United States of America and the several states, and

Whereas, From time to time the United States has changed its rate of taxation on this commodity which action makes it increasingly difficult for the respective states to develop a comprehensive tax program to provide revenues for the improvement and maintenance of their highways, therefore, be it

Resolved, If the House of Representatives concurs, that the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of United States to enact such legislation as will:

(1) Return to each state without restriction all Federal taxes on gasoline collected therein until such time as the individual state is able to enact legislation as may be necessary to permit it to collect such tax;

(2) Eliminate the tax on gasoline now collected by the United States as soon as the individual states have enacted legislation as may be necessary to permit the state to collect the tax;

(3) Eliminate Federal Aid for Highways except in those states where the revenues produced by a tax of two cents per gallon of gasoline is less than present Federal Aid Allocations to such states;

(4) Change the present functions of the Federal Bureau of Public Roads so that it would become a consultive and advisory engineering agency which would collect, correlate and disseminate information relative to the design, construction, maintenance and operation of highways and bridges and the materials used therefor, and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be directed to forward copies of this resolution upon its passage to the President of the United States, the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Chief Clerk of United States House of Representatives, to all members of the Pennsylvania Congressional Delegation, to the Governors of all other states, and to the presiding officers of the legislative bodies of all other states.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION

IOWA GENERAL ASSEMBLY—HOUSE RESOLUTION 3.

The SPEAKER laid before the House, House Resolution 3 of the Iowa General Assembly memorializing Congress to give serious consideration to the question of eliminating the Federal gasoline tax and leaving that area of taxation entirely to the states.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House a former Member from Luzerne County, Honorable Stanley J. Nowak.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By consent of the House leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. Brown for Mr. LEISEY because of illness.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 47, entitled

An Act authorizing fiduciaries to receive compensation from trust principal before the end of their service and before the end of their trusts and providing for allowances of compensation to fiduciaries out of trust income or trust principal or both either during the continuance or at the end of their trusts.

And said bill having been read at length the first time.

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 111, entitled

An Act to continue the imposition of the tax on gross premiums, premium deposits and assessments received from business transacted within this Commonwealth by foreign insurance companies, associations and exchanges.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on first reading?

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, this bill has been the occasion of some comment with regard to the sponsorship as recorded on the Calendar. This bill was framed at the request of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Ewing, who spent considerable effort to make certain that the measure would be constitutional; would be a workable measure.

This bill was endorsed in the Democratic party platform and the Republican party platform. Two members of our Policy Committee were commissioned to see to it that a bill along the lines of the bill drawn by Mr. Ewing was introduced.

Now, it so happens, Mr. Speaker, as pure coincidence, I am quite certain, that at the very moment the bill which our Members at the request of the Policy Committee had requested the Legislative Reference Bureau to draw, at that very moment there was a request for an immediate meeting of the Ways and Means Committee. For some reason the firemen, the beneficiaries of this measure, had proceeded to besiege the Chairman of the Committee with an insistence that, notwithstanding the absence of the sponsor, this bill be rushed out upon the floor.

Now it so happens that some of our Members on this side thought they saw some sort of a plot. We were pledged as a party to introduce a measure of this kind, and here was a committee reporting a bill along the same lines, and we had not even introduced our bill.

I have been here long enough to know that things like that can happen, and so I am responsible for the fact that since things had happened the way they did, that the two Members on this side who had been requested to prepare and introduce this bill and who were ready to introduce it at the very moment the committee met to report another bill,—I asked that they be included as sponsors. It was purely as a result of my request that they were put on, and I thought in view of the way the cards had fallen that some consideration should be given to the fact that a bill had been reported from committee at almost the minute that another bill from the Minority party had been received from the Legislative Reference Bureau. It was somewhat irregular that this bill should have been rushed out of committee in the absence of the sponsor, and I can appreciate his feeling that without seeing him two Members had been added to his bill. But I assure him it was all in kindness—that we appreciate the fact that he has been so considerate and that he has not jumped down our throats for having made the request.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. EWING asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the only thing that I can add right now is that Mr. Andrews and his sub-salesmen were the best salesmen on the floor of the House at that particular moment.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the bill on first reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read for the first time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 37, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to sell and convey a tract of land situate in the Township of North Union, Fayette County, Pennsylvania, with the approval of the Governor.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection House Bill No. 1, Printer's No. 8, was passed over at the request of Mr. JOHNSON.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. KENT from the Committee on Rules reported as committed Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 110, and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The Senate message and resolution were read by the Clerk as follows:

SENATE MESSAGES

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE SAFETY MEASURES ON THE PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, February 9, 1953.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Turnpike is world famous as the greatest toll highway ever constructed; and

Whereas, It has brought to our Commonwealth an ever increasing flow of tourists from all the states of the union and serves as a working model for future highway development; and

Whereas, Much information and misinformation has appeared from time to time, concerning its safety factor for vehicular traffic; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of five Senators to act jointly with a similar committee of five House members to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the said committee be empowered to investigate the subject of Turnpike safeguards and safety regulations; and

Be It Further Resolved, That this committee shall make a report of their findings and recommendations to the General Assembly as soon as possible.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REPORT OF JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION CONCERNING PENNSYLVANIA'S AGED

Mr. WEIDNER presented the following communication and report from the Joint State Government Commission.

The communication was read by the Clerk as follows:

February 16, 1953.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

On behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, I have the honor to transmit herewith A Report of the Joint State Government Commission, Session of 1953, Concerning Pennsylvania's Aged.

Copies of this report for distribution to the members of the House of Representatives have been delivered to the office of the Chief Clerk of the House.

Respectfully submitted,

BAKER ROYER,
Chairman

BR:lrw

(For Report see Appendix.)

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I perhaps rise to defend in part a policy initiated by His Excellency the Governor with which I am in complete agreement. For a great many sessions we have been befuddled and bedeviled by reason of the fact that various bureaus and departments appeared under various guises and proxies with what they proclaimed as administration measures. Very frequently these administration measures represented simply the effort upon the part of a particular bureau chief, a particular bureau employe to pass a bill that would increase the emoluments of that bureau or extend the range of its operations.

If there is one principle in our government which would seem to be very well established it is that members of the cabinet, whether they are members of the President's cabinet or members of the Governor's cabinet, are responsible to their creator, and that they have no right, and are not in any way justified, in becoming blabber mouths as far as administration policies are concerned.

And when Governor Fine informed the members of his cabinet—if he has so informed the members of his cabinet—that they are expected to confer with him concerning administration policies, I am in complete agreement with him, the editors in this Commonwealth to the contrary notwithstanding.

Perhaps indirectly I am responsible in a slight way for some of the Governor's rulings insofar as his publicity policy is concerned, because at the last session and at the beginning of this session I told him that I was heartily tired, and I believed the Members of this House were getting tired, of having bureau employes spend almost their entire time during a protracted legislative session campaigning for particular bills of primary interest to themselves.

I told the Governor that it would please me greatly if he would tell bureau employes that when the House Committees desire to hear from them they would send for them. And insofar as that phase of His Excellency's program is concerned I am in complete accord.

The only fault that I have to find, the major fault, with the Truman administration was that it had no way of channeling administration policies. There were too many people in the public service at Washington that did entirely too much talking, pretending they were talking for the administration and they were talking only for themselves.

I am in agreement with the members of the newspaper profession. I believe that any member of the press has a right to request information on payrolls, expense accounts, bids and awards on contracts, pension payments, use of state-owned cars, minutes of meetings of boards and commissions, new administrative orders, state institution operations; that they have a right to request information concerning any matter that is a matter of public record; that no matters that are of public record should be concealed by any bureau or department if specific requests are made by a member of the press for permission to inspect the record to ascertain the facts.

In the past there had been too many transactions filed apparently under the heading of "confidential" and "top secret." There should not be any such thing as top secret or confidential files relating to business that has been concluded in our sphere of operations here at Harrisburg.

So while on the one hand I am in agreement with the policy proclaimed by His Excellency, the Governor, I am also in agreement with the members of the press that they have a right to obtain specific information.

I say that in my opinion the directive issued by His Excellency, the Governor, has been misinterpreted, that it has been misrepresented. I do not believe he had any intention of suppressing any type of information and I do believe that he was telling the members of his cabinet that he wanted matters about administration policies cleared through his office. And I stand firmly with him in that principle.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. JOHNSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, last week when Governor Fine was out west making a speech the storm broke, shall I say, in regard to his directive with respect to press releases. Today he planned on having a press conference, but I understand he was unable to be in the Capitol because of illness.

I think the Minority Leader has very, very clearly expressed to us here today just about what the Governor would have told the representatives of the press this morning.

I have here in my possession a statement, however, which Governor Fine issued this afternoon and I will quickly read this for the benefit of the membership.

Governor Fine said this afternoon:

Because so many people have misinterpreted my directive to you of February 9, 1953, I am clarifying that directive as follows:

All Departmental, Board, and Commission publicity material prepared for release to the public which deals with Administration policy—and Administration policy only—shall be submitted to this office prior to release.

All other information to which the public is entitled of the official activities of these agencies under the Governor's jurisdiction is to be released as heretofore upon the responsibility of the heads of these agencies.

Official Departmental activities are to be given free access to the press so far as factual data is concerned.

That practically is in line with what the Minority Leader has said about the various activities of these departments—that public information should be given freely to the press.

This step is taken to insure that the public is given information factually, correctly, and accurately.

This was the intent of the directive of February 9th which is hereby clarified but in no way changed and is designed solely in the interest of securing needed conformity to Administration policy.

It places the responsibility of Administration policy upon the Governor where that responsibility rightfully and legally belongs.

This directive will be released to the newspapers this afternoon.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. SCHMIDT asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

Mr. MUSTO asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. ZIEGLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

Mr. NEEDHAM asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO INTERROGATE

Mr. BRETH asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Chairman of the Game Committee.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to interrogate the Chairman of the Game Committee, Mr. Goodling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Goodling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GOODLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, sometime ago I questioned the Chairman of the Game Commission on a certain item in the Budget of $400,000 by the Game Commission which appeared to be an indication that they intended to have two more antlerless deer seasons. At that time I interrogated Mr. Goodling and I requested him to find out, if possible, from the Game Commission if such was their intention. I would like to ask Mr. Goodling if he has any information for the House.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Breth, upon returning to my home after the interrogation, I dug up this news release of January 19, 1953. I want to read two or three lines for his information.

"Season dates and bag limits will definitely be settled at July meeting of the committee. At that time the game authorities will know the spring and early breeding results and will be guided by other pertinent factors in making their decision. Population and food supply studies will be made by the Commission before any decision is made as to the 1953 antlerless deer season."

In addition to that I personally contacted the president of the commission and he authorized me to say that up until this time the Game Commission has taken absolutely no stand on an antlerless deer season for 1953.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, did the Game Commission inform the Chairman of the Game Committee at what date the hunters in the state would be informed as to whether or not there would be an antlerless deer season this year and next year?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, in July.

Mr. BRETH. In July?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I might add for your information that in the July meeting individuals are invited in to discuss this matter with the Commission. I personally have had an invitation to appear there on several occasions. On several occasions I have appeared with the Commission when seasons and bag limits were discussed.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, in case such a season were declared, would there be still time, in the mind of the Chairman of the Game Committee, to introduce legislation to prevent it?

Mr. GOODLING. I hope not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to clarify a few things concerning the situation. First of all, I do not know whether it is generally known, but I understand you have hunted deer quite a number of years. How long have you hunted deer, Mr. Goodling?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, approximately thirty years.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, and in what section of the state?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, since 1932 I have been hunting in the Elk-Cameron County sections.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, and you have a camp up there?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I do.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, hunting from a camp then, you should know something about the deer population, at least around the vicinity of your camp. I would like to know whether or not, in your opinion, the number of deer generally last year was less than it was the year before?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, in the particular section in which I hunt, I would say, yes.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, in your opinion was it very much less?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, either I am slipping as a hunter or the deer herd is greatly reduced. It has been greatly reduced in that particular section.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, you would say then that the deer herd has been reduced over say the past four years rather to a great extent?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, that is correct. I am only speaking for the section in which I have hunted.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, in your opinion as a camp hunter and as a deer hunter of thirty years standing, do you believe the deer herd in your vicinity will stand an all-out antlerless deer season this year and next year?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, will you repeat that question again?

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether or not in your personal opinion the deer herd in the vicinity or the territory where you hunt, as the result of your thirty years hunting, you believe that the deer herd in that vicinity could stand an all-out antlerless deer season this year and next year?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I would say in my opinion in that particular section I believe we have sufficient food to take care of the deer herd we have at the present time.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, without further reduction?
Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, without further reduction.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, is there anything that you would care to add to my interrogation at the present time?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I can only assure you and the gentleman from Clearfield County that in the very near future I expect to take some people who are supposed to know the deer situation into that particular section and we personally are going to make a rather thorough inspection of the entire section in which I hunt. I hope to be able to give you a specific answer to that question at a later date.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman very much.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRETH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, from the information given us by the Chairman of the Games Committee, who is a long time deer hunter, I am of the opinion that if we wait until July to have a decision made on whether or not the deer herd should be slaughtered again in the next year, this Fall or for the next two years, I am afraid that the deer would suffer greatly and be knocked so low that it could hardly come back quickly.

Therefore, I want to inform the gentleman from York, Mr. Goodling, that rather than wait, I am going to introduce legislation to restrict the Game Commission to not more than one antlerless deer season every third year.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEE ROOMS

Mr. ERB offered a resolution from the Committee on

Rooms and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 16, 1953.

Resolved That the House standing committee rooms designated for the Session of 1951, be the same for the Session of 1953.

RAY W. GREENWOOD, Chairman
DANIEL H. ERB
PRESTON A. FROST

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am introducing a resolution purely as an individual. It is not in any sense a declaration of party policy.

Members of this General Assembly have encountered great difficulty in getting an approach to the ticklish subject of reapportioning the Legislative Districts of the Commonwealth. Party leaders have been unable to tackle the problem without stepping on somebody's feet. Party leaders have generally been inclined, when they attempt to reapportion the Commonwealth, to take advantage of the party position and so far as possible, murder the opposition. We should have some way of bringing before this House for its consideration a reapportionment program emanating from sources responsible, capable and impartial and non-political.

Therefore, I am offering a concurrent resolution which would create a commission whose business it would be to present to the General Assembly a detailed program prescribing explicitly a plan for reapportioning the Legislative Districts of our Commonwealth.

RESOLUTION

Mr. THOMPSON offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. GIBSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to resolution to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. JOHNSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I want to say in regard to the resolution that has just been offered by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, we have a Reapportionment Committee in this House. They also have one in the Senate. Mr. Weidner is the Chairman of the Committee in the House. I understand he is working hard on the matter of getting data to bring before the Committee on Reapportionment in this House so that they can get together and prepare a bill which will reapportion the Legislative Districts.

I am looking for him to bring out a House Bill which will apportion the Legislative Districts. Then there will be a bill in the Senate which will apportion the Senatorial Districts. Mr. Weidner is working on this diligently, and in due course of time a bill will be submitted to the Committee for consideration.

PERMISSION TO INTERROGATE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate the Majority Leader.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHNSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, first of all would the Majority Leader state the intention of the Majority group with regard to FEPC legislation.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I take it the gentleman is changing the subject.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, We will refer to that later on.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, the FEPC is an administration bill. I now have the bill in my possession. It was not offered last week because one of the prospective sponsors was not here. The sponsor is here today and I expect to offer the bill tomorrow with the sponsors on our side.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a further interrogation.

Would the Majority Leader care to state to the House the position of the Majority party on legislation dealing with the Constitutional Convention?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, there is a bill on the Calendar at the present time which provides for a Constitutional Convention. It provides for appointment by the Governor and also appointment by the Speaker and by the President pro tempore of the Senate. I received a letter from the Attorney-General to the effect that the bill was unconstitutional in its present form. We are trying to have amendments prepared to the bill which will meet the objections, and it will then be ready to come to a vote in the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is it the intention of the Majority Leader to offer the amendments tomorrow?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I cannot say whether the amendments will be prepared tomorrow. Some people would like to discuss the amendments with me before they are offered and I have said, yes, I would hold the bill over until next week. I am sorry I did not get a chance to discuss it with the Minority today because of the length of our caucus. Certain people would like to discuss the amendments further with me before they are offered.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, how soon, in the opinion of the Majority Leader, will it be possible for him to discuss the proposed amendments with the Members of the Minority?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I would say I would like to defer any discussion until next week, if possible.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, very good. Very good.

Now as to Legislative reapportionment—you are preparing a bill. Whether it contemplates mayhem, murder and other political crimes I would not know until I saw the bill.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, is that a question?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, no, I am not interrogating the Majority Leader; I am informing him. And I can see no objection to the proposal that skilled non-partisan minds be permitted to play upon this problem. Any report that a commission might create would be submitted to this body and turned over to the proper committee for study. What the gentleman is saying to the people of Pennsylvania is that this reapportionment problem can be solved in perhaps a politically minded committee. What we need in Pennsylvania and have needed for years is not a Democratic reapportionment. Give me the power to reapportion and I could murder you. Give you the power to reapportion and you could murder the Minority.

We want a fair, square, non-political commission insofar as it is humanly possible in a political atmosphere. We want that kind of a reapportionment bill and there is no reason why a non-partisan commission could not perhaps make some suggestions that would be worthy of the attention, even of a committee of this House.

SENATE

TUESDAY, February 17, 1953.

The Senate met at 12:00 o'clock m., Eastern Standard Time.

By Appointment of the PRESIDENT and PRESIDENT pro tempore:

The PRESIDING OFFICER (John M. Walker) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. JOHN C. MOORE, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Coudersport, offered the following prayer:

Lift our eyes, we beseech Thee, O God, to wide horizons, that we may see farther, for a horizon is only the limit of our sight. Cleanse our eyes that we may see Thee more clearly. If we must be trained in this hard school we call the world, help us to do our best to remake it, fashioned to Thy plan.

Help us to live worthily of our destiny that those who have gone before us may not see us fall. Prepare us for this day in Thy power, our ever living and ever loving God, for Thy Name's sake, Amen.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDING OFFICER

The PRESIDING OFFICER. At this time, for the purpose of the record, the Chair would like to advise the gentlemen of the Senate that the Presiding Officer was requested to preside by the absent Lieutenant-Governor and by the President pro tempore of the Senate.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. KESSLER, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. BERGER asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. HARE, due to illness.

He also asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. WADE, due to pressing business.

STUDENTS OF YORK SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED TO SENATE

The PRESIDING OFFICER. At this time, on behalf of Senator McPherson of Adams County, the Chair is pleased to welcome to the Senate a group of students from York Springs High School, Adams County.

Will the members of that group please stand and take a bow?

Senator McPherson has asked us to extend to you his greetings, and we hope that you will at least get something constructive from this Session of the Senate.

HOUSE MESSAGES

REPORT FROM THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION CONCERNING PENNSYLVANIA'S AGED

Mr. DIEHM asked and obtained unanimous consent to submit a report on behalf of the Joint State Government Commission.

Mr. DIEHM, on behalf of the Joint State Government Commission, submitted the following report which was read by the Clerk as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION
of the General Assembly
P. O. Box 61
Room 450 — Capitol Building
Harrisburg

February 16, 1953.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

On behalf of the Joint State Government Commission I have the honor to transmit herewith A Report of the Joint State Government Commission, Session of 1953, Concerning Pennsylvania's Aged.

Copies of this report for distribution to the members of the Senate have been delivered to the office of the President pro tempore of the Senate.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Baker Royer

BAKER ROYER, Chairman

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The communication will be spread upon the Journal, and the report will be printed in full in the Appendix.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, today, more than ever, we must build up a faith in our form of government. Men in public office must be above the taint of suspicion. Their public life must be open to careful scrutiny and above reproach. To hold public office must be considered a great honor, and public trust must be kept sacred.

Over the years Members of the Legislature, not only in Pennsylvania but in every State, have been subject to suspicion. Many stories have been written how, by means of hidden payrolls, certain legislation has been forced through the Legislature of many States, and today the public has lost faith in their elected officers.

Mr. President, I firmly believe that many of the accusations are without foundation. We, ourselves, laugh a lot of it off, but we have to stop this approach and study what we can do to bring back the Founding Fathers' faith in the great Country we have. No country in the world has been so endowed with the blessings of God as has America.

Mr. President, we have different climates in our East, West, North and South that insure us abundant crops so that starvation can never reach our land as crop failures have reached other lands. We are blessed with navigable rivers. Our hills and mountains contain the minerals and ores that have made us a great manufacturing nation. We are blessed with oil, gas and coal that are used to manufacture our ores and minerals into finished products. All of these insure for our Country a "greatness," but they do not give our country a "soul" or a "faith". The pursuit of financial gain, wealth and power, in most cases, overshadows ideals and the part that America must play in a world tottering on the abyss of crime, perscution, corruption and, yes, oblivion.

Mr. President, we must build a government free from suspicion. We must at all times by our acts show our sincerity of purpose, free from taint of personal gain. We must consider the welfare of the whole population, and not just that of any special interest or class. To achieve this, every act must be "out in the open". We must keep the lights burning in our capitol twenty-four hours a day. We must take the public into our confidence.

We must inform them of our personal interests and, above all, the public should know the source of our incomes.

Mr. President, we of the General Assembly must have another income on which to live, as unfortunately, the income of a Legislator is not self-sustaining. However, the public should know the source of this other income or incomes. In the Senate, there are 8 insurance agents; 4 real estate operators; 4 farmers; an owner of a trucking corporation; a steelworker; a mayor; an accountant; an owner of a bus corporation; 3 county commissioners; a doctor; a dentist; a pharmacist; a clergyman; a garage owner; 3 salesmen; a personnel manager of a large corporation, whose president is very active in legislative matters; a public relations man for a Teachers' Association; a public relations representative for a labor union; and 15 attorneys-at-law.

Therefore, Mr. President, I believe the time has come when to regain the confidence of the people, every man elected to office bares his financial dealings to the public. I do not think that any Member of this Senate should hesitate to give an accounting of his source of income. This does not require that the attorneys give a list of every individual he serves, but he must give a list of the business interests he represents.

Mr. President, I hope this Senate shall act quickly on this bill.

It is something that is long needed in legislative halls.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. HOLLAND, DENT, LANE, HALUSKA and LEADER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 178, entitled:

An Act reuiring members of the General Assembly to file financial statements at certain times and making the failure to file or the filing of false or incomplete statements the subject of impeachment.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to suggest to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland, that I am a co-sponsor of that bill, but I also would suggest to him that he should prepare legislation to compel the various groups or individuals, who make the charges against public officials, to also divulge their sources of income. They, too, should bring to the public view the source of the revenue that they spend in order to malign the public officials.

Mr. President, we have a group at home called "Operations Crusade," that, from all indications, has spent at least $60,000 in their almost successful effort to unseat me as a Senator. Although they are all men and women who plead poverty, they seem to have sufficient funds to print the most scurrilous, slanderous and libelous literature ever published in a campaign in Westmoreland County's history. I have tried to have the Secretary of the Commonwealth apply whatever law is effective in that particular instance, but I am told that they are not a political organization and, therefore, do not come under the election laws. Now, every effort that they have made, every speech that has been undertaken, every piece of literature that has been printed, has been printed entirely in an effort to control the politics of Westmoreland County, and yet, Mr. President, they are not, by the description contained in the election laws, considered a political organization. They are certainly not a civic organization either.

I am wondering, Mr. President, if the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Holland, would be so kind as to prepare legislation regarding these maligners of public officials, these self-centered perpetrators of political frauds, who are more interested in defeating men for public office than they are in building the strength of this Union.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. McGINNIS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am a great admirer of Senator Holland. He is ninety-nine per cent right, I think, in everything he does here. He is the most enthusiastic Legislator in this Senate. However, Mr. President, he is so enthusiastic that sometimes he oversteps. I am amazed that an Irishman would introduce a bill such as the bill he just introduced.

Mr. President, I was taught from the time I was a child, by my father, who came from Ireland, to abhor informers. An informer is the most despised person in Ireland. Here in the Senate, let us not get in that frame of mind, to become informers.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. May I respectfully say to the Members of the Senate that we are now debating a bill which is still in the Judiciary General Committee.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am a little worried, maybe, about my dear friend, for whom I have a lot of respect, too, the "old war horse of the Democratic Party," Senator McGinnis.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman strike out the word "old"?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, may I put in the word "war horse"?

Mr. President, I am a little surprised that, by any stretch of the imagination, this bill is an informer's bill. I know a little bit about Ireland, too. I can go a little bit further than Senator McGinnis. The "Sein Feins" have a rallying song which is sung about my great, great uncle, who is an ancestor of my mother. The song is, "All hail to Patrick Kelaghan, who was hung by the English for teaching Gaelic in the bogs of Ireland."

Mr. President, I think I know a little bit about informers. Now, there is nothing in this bill about an informer, because it is asking us, you as a lawyer and me as a public relations man and other men who are in other businesses, to give the source of our income. No one is asked to inform upon you; you are on your own honor.

I think you are an honorable man, Senator McGinnis, and you would not hesitate to tell your constituents in the North Side Yards what your source of income is, and what interests you represent. I do not think you have anything to hide and, therefore, have nothing to fear.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. KEPHART read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate bill No. 179, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Berean Manual Training School at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of the maintenance of said school.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 180, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the University of Pennsylvania Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 181, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Health for use in research and demonstration work dealing with the improvement of nutritional status of civilians, with special reference to children and family groups, as well as of industrial workers and others.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to inform Senator Dent that, being Secretary of the Democratic Party, I am very familiar with the Election Code. It is up to the Secretary of the Commonwealth to enforce the Election Code.

Mr. President, if this "Operations Crusade," which he referred to and which spent $60,000 has not filed an expense account and divulged where they received their money, then the Secretary of the Commonwealth is amiss in performing his duty. If he does not step in on this situation within the next couple of weeks, I will introduce a resolution requesting him to enforce the Election Code of the Commonwealth.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. I am sure Senator Dent appreciates the recommendation of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HALUSKA, from the Committee on Banking, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 53, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause (4) of subsection A of section 1001 of the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 624), entitled, as amended, "An act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers, and of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of National banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers, and employees' mutual banking associations; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers and employees' mutual banking associations, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employees of all such corporations, employees' mutual banking associations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," by further regulating the making of instalment loans.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WATSON, from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations, made by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were laid on the table:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF INDIANA STATE TEACHER'S COLLEGE

Joseph H. Sheriff, Windber, from April 23, 1952, until the third Tuesday of January, 1955, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

JOHN S. FINE.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, January 6, 1953.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBERS OF INTERSTATE COMMISSION ON THE POTOMAC RIVER BASIN FOR THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. LANE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 182, entitled:

An Act to add Section 8 to Article II of the act, approved the ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 756), entitled "An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the bituminous coal-mines of Pennsylvania, and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith," by making unlawful the removal of surface support in certain cases and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 183, entitled:

An Act requiring the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to appropriate moneys for assistance to political subdivisions and municipal authorities in the acquisition, construction and improvement of airports and other aeronautical facilities.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Messrs. LANE, BARR and HOLLAND read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 184, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1168), entitled "An act to protect the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively; creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board, officers of the State government, and courts; providing for the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively; declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair; further providing that representatives of a majority of the employes be the exclusive representatives of all the employes; authorizing the board to conduct hearings and elections, and certify as to representatives of employes for purposes of collective bargaining; empowering the board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice, and providing a procedure for such cases, including the issuance of a complaint, the conducting of a hearing, and the making of an order; empowering the board to petition a court of common pleas for the enforcement of its order, and providing a procedure for such cases; providing for the review of an order of the board by a court of common pleas on petition of any person aggrieved by such order, and establishing a procedure for such cases; providing for an appeal from the common pleas court to the Supreme Court; providing the board with investigatory powers, including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court; providing for service of papers and process of the board; prescribing certain penalties," by further defining, declaring and limiting unfair labor practices by employers and employees; making further provision for designation and selection of representatives for the purpose of collective bargaining; changing the practice before the Labor Relations Board and limiting its powers in certain cases.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Messrs. HALUSKA, MAHANY and PECHAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 185, entitled:

An Act providing for and regulating the licensing and practice of practical nursing and imposing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the resolution which I am about to present suggests a procedure in connection with the confirmation of major appointments of the Governor.

I, for one, Mr. President, just do not like the idea of one side or the other side being accused of delays in confirming the Governor's appointments. Neither do I like the idea of individuals here in the Senate being accused along the same lines.

The procedure suggested in this resolution, Mr. President, I do not want to be construed as a reflection on my distinguished colleague, Senator Watson. However, I think if we adopt this procedure on confirmations, we can expedite their disposal. If this resolution is adopted, within a week's time, that is from the time the recommendation is referred to the Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations, the confirmation would be disposed of.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

RECOMMENDING PLAN TO EXPEDITE GOVERNOR'S CABINET APPOINTMENTS

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 17, 1953.

Resolved that in order to expedite the Governor's Cabinet Appointments, as well as other major appointments, the following procedure is hereby adopted:

- (1) Immediately upon receipt by the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Executive Nominations of cabinet appointments and/or other major appointments from the Governor, the said Chairman shall set a time, date and place for the appointee, or appointees, to appear in person for such interrogation as any member of the Senate may deem necessary.
- (2) That the date for such hearing shall not be less than five days and not more than one week from the date of receipt of said nominations from the Governor's Office by the Chairman of the Committee on Nominations.
- (3) That said time, date and place, shall be made known to all of the members of the Senate, the appointee and the press, by the Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations not later than the day following the designation of the said time, date and place.

- (4) That on the day following the appearance of the appointee, the Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations shall submit the name of the appointee, or appointees, before the Senate as a whole for final consideration and vote.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I think this resolution needs the study of the proper committee and, therefore, I oppose its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtain unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I have another resolution, and I desire to make a statement before I present it.

Mr. President, this resolution has to do with the report submitted to us last week by the committee known as the Pennsylvania Water Resources Committee, and it is related to the INCODEL Plan. I think in the last Session of the Legislature, a resolution was adopted authorizing the Governor to appoint a committee to look into the INCODEL Plan, and the water situation generally. For that purpose there was $350,000 appropriated to finance the activities of the committee. I read that report. I am personally interested because it is down in my district, at least to some extent.

The city of Bethlehem, Mr. President, spent millions of dollars to build dams in the area where this committee has recommended that Pennsylvania get its water, instead of joining with the INCODEL Plan. I, for one, want to know how it is going to affect that investment of the city of Bethlehem. I want to know, too, and I am sure other Members of the Senate want to know, how this $350,000 was spent. I checked yesterday and I found that the balance in the appropriation was $116,907.59. Just what commitments there are against that sum have not been determined. I have, however, made a request for any commitments that might be against it, so that we could determine finally the amount that was spent of the $350,000 appropriated.

I want to know, too, Mr. President, whether there is any collusion involved in the preparation of this report. I note from the appointment of the committee that the solicitor for the committee, who happens to be William A. Schnader, of Philadelphia, is also the solicitor for the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, which is involved indirectly, although not named, in the committee's recommendation as a substitute plan for the INCODEL Plan. I want to know what influence he might have exerted on this committee to have them file this report instead of participating in the INCODEL Plan.

I would like to know, too, Mr. President, and I am sure the Members of this Senate would like to know, what influence was exerted by one of the engineering firms that are serving on this committee. I understand that one of the engineering firms is also the engineering firm for the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company.

I would like to see and examine, Mr. President, and I am sure some of you here, most of you in the Senate, would like to examine the engineer's report which, I am assuming, was used as a basis for the committee's report that was submitted to us. I understand requests for this report have been made, but they were told that it was not available. We should have that report, because I understand that if the recommendations of this committee are followed, an authority will be set up and, without a doubt, the property rights of the Lehigh Valley Coal and Navigation Company will be purchased, and they say it runs into somewhere around $300,000,000 and that is a lot of money.

Mr. President, when I mention that fact, I wonder, too, whether this report that was submitted to us last week was not made available to somebody in advance, and as a result might have had some effect on the stock market, because the stock of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, all of a sudden, went up three or four points at just about this time.

Mr. President, I do not know how many of the Members of the Senate here know that away back, as far as 1771, this Legislature conveyed some, or most, of the property that the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company would like to sell to somebody, including the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The same thing applies to the water rights. I do not know whether the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company paid anything to the Commonwealth when that conveyance was made by statute, but I do know that if the Commonwealth goes for this plan, it is going to cost us somewhere in the neighborhood, and this is only an estimate from what I read, of $300,000,000.

I read the report of this committee, Mr. President, and, frankly, I was a little bit amazed. It did not have one good thing to say about the INCODEL Plan; everything was criticism. The INCODEL Plan could not be that bad, because I do not believe that the Pennsylvania representatives who served on that committee are the type of people who would submit a plan to us as bad as this committee painted it to be. Weldon Heyburn, for instance, who served as the Majority Leader of this Senate, was on that committee; Senator Watson is on that committee; Mr. Pitkin is on that committee; the present Speaker of the House, Mr. Smith, was on that committee; and a former Speaker of the House, Mr. Lichtenwalter was on that INCODEL Committee. I do not believe that they would recommend to this Legislature that we participate in a plan where we would be the loser.

Mr. President, this committee which submitted this report is attempting to convey the fact that New Jersey, Delaware and New York are ganging up against us, and that if we participate in that plan we are going to get the short end of it.

I am not saying, Mr. President, that we should participate in INCODEL, because, frankly, I am not too familiar with it, but I am a little bit suspicious of this plan that was submitted to us as a substitute, because of all of the circumstances and facts surrounding it.

I do know this, Mr. President, that the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company has been attempting to sell this plan to the city of Philadelphia over a period of years.

I have advertisements that were put in the Philadelphia papers, January 23, 1946, February 8, 1946, March 15, 1946. They tried to sell this plan back in the days when Wilson was the Mayor, when Samuel was the Mayor. It has been gone into and it has been rejected, and yet this committee recommends that we take it. This committee recommends, further, that we become isolationists in so far as the water supply is concerned.

I ask you, Mr. President, to consider one important factor here. Let us assume that we did adopt the plan that was submitted by this committee, and then the estimates of some of the engineers were to the effect that the water supply would not be sufficient in the years to come, twenty, thirty, forty years to come. Where would we go for our water? Would we have to crawl on our knees to the States of New York, New Jersey and Delaware, whom I understand will go ahead with the INCODEL Plan, or do without water? These are important factors which we should look into before this report or any legislation on the subject is adopted.

They recommend, Mr. President, that we set up an authority. Authorities have us in the hole now to the extent of about $700,000,000, and the Lord only knows how much higher that is going to go. Should we obligate ourselves here with another authority and spend a lot of additional money for administrative costs, floating bond issues and all that sort of thing over a long period of years?

Mr. President, these are all things which we should weigh, but the merits of the whole plan, INCODEL and this, can only be weighed and determined at a public hearing where all of the interested parties would be given a chance to be heard. I certainly hope that this resolution will be adopted, and that we will have the hearing so that all interested parties, as I said before, can come before us and give us their views.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

PUBLIC HEARING TO EXAMINE INCODEL PLAN

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, February 17, 1953.

Whereas, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, appointed what is known as the Pennsylvania Water Resources Committee to:

1. To examine the Incodel Plan for the purpose of determining whether Pennsylvania, under its terms, would be in a more favorable position than it now occupies under the decree of the Supreme Court of the United States relating to the use of the waters of the Delaware River by the states of New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania.

2. If the committee concluded that Pennsylvania ought to become a party to the Incodel Compact, to determine whether the proposed Incodel Plan or any modification of it would adequately protect Pennsylvania's interests.

3. To make a preliminary study of the unused water supply resources of Pennsylvania for the purpose of determining to what extent southeastern Pennsylvania is dependent for its water supply upon the continued use of the waters of the Delaware River; and to make a preliminary study as to our water supply to enable you to recommend any legislation dealing with the entire subject of the conservation of Pennsylvania's invaluable water supply resources.

And Whereas, this committee prepared and filed a report with the Governor, a copy of which was made available to the Members of the Senate;

And Whereas, this report recommended among other things that Pennsylvania should not participate in the Incodel Plan involving the States of New Jersey, New York, Delaware and Pennsylvania;

And Whereas, although the committee filed a report it did not submit the engineer's report, upon which it apparently based its findings and recommendations;

And Whereas, an appropriation of $350,000.00 was made by the Legislature to finance the activities of said committee; as of February 16; the balance in said appropriation was $116,909.59; Commitments against this sum were not available to determine the total spent from the $350,000.00 appropriation;

And Whereas, because of the importance of the question involved and further because the recommendations outlined in the Committee's Report are questionable, legislative inquiry into the whole subject is advisable;

Therefore, be it resolved that (a) A public hearing be held in the Senate Caucus Room at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, within 10 days of this date for the purpose of making inquiry generally into the problem involved, as well as to go into all phases of the committee's report and its activities; (b) That all parties involved be given notice of said hearing; (c) That an itemized statement of expenditures from the $350,000.00 appropriation be submitted to the Senate Appropriations Committee at least three days prior to the date of the public hearing; (d) That the engineer's reports of its activities, findings, surveys and recommendations be submitted to the members of the Senate at least three days prior to the said hearing.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on State Government.

SENIOR CLASS OF DOVER HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, I would like to call to the attention of the Chair a very fine group of students from Dover High School; in fact, it is the Senior Class. They are accompanied here by one of their teachers, Mrs. Virginia Kunkel, and their Supervising Principal, Mr. Henry Miller.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair is very pleased to welcome the students from the Dover High School, and asks that they please stand and take a bow.
